SEC. 26.4 Person producing processed foods in place other than a "kitchen" may get permission to treat them as home processed foods—(a) A person may produce processed foods in a place not used principally for the preparation of meals or for demonstrating such preparation (and hence not a kitchen as defined in section 26.1 (a) (2)). Yet the facilities he uses may not differ substantially from those ordinarily found in a "kitchen", and may clearly not be commercial-scale processing facilities. For example, a farmer may have a kitchen in his home, where the meals for his household are prepared, and separate facilities elsewhere on his premises, perhaps in a shed, consisting of a stove, and a steamer or pressure cooker. A person who has such a place and facilities may apply to his board in writing for permission to treat the processed foods produced there as "home processed foods". He shall describe the facilities he intends to use, the purposes for which those facilities are ordinarily used, the total amount of processed foods he expects to produce there, and the disposition to be made of such processed foods.

(b) If the board finds that the facilities to be used are clearly not commercial-scale processing facilities and do not differ substantially from those ordinarily found in a kitchen, it shall notify the applicant that the foods so produced may be treated as home-processed foods. The applicant may then use and transfer them as permitted by sections 26.2 and 26.3 of this order.

SEC. 26.5 Person may have foods grown by members of his family unit processed by a processor for household consumption—(a) He may acquire such foods point-free. A person may "acquire" from a processor, point-free, processed foods produced for him (including foods frozen for him) from foods which he or members of his family unit have grown, if he supplies all the ingredients in an amount necessary to produce such foods. Not more than one hundred (100) quarts of such processed foods per member may be acquired by or for any family unit under this section in any calendar year. He may acquire such processed foods point-free only if he gives to the processor a signed statement that the foods to be processed were grown by a member of his family unit, together with the names of each member of his family unit. The processor shall retain this statement for one year.

(b) He may consume such foods and give away limited amounts. He may consume such foods, and let the members of his family unit, and others who eat at his table or on a farm he operates, consume them, without giving up points. He and the members of his family unit may give (but not sell) such foods to any other person without receiving points, but not more than fifty (50) quarts of such foods per members may be given away point-free in any calendar year by the family unit.

(c) He may sell only for points, and must surrender points he gets to the board. He may not sell or transfer any of such foods (except for those he is permitted to give away point-free by the last paragraph) unless he gets points equal to the point value of the foods so transferred. He must also get points for any gifts made in excess of the amount permitted by the last paragraph. (Such foods are not home processed foods, and they may be transferred only at their regular point value, as fixed by Revised Supplement No. 1 to this order, rather than at the point value of home processed foods.) For this purpose, he need not register as a processor or make reports, but must keep a record of any transfer he makes, showing the amount and date of the transfer, and the name and address of the person to whom the transfer is made. If he makes any transfers for points during any month, he must give up the points to his board on or before the tenth day of the next month.

SEC. 26.6 Consumer groups may acquire and use processed foods they produce in commercial scale processing facilities—(a) Member of group may acquire his share of processed foods produced. In some cases, a group of persons may be permitted by the owner or operator of commercial-scale processing facilities to use such facilities after business hours, or during the off-season. Each member of a group which produces processed foods in such facilities primarily for consumption in their households or on farms they operate, may acquire his share of the foods so produced point-free, and without the limitation as to amount established by section 26.5 of this order, but only if:

(1) He "produces" his share of such processed foods (he "produces" such share if he participates in the production by doing any of the things described in section 26.1 (a) (1) of this order); and

(2) Neither the person who owns or who normally operates the facilities used, nor an employee of this person, does any of the processing; and

(3) The members of the group have used the same facilities for the same purpose in the past, or if they have not, they use such facilities only to process fruits or vegetables grown by a member of the group, or by a member of his family unit.

(b) Member of group may apply to board. Any member of a group which wishes so to produce processed foods in commercial-scale processing facilities may make application to his board in writing on behalf of the group, stating:

(1) The name and address of each member of the group; and

(2) The facts which bring the group under paragraph (a); and

(3) The total amount of processed foods to be produced; and

(4) The disposition to be made of the foods produced.

(c) Board may approve application. If the board finds that the group and its members meet all the requirements of paragraph (a) of this section, it shall approve the application.

(d) Member may acquire and consume his share point-free and give away limited amounts. Upon receipt of approval of the application from the board, each member of the group may acquire his share of the processed foods produced by the group point-free, and may consume it, and let the members of his family unit, and others who eat at his table or on a farm he operates, consume it, without giving up points. He and the members of his family unit may give (but not sell) his share to any other person, but no more than fifty (50) quarts of such foods per member may be given away point-free by the family unit in any calendar year. Processed foods produced pursuant to this paragraph are not home processed foods. A member of a group who sells or transfers any part of his share of such foods (except for the amount he is permitted to give away point-free by this paragraph) is considered a processor as to that part. He must register and file the reports required by section 3.2 of this order. He may make such transfers only in exchange for points equal to the regular point value of the processed foods transferred, as fixed by Revised Supplement No. 1 to this order, rather than at the point value of home processed foods.

SEC. 26.7 Certain community groups may apply to Washington Office for an exception—(a) In certain instances, as in the case of some religious groups or sects, communities carry on their activities and produce and distribute foods among their members on a cooperative basis. In such cases, certain members of the community may produce processed foods from fruits and vegetables grown by members, while others produce other types of foods. The various types of foods produced may then be interchanged, but many members of the community who get the processed foods may not have been members of the group which produced them and so may not meet the requirements of this Article. If, in such case, the processed foods are produced exclusively for consumption by members of the community, the group may apply to the Director of the Food Rationing Division, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., for an exception permitting distribution of such processed foods to any members of the community. The application must be in writing, in any form, and must show the manner in which the community operates, the type of facilities used for processing, the source of the foods processed, the amount of processed foods produced, and the class of persons by whom they are produced and to whom they are to be distributed.

(b) The Director of the Food Rationing Division will act on the application according to the circumstances of the case and may, in his discretion, permit distribution of the foods among the members of the community in such manner and under such conditions as he establishes.

SEC. 26.8 Group II and III institutional users may use and transfer processed foods they produce as provided in General Ration Order 5. This Article does not apply to the production of processed foods for use in, or to the use of processed foods in, Group II or III "institutional user establishments." The production, use, and transfer by Group II or III "institutional users" of home processed foods and of other processed foods they produce, are governed by General Ration Order 5.

(i) Maximum prices for fruits and vegetables in Group I. The packer's maximum price per dozen containers, or other unit, f. o. b. shipping point, shall be his maximum price for the 1942 pack for the same variety, style, grade and container size of the same item, plus 20% of the 1942 raw material cost per dozen or other unit as required to be computed by Maximum Price Regulation No. 207.[1]

(ii) Maximum prices for fruits and vegetables in Group II. The packer's maximum price per dozen containers, or other unit, f. o. b. shipping point shall be computed by the packer by adjusting his maximum price per dozen, or other unit f. o. b. shipping point for the 1942 pack of the same variety, style, grade and container as follows:

Deduct the total 1942 raw material cost per dozen containers or other unit as required to be computed by Maximum Price Regulation No. 207, and

Add to the figure so obtained the total raw material cost per dozen containers or other unit determined by dividing the applicable support price of the War Food Administration for the area where the factory is located by the number of dozens of containers or other units obtained per ton of raw material as required to be computed by Maximum Price Regulation No. 207.

(iii) Maximum prices for mixed fruits and vegetables. (Group III). (a) The packer's maximum price per dozen containers, or other unit f. o. b. shipping point for sales other than to government procurement agencies, shall be his maximum price for the same item of the 1942 pack, adjusted for the difference in raw material cost, to be computed as provided herein. The difference in cost shall be separately computed for each item in the combination, as follows:

(1) For raw materials in Group I, increase the raw material cost for such vegetables required to be used in computing maximum prices for the 1942 pack, by 20%.

(2) For raw material in Group II, deduct the raw material cost for such material required to be used in computing maximum prices for the 1942 pack and add the 1942 raw material cost for such materials, obtained by dividing the applicable support price of the War Food Administration for the area in which the packer's factory is located by the dozen container or other unit yield per ton required to be used in computing the 1942 maximum price.

(3) For raw vegetable cost of corn, peas and snap beans used in the item, deduct the raw vegetable cost for such vegetables required to be used in computing the maximum prices for the 1942 pack, and add the 1943 raw vegetable cost for such vegetables, obtained by dividing the resale price of the Commodity Credit Corporation for the area in which the packer's factory is located by the dozen container or other unit yield per ton required to be used in computing the 1942 maximum prices.

(b) The maximum prices per dozen containers or other unit f. o. b. shipping point, for sales to government procurement agencies shall be the maximum prices as determined above under this Section, except that for any item containing corn, peas or snap beans, the packer shall add the amount of the difference between the Commodity Credit Corporation's purchase price and resale price per ton of such raw vegetable for the area where the factory is located, divided by the dozen container or other unit yield per ton required to be used in computing the 1942 maximum prices.

7. In section 2 a new sentence is added to the first undesignated paragraph following the list, to read as follows: Such reduction must be shown on the packer's invoice as an allowance to the purchaser on the selling price.

§ 11.213 Depositions before naval tribunals; procedure. (a) The method of procedure in order to obtain a deposition is as follows: The party, prosecutor or defendant, desiring the deposition submits to the court a list of interrogatories to be propounded to the absent witness; then the opposite party, after he has been allowed a reasonable time for this purpose, prepares and submits a list of cross-interrogatories. After the court has assented to the interrogatories and cross-interrogatories thus submitted, it adds such as, in its judgment, may be necessary to elucidate the whole subject of the testimony to be given by the witness. Depositions may also be taken before the assembling of the court by mutual agreement between the judge advocate and the accused (counsel), subject to objections when read in court. This officer will cause the duplicate subpoena to be served personally upon the witness and return the original, with indorsement that the duplicate has been delivered, to the judge advocate. A civilian witness who attends to give his deposition is entitled to the same fees and expenses as if he had attended personally before the court, and a proper account with the required data should be furnished. (Sec. 12, 35 Stat. 622; 34 U.S.C. 1200, art. 42)

(c) If the deposition of a person in the service is required, a summons will not be inclosed with the interrogatories, but the officer before whom the deposition is to be taken, or the officer who causes it to be taken, shall direct the witness to appear at the proper time and place. (Sec. 16, 35 Stat. 622; 34 U.S.C. 1200, art. 68)

(d) If the witness is in a foreign country his testimony or written interrogatories may be taken by a consular officer of the United States, as provided by the Act of June 20, 1936. (Sec. 3, 49 Stat. 1562; 28 U.S.C. 695b)

§ 11.238 Testimony of husband and wife. The rule for naval courts martial is summarized:

(a) Wife or husband of an accused may testify on behalf of the accused without restriction, but when so testifying shall be subject to cross-examination in the same manner as an accused testifying at his own request.

(c) Wife or husband of any person may not testify to confidential communications of the other, unless the other give consent.

(The last two rules are rules of privilege, and are more fully considered in §§ 11.261, 11.265.)

§ 11.240 Testimony of medical officers and civilian physicians. It is the duty of medical officers to attend officers and men when sick, to make the annual physical examination of officers, and examine applicants for enlistment, and they may be specially directed to observe an officer or man or specially to examine or attend him; such observations, examinations, or attendance would be official and the information acquired would be official. While the ethics of the medical profession forbid doctors divulging to unauthorized persons the information thus obtained and the statements thus made to them, such information and statements do not possess the character of privileged communications. If a medical officer, when called as a witness before a court martial, refuses to testify to such matters, he is subject to punishment under the forty-second article (sec. 12, 35 Stat. 622; 34 U.S.C. 1200) for the Government of the Navy or to court martial. Neither is there any privilege between a civilian physician and a patient.

§ 11.241 Testimony of children. The admissibility of testimony of children is not regulated by their age, but by their apparent sense and understanding. The court may, in its discretion, receive the testimony of any child, regardless of age, and give it such weight as it may appear to deserve; provided, only that in the opinion of the court the child understands the moral importance of telling the truth, for which purpose the court may examine the child.

§ 11.244 Persons amenable to service as witnesses. All persons are amenable to the service of process to appear as witnesses. One who has disobeyed a subpoena or a summons can show as a defense to a proceeding to punish for contempt that it was impossible for him to appear, or that by reason of illness or otherwise his life would have been endangered; but no duty, except of the most imperative kind, nor any business engagement, is a valid excuse for failure to attend. (Sec. 12, 35 Stat. 622; 34 U.S.C. 1200, art. 42)

§ 11.245 Summoning witnesses. (a) The judge advocate shall summon as witnesses persons whose testimony is necessary to a trial, whether for the prosecution or the defense; but shall not, except as hereinafter provided, summon any witness at the expense of the United States.

(b) The written instrument that serves to summon a witness who is in the naval or military service is termed a summons; a witness who is not in the service, a subpoena. (Sec. 12, 35 Stat. 622; 34 U.S.C. 1200, art. 42)

§ 11.247 Summoning civilian witnesses. (a) The power with which a naval general court martial and a court of inquiry is vested to compel witnesses to appear and testify is conferred upon such courts by the 42nd Article for the Government of the Navy (sec. 12, 35 Stat. 622; 34 U.S.C. 1200). A naval court martial has the power to subpoena witnesses, and such subpoenas run throughout the United States. However, article 42 (c), Articles for the Government of the Navy, provides for the punishment of any person who wilfully neglects to obey the subpoena, but limits this power so that it shall not apply to persons residing beyond the State, Territory, or District in which such naval court is held. The word "District" applies to the District of Columbia only.

(b) From the foregoing it will be seen that a subpoena issued by a naval court to compel the attendance of witnesses will run throughout the United States, but that the penalties provided in article 42 (c), do not attach where the person resides beyond the State.

(c) To illustrate, a general court martial at the Navy Yard, New York, N. Y., has the power to compel the attendance of civilian witnesses who reside within the State of New York; and should such witnesses wilfully neglect or refuse to appear they may be proceeded against and prosecuted in the manner provided in article 42 (c) mentioned in paragraph (a) of this section. However, should the naval court desire the attendance of a witness who resides in the State of New Jersey it can not compel his attendance, but should such witness be willing to appear to testify, he may lawfully be paid his fees and mileage. (See § 11.248.) (Sec. 12, 35 Stat. 622; 34 U.S.C. 1200, art. 42)

§ 11.248 Authority of judge advocate in summoning civilian witnesses. (a) The judge advocate is authorized to subpoena as a witness any civilian who is to be a material witness as to facts, and who is within the State, Territory, or District in which a naval court sits and can compel attendance.

(b) The judge advocate is not authorized to subpoena as a witness, at the expense of the United States, any civilian who is not within the territorial limits in which the court can compel attendance, even though such witness be considered a material one and be willing to attend. In such cases the judge advocate shall forward the subpoena to the Secretary of the Navy, together with the information, and in the manner required when forwarding a summons for a naval witness who is not present at the station where the court martial is convened. (Sec. 12, 35 Stat. 622; 34 U.S.C. 1200, art. 42)

§ 11.253 Service of subpoena. (a) Unless he has reason to believe that a formal service of subpoena will be required, the judge advocate will endeavor to secure the attendance of a civilian witness by correspondence with him, sending him duplicate subpoenas properly filled out, with a request to accept service on one by signing the printed statement, "I hereby accept service of the above subpoena", and to return it to the judge advocate, for which purpose a return address penalty envelope should be inclosed. Ordinarily there will be no difficulty in securing the voluntary attendance of a civilian witness if he is informed that his fees and mileage will not be reduced by reason of his voluntary attendance, and that a voucher for his fees and mileage going to and returning from the place of the sitting of the court martial will be delivered to him promptly on being discharged from attendance on the court. If this procedure will not procure the witness, the judge advocate shall prepare duplicate subpoenas. Service is made by a personal delivery of the duplicate subpoenas to the witness, and proof of service by returning the original to the judge advocate properly indorsed and sworn to by the person who serves the subpoena. Any person duly instructed to do so may serve the subpoena, but the service must be personal.

(b) If the desired witness lives near the place where the court is convened, and within the territorial limits in which the court can compel attendance, the subpoena may be served by the judge advocate, provost marshal, or by any other person instructed to do so. If the residence of the witness is not near at hand, but within the territorial limits in which the court can compel attendance, the president of the court shall address a letter to the Commandant or senior officer present, requesting that a person be designated to proceed to such place as the desired witness may be for the purpose of serving the subpoena, and further requesting that the necessary transportation and subsistence be furnished. If the witness is beyond the territorial limits within which the court can compel attendance, the necessity for personal service no longer exists. In such case delivery may be made by such method as may be most practicable. (Sec. 12, 35 Stat. 622; 34 U.S.C. 1200, art. 42)

§ 11.254 Advance notice to witnesses. The judge advocate will endeavor to issue subpoenas to civilian witnesses and to make request for the attendance of military witnesses at such time as will give each witness at least 24 hours' notice before starting to attend the meeting of the court.

§ 11.255 When subpoena is disregarded. In case a civilian, duly subpoenaed before a general court martial or court of inquiry, wilfully neglects or refuses to appear or qualify as a witness or to testify or produce documentary evidence as required by law, he shall at once be tendered or paid, in the manner prescribed in § 11.257, one day's fees and mileage for the journey to and from the court, and shall thereupon be again called upon to comply with the requirements of the law. For the further procedure to be taken in the event that a witness persists in refusal to attend, see articles 42 (b) and 42 (c), Articles for the Government of the Navy (secs. 11, 12, 35 Stat. 621, 622; 34 U.S.C. 1200, arts. 42 (b), 42 (c)). The fees and mileage of civilian witnesses residing beyond the territorial limits within which the court can compel attendance shall not be paid in advance, as such witnesses can not be punished if they disregard a subpoena. (Sec. 12, 35 Stat. 622; 34 U.S.C. 1200, art. 42)

§ 11.256 Warrant of attachment to compel attendance of civilian witnesses. (a) In order to compel the appearance of a civilian witness in certain exceptional cases, under the circumstances hereinafter set forth, it may become desirable to resort to a warrant of attachment.

(b) In such cases the proper procedure is as follows: The president of the court will issue a warrant of attachment, directing and delivering it for execution to an officer designated for that purpose, generally the provost marshal of the court. He will also deliver to this officer the subpoena, indorsed with affidavit of service (to be returned when the warrant is executed) and a certified copy of the order appointing the court martial. A warrant, or writ of attachment, does not run beyond the State, Territory, or District (of Columbia) in which the court martial sits.

(c) In executing such process it is lawful to use only such force as may be necessary to bring the witness before the court. Whenever force is actually required, the senior officer present, or other officer designated by the convening authority, nearest the witness' residence will furnish a detail sufficient to execute the process. The use of this procedure, however, should be resorted to only when the ends of justice absolutely demand it, when all other means have failed, and only upon the authorization of the Secretary of the Navy. (Sec. 12. 35 Stat. 622; 34 U.S.C. 1200, art. 42)

§ 11.257 Fees of civilian witnesses. (a) When directed in writing by the commanding officer, payment of the fees and mileage of civilian witnesses shall be made by the disbursing officer of any vessel or, at a yard or station where there is no receiving ship, by the disbursing officer of the yard, or at Marine Corps posts, not at a navy yard or station, and where there is no disbursing officer of the Navy, by the assistant paymaster of the Marine Corps serving with the command. The order from the commanding officer must be accompanied by a certified copy of the precept and by vouchers, properly sworn to by the witness and certified by the judge advocate or recorder of the court, or by the deck court officer, or by the officer before whom the witness gave his deposition.

(b) The fees and mileage of a civilian witness who refuses to obey a subpoena to appear before a general court martial or court of inquiry will be duly paid (or tendered) by the judge advocate; the money for this purpose will be supplied by such pay officer as may be designated upon the written order of the senior officer present, and the judge advocate receiving the money for the purpose named shall furnish the pay officer concerned with a proper receipt.

(c) The certificate of the judge advocate, recorder, deck court officer, or officer before whom a deposition is taken will be evidence of the fact and period of attendance and place from which summoned, and said certificate shall be made on the voucher.

(d) Upon execution of the certificate the witness will be paid upon his discharge from attendance, without awaiting performance of return travel. The charges for return journeys will be made upon the basis of the actual charges allowed for travel to the court, or place designated for taking a deposition. No other items will be allowed.

(e) Travel must be estimated by the shortest usually traveled route, by established lines of railroad, stage, or steamer, the time occupied to be determined by the official schedules; reasonable allowance will be made for unavoidable detention.

(f) If no pay officer be present at the place where the court sits, the accounts, properly authenticated as directed above, shall be transmitted to the convening authority or to the nearest naval station to which a pay officer is attached, with the request that the amount be paid by check.

(g) Accounts of civilian witnesses are not transferable.

(h) Signatures of witnesses when signed by mark must be witnessed.

§ 11.258 Fees of civilian witnesses; rates prescribed. A civilian not in government employ, duly summoned as a witness before a naval court, or at a place where his deposition is to be taken for use before such court, will receive $1.50 a day for each day of actual attendance and for the time necessarily occupied in going and returning, and 5 cents a mile for going from his or her place of residence and return. A civilian witness not in the Government employ who attends a naval court or at a place where his deposition is to be taken, at a point so far removed from his residence as to prohibit return thereto from day to day, will receive, in addition to the compensation provided above, $3 for expenses of subsistence for each day of actual attendance and for each day necessarily occupied in traveling to attend court and return home. (R.S. 823, 848, sec. 3, 44 Stat. 323; 28 U.S.C. 600c, 601)

§ 11.259 Fees of civilian witnesses attending several trials on same day. A civilian attending as a witness in several court-martial trials on the same day is entitled to a separate fee for attendance in each case, but will receive mileage in only one case. (R.S. 823, 848, sec. 3, 44 Stat. 323; 28 U.S.C. 600c, 601)

§ 11.261 Privilege of witness in not answering particular questions. Although every person is amenable to the service of process to appear and testify, a witness may be privileged with respect to certain testimony, or there may be certain matters concerning which he may claim the privilege of not testifying. This privilege should be distinguished from the incompetency attaching to certain testimony, as of husband and wife, and of an attorney as set forth in sections 238 and 239.[1] The principal cases of privilege are:

(a) State secrets. This class of privilege covers all the departments of the Government, and its immunity rests upon the belief that the public interests would suffer by a disclosure of state affairs. The scope of this class is very extended, and the question of the inclusion of a given matter therein is decided by a consideration of the requirements of public policy with reference to such matter.

(b) Criminating questions. All questions whose answers would expose the witness to a criminal prosecution or penal action come under the head of criminating questions. A witness may properly decline to answer a criminating question. If the declination be sustained by the court, no inference therefrom or comment thereon is permissible.

[1] For section 238 cited to the text, see § 11.238 of this part. Section 239 is not included in this part. "Naval Courts and Boards" is available at the office of the Judge Advocate General, Navy Department.

(c) Degrading questions. A witness may also properly decline to answer where the inquiry is as to collateral, irrelevant, or immaterial matters on the ground that his answer will have the direct effect of degrading or disgracing him, as, for example, in a case where his answer could have no effect upon the case except to impair his credibility. He may, however, be compelled to answer as to a matter which is material to the issue or trial, notwithstanding the fact that his answer may tend to disgrace him or bring him into disrepute, unless his answer would also tend to incriminate him in addition to degrading him. (R.S. 858, 34 Stat. 618; 28 U.S.C. 631)

§ 11.265 Rule for determining privilege on ground of self-incrimination. (a) To entitle a witness to the privilege of silence, the court must see from the circumstances of the case and the nature of the evidence which the witness is called to give that there is reasonable ground to apprehend danger to the witness from his being compelled to answer. In order to assist the court in deciding whether to require the witness to answer, it is proper to inquire into the merits of his refusal to answer and afford him the opportunity to substantiate his contention that such answer would, in fact, incriminate him. If the party examining the witness requests he be compelled to answer, the court will then decide, in accordance with the above, whether the answer will tend to incriminate him and, if so, will not require the witness to answer. If there is no reasonable apprehension of incrimination, then the witness should be compelled to answer or be cited for contempt. The danger to be apprehended must be real and appreciable with reference to the ordinary operation of the law in the ordinary course of things. It is not sufficient if the danger is of an imaginary and unsubstantial character having reference to some barely possible contingency so improbable that no reasonable man would allow it to influence his conduct.

(b) If the witness has been previously tried in connection with the matter about which he is called upon to testify, his claim of privilege is not valid, the danger having ceased. Completion of the trial is the test and the trial is deemed to be complete when jeopardy is complete.

(c) If the privilege claimed be on the ground of self-incrimination and the answers when made under compulsion thus tend to incriminate the witness then such answers can not subsequently be put in evidence in a criminal proceeding against the witness. However, no such right accrues to the person compelled to answer a degrading question. (R. S. 858, 34 Stat. 618; 28 U.S.C. 631)

§ 11.290 Authority of naval courts to punish contempt. The forty-second Article for the Government of the Navy (34 U.S.C. 1200, art. 42) gives a court authority to punish contempts. The article is not construed as extending the authority to punish for contempt to a summary court martial or deck court. (Sec. 12, 35 Stat. 622; 34 U.S.C. 1200, art. 42)

§ 11.292 Procedure when witness is charged with contempt. When a witness is charged with contempt, the regular business of the court should be suspended, and he should be given opportunity to reply. The action taken is properly summary, a formal trial not being called for. If the reply is satisfactory, the proceedings for contempt may be ended. A witness can not, however, purge himself of contempt by insisting that his language or behavior was proper. The testimony of a witness who has been adjudged guilty of contempt may be continued.

§ 11.294 Further procedure where civilian witness is adjudged guilty. If possible, before a civilian witness in contempt before a general court martial or court of inquiry is permitted to withdraw, .the Federal district attorney should be communicated with in order that the witness may be apprehended expeditiously. The law does not give a naval court authority to restrain such witness of his liberty as in the case of naval witnesses. Even though the witness has departed from the jurisdiction within which the court martial sits, the district attorney may cause his arrest in another jurisdiction, as the offense is one against the United States. (Sec. 12, 35 Stat. 622; 34 U.S.C. 1200, Art 42)

§ 11.720 Courts of inquiry; power to compel attendance of witnesses. A court of inquiry has power to compel the attendance of civilian witnesses, and should be convened or requested where testimony of civilians will likely be desired; the proceedings of a court of inquiry may under certain conditions be evidenced before a court martial; otherwise there is no vital distinction in the power or effectiveness of a court of inquiry and an investigation, and the question which to convene is entirely within the discretion of the convening authority. Whether or not an investigation shall be by a board of officers or by one officer is entirely within his discretion, but in important cases where the facts are various and complicated, where there appears to be reason for suspecting criminality, or where crime has been committed with uncertainty as to the perpetrator, or where serious blame has been incurred without certainty on whom it ought chiefly to fall, a court of inquiry or a board of investigation affords the best means of collecting, sifting, and methodizing information for the purpose of enabling the convening authority to decide upon the necessity and expediency of further judicial proceedings. (Sec. 12, 35 Stat. 622; 34 U.S.C. 1200, Art. 42)

PART 12—PROCEEDINGS IN CIVIL COURTS

Secs.

12.1 Delivery of men to civil authorities.
12.4 Delivery of men to state authorities for trial.
12.10 Naval prisoners wanted by civil authorities.
12.11 Naval prisoners as witnesses or parties in civil courts.
12.12 Men released by civil authorities on bail.
12.13 Service of subpoena or other process on a person in the Navy.
12.15 Production of documents in civil court in response to a subpoena duces tecum.
12.24 Habeas corpus proceedings; State courts.

AUTHORITY: §§ 12.1 to 12.15, inclusive, issued under R.S. 1547; 34 U.S.C. 591.

NOTE: In §§ 12.1 to 12.24, inclusive, the numbers to the right of the decimal point correspond with the respective section numbers in Appendix C, Naval Courts and Boards, 1937, Navy Department, effective July 1, 1937, as amended to August 1, 1943.

§ 12.1 Delivery of men to civil authorities. In no case will commanding officers of vessels or shore stations of the Navy or Marine Corps deliver to the civil authorities, State or Federal, any person in their custody or under their control without first communicating with the Secretary of the Navy and awaiting his instructions. The Secretary of the Navy will promptly issue the necessary orders in the case or make request upon the Attorney General, in accordance with 5 U.S.C. 5, to furnish such legal assistance to the commanding officer concerned as the interests of the United States involved in such case may demand.

§ 12.4 Delivery of men to state authorities for trial. In every case in which the Secretary of the Navy authorizes the delivery of any person in the Navy or Marine Corps to the civil authorities of a State, for trial, such person's commanding officer will, before making such delivery, obtain from the Governor or other duly authorized officer of such State a written agreement that he will be informed of the outcome of the trial and that the person so delivered will be returned to the naval authorities at the place of his delivery or issued transportation to the nearest receiving ship (or marine barracks in the case of Marines) without expense to the United States or to the person delivered immediately upon the completion of his trial for the alleged misconduct which occasioned his delivery to the civil authorities, in the event that he is acquitted upon said trial, or immediately upon satisfying the sentence of the court in the event that he is convicted and a sentence imposed, or upon other disposition of his case, provided that the naval authorities shall then desire his return.

§ 12.10 Naval prisoners wanted by civil authorities. In any case in which the delivery of a person in the Navy or Marine Corps for trial is desired by the civil authorities, Federal or State, and such person is a naval prisoner (which includes any person serving sentence of court martial or in custody awaiting trial by court martial or disposition of charges against him), he will not, in general, be delivered to the Federal or State authorities until he has served the sentence of the naval court martial, or his case has otherwise been finally disposed of by the naval authorities. However, if the Federal or State authorities desire the surrender of the party under the above circumstances upon a serious charge, such as felonious homicide, and the interests of justice would be better served by his delivery, the Secretary of the Navy may, in his discretion, discharge the man from naval custody and from his contract of enlistment and deliver him to the civil authorities for trial.

§ 12.11 Naval prisoners as witnesses or parties in civil courts. If the Federal or State authorities desire the attendance of a naval prisoner as a witness in a criminal case pending in a civil court, upon the submission of such a request to the Secretary of the Navy, authority will be given in a proper case for the production of the man in court without resort being had to a writ of habeas corpus ad testificandum. The Department, however, will not authorize the attendance of a naval prisoner in a Federal or State court, either as a party or as a witness in private litigation pending before such court, as in such cases the court may grant a postponement or a continuance of the trial; but the Department will allow the deposition of such naval prisoner to be taken in the case.

§ 12.12 Men released by civil authorities on bail. Where a person in the Navy or Marine Corps is arrested by the Federal or State authorities for trial and returns to his ship or station on bail, the commanding officer may grant him leave of absence to appear for trial on the date set upon an official statement by the judge, prosecuting attorney, or clerk of the court, reciting the facts, giving the date on which the appearance of the man is required, and the approximate length of time that should be covered by such leave of absence.

§12.13 Service of subpoena or other process on a person in the Navy. Commanding officers afloat or ashore are authorized to permit the service of subpoena or other process upon the person named therein, provided such person is within the jurisdiction of the court out of which the process issues, but such service will not be allowed without permission of the commanding officer first being obtained. Where the person in the naval service is on board ship or at a naval station beyond the jurisdiction of the court, it is necessary that the process be presented to the man's commanding officer who will deliver the process to the person named therein and inform him that, if he is willing voluntarily to accept such service, he should indicate his acceptance in the manner provided. In the event the man declines to accept service, the commanding officer will return said warrant with a statement to that effect. In cases in which service by mail is legally sufficient, the papers may be addressed to the man.

§ 12.15 Production of documents in civil court in response to a subpoena duces tecum. Unless authorized by the Secretary of the Navy, persons in the naval service and civil employees are prohibited from producing official records or copies thereof in a civil court in answer to subpoenas duces tecum, or otherwise, and from disclosing the information described in article 113,[1] Navy Regulations, or the secret and confidential correspondence and information described in article 2005,[2] Navy Regulations. In all cases where copies of records are desired by or on behalf of parties to a suit, whether in a Federal or State court, such parties will be informed that it has been the invariable practice of the Navy Department to decline to furnish in the case of legal controversies, at the request of the parties litigant, copies of papers or other information to be used in the course of the proceedings, or to grant permission to such parties or their attorneys to make preliminary or informal examination of the records, but that the department will promptly furnish copies of papers or records in such cases upon call of the court before which the litigation is pending. In all cases where the production of records in civil courts is authorized, the original records are not to leave the custody of the person producing them. However, copies of such records may be introduced into evidence.

§ 12.24 Habeas corpus proceedings; State courts. State courts have no jurisdiction in habeas corpus proceedings to order the discharge of any person held by an officer of the Navy or Marine Corps by authority of the United States; however, in the event that a writ of habeas corpus should be issued by a State court to a commanding officer of the Navy or Marine Corps, afloat or ashore, the Secretary of the Navy will be communicated with immediately in accordance with section C-3;[3] and should instructions not be received by the commanding officer from the Secretary of the Navy by the time specified in the writ, or if no definite time be specified therein, within 3 days after the service of the writ, the officer upon whom the writ is served will make return thereto in accordance with the instructions in the preceding section[4] without producing the body of the accused in court. TITLE 49—TRANSPORTATIONS AND RAILROADS

Chapter I—Interstate Commerce Commission

PART 95—CAR SERVICE

SHIPMENTS OF SAND OR GRAVEL DESTINED TO DALHART, TEXAS, REGION

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 6th day of August, A. D. 1943.

It appearing, that shipments of sand, gravel, or aggregates in carloads originating at various points and destined to Dalhart, Hitt, Twist, Wagner, or Ware, Texas, or any other point near Dalhart, for use on goverpment construction at Dalhart are being weighed on railroad track scales, thus impeding the use, control, supply, movement, and distribution of cars; in the opinion of the Commission an emergency exists requiring immediate action to avoid a shortage of equipment and congestion of traffic: It is ordered, That:

§ 95.25 Carloads of sand, gravel, or aggregates destined to Dalhart, Hitt, Twist, Wagner, or Ware, Texas, or any other point near Dalhart, for use on government construction at Dalhart, not to be weighed. (a) No common carrier by railroad subject to the Interstate Commerce Act shall weigh, or permit to be weighed, any shipment of sand, gravel, or aggregates in carloads, on any railroad track scales when such traffic originates on or after the effective date of this order at any point and is destined to Dalhart, Hitt, Twist, Wagner, or Ware, Texas, or any point near Dalhart, for use on government construction at Dalhart, except that a limited number of cars may be weighed as is necessary to obtain average weights. The operation of all tariff rules or regulations insofar as they conflict with the provisions of this order is hereby suspended.

(b) Announcement of suspension. Each of such railroads shall publish, file, and post a supplement to each of its tariffs affected hereby, in substantial accordance with the provisions of Rule 9 (k) of the Commission's Tariff Circular No. 20 (§ 141.9 (k) of this chapter) announcing the suspension of any of the provisions therein. (40 Stat. 101, sec. 402, 41 Stat. 476, sec. 4, 54 Stat. 901; 49 U.S.C. 1 (10)-(17))

It is further ordered, That this order shall become effective at 12:01 a. m., August 7, 1943, and that a copy of this order and direction shall be served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and that notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register, The National Archives.

By the Commission, Division 3.

[SEAL] W. P. BARTEL,
Secretary.

PART 95—CAR SERVICE

ICING OF POTATOES ORIGINATING IN CERTAIN EASTERN STATES

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 6th day of August, A. D. 1943.

It appearing, that weather conditions have enhanced the perishable characteristics of potatoes originating in the States of Florida, Georgia, and South Carolina, so that they require icing; that the acute shortage of ice in this territory precludes full icing privileges for such traffic, or any icing or reicing of such traffic originating in Delaware, Maryland, New York (Long Island), New Jersey, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Virginia, or West Virginia when moving in refrigerator cars; in the opinion of the Commission an emergency exists requiring immediate action:

It is ordered, That Service Order No. 126 (8 F.R. 7285) of May 29, 1943, as amended (8 F.R. 7728-29; 8 F.R. 8082; 8 F.R. 9033), be, and it is hereby, further amended to read as follows:

FLORISTS OF SIOUX FALLS, S. DAK.

RECOMMENDATION OF JOINT ACTION PLAN

Pursuant to a provision of a general order issued by the Office of Defense Transportation for the purpose, among others, of conserving and providently utilizing motor vehicles and vital equipment, materials and supplies, (General Order ODT 17, as amended, 7 F.R. 5678, 7694, 9623; 8 F.R. 8278, 8377), Strongs Florists, J. G. Coleman, doing business as Coleman The Florist, Arthur R. Anderson, doing business as Anderson Flower Shop, and Roger Malcomb, doing business as Egyptian Flower Shop, all of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, have filed with the Office of Defense Transportation for approval a joint action plan relating to the transportation and delivery by motor vehicle of flowers and related articles in Sioux Falls.

The participants in the plan proposes to eliminate wasteful operations in the retail delivery of flowers and related articles by curtailing deliveries and by pooling the use of their trucks. All retail deliveries of the participants will be made in one truck after 4 p. m. each week day and none will be made on Sundays. Each participant will assign a truck to the pool and will operate it 2 successive days in each series of 8 delivery days. No delivery will be made where the purchase price of the merchandise is less than $1.00. The participants agree, on the days they are not operating the pool truck, not to make any delivery which requires the use of a commercial motor vehicle. Excepted from the operation of the plan are deliveries for weddings and funerals, deliveries on Mother's Day and on the Sunday preceding Decoration Day, deliveries to wholesale customers or to cemeteries during the spring planting season, and deliveries of articles too heavy or bulky for efficient handling by the pool truck. By unanimous consent of the participants the plan may be suspended not to exceed 4 consecutive days immediately preceding Mother's Day and the Sunday preceding Decoration Day, also on any particular day when it appears that there will be more parcels for delivery than can be conveniently handled by one truck. The participants estimate that effectuation of the plan will result in savings of 60 percent or 18,000 truck-miles a year. Joint selling activities are not contemplated.

It appearing that the proposed joint action plan is in conformity with General Order ODT 17, as amended, and that the effectuation thereof will accomplish substantial conservation and efficient utilization of motor trucks and vital materials and supplies, the attainment of which purposes is essential to the successful prosecution of the war, I have approved the plan and recommend that the Chairman of the War Production Board find and certify under section

Regional, State, and District Office Orders.

[Region IV Order G-7 Under 18 (c)]

FLUID MILK IN HALIFAX COUNTY, N. C.

Order No. G-7 under § 1499.18 (c), as amended, of the General Maximum Price Regulation. Adjustment of certain fluid milk prices for Halifax County, North Carolina. (Formerly Price Order No. 18 (c)-8.)

The Regional Administrator of the Office of Price Administration for Region IV has determined that a serious shortage of raw and pasteurized fluid milk both at wholesale and at retail exists in Halifax County, North Carolina. The Regional Administrator has further found that a supply of raw milk is essential to a standard of living consistent with the prosecution of the war; that the existing shortage in Halifax County, North Carolina, will be alleviated by adjusting the maximum prices of sellers of raw and pasteurized fluid milk in said county to the extent permitted by this order; and that such adjustment will not create or tend to create a shortage or a need for increases in prices in any other locality and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 as amended.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Regional Administrator by § 1499.18 (c) of the General Maximum Price Regulation as amended, It is hereby ordered, That:

I. Adjusted maximum prices for raw and pasteurized fluid milk. On and after the 8th day of January 1943, the maximum prices of raw and pasteurized fluid milk in glass bottles sold and delivered within the boundaries of Halifax County, North Carolina, by any person at wholesale or retail shall be either the price set out in inferior subdivision (a) or inferior subdivision (b), whichever is higher;

(a) The maximum prices already established by any such seller under the General Maximum Price Regulation (if such seller has, prior to the effective date of this order, established such maximum prices), or

(b) At wholesale, 14¢ per quart, 8¢ per pint, and 4¢ per half-pint in glass bottles; at retail, 16¢ per quart, 9¢ per pint, and 5¢ per half-pint in glass bottles, both store sales and home delivered.

This order shall have no application to sales at retail of raw or pasteurized milk in a hotel, restaurant, soda fountain, bar, cafe or other similar establishments for consumption on the premises.

II. Definitions. For purposes of this order:

(1) "Halifax County, North Carolina," shall mean the area included within the established boundaries of this county.

(2) "Raw and pasteurized fluid milk" shall mean liquid milk of at least 3.5 per cent butterfat content packaged in half pints, pints and quarts in glass containers.

(3) All other terms used, unless the context otherwise requires, including the terms, "retail" and "wholesale", shall be construed in accordance with § 1499.20 of the General Maximum Price Regulation.

III. Requirements of notification. (1) Each seller making sales at wholesale pursuant to this order shall in writing notify each purchaser of the maximum prices established by this order for sales at wholesale on or before the first delivery of such product to such purchaser after the effective date hereof.

(2) Each seller making sales at retail pursuant to this order except persons making such sales from a retail store shall in writing notify each purchaser of the maximum prices established by this order for sales at retail on or before the first delivery of such product to such purchaser after the effective date hereof.

(3) The written notifications required in subparagraphs III (1) and (2) shall contain the following statement:

By order No. G-7 issued by the Atlanta Regional Office on December 31, 1942, and effective January 8, 1943, the Regional Administrator of the Office of Price Administration for Region IV has established adjusted maximum prices for raw and pasteurized milk within the boundaries of Halifax County, North Carolina, as follows:

(a) The maximum prices already established by any such seller under the General Maximum Price Regulation (if such seller has, prior to the effective date of this order, established such maximum prices), or

(b) At wholesale, 14¢ per quart, 8¢ per pint, and 4¢ per half-pint in glass bottles; at retail, 18¢ per quart, 8¢ per pint, and 5¢ per half-pint in glass bottles, both store sales and home delivered.

Copy of said order and the accompanying opinion may be inspected at the place of business of the seller.

IV. Applicability of the General Maximum Price Regulation. Except as otherwise herein provided, all transactions subject to this order remain subject to all the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation, together with all amendments that have heretofore or which may be hereafter issued.

V. Effective date. This order No. G-7 shall become effective January 8, 1943.

This order No. G-7 may be revoked or amended by the Regional Administrator at any time.

[Connecticut Order G–1 Under SR 14]

Order No. G–1 under Supplementary Regulation 14 to the General Maximum Price Regulation—Firewood. (Formerly Price Order No. 1.)

The Director of the State Office of The Office of Price Administration for the State of Connecticut has determined upon his own motion that in his judgment the maximum prices established in § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation for the sale or delivery of firewood are inadequate to insure a sufficient supply of firewood to meet heating requirements in the State of Connecticut. The State Director has ascertained and given due consideration to the increased production costs which sellers of firewood in the State of Connecticut must incur in order to produce such firewood compared with the costs of production in March, 1942, and in any earlier months in which firewood was generally produced in the State of Connecticut. He has also ascertained and given due consideration to the extent of increased transportation costs which must be incurred by sellers of firewood in order to move sufficient supplies thereof to meet the requirements of the several affected localities in the State of Connecticut. So far as practicable, the Director has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this order.

In the judgment of the State Director, the maximum prices established by this order are and will be generally fair and equitable and will adjust maximum prices established in § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation to the minimum extent necessary to insure a sufficient supply of firewood in the State of Connecticut.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the State Director by Amendment No. 26 to Supplementary Regulation 14 to the General Maximum Price Regulation, Connecticut State Order No. G–1 is hereby issued. This Connecticut State Order No. G–1 supersedes the provisions of § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation with regard to sales and deliveries of the types of firewood for which prices are fixed in this Order No. G–1.

SECTION 1. Maximum prices for firewood. On and after October 17, 1942, regardless of the provisions of any contract, agreement or other obligations, no person shall sell or deliver in the State of Connecticut and no person shall buy or receive in the course of trade or business in the State of Connecticut any firewood listed in Appendix A hereof, incorporated herein as section 6, at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in said Appendix A.

SEC. 2. Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those provided in this Connecticut State Order No. G–1 may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

SEC. 3. Evasion. (a) The price limitations set forth in this Connecticut State Order No. G–1 shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase, or receipt of or relating to firewood in the State of Connecticut, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or by way of commission, service, transportation, or other charge or discount, premium or other privilege, or by tying agreement or other trade understanding or otherwise.

(b) Without in any way limiting the generality of the foregoing, the following practices are forbidden:

(i) The sale, delivery, purchase or acceptance of firewood in units other than a cord, half-cord, quarter-cord, or any multiples thereof, or

(ii) Requiring as a condition of any sale or delivery of firewood that the buyer use the services of the seller in stacking the purchased firewood on the premises of the buyer.

(c) The maximum prices established in this Connecticut State Order No. G–1 shall not be increased by any charges for the extension of credit or by any decrease in the time customarily allowed for payment, and shall be decreased for prompt payment to the same extent that the price would have been decreased on March 1, 1942.

SEC. 4. Definitions. When used in this Connecticut State Order No. G–1, the term:

(a) "Person" includes any individual, corporation, partnership, association or any other organized group of persons or the legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing and includes the United States, or any government, or any of its political sub-divisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(b) (1) "Cord" shall mean a standard cord of 128 cubic feet of compactly piled wood.

(2) A cord of 24-inch firewood shall contain the quantity of 24-inch wood cut from a standard cord but not less than 104 cubic feet of 24-inch wood when compactly piled.

(3) A cord of 16-inch firewood shall contain the quantity of 16-inch wood cut from a standard cord but not less than 96 cubic feet of 16-inch wood when compactly piled.

(4) A cord of 12-inch firewood shall contain the quantity of 12-inch wood cut from a standard cord but not less than 96 cubic feet of 12-inch wood when compactly piled.

(c) This order does not recognize the term "running cord" or any other similar term, except as such term may be used to describe a proportion of a cord of wood containing 128 cubic feet.

(d) "Firewood" means any wood prepared and intended for consumption as fuel.

(e) "Cordwood" means any firewood so prepared that at least 80% thereof consists of cleft wood or merchantable body wood in the round of desirable species.

FIREWOOD IN VERMONT

Order No. G-1 (Formerly Price Order No. 1) under Supplementary Regulation 14 to General Maximum Price Regulation—Firewood.

The Director of the State Office of the Office of Price Administration for the State of Vermont has determined upon his own motion that in his judgment the maximum prices established in § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation for the sale or delivery of firewood are inadequate to insure a sufficient supply of firewood to meet heating requirements in the State of Vermont. The State Director has ascertained and given due consideration to the increased production costs which sellers of firewood in the State of Vermont must incur in order to produce such firewood compared with the costs of production in March, 1942, and in any earlier months in which firewood was generally produced in the State of Vermont. He has also ascertained and given due consideration to the extent of increased transportation costs which must be incurred by sellers of firewood in order to move sufficient supplies thereof to meet the requirements of the several affected localities in the State of Vermont. So far as practicable, the Director has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this order.

In the judgment of the State Director, the maximum prices established by this order are and will be generally fair and equitable and will adjust maximum prices established in § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation to the minimum extent necessary to insure a sufficient supply of firewood in the State of Vermont.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the State Director by Amendment No. 26 to Supplementary Regulation 14, Vermont State Order No. G-1 is hereby issued.

1. Maximum prices for firewood. On and after October 3, 1942, regardless of any contract or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver in the State of Vermont any firewood and no person shall buy or receive in the course of trade or business in the State of Vermont any firewood at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in Appendix A hereof, incorporated herein as section 5.

2. Evasion. (a) The price limitations set forth in this Vermont Order No. G-1 shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase, or receipt of, or relating to firewood in the State of Vermont, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or by way of commission, service, transportation, or other charge or discount, premium or other privilege, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding or otherwise.

(b) The maximum prices established in this Vermont Order No. G-1 shall not be increased by any charges for the extension of credit or by any decrease in the time customarily allowed for payment, and shall be decreased for prompt payment to the same extent that the price would have been decreased on March 1, 1942.

3. Definitions. When used in this Vermont Order No. G-1, the term:

(a) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons or the legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing and includes the United States, or any government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(b) "Firewood" means any wood prepared and intended for consumption as fuel.

(c) "Hardwood cordwood" means any cordwood cut from any deciduous tree.

(d) "Softwood cordwood" means all cordwood other than hardwood cordwood.

(e) "A cord" shall contain 128 cubic feet of wood. A cord of 16 inch wood shall contain the equivalent of three piles of wood 4 feet high, 8 feet long and 16 inches wide. A cord of 12 inch wood shall contain the equivalent of four piles of wood 4 feet high, 8 feet long and 12 inches wide. No cord of wood of any length shall contain less than 128 cubic feet of wood. This order does not recognize the terms, "a run", or "stove cord", except as they apply to that proportion of a cord of wood containing 128 cubic feet.

(f) "Fitted wood" shall be cordwood firewood suitable for stove use, sawed and split to buyer's order.

(g) "Slab wood" means the refuse except sawdust and bark not adhering to the wood from sawing any logs.

(h) "Wood waste" means edging, bobbin wood, clippings, and any other wooden material except sawdust and slab wood produced in the course of milling or manufacturing wood.

(i) "Cordwood" means any firewood so prepared that at least 80% consists of cleft wood or merchantable body wood in the round of desirable species.

(j) "Delivered" means deposited on or at premises designated by the buyer.

(k) "Kindling wood" shall mean any hardwood or softwood, including waste wood, split and prepared so as to be primarily used to start or kindle a fire.

4. Effective date. This Vermont Order No. G-1 shall become effective October 3, 1942.

5. Appendix A: Maximum prices for firewood sold or bought in the State of Vermont. (a) The maximum prices established by § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation for firewood sold or delivered in the State of Vermont shall be modified as follows: Provided, That, for the sale of fitted wood, the seller may add one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) per cord to the maximum prices for cordwood listed in Table I below.

The Director of the Rhode Island Office of the Office of Price Administration has determined upon his own motion that in his judgment the maximum prices established in § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation for the sale and delivery of cordwood are inadequate to insure a sufficient supply of cordwood to meet heating requirements in the State of Rhode Island. The State Director has ascertained and given due consideration to the increased production costs which sellers of cordwood in the State of Rhode Island must incur in order to produce such cordwood compared with the costs of production in March, 1942, and in earlier months in which cordwood was generally produced in the State of Rhode Island. He has also ascertained and given due consideration to the extent of increased transportation costs which must be incurred by sellers of cordwood in order to move sufficient supplies thereof to meet the requirements of the several affected localities in the State of Rhode Island. So far as practicable, the Director has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry and of consumers that will be affected by this order.

In the judgment of the State Director, the maximum prices established by this order are and will be generally fair and equitable and will adjust maximum prices established in § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation to the minimum extent necessary to insure a sufficient supply of cordwood in the State of Rhode Island.

Subsequent to the issuance of Order No. G–20 further investigation has disclosed that distributors in Kalamazoo and Battle Creek, Michigan secure their supplies of raw fluid milk for the same general procurement area.

Distributors in Kalamazoo were forced to meet the competitive producer prices offered by Battle Creek distributors, who enjoyed higher resale prices.

Also, manufacturers of milk products located in the Kalamazoo area are currently paying producers prices for uninspected raw milk nearly equal to the maximum producer prices established for fluid milk distributors in said area.

It is established to the satisfaction of the Regional Administrator that it is necessary to adjust Kalamazoo County distributors' resale and producer prices upward in order to assure the maintenance of an adequate supply of fluid whole milk in said county.

For the reasons hereinbefore set forth, Order No. G–20 is hereby amended by deleting the County of Kalamazoo from the list of counties set forth in paragraph 2 of schedule A, and adding the County of Kalamazoo to the list of counties set forth in paragraph 3 of schedule A.

This Amendment No. 2 shall become effective April 1, 1943.

[Region III Order G–23 Under 18 (c) of GMPR]

FLUID MILK IN WEST VIRGINIA

Order No. G–23 under § 1499.18 (c) as amended, of the General Maximum Price Regulation. Order adjusting the maximum prices of fluid whole milk and special milk sold at retail and wholesale in the State of West Virginia (formerly Order No. III–1499.18 (c)–35).

For the reasons set forth in the opinion attached hereto, and pursuant to the authority vested in the Regional Administrator of Region III under the provisions of § 1499.18 (c) of the General Maximum Price Regulation and § 1351.807 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 280, and notwithstanding the provisions of § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation and § 1351.803 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 280: It is hereby ordered, That:

I. Sales of fluid whole milk. Any person may sell or deliver fluid whole milk at retail or wholesale in any county in the State of West Virginia at (1) the maximum prices established for him under § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation or § 1351.803 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 280, or (2) the maximum prices established for him under any previous order issued by the Regional Administrator of Region III, or (3) the maximum prices set forth in the schedule under the applicable paragraph in Schedule A hereof, whichever are greater.

II. Sales of special milk. A. Except as hereinafter provided in paragraph C of this section II, any person selling special milk, as hereinafter defined, at retail in any county in the State of West Virginia who is permitted under the provisions of this order or has been permitted under the provisions of any previous order issued by the Regional Administrator of Region III to increase the retail quart price of fluid whole milk (raw or pasteurized regular, standard milk) sold by him, may add an amount equal to such increase or increases to the retail quart price (or a proportional amount of such increase or increases in the case of containers of greater or lesser content than one quart) of special milk established for him under the provisions of § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation or § 1351.803 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 280.

B. Except as hereinafter provided in paragraph C of this section II, any person selling special milk, as hereinafter defined, at wholesale in any county in the State of West Virginia who is permitted under the provisions of this order or has been permitted under the provisions of any previous order issued by the Regional Administrator of Region III to increase the wholesale quart price of fluid whole milk (raw or pasteurized regular, standard milk) sold by him, may add an amount equal to such increase to the wholesale quart price (or a proportional amount of such increase in the case of containers of greater or lesser content than one quart) of special milk established for him under the provisions of § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation or § 1351.803 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 280.

C. The adjusted maximum price of plain homogenized milk, chocolate drink, buttermilk and skim milk as established under the preceding paragraphs A and B shall in no event exceed the adjusted maximum price of fluid whole milk (raw or pasteurized regular, standard milk) established under the applicable provisions of this order.

D. If any person selling special milk at retail or wholesale in any county in the State of West Virginia cannot determine his maximum prices for such special milk under the provisions of paragraphs A, B or C of this section II, he may apply by letter to the Regional Office, Office of Price Administration, Union Commerce Building, Cleveland, Ohio, for determination of his maximum prices. He shall submit full information as to his present maximum prices, the prices of his most closely competitive sellers, the type and approximate butterfat content of the special milk sold by him and his most closely competitive sellers, and a full statement of the reasons why he is unable to determine adjusted prices under paragraphs A, B or C hereof.

III. Fractional sales. A. Whenever the seller's maximum price, as established under this order, results in a unit figure containing a fraction of a cent, the seller, if the sale be at retail, may adjust the unit price therefor to the next highest full cent. For sales of two or more such units, such seller shall, however, multiply such fractional unit figure by the number of units in such sale; for example, a maximum price of 7½¢ per unit may be adjusted to 8¢ for the sale of one unit, but must be 15¢ for the sale of two units, etc. Home deliveries shall be considered multiple unit sales unless separate collections are made for single unit deliveries.

B. Whenever the seller's maximum price, as established under this order, results in a unit figure containing a fraction of a cent, the seller, if the sale be at wholesale, shall multiply such fractional unit figure by the number of units such sale; for example, the maximum price for 24 one-half pints of fluid milk at a per unit cost of 3½¢ would be 84¢.

IV. Reports. Each person, other than a retail store, adjusting his maximum prices pursuant to the provisions of this order, shall, within five (5) days after such action, notify the Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration, Union Commerce Building, Cleveland, Ohio, by letter, of his maximum prices established pursuant to this order, together with a statement of his previous maximum prices.

Each person shall, in addition to the above, file with the Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration, Union Commerce Building, Cleveland, Ohio, such reports as may hereafter be required by said Regional Office.

V. Discounts. Any person selling fluid whole milk and/or special milk at retail or wholesale in the State of West Virginia may discontinue the granting of discounts.

VI. Notification of retail stores. Each distributor selling fluid whole milk and/or special milk at wholesale to a retail store or stores shall notify each store to whom he sells, by letter, of the adjustment permitted in this order, and each retail store is hereby required to comply with the requirements of the General Maximum Price Regulation as to the posting of prices of cost-of-living commodities.

VII. The provisions of this order supersede the provisions of General Order No. 1 (redesignated as Order No. G–17 under § 1499.18 (c), as amended, of the General Maximum Price Regulation) pertaining to certain trade practices in Region III. Said General Order No. 1 is, therefore, revoked as to all counties in the State of West Virginia.

VIII. Definitions. A. "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons or successors of the foregoing.

B. 1. "Fluid whole milk" is defined to mean all grades of cow's milk which has been produced, processed, distributed, and sold for human consumption in fluid form as raw or pasteurized regular, standard whole milk, with essentially the same butterfat content as each person or seller maintained during the applicable base period.

C. "Special Milk" is defined to mean Vitamin D homogenized milk, plain homogenized milk, softcurd milk, buttermilk, regular or standard milk flavored with chocolate, chocolate drink, skim milk and, in addition to the foregoing, any milk conforming to both of the following requirements: (a) it must contain a greater butterfat content than regular or standard milk, and (b) it must have sold during the month of March, 1942 at a price higher than regular or standard milk.

D. "Sale or delivery at retail" means a sale of fluid whole milk or special milk in glass, paper or other containers to an ultimate consumer other than to an industrial, institutional, commercial, or governmental user.

E. "Sale or delivery at wholesale" refers to a sale of fluid whole milk or special milk in glass, paper or other containers to any person, including an industrial or commercial user, other than an ultimate consumer. For the purposes of this order, a sale or delivery at wholesale shall include a sale or delivery to stores, hotels, restaurants, institutions and any branch of the armed forces of the United States. A sale or delivery at wholesale does not include a sale of bulk milk made by one distributor to another, or a sale by a cooling station to a manufacturing plant or to a distributor.

IX. This order shall remain in effect until modified or revoked by the Regional Administrator.

Effective February 8, 1943.
Issued February 6, 1943.

BIRKETT L. WILLIAMS,
Regional Administrator.

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 6th day of August, A. D. 1943.

I

It appearing to the Commission:

That Acme Mining Company, a corporation organized under the laws of the State of California, is the issuer of Assessable Common Stock, 10¢ Par Value; and

That said Acme Mining Company registered its assessable Common Stock, 10¢ Par Value on the San Francisco Mining Exchange, a national securities exchange, by filing with the Exchange and with the Commission on or about January 24, 1940, an application on Form 8-A, pursuant to section 12 (b) and (c) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Rule X–12B–1, as amended, promulgated by the Commission thereunder, registration pursuant to such application having become effective on March 7, 1940, and remaining in effect to and including the date hereof; and

It further appearing to the Commission:

That Rule X–13A–1, promulgated pursuant to section 13 of said Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, did and does require that an annual report for each issuer of a security registered on a national securities exchange shall be filed on the appropriate form prescribed therefor; and

That Rule X–13A–2, promulgated pursuant to section 13 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, did and does prescribe Form 10–K as the annual report form to be used for the annual reports of all corporations except those for which another form is specified, and that no other form was or is specified for use by the said Acme Mining Company; and

That said Rule X–13A–1 requires that said annual report be filed not more than 120 days after the close of each fiscal year or such other period as may be prescribed in the instruction book applicable to the particular form; that the Instruction Book for Form 10–K does not prescribe any period other than such 120 days; and that pursuant to said Rule X–13A–1 the annual report must be filed within such period unless the registrant files with the Commission a request for an extension of time to a specified date within six months after the close of the fiscal year; and

That the said Acme Mining Company has a fiscal year ending December 31; that the annual report of Acme Mining Company for its fiscal year ended December 31, 1942 was due to be filed not later than April 30, 1943; and that to date the registrant has not filed with the Commission such annual report, nor has it filed with the Commission a request for an extension of time within which to file same; and

II

The Commission having reasonable cause to believe:

That the said Acme Mining Company has failed to comply with the provisions of section 13 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Rules X-13A–1 and X-13A–2 promulgated thereunder, in that (1) it has failed to file its annual report for the year ended December 31, 1942, within the time prescribed to file said report, and (2) it has failed to file such annual report at any later date; and

That the said Acme Mining Company has failed to comply with the provisions of section 13 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Rules X-13A–1 and X-13A–2 promulgated thereunder, in that the annual reports on Form 10–K filed by said Acme Mining Company for the fiscal years ended December 31, 1939, December 31, 1940 and December 31, 1941, contain financial statements which do not reflect the true financial condition of the company, and which, at the time and in the light of the circumstances, were false and misleading with respect to material facts, to wit: (1) the balance sheets dated December 31, 1939, December 31, 1940, and December 31, 1941, improperly include as assets, the maximum amounts of contingent royalties which may be paid, if production is sufficient, from the Chisna River Placers and Port Wells Quartz properties held under lease and option, and (2) the balance sheets dated December 31, 1940, and December 31, 1941, include general and administrative expenses in development costs, and improperly capitalize said general and administrative expenses; and

That the said Acme Mining Company has failed to comply with the provisions of said section 13 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Rules X–13A–1 and X–13A–2 promulgated thereunder, and has failed to comply with Rules 2.02 and 3.07 of Regulation S–X promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, in that

(a) The annual report on Form 10–K filed by said Acme Mining Company for the fiscal year ended December 31, 1940, includes in Item 8 thereof, an accountant's certificate which fails (1) to contain a reasonably comprehensive statement as to the scope of the audit made, including, if with respect to significant items in the financial statements any auditing procedures generally recognized as normal have been omitted, a specific designation of such procedures and of the reasons for their omission, (2) to state whether the audit was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards applicable in the circumstances, (3) to state whether the audit made omitted any procedure deemed necessary by the accountant under the circumstances of the particular case, and (4) to state clearly the opinion of the accountant as to any changes in accounting principles or practices, or adjustments of the accounts, required to be set forth by Rule 3.07 of Regulation S–X; and

(b) Such report fails to include in Item 8 thereof in notes to the appropriate financial statements, the statement required by Rule 3.07 of Regulation S–X regarding a change in accounting principles or practices with respect to the capitalization of development expenses in connection with Chisna River Placers and Port Wells Quartz properties, together with the necessary explanation of the effect of such change in accounting principles or practices upon proper comparison with the preceding fiscal period; and

III

It being the opinion of the Commission that the hearing herein ordered to be held is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended;

It is ordered, Pursuant to section 19 (a) (2) of said Act, that a public hearing be held to determine whether Acme Mining Company has failed to comply with section 13 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the Rules, Regulations and Forms promulgated by the Commission thereunder, in the respects set forth above; and if so, whether it is necessary or appropriate for the protection of investors to suspend for a period not exceeding twelve months or to withdraw the registration of the Assessable Common Stock, 10¢ Par Value, of the said Acme Mining Company on said San Francisco Mining Exchange;

It is further ordered, Pursuant to the provisions of section 21 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, that for the purpose of such hearing, John G. Clarkson, an officer of the Commission, is hereby designated to administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take testimony and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda or other rec-

LACLEDE GAS LIGHT COMPANY, ET AL.

NOTICE OF FILING OF AMENDMENT

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on the 7th day of August, A. D., 1943.

In the matters of The Laclede Gas Light Company, Laclede Power & Light Company, Phoenix Light, Heat and Power Company, and Ogden Corporation, File No. 54-39; Ogden Corporation and Subsidiary Companies, File No. 54-69; Ogden Corporation and subsidiary companies, Respondent, File No. 59-65.

Notice is hereby given that The Laclede Gas Light Company, Laclede Power & Light Company, and Phoenix Light, Heat and Power Company, subsidiaries of Ogden Corporation, a registered holding company, and Ogden Corporation have filed Amendment No. 6 to their joint application heretofore filed pursuant to section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, for approval of a plan, the purpose of which is to effectuate the reorganization of The Laclede Gas Light Company, to dispose of the electric utility assets operated by Laclede Power & Light Company to Union Electric Company of Missouri, and to enable the Ogden holding company system to comply, in part, with the provisions of section 11 (b) of the Act.

All interested persons are referred to said plan, as now amended, which is on file at the office of this Commission, for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which may be summarized as follows:

1. The transfer by The Laclede Gas Light Company ("Laclede Gas"), Phoenix Light, Heat and Power Company ("Phoenix"), and Laclede Power & Light Company ("Laclede Electric") to Union Electric Company of Missouri ("Union Electric") of the electric properties operated by Laclede Electric for a base purchase price of $8,600,000, subject to certain adjustments for property additions and retirements, receivables, materials and supplies, and other items of a similar fluctuating nature. In connection with such sale, Laclede Electric will not exercise the option granted to it pursuant to an agreement entered into in 1926 to purchase from Laclede Gas the properties covered in said agreement, but said agreement will, as a part of the plan, be terminated concurrently with the joint transfer of the said electric properties;

Laclede Gas and Laclede Electric have entered into a contract for division of the proceeds of the sale of electric properties. Under this contract, Laclede Gas is to receive $2,200,000 out of such proceeds;

2. The payment by Union Electric of the aforesaid base purchase price for the said electric properties in the amount of $8,600,000, as adjusted, as follows:

(a) There shall be paid directly to Laclede Electric only such portion of the said purchase price which, when added to the cash of Laclede Electric, will be sufficient to discharge in full all the liabilities of Laclede Electric not assumed by Union Electric, as provided in the contract of sale, and to pay severance compensation to such of the employees of Laclede Electric as hereafter determined by its Board of Directors;

(b) There shall be paid directly to Laclede Gas all of the balance of the said purchase price, which balance will include not only the portion to which Laclede Gas is entitled ($2,200,000), but also the portion of the said price to which Laclede Electric is entitled which remains after the payment by Union Electric to Laclede Electric of the amount provided to be so paid in sub-paragraph (a) preceding;

3. The transfer to Laclede Gas by Laclede Electric of all of its assets, except cash, remaining after the consummation of the said contract of sale of the electric properties;

4. The decrease in the par value of the outstanding shares of preferred stock and of the outstanding, as well as the authorized but unissued shares of common stock of Laclede Gas, from a par value of $100 per share to a par value of $4 per share and a corresponding increase in the number of the outstanding shares of such preferred stock and of the outstanding, as well as the authorized but unissued, shares of such common stock;

5. The issuance to Ogden Corporation of 2,000,000 shares of authorized but unissued common stock of $4 par value of Laclede Gas in return for:

(a) The cancellation of the $2,000,000 principal amount of notes of Laclede Gas owned by Ogden Corporation,

(b) The payment to Laclede Gas by Ogden Corporation of $905,000 cash,

(c) The portion of the purchase price of said electric properties paid to Laclede Gas by Union Electric (hereinbefore provided) to which Laclede Electric is entitled, and

(d) The assets transferred by Laclede Electric to Laclede Gas, as hereinbefore described:

In the event that the portion of the purchase price of said electric properties, referred to in paragraph 5 (c) preceding shall be less than $5,975,000, the said 2,000,000 shares of Laclede Gas to be issued will be decreased by a number of shares which in the opinion of the proponents of the plan will fairly compensate for any such decrease in the amount of cash to be received by Laclede Gas below the estimated receipt of approximately $6,075,000. In the event that such portion of the said purchase price exceeds $6,175,000, such excess shall not be paid to Laclede Gas, but shall be paid by Union Electric to Laclede Electric, and thereafter distributed pro rata to its stockholders;

6. The payment by Ogden Corporation to each holder (other than Ogden Corporation) of common stock of Laclede Electric at the effective date of the plan, as amended, upon surrender for cancellation of such stock, of an amount in cash equal to the pro rata share of each such holder in the net assets of Laclede Electric as of said effective date, after giving effect to the consummation of the sale of the electric properties and assuming the payment in cash by Union Electric to Laclede Electric of all but $2,200,000 of the purchase price of such properties, but before giving effect (a) to the payment to Laclede Gas of any of Laclede Electric's portion of the said purchase price or (b) to the transfer to Laclede Gas of any of the other assets of Laclede Electric as provided in the plan, as amended;

7. The cancellation of fourteen out of the twenty-five shares of preferred stock of $4 par value, which each holder of one share of preferred stock is entitled to receive as a result of the decrease in par value of such stock and the corresponding increase in the number of shares, as described hereinbefore in paragraph 4, and the cancellation of all rights and preferences appertaining to the preferred stock, including all rights to accumulated, unpaid dividends. Such shares so cancelled will not be reissued;

The result of the foregoing will be that, upon consummation of the plan, each holder of preferred stock of $100 par value will receive eleven shares of common stock of $4 par value for each share of preferred stock of $100 par value surrendered by him;

8. The cancellation of twenty-four out of the twenty-five shares of common stock of $4 par value, which each holder of one share of common stock of $100 par value is entitled to receive as a result of the decrease in par value of such stock and the corresponding increase in the number of shares, as provided hereinbefore in paragraph 4. Such shares so cancelled shall not be reissued;

The result of the foregoing will be that upon consummation of the plan, each holder of common stock of $100 par value will receive one share of common stock of $4 par value for each share of common stock of $100 par value surrendered by him;

9. The issuance by Laclede Gas of the following securities:

(a) $19,000,000 principal amount of First Mortgage Bonds, bearing interest at the rate of 3¾% per annum, and maturing twenty years from the date of issuance thereof.

(b) $3,000,000 aggregate principal amount of serial debentures, maturing serially within a ten or fifteen year period from the date of issuance thereof;

The proceeds from the sale of these securities, together with other available cash on hand of Laclede Gas and to be received by it as a result of certain of the foregoing transactions, will be used to discharge the outstanding funded debt of Laclede Gas aggregating $32,529,000 principal amount by payment of the face amount of such securities to the holders thereof;

10. The result of the cancellation of shares of preferred stock and common stock of $4 par value (as hereinbefore provided) will be to increase capital surplus on the books of Laclede Gas by approximately $12,600,000. The increase in the property account of Laclede Gas as a result of a revaluation effected in 1926, will be charged to capital surplus. There will be charged to earned surplus until it is exhausted, and then to capital surplus, the loss on the books of Laclede Gas resulting from the said sale of the electric properties to Union Electric and any other adjustments required to be made on the books of Laclede Gas by any regulatory body having jurisdiction;

11. The dissolution of Lacelde Electric after the discharge of its liabilities as provided in paragraph 2 (a) preceding;

12. The offer by Ogden Corporation to residents of the State of Missouri of the new common stock of Laclede Gas, which it is entitled to receive hereunder, at a price to be subject to the approval at the time by the Securities and Exchange Commission as fair. Said offer shall be made within one year after completion of the reorganization unless such time shall be extended by this Commission;

The plan further provides that at any time after its approval, as provided above, the Board of Directors of Laclede Gas may, if it be deemed necessary or desirable, request the Securities and Exchange Commission, pursuant to section 11 (e), to apply to a court of competent jurisdiction to carry out the terms and provisions of the plan.

This Commission having heretofore ordered (Holding Company Act Release No. 4253) that the plan filed by Laclede Gas, Laclede Electric, Phoenix, and Ogden Corporation (File No. 54-39) and proceedings in respect of the plan filed by Ogden Corporation and subsidiary companies pursuant to section 11 (e) of the Act (File No. 54-69) and the proceedings instituted by the Commission directed to Ogden Corporation and subsidiary companies, respondents, pursuant to sections 11 (b) (1), 11 (b) (2), 15 (f), and 20 (a) of the Act (File No. 59-65) be consolidated, and having ordered that a hearing on such matters be held on May 18, 1943; and

A hearing having been held on said date, and said hearing having been thereafter adjourned subject to call;

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that the hearing be reconvened with respect to the said consolidated matters;

It is therefore ordered, That the hearing in these proceedings shall be reconvened on August 19, 1943, at 10 a. m., e. w. t., at the offices of this Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. On that date the hearing room clerk in Room 318 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That Willis E. Monty or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose, to preside at such hearings shall exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice.

It is further ordered, That, without limiting the scope of the issues presented in these consolidated proceedings, particular attention will be directed at the reconvened hearing to the following matters and questions:

(a) Whether the proposed issuance by Laclede Gas of $22,000,000 principal amount of debt is reasonably adapted to its assets, earning power, and security structure;

(b) Whether Laclede Gas should be required to carry its fixed assets on its books at the estimated original cost thereof as determined by the accountants for the Public Service Commission of the State of Missouri, as of August 31, 1942, plus subsequent net additions at actual cost;

(c) Whether the depreciation reserve of Laclede Gas is adequate and whether any remaining balance in capital surplus, after giving effect to all other charges for property adjustments and similar matters, should be required to be transferred to the depreciation reserve;

(d) Whether the proposed allocation of the proceeds of the sale of the electric properties operated by Laclede Electric between Laclede Gas and Laclede Electric is fair and equitable;

(e) Whether the proposed issuance by Laclede Gas of eleven shares of new $4 par value common stock for each share of $100 par value preferred stock to the present holders thereof and the proposed issuance of one share of new $4 par value common stock for each share of $100 par value common stock to the present holders thereof are fair and equitable to the persons affected thereby;

(f) Whether the securities and cash proposed to be received and retained by Ogden as a result of the reorganization of Laclede Gas, the sale of the electric properties operated by Laclede Electric, and the liquidation and dissolution of Laclede Electric, constitute fair and equitable consideration for Ogden's interests in Laclede Gas and Laclede Electric;

(g) To what extent, if any, the proposed plan should be modified or amended to render it feasible and fair and equitable to the persons affected and what terms and conditions should be imposed in the public interest and for the protection of investors and consumers.

Notice is hereby given of said hearing to the above-named applicants and respondents, and to all interested persons; said notice to be given to said applicants and respondents by registered mail, and to all other persons by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard in this proceeding shall file with the Secretary of this Commission, on or before August 17, 1943, an appropriate request or application to be heard, as provided by Rule XVII of the Commission's Rules of Practice.

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction be and is hereby reserved to separate, whether for hearing, in whole or in part, or for disposition, in whole or in part, any of the issues, questions, or matters hereinbefore set forth or which may arise in this proceeding, or to consolidate with these proceedings other filings or matters pertaining to said Plan or to take such other action as may appear conducive to an orderly, prompt, and economical disposition of the matters involved.

By the Commission.

It is therefore ordered, That the hearings in the above-entitled matter be reconvened on the 8th day of September 1943 at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that date in the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in such room as the Hearing Room Clerk in Room 318 will at that time advise.

ASHBACH AND RUBLOFF, ETC.

CONSENT ORDER AMENDED

M. L. Gersh Furniture Company, 152 West Huron Street, Chicago, Illinois, appealed from the provisions of the Consent Order issued July 15, 1943, directed against Leonard Ashbach and Harry L. Rubloff, doing business as Ashbach and Rubloff, Domestic Distributing Company, M. L. Gersh Furniture Company or otherwise. The Chief Compliance Commissioner has determined that M. L. Gersh Furniture Company did not join in the consent to the order and in fact had no connection whatever with the violations upon which the Consent Order was based. He has directed that the Consent Order be amended to delete all mention therein to M. L. Gersh Furniture Company.

In view of the foregoing, the Consent Order is hereby amended to read as follows:

Leonard Ashbach and Harry L. Rubloff, a partnership, doing business as Ashbach and Rubloff, or Domestic Distributing Company, 152 West Huron Street, Chicago, Illinois, were charged in a letter from the Regional Compliance Chief of the Chicago Regional Office of the War Production Board with having violated Limitation Order L-183 in that between January 1, 1943, and April 24, 1943, they manufactured, produced, fabricated or assembled electronic equipment, namely, approximately 2,380 radio sets by converting the use or mode of operation of said radio sets from automobile radios to radios for home use pursuant to orders bearing no preference ratings, and transferred approximately 3,880 radio sets on orders which did not bear a preference rating of A-3 or higher. Ashbach and Rubloff, and Domestic Distributing Company, by Leonard Ashbach and Harry L. Rubloff, admit the aforementioned violations as charged, and have consented to the issuance of the within order.

Wherefore, upon agreement and consent of the respondents, the Regional Compliance Chief and the Regional Attorney, and upon the approval of the Compliance Commissioner.

It is hereby ordered, That:

(a) Leonard Ashbach and Harry L. Rubloff, doing business as Ashbach and Rubloff, Domestic Distributing Company or otherwise, their successors and assigns, are hereby prohibited from selling, leasing, trading, lending, shipping, transferring, or negotiating for the sale of any electronic equipment as defined in Limitation Order L-265, except to fill preferred orders, as defined in Limitation Order L-265, or unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Leonard Ashbach and Harry L. Rubloff, doing business as Ashbach and Rubloff, Domestic Distributing Company or otherwise, their successors and assigns, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect on July 15, 1943, and shall expire on September 15, 1943.

PART 342—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 22

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER OF CONSOLIDATION

Memorandum opinion and order of consolidation granting petition to amend petition, amending petition, terminating temporary relief heretofore granted and granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 22 for the establishment of additional price classification and minimum prices for certain coals produced in Subdistricts 1 and 2 in District No. 22 in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 22 for the establishment of a price classification and minimum prices for nut coals, 3" x 1⅝" in size, of the Smith No. 2 Vein Mine.

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, was duly filed with the Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of a price classification and minimum prices for 3" x 1⅝" nut coal to be designated as Size Group 6–A, produced by code members in Subdistricts 1 and 2 in District No. 22 for shipment by rail to destinations in certain specified market areas. A separate petition requesting, among other things, the same relief was filed for the coals produced from the Smith No. 2 Vein Mine, Mine Index No. 310.

On April 30, 1943, a memorandum opinion and order granting temporary relief was issued in Docket No. A–1959 wherein it was found that the original petition did not contain facts sufficient to warrant the temporary or permanent establishment of a new size group to be designated as Size Group 6–A, as requested by petitioner, without a hearing; that the minimum prices proposed by petitioner for the 3" x 1⅝" nut coal produced in Subdistrict 2 for shipment by rail did not appear to maintain a proper differential with respect to the minimum prices previously established for Size Group 7 coals produced in Subdistrict 2 for rail shipments. Accordingly, pending a hearing and the final disposition of the original petition in Docket No. A–1959, temporary relief was granted except that no new size group was established and temporary minimum prices which were lower than those proposed in the original petition, were established for Size Group 6, which would include 3" x 1⅝" nut coals, produced in Subdistrict 2.

On June 4, 1943, the Bituminous Coal Consumers' Counsel filed with the Division a Petition of Intervention and Motion to Modify Temporary Relief in Docket No. A–1959 which was denied by order dated June 29, 1943, which order scheduled a hearing in the matter. The hearing was cancelled by order dated July 8, 1943.

A petition was filed by the petitioner with this Division on July 21, 1943, requesting that the original petition be amended by deleting therefrom the request for relief as set forth above and proposing in lieu thereof the establishment of temporary and permanent price classifications for nut coal, 3" x 2", Size Group 6, for shipment by rail into all market areas. Petitioner also requests the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of minimum prices for egg coal, 6" x 3", Size Group 4, for shipment by rail into all market areas which results in a coal with a top size of 3" (Size Group 6).

It is further stated that the establishment of the requested minimum prices will provide necessary relief to producers in Subdistricts 1 and 2 of District No. 22 and will remove the objections set forth in the aforesaid petition of intervention filed by the Bituminous Coal Consumers Counsel.

The minimum prices proposed by petitioner for 6" x 3" nut coal, Size Group 4, for shipment by rail into all market areas are uniformly 10 cents per ton higher than the effective minimum prices for 6" x 2" coal, Size Group 5, and the minimum prices proposed by petitioner for 3" x 2" egg coal, Size Group 6, for shipment by rail into all market areas, except Market Area 243, are predicated upon a differential of 10 cents per ton higher than the effective minimum prices for 2" x 1¼" coal, Size Group 7. Since no minimum prices have heretofore been established for shipment by rail into Market Area 243 for Size Group 7 coal produced in Subdistricts 1 and 2 in District No. 22, no relief is granted herein with respect to Size Group 6 coals for shipment by rail into Market Area 243.

Upon the basis of the foregoing facts and statements, the Director is of the opinion that good cause has been shown for the granting of said petition to amend and that said petition to amend should be granted as hereinafter set forth.

By letter dated July 19, 1943, and received by the Division on July 23, 1943, petitioner requests that the same price classifications and minimum prices proposed in the aforesaid petition to amend filed in Docket No. A–1959 for nut coal, 3" x 2", Size Group 6, and for egg coal, 6" x 3", Size Group 4, produced by code members in Subdistricts 1 and 2 in District No. 22, be established for the Smith No. 2 Vein Mine, Mine Index No. 310, located in Subdistrict 2 in District No. 22.

On June 4, 1943, a Memorandum Opinion and Order severing Docket No. A–2000, Part II, from Docket No. A–2000 and Granting Temporary Relief in Docket No. A–2000, Part II, was issued wherein it was found that pending a hearing and further order in Docket No. A–1959, no permanent relief should be granted with respect to coals 3" x 1⅝" in size produced at the Smith No. 2 Vein Mine, but that the same temporary price classification and minimum prices established by the order in Docket No. A–1959 on April 30, 1943, for this size of coal produced at other mines in Subdistrict 2 should also be established for this mine.

It appears that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; that no petitions of intervention and no motions in objection to the granting of said petition to amend filed on July 21, 1943 in Docket No. A–1959 have been filed with the Division; that the petitions filed in Dockets Nos. A–1959 and A–2000, Part II, should be consolidated; and that the following action is necessary to effectuate the purposes of the Act.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the above-named matters be, and the same hereby are, consolidated.

It is further ordered, That the prayer of the said petition to amend be, and the same hereby is, granted.

It is further ordered, That the temporary relief heretofore granted in the orders issued in Docket No. A–1959 on April 30, 1943 and in Docket No. A–2000, Part II on June 4, 1943, be, and the same hereby are, terminated.

It is further ordered, That pending further order temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith § 342.5 (General prices; minimum prices for shipment via rail transportation) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R, which supplement is hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the petitions filed in the above-entitled matters and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division on or before August 7, 1943, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final August 10, 1943, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

Dated: August 2, 1943.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-384]

TENNESSEE MAYTAG AND FURNITURE CO.

Tennessee Maytag and Furniture Company, a corporation, of Nashville, Tennessee, is engaged in the retail furniture business. Subsequent to January 18, 1943, said corporation sold and delivered new metal heating equipment, as defined in Limitation Order L-79, on orders which bore no preference ratings, or concerning which signed statements from the purchasers, as required by said order, had not been furnished. At the time of these sales the Tennessee Maytag and Furniture Company had knowledge of the provisions of Limitation Order L-79, and these sales constituted wilful violations of that order.

These violations of Limitation Order L-79 have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States by diverting scarce materials to uses not authorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing: It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.384 Suspension Order No. S-384. (a) Tennessee Maytag Furniture Company, its successors or assigns, shall not, directly or indirectly, purchase, accept deliveries of, sell, deliver, or otherwise deal in, new metal heating equipment, as defined in Limitation Order L-79, except as specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Tennessee Maytag Furniture Company, its successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect on August 10, 1943, and shall expire on November 10, 1943.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,

[Suspension Order S-387]

HOG ISLAND LUMBER CO.

The Hog Island Lumber Company, 2908 South 84th Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, is a partnership composed of Samuel Cohen and David Cohen and is engaged in the retail lumber business. Subsequent to August 21, 1942, they sold and delivered soft wood lumber of a kind and grade defined in Conservation Order M-208 in the exact amount necessary for the construction or assembling of a bungalow knowing that it was to be used for that purpose, without authorization from the War Production Board. This act constituted a violation of Conservation Order M-208.

Between October 8, 1942, and January 13, 1943, respondents purchased lumber on orders bearing no preference rating in violation of Conservation Order M-208. Between October 8, 1942, and January 13, 1943, respondents purchased lumber on orders to which preference ratings were subsequently and improperly applied by respondents, or for some of which the respondents had no preference ratings at the time they purported to apply preference ratings. These actions constituted a violation of Priorities Regulation No. 3. Respondents knew, or from their business experience should have known of Conservation Order M-208 and Priorities Regulation No. 3. Such actions constitute wilful violations of Conservation Order M-208 and Priorities Regulation No. 3; they have diverted scarce materials to uses not authorized by the War Production Board and have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States. In view of the foregoing, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.387 Suspension Order No. S-387. (a) Deliveries of material to Samuel Cohen and David Cohen doing business as Hog Island Lumber Company, or otherwise, their and its successors and assigns shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order and no preference rating shall be assigned, applied, or extended to such deliveries by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders, or any other orders or regulations of the War Production Board, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(b) No allocation or allotment of materials or products, the supply or distribution of which is governed by any order or regulation of the War Production Board shall be made to Samuel Cohen and David Cohen, doing business as Hog Island Lumber Company, or otherwise, their and its successors and assigns, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Samuel Cohen and David Cohen, doing business as Hog Island Lumber Company, or otherwise, from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(d) This order shall take effect on August 10, 1943, and shall expire on October 10, 1943.

Issued this 3d day of August 1943.

TIDMARSH ENGINEERING CO.

P. M. Tidmarsh, trading as Tidmarsh Engineering Company, of Tucson, Arizona, is engaged, among other things, in the sale and installation of plumbing, heating, cooling and refrigerating equipment. Between October 1, 1942, and February 10, 1943, he violated Limitation Order L-79 by selling and delivering numerous items of new metal plumbing equipment and new metal heating equipment, as defined in that order, to ultimate consumers who did not furnish him with preference rated orders or proper certifications. At the time of these transactions P. M. Tidmarsh was familiar with the provisions of Limitation Order L-79, and the violations of that order must be considered wilful.

These violations of Limitation Order L-79 have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States by distributing scarce material in a manner unauthorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.388 Suspension Order No. S-388. (a) During the term of this order P. M. Tidmarsh, individually or trading as Tidmarsh Engineering Company, or otherwise, his successors or assigns, shall not purchase, sell, accept or make delivery of, or otherwise deal in new metal plumbing equipment or new metal heating equipment, as defined in Limitation Order L-79, except as specifically authorized in writing by the Regional Director of the San Francisco Regional Office of the War Production Board. Authority is hereby delegated to the San Francisco Regional Director to pass upon such applications made by the respondent.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve P. M. Tidmarsh, individually or doing business as Tidmarsh Engineering Company, or otherwise, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect on August 10, 1943, and shall expire on November 10, 1943.

[Suspension Order S-390]

BARTON ELECTRIC CO.

The respondents, J. W. Barton and G. H. Barton, partners operating under the firm name of Barton Electric Company, are engaged in business as electrical contractors and also as dealers in various electrical appliances. They are located in business at 111 West Chestnut Street, Dodge City, Kansas.

On August 3, 1942, the respondents began construction of a frozen food locker plant at Syracuse, Kansas, at a total cost of $9,200, which included the sale and installation therein of new refrigeration equipment of a value of $4,000. On September 15, 1942, they began construction for their own use of a frozen food locker plant in Dodge City, Kansas, at a total cost of more than $4,000, which included the installation therein of new refrigeration equipment of a value of $3,200. These construction projects were not authorized pursuant to Conservation Order L–41. The sales and installations of new refrigeration equipment were not made on preferred orders pursuant to Limitation Order L–38.

While there may be some doubt as to whether the respondents knew of the restrictions of Conservation Order L–41 when they began construction of the Syracuse plant, (and they are accorded the benefit of the doubt), there is no question but that they knew of them when they constructed their own plant in Dodge City. They were aware of Limitation Order L–38 which prevented the sale and installation of new electric refrigeration equipment without a preference rating. Thus their actions, with the exception of the construction in Syracuse, Kansas, were wilful violations of Conservation Order L–41 and Limitation Order L–38.

These violations of Orders L–38 and L–41 have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States by diverting scarce materials to uses not authorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.390 Suspension Order No. S–390. (a) Deliveries of material to J. W. Barton and G. H. Barton, individually or doing business as Barton Electric Company or otherwise, their or its successors or assigns, shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order, and no preference ratings shall be assigned, applied or extended to such deliveries by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders, or any other orders or regulations of the War Production Board, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(b) No allocation shall be made to J. W. Barton and G. H. Barton, individually or doing business as Barton Electric Company, or otherwise, their or its successors or assigns, of any material the supply or distribution of which is governed by any order or regulation of the War Production Board, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(c) The provisions of this order shall not apply to materials or products which are required by the respondent in servicing or repairing refrigeration equipment, if written authority for such service or repair work is obtained in advance from the Regional Director of the Kansas City Regional Office of the War Production Board. Authority is hereby delegated to the said Regional Director to pass upon respondent's requests for permission to perform such service or repair work.

(d) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve J. W. Barton or G. H. Barton, individually or doing business as Barton Electric Company or otherwise, their or its successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(e) This order shall take effect on August 10, 1943 and shall expire on December 10, 1943.

Issued this 3d day of August 1943.

1. On "List B", "Part I", in item 1 the words "Army or Navy." are changed to read "Army or Navy; or when specifically authorized on Form WPB–2448 (formerly PD–831) only, and only for a hospital or a new or enlarged industrial plant (except in offices and eating places) or replacement in an industrial plant of an existing cooler which is beyond repair, if considered indispensable by the War Production Board."

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of iron and steel for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

However, no stainless steel shall be used unless List C specifically says that it may.

(2) Other items. In the case of all articles or parts not governed by List A or C (including those articles and parts excepted from List A), when specifications (including performance specifications) of the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration call for a particular kind or amount of iron or steel (including stainless steel) the iron or steel specified may be used.

(d) Restrictions on manufacture when the use of iron and steel is not elsewhere prohibited in this order. No person shall use any iron or steel to make any article or part for which it would be practicable to use other less scarce material.[1] No person shall use more iron or steel in making any article or part than is necessary. No person shall use any alloy steel (including stainless steel) to make any article or part for which it is practicable to use carbon steel or iron (other than iron included under the definition of stainless steel).

(2) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order must be made on Form WPB–1477 (formerly Form PD–500) and must be filed with the field office of the War Production Board for the district in which is located the plant to which the appeal relates.

(3) Applicability of order. The prohibitions and restrictions contained in this order shall apply whether the items are ordered or manufactured pursuant to a contract made prior to, on, or subsequent to May 5, 1942, or pursuant to a contract supported by a preference rating or allotment insofar as any other order of the War Production Board may have the effect of limiting or curtailing to a greater extent than herein provided the use of any material in the production of any item, the limitations of such order shall be observed.

(4) Intra-company deliveries. The restrictions of this order with respect to deliveries prohibit or restrict deliveries not only to other persons, including affiliates or subsidiaries, but also from one branch, division, or section of a single enterprise to another branch, division or section of the same or any other enterprise under common ownership or control.

[1] The Conservation Division of the War Production Board issues, periodically, a publication showing the relative scarcity of materials entitled "Materials Substitutions and Supply".

(5) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(7) Repair. The restrictions of this order (other than those contained in paragraph (d)) shall not apply to a person repairing a used article on or off the premises of the owner, if the person making the repair does not use iron or steel weighing in the aggregate more than 25 pounds and if any putting into process, processing or assembling done by such person is for the purpose of making the specific repair. This paragraph (g) (7) does not limit the manufacture of repair and maintenance parts when List A permits the making of such parts.

(8) Restrictions on manufacturing in certain labor areas. When List A indicates that the manufacture of a particular item is subject to this paragraph (g) (8), no person shall put into process, process, or assemble any iron or steel (including stainless steel) to make any such item or any part thereof, unless such processing or assembling is to take place in a manufacturing establishment located in groups 3 or 4 of the labor market areas as may be from time to time designated by the War Manpower Commission.

[F. R. Doc. 43-12976; Filed, August 10, 1943; 11:44 a. m.]

PART 1071—INDUSTRIAL AND COMMERCIAL REFRIGERATING AND AIR CONDITIONING MACHINERY AND EQUIPMENT

[Interpretation 1 to General Limitation Order L-38]

a. Orders accepted prior to April 6, 1943. An "authorized order" includes (in addition to an order authorized on Form PD-830 or PD-831) any order accepted prior to April 6, 1943, and rated A-1-c or higher if the system or parts are produced and delivered in accordance with the provisions of Orders M-9-c and M-126 which were applicable immediately prior to that date. For example: Prior to April 6, Order M-126 prohibited the processing, assembly, and delivery of electric drinking water coolers containing iron or steel, except to fill orders of the United States Army, Navy, Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration, for coolers for use on board ship, in hospitals and in tropical climates (List C). Therefore electric drinking water coolers fabricated or assembled during the period from the date when such restrictions of M-126 became effective, until April 6, 1943, may be delivered under an order rated A-1-c or higher and accepted prior to April 6, 1943 only if such coolers were produced and are to be delivered for those purposes. If produced or to be delivered for any other purpose, their delivery must be specifically authorized.

b. Change in type of refrigerant. Paragraph (b) (1) does not prevent the substitution of one type of refrigerant for another if the change does not involve the delivery of any "parts". The restrictions of paragraph (b) (1) apply only to "parts" and the term "parts" is defined in paragraph (a) (2) to exclude liquid or gaseous refrigerants. For example: Where the owner of a system is unable to obtain a chlorinated hydrocarbon refrigerant to keep it in operation, methyl chloride may be substituted as a refrigerant (in so far as Order L-38 is concerned), if no additional "parts" are installed. However, if the change involves the installation of an expansion valve or other "part", it may be made only in accordance with paragraph (b) (1). Moreover, if the "part" which is being replaced is still usable, compliance with paragraph (b) (1) can be had only under subdivision (c) or (d) of the paragraph.

PART 3132—PROCESSORS OF METAL SCRAP

[Preference Rating Order P-136 as Amended August 10, 1943]

Section 3132.1 Preference Rating Order P-136 is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 3132.1 Preference Rating Order P-136—(a) Definitions. (1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Processor" means any person operating an automobile graveyard or scrap yard physically situated within the limits of the United States or Canada.

(3) "Material" means any commodity, equipment, accessory, part, assembly, or product of any kind.

(4) "Maintenance" means the minimum upkeep necessary to continue a facility in sound working condition, and "repair" means the restoration of a facility to sound working condition when the same has been rendered unsafe or unfit for service by wear and tear, damage, failure of parts or the like: Provided, That neither maintenance nor repair shall include the improvement of any plant, facility or equipment, by replacing material which is still usable, with material of a better kind, quality or design, except as provided in paragraph (a) (6) of this order.

(5) "Operating supplies" means any material or products which are normally carried by a person as operating supplies according to established accounting practice and are not included in his finished product, except that materials included in such product which are normally chargeable to operating expense may be treated as operating supplies. The term shall also include such items as hand tools, customarily purchased by the particular employer for sale to his employees for use only in his business, in those cases where they would constitute operating supplies under established accounting practice if issued to employees without charge.

(6) Minor capital additions may be obtained under the procedures established by this order where the cost of such addition does not exceed $250 (excluding the purchaser's cost of labor) for any one complete capital addition. The term "one complete capital addition" includes a group of items customarily purchased together and all items which would normally be purchased as part of a single project or plan. No capital addition shall be subdivided for the purpose of coming within this paragraph, and where the capital addition involves construction authorization to construct must be obtained to the extent required by Conservation Order L-41 or by any other applicable order or regulation of the War Production Board.

(b) Assignment of preference ratings. Subject to the terms of this order, processors shall use the rating AA-2 for deliveries to them of material for repairs to, maintenance of, or operating supplies for, equipment used solely for locating, processing or transporting metal scrap, but nothing herein contained shall prevent the use of any other or higher rating to which any processor may be entitled by reason of any preference rating certificate or order, other than CMP Regulation No. 5.

(c) Certificates on rated purchase orders or contracts. (1) The ratings assigned under paragraph (b) of this order may be applied by a processor only by use of a certificate in substantially the following form (in lieu of the endorsements specified in CMP Regulation No. 5), signed manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 7:

Preference Rating AA-2—MRO—P-136 No._____(show serial number). The undersigned certifies subject to the penalties of Section 35 (A) of the United States Criminal Code, to the seller and to the War Production Board, that all materials and items covered by this order are required for essential repairs to, maintenance of, or operating supplies for, equipment used for the sole purpose of locating, processing or transporting metal scrap; and that this order is rated and placed in compliance with Preference Rating Order P-136.

(2) An order for a controlled material endorsed in accordance with subparagraph (1) of this paragraph (c) shall constitute an authorized controlled material order.

(3) No processor shall apply the preference rating or allotment symbol assigned by this order for the acquisition of aluminum in any of the forms or shapes constituting a controlled material.

(d) Use of preference rating and allotment symbol. No processor shall apply any preference rating or allotment symbol assigned by this order until:

(1) He shall have filed with the Scrap Processors Branch, Salvage Division, War Production Board, a statement in the form prescribed by the War Production Board, setting forth amounts of raw material used for repair, maintenance and operating supplies for the preceding calendar quarter, inventories of such material at the beginning and end of such period, and an estimate of the requirements of such material for the current quarter, and further stating that he accepts the terms and conditions of this order; and

(2) He shall have received from the Scrap Processors Branch, War Production Board, a serial number which shall thereafter be endorsed on all purchase orders or contracts for material by him or for his account which are rated pursuant to this order. Serial numbers which heretofore have been or hereafter are assigned to any processor may be revoked by the War Production Board at any time.

(e) Restrictions on use of rating. No processor may apply any rating or allotment symbol hereby assigned to obtain delivery of material on earlier dates than required for the operation, maintenance or repair of his equipment.

(f) Quantity restrictions. (1) No processor who uses the preference rating or allotment symbol assigned by this order to obtain any maintenance, repair or operating supplies shall order for delivery during any calendar quarter maintenance, repair or operating supplies in an aggregate amount exceeding 30 percent of his aggregate expenditures for maintenance, repair and operating supplies during the calendar year 1942 (or his fiscal year ending nearest to December 31, 1942). In determining the dollar amount of expenditures for maintenance, repair and operating supplies permitted under this paragraph (f) there shall be included not only expenditures for which the preference rating or allotment symbol hereby assigned is required, but also expenditures for supplies which may be obtained without the use of such rating or symbol, plus amounts expended in acquiring minor capital additions under paragraph (a) (6) of this order. Expenditures during the base period may be computed in the same fashion.

(2) In the case of a plant or other operating unit which was not in operation during the base period specified in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph (f), the processor operating the same may take, as a base, his expenditures for maintenance, repair and operating supplies during the first quarter of 1943, or during the portion thereof when the plant or unit was in operation, reasonably adjusted for seasonal or other variable factors: Provided, That he first notifies the War Production Board in writing of the base which he is taking, the reasons therefor, and the nature of any adjustments made.

(3) The quantity restrictions imposed in this paragraph (f) shall not apply to processors whose aggregate requirements for maintenance, repair and operating supplies do not exceed $500 per year.

(g) Relief. (1) Any processor who feels that the preference rating assigned by this order is inadequate to permit him to acquire materials needed for maintenance, repair or operating supplies, may apply for relief by filing form WPB-541 (formerly PD-1A) with the nearest District Office of the War Production Board.

(2) Any processor who feels that any other provision of this order, including the quantity restrictions imposed by paragraph (f), works a hardship on him, may apply for relief by filing a letter in triplicate stating fully the grounds of such appeal.

(h) Resale of material prohibited.—Except with specific permission of the War Production Board, a processor shall not resell any material acquired for repair, maintenance or operating supplies (whether or not obtained pursuant to the rating or allotment symbol assigned by this order); Provided, That nothing herein contained shall prohibit sale by the processor of used material acquired prior to October 31, 1942.

(i) Several operating units under single ownership. A processor who has several plants or other operating units which maintain separate records of maintenance, repair and operating supplies shall treat each of them separately for purposes of this order.

(j) Inventory restrictions. Nothing in this order shall be deemed to authorize any processor to receive any delivery of maintenance, repair or operating supplies if acceptance thereof would increase his inventory above a practicable working minimum as provided in § 944.14 of Priorities Regulation No. 1, or would exceed the inventory limitations prescribed for such processor by CMP Regulation No. 2, or by any other applicable regulation or order of the War Production Board.

(k) Restriction on use of rating and symbol. The preference rating and allotment symbol assigned by this order shall not be applied to deliveries of any of the items appearing on List B of Priorities Regulation No. 3, as amended from time to time, regardless of whether or not such items are required for maintenance, repair or operating supplies. For convenience of reference, there is set forth in List 1 attached hereto items appearing in List B of Priorities Regulation No. 3 which are of particular interest to processors; however, Priorities Regulation No. 3 shall be controlling with respect to the application of the preference rating and allotment symbol hereby assigned.

(l) CMP Regulation No. 5 not applicable. None of the provisions of CMP Regulation No. 5 shall apply to any processor, as defined in paragraph (a) (2) of this order, and no such processor shall obtain any material under such regulation.

(m) Records, audits and reports. Each processor and each supplier shall keep and preserve for a period of not less than two years accurate and complete records of all transactions affected by this order and shall submit such records from time to time to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board. Each processor and each supplier shall execute and file with the War Production Board or other designated agency such reports and in such form as the War Production Board shall from time to time require, subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget, pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(n) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(o) Revocation or modification. This order may be revoked or modified by the War Production Board at any time as to any processor or supplier. In the event of revocation or modification, deliveries already rated pursuant to this order shall be completed in accordance with said rating, unless said rating has been specifically revoked or modified with respect thereto. No additional application of said rating to any other deliveries shall thereafter be made by any processor or supplier affected by such revocation or modification.

(p) Communications to the War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed be addressed to: War Production Board, Salvage Division, Washington 25, D. C., Reference P-136.

Issued this 10th day of August 1943.

Recording Secretary.

[Direction 24 to CMP Reg. 1]

STEEL FURNISHED BY FABRICATORS ON CONSTRUCTION PROJECTS

The following Direction 24 is issued pursuant to CMP Regulation 1.

(a) Steel shapes, plates, bars, concrete reinforcing bars, and wire products used for concrete reinforcement, in controlled material form, on which one or more of the services listed in paragraph (d) (3) of this direction have been performed by the fabricator, or which have been cut to specific size or length for a specific construction project by the fabricator, are to be treated as Class A products instead of as controlled materials.

(b) Steel shapes, plates, bars, concrete reinforcing bars, and wire products used for concrete reinforcement, furnished in controlled material form by a fabricator under this direction must nonetheless be treated as a controlled material by the customer of the fabricator for the purpose of the inventory restrictions of CMP Regulation No. 2.

PART 3258—METHYL ISOBUTYL KETONE

[General Preference Order M-322 as Amended August 10, 1943]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of methyl isobutyl ketone for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3258.1 General Preference Order M-322—(a) Definitions. (1) "Methyl isobutyl ketone" means the chemical known by that name or by the name hexone.

(2) "Producer" means any person engaged in the production of methyl isobutyl ketone and includes any person who has methyl isobutyl ketone produced for him pursuant to toll agreement.

(3) "Distributor" means any person who purchases methyl isobutyl ketone for resale without further processing.

(4) "Supplier" means a producer or distributor.

(b) Restrictions on delivery. (1) On and after June 1, 1943, no supplier shall deliver methyl isobutyl ketone to any person except as specifically authorized or directed in writing by War Production Board. No person shall accept delivery of methyl isobutyl ketone which he knows or has reason to believe is delivered in violation of this order.

(2) Authorizations or directions with respect to deliveries to be made in each calendar month by suppliers will so far as practicable be issued by War Production Board prior to the commencement of such month (in the normal case on Form PD-602 filed pursuant to paragraph (f) (1) hereof), but War Production Board may at any time issue directions with respect to deliveries to be made.

(3) In the event that any supplier after receiving notice from War Production Board with respect to a delivery of methyl isobutyl ketone which he is authorized or directed to make to any specific customer or group of customers, shall for any reason be unable or unwilling to make such delivery, such supplier shall forthwith give notice of such fact to War Production Board, Chemicals Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: M-322, and shall not, in the absence of specific authorization or direction in writing from War Production Board, sell or otherwise dispose of such methyl isobutyl ketone.

(c) Restrictions on use. (1) On and after June 1, 1943, no supplier shall use methyl isobutyl ketone except as specifically authorized or directed in writing by War Production Board.

(2) Each person who with an order for methyl isobutyl ketone furnishes a certificate required by paragraph (e) (1) shall use the methyl isobutyl ketone delivered on such order only as specified in such certificate, except as otherwise specifically authorized or directed in writing by War Production Board.

(3) War Production Board may from time to time issue directions with respect to the use or uses which may or may not be made of methyl isobutyl ketone to be delivered to, or then in the inventory of, the prospective user.

(d) Exceptions to requirements for specific authorizations. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (b) (1) hereof, specific authorization in writing of War Production Board shall not be required for the delivery by any supplier to any one person in any calendar month of not more than 54 gallons: Provided, however, That the aggregate quantity of methyl isobutyl ketone which any supplier may deliver in any calendar month pursuant to this paragraph (d) shall not exceed the quantity which War Production Board shall in writing have specifically authorized or directed such supplier to deliver in such month under this paragraph (d), on application made by such supplier (in the normal case on Form PD-602 filed pursuant to paragraph (f) (1) hereof).

(e) Customer's certificate of intended use. (1) No supplier shall in any calendar month deliver to any one person more than 54 gallons of methyl isobutyl ketone unless, prior thereto, he shall have received from such person a certificate in substantially the following form:

The undersigned purchaser hereby certifies to War Production Board and to his supplier, pursuant to Order M-322, that the methyl isobutyl ketone hereby ordered for delivery in _____, 194__ will be month
used by him in the manufacture or preparation of the following product(s), and that such product(s), on the basis of an order or orders filed with the undersigned, will be put to the following end use(s):

	Pounds	Primary product	End use
(A)	_____	_____	_____
(B)	_____	_____	_____

Name of purchaser

_____ By _____
Date — Duly authorized official — Title

Such certificate need not be filed with War Production Board. It may be inscribed on the purchaser's order or take the form of a separate instrument but in either case shall be signed by an authorized official of the purchaser either manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 7. No supplier shall deliver methyl isobutyl ketone where he knows or has reason to believe the purchaser's certificate to be false, but in the absence of such knowledge or reason to believe, he may rely on the certificate.

(2) In filling out the certificate called for by paragraph (e) (1), purchaser will specify under "Primary product" the product or products in the manufacture of which he will use methyl isobutyl ketone in terms of the following:

Denaturant
Lacquer manufacture
Thinner manufacture
Others (specify)
Resale (as methyl isobutyl ketone)

Under "End use", the purchaser will specify the end or ultimate use to which the primary product manufactured by him will be put, and will also indicate whether such ultimate use will be Army, Navy, other government agency, Lend-Lease, other export or civilian, and he will also list Army, Navy and Lend-Lease contract numbers and export license numbers. Quantities for each primary product and for each different end use for each primary product must be shown separately. If purchase is for resale, specify "resale" under "primary product" and leave blank "end use" column.

(f) Applications and reports. (1) Each supplier requiring authorization to make delivery of, or to use, methyl isobutyl ketone during any calendar month, beginning with July, 1943, shall file application on or before the 20th day of the preceding month. Chapter XI—Office of Price Administration

PART 1340—FUEL

SOLID FUELS SOLD AND DELIVERED BY DEALERS

A statement of considerations involved in the issuance of this Amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122 is amended in the following respects:

1. In § 1340.251 (a) (1), the words, "by the producer or distributor" are deleted.

2. In § 1340.254, the headnote of paragraph (a) is amended to read: "How to use the maximum price rules of paragraphs (b) and (c)."

3. In § 1340.254, the headnote of paragraph (b) is amended to read: "The maximum price rules for fuels."

4. In § 1340.254 (a), after the words, ". . . are stated in § 1340.256", a new sentence is added to read as follows: "Rules 5 and 6 are to be used for calculating the maximum prices for services rendered by the dealer in connection with his sales of fuels."

5. In § 1340.254 (b), a new undesignated paragraph is added after the second undesignated paragraph to read as set forth below:

If the dealer did not deliver a certain size of a kind of fuel to any class of purchasers during December 1941, his maximum price for sales of that size shall be based upon his maximum price for a like sale of that kind of fuel adjusted to reflect his customary price differential between that size and the size of the same kind of fuel most nearly similar thereto.

6. In § 1340.254, new paragraph (c) is added to read as follows:

(c) The maximum price rules for services.

Rule 5. The maximum price for any service rendered by a dealer in connection with a sale or handling of solid fuel shall be the highest price charged by the dealer during December 1941 for the same service. If, during December 1941, the dealer rendered any service without charge, he shall continue to do so. Although a dealer may have, during December 1941, rendered other services than those here enumerated, dealers customarily render these services subject to this regulation: carry, wheel, trimming and storing in the bin, bagging, shovel and dust treatment of coal.

Rule 6. If a dealer did not render a service during December 1941, his maximum price for such a service shall be the price set by the regional office of the Office of Price Administration. The dealer shall apply to the regional office stating in writing:

First: a description of the services to be rendered;

Second: the classes of purchasers to whom it will be rendered;

Third: a proposed price for the service which shall be shown to the satisfaction of the Regional Administrator to be reasonably computed in relation to charges for similar services by other dealers in the locality and to be reasonable in relation to the actual costs the dealer will incur in rendering the service.

Fourth: any other pertinent information the regional office may request.

7. Section 1340.255 (a) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) "The highest price charged by the dealer" means the highest price he charged for a like sale of fuel delivered during December 1941 and, in the case of a service, means the highest price he charged for the same service he rendered during the same month.

8. In Rule 3 in § 1340.254 (b), the words, "plus not more than five (5) cents per net ton if he would then have used rail transportation" are deleted and the comma preceding the deleted words is changed to a period.

This amendment shall become effective August 14, 1943.

PART 1340—FUEL

[MPR 323,[1] incl. Amdt. 6]

ASPHALT AND ASPHALT PRODUCTS

Sections 1340.353 (c), (d); 1340.356, 1340.357, 1340.359, 1340.360 (e), 1340.370 (a), (b) amended by Amendment 6, effective August 14, 1943, so that Maximum Price Regulation 323 shall read as follows:

In the judgment of the Price Administrator all asphalt and asphalt products sold in the United States should be placed under one specific dollars-and-cents maximum price regulation as far as possible. In issuing this Maximum Price Regulation No. 323 the Price Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the prices of asphalt and asphalt products prevailing between October 1 and October 15, 1941 and has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this regulation.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this regulation are generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. A statement of the consideration involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.[2]

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, Maximum Price Regulation No. 323, Asphalt and Asphalt Products, is hereby issued.

§ 1340.351 Sales of asphalt and asphalt products at higher than maximum prices prohibited. (a) On and after February 20, 1943, regardless of any contract or other obligation no person shall sell or deliver and no person shall buy or receive in the course of trade or business any asphalt or asphalt product at prices higher than the maximum prices fixed by this regulation, and no person shall agree, offer, or attempt to do any of these things.

(b) Prices lower than the maximum prices may, of course, be charged and paid.

§ 1340.352 To what transactions and persons this regulation is applicable—(a) What transactions are covered. This regulation covers all sales and deliveries of asphalt and asphalt products either by refiners, resellers, distributors, roofers, retailers, or by any other persons.

(b) What persons are covered. Any person selling asphalt or asphalt products is subject to the regulation. The term "persons" includes any individual, corporation, partnership, association or any other organized group of persons; their legal successors and representatives; the United States or any other government or any political subdivision or any agency of the foregoing.

§ 1340.353 Maximum bulk prices for standard products—(a) Use of reference points explained. The reference points and prices listed in Tables I and II below are for the sole purpose of determining maximum prices f. o. b. refinery. If the refinery is located at a reference point, then the maximum f. o. b. price for that refinery is the price listed in the table for that reference point. If the refinery is not located at a reference point, then to establish the maximum price on any standard grade of asphalt locate the reference point geographically (air line) closest to the refinery in question; the prices indicated at this reference point are the maximum prices f. o. b. that refinery.

Example: A refiner at Robinson, Illinois wants to determine his maximum price for asphalt cement 100–300 penetration f. o. b. refinery. The map indicates that St. Louis, Missouri is the closest reference point. The table shows that the price is $12.50 per ton for the St. Louis reference point. Therefore, the maximum price f. o. b. the Robinson refinery for this grade of asphalt cement is $12.50.

(b) Limitation on the price of roofing flux and oxidized asphalt. Normally, a seller is permitted to charge his maximum f. o. b. refinery price as determined by Table I or II, even though the laid-down cost to the buyer may exceed what his laid-down cost would have been had he purchased from some other refinery. To this general principle there is one exception, namely, a refiner must make a reduction in his maximum f. o. b. refinery bulk price when all of the following circumstances are present.

(1) The sale is of roofing flux or oxidized asphalt; and

(2) The refinery nearest the destination has a different reference point from the refinery making the shipment; and

(3) The sum of the maximum f. o. b. price at the refinery from which a shipment is made plus the rail freight cost from that refinery to the destination exceeds the sum of the maximum f. o. b. price at the refinery producing roofing flux or oxidized asphalt nearest to that destination plus the rail freight cost from that nearest refinery to that destination.

Under the above circumstances the reduction in his maximum f. o. b. refinery price as determined by Table I or II shall be the amount necessary to make the laid-down cost from the refinery making the shipment the same as it would be from the refinery producing roofing flux or oxidized asphalt nearest the destination. However, the required reduction need never exceed 20% of the maximum f. o. b. refinery price.

For example: A buyer in Wisconsin desires to purchase roofing flux. The refinery nearest to him producing roofing flux uses Chicago as its reference point. Assume that the laid-down cost on the Indiana purchase is $10.50 plus $1.00 freight, or $11.50. Suppose the same buyer wishes to purchase from a Texas refinery. The Texas refinery uses Ft. Worth, Texas, as its reference point; the maximum price for the Texas refinery is $7.50. Assume the freight from the Texas refinery to the same buyer in Wisconsin is $7.00. This would mean a laid-down cost to the buyer of $14.50. To equalize this with the laid-down cost from Indiana of $11.50 would mean a reduction in the f. o. b. Texas refinery price of $3.00. But this is more than 20% of the Texas f. o. b. price of $7.50. Therefore, the reduction by the Texas refiner would be $1.50 (20% of $7.50) making his maximum f. o. b. refinery price for the Wisconsin destination $6.00 and the buyer's laid-down cost from the Texas refinery would be $13.00.

[Paragraph (b) as amended by Amendment 2, 8 F.R. 5383, effective 4–28–43]

(c) Price tables to determine maximum bulk prices f. o. b. refiners for standard grades; exclusive of taxes.

[1] Notwithstanding this Table the maximum delivered bulk price for roofing flux to the roofing and floor covering industries at the points designated below shall be as follows: In the city limits of St. Paul and Minneapolis, Minnesota, $13.75 per ton; provided that if there is any reduction in the rail freight costs after April 1, 1943, including taxes on such transportation service the above delivered price shall be reduced by the actual amount of the reduction in the rail freight from refineries using Wichita, Kansas as a reference point to St. Paul and Minneapolis, Minnesota. Within the State of Louisiana the delivered price shall be $10 per ton. The maximum price f. o. b. a refinery for shipments into the State of Louisiana and the cities of St. Paul and Minneapolis, Minnesota shall be such that the sum of such price and the rail freight from the refinery to such destinations shall not exceed the delivered price as determined above.

[2] The delivered prices indicated are only for refineries using Columbus as a reference point and apply only to their shipment to points within the State of Ohio. The refinery prices apply to all shipments outside the State of Ohio.

[3] For refineries within the State of Montana using Cody as a reference point, the maximum bulk price f. o. b. refinery M. C. or R. C. grades is .056 per gallon when the material is sold for use within the State of Montana.

Such tentative price shall be in line with the level of prices set forth in said tables and the differential between the tentative price of a particular standard product and the maximum prices of the refinery for other standard products shall be consistent with the differentials between these products at other reference points. The seller shall within 5 days after setting a tentative maximum price file with the Petroleum Branch of the Office of Price Administration, a written request for approval of such tentative maximum price. Such tentative price shall be the seller's maximum price for the particular product, unless it is disapproved in writing by the Office of Price Administration within 30 days from the date it is filed as above provided or a substitute price is set by the Office of Price Administration. If a substitute price is set, then such price shall be the maximum price. A tentative price which has been approved as a maximum price hereunder may subsequently be changed by order of the Price Administrator.

§ 1340.354 Maximum bulk prices for special products. The maximum bulk price f. o. b. refinery for special products as defined in § 1340.360 (b) shall be as follows:

(a) Special products, the specifications of which will meet those of a standard product but sold for different uses. (1) If a seller delivered a special product having the specifications that will meet those of a standard product during the period August 1–November 1, 1941, such seller's maximum price shall be the highest price charged by the seller for a delivery of that product during such pe-

NOTE: Where a new special product is liquid, and where the tests required above are not applicable, then standard detailed specifications should be supplied.

Where the information required is submitted, a tentative price shall be the seller's maximum price for the particular product unless it is disapproved in writing by the Office of Price Administration within 30 days from the date it is filed as above provided or a substitute price is set. If a substitute price is set, then such price shall be the maximum price. A tentative price which has been approved as a maximum price hereunder may subsequently be changed by order of the Price Administrator.

(b) Special products having different specifications from those of any standard product. (1) If the seller delivered a special product during the period August 1–November 1, 1941 having different specifications from those of any standard product, such seller's maximum price shall be either (i) the highest price charged by such seller for a delivery of that product during such period to a purchaser of the same class except that if a seller's bulk prices for standard products are governed by Table II of § 1340.353 he may add $1.40 per ton to such highest price or (ii) the maximum bulk price of that standard product having the specifications nearest to those of such special product: Provided, however, That if the only delivery of a special product was made under a contract negotiated prior to said period and the price charged for such delivery did not reflect current market conditions during such period the seller's maximum price shall be determined under subparagraph (2) below.

(2) If the seller is unable to determine his maximum bulk price for a special product having different specifications from those of a standard product under (1) such seller's maximum prices shall be either (i) the maximum bulk price of that standard product having specifications nearest to those of such special product or (ii) tentative maximum price established in accordance with the provisions of subparagraph (2) of paragraph (a).

§ 1340.355 Changes in ingredients and changes in the costs of purchased ingredients—(a) Changes in ingredients. When a seller makes a change in the ingredients used in the production of a special product or when he makes a change in the percentage of the same ingredients formerly used he shall be considered as making a new product and should file a tentative maximum price and report under § 1340.354.

(b) Changes in the costs of purchased ingredients. An adjustment in the maximum price of a special product may, however, be requested when the seller's cost of a special product, as compared with his cost during the period August 1–November 1, 1941, has been increased because of a change in the cost of purchased ingredients. No request will be considered hereunder unless the change in the cost of purchased ingredients exceeds 20% of the cost during the period August 1–November 1, 1941 and the total cost of producing the special product has also increased by not less than 20%.

A seller should set a tentative maximum price for the special product f. o. b. his refinery by filing with the Petroleum Branch of the Office of Price Administration at its principal office in Washington, D. C. a statement setting forth:

(1) Present maximum price

(2) The tentative maximum price

(3) The ingredients used in producing the special product upon which the request for a price increase is made, the percentages by weight of each ingredient in the finished product, and the weighted average costs thereof during the period August 1–November 1, 1941 and the costs at the time the request for an adjustment is made. The weighted average cost of an ingredient shall be determined by dividing the total amount expended for such ingredient during the period heretofore specified by the total quantity purchased.

If any of the above information is not reported with the tentative maximum price, it will be disapproved until such time as all data have been submitted. Disapproval of a tentative maximum price automatically requires the manufacturer to return to his original maximum price.

Where the information required is submitted, a tentative price shall be the seller's maximum price for the particular product unless it is disapproved in writing by the Office of Price Administration within 30 days from the date it is filed as above provided or a substitute price is set. If a substitute price is set, then such price shall be the maximum price. A tentative price which has been approved as a maximum price hereunder may subsequently be changed by order of the Price Administrator.

[Section heading as amended by Amendment 6, effective 8-14-43]

(1) The maximum bulk price as determined by this regulation but without reference to the adjustment provided for by § 1340.353 (b).

(2) (i) If the container supplied by the seller is not returnable, a charge determined as follows:

(a) If the seller purchases an assembled container, an amount equal to the cost of acquisition, including the cost of transportation to the seller's refinery or plant of the initial shipment of the same kind of container received at such refinery or plant after February 20, 1943;

(b) If the seller has facilities for manufacturing or assembling his own container, an amount equal to the actual cost of acquisition of the required materials, including the cost of transportation to the seller's refinery or plant, of the initial shipment of the same kind of materials received at such refinery or plant after February 20, 1943 plus the actual cost of manufacturing or assembling such material into an assembled container: Provided, however, That the amount chargeable shall never exceed the cost of acquisition if he had purchased an assembled container of the same kind.

(c) If, however, at any time the cost of the container of a particular kind amounts to 10% more or less than the amount that is currently being charged purchasers of packaged asphalt, the amount chargeable thereafter for the container shall be the cost of the container at such time. The maximum amount chargeable for a particular kind of container is not adjustable either up or down merely because of a change in the cost of such container not amounting to as much as 10%.

[Paragraph (1) as amended by Amendment 5, 8 F. R. 6672, effective 5-25-43]

(ii) If the container supplied by the seller is returnable, 2.5 cents per gallon. The seller, however, shall pay for the cost of returning, cleaning and repairing such container.

(3) The following packaging differentials:

Charleston, S. C.	2 00

Either the seller shall in every case separately show the above charges in invoicing the purchaser or the seller shall at the time of the initial shipment of the packaged asphalt after April 28, 1943, to a particular purchaser send the purchaser a letter separately stating the maximum amount of each of the above charges that he is permitted to make. If the seller adopts the latter alternative he shall, thereafter, notify the purchaser of any changes in the maximum amount of any charge that he is permitted to make.

(b) Special products. If a seller did not deliver a special product in bulk during the August 1–November 1, 1941 period, but such seller did deliver such a special product in packages during such period, his maximum price for such packaged asphalt shall be either (1) the highest price charged by the seller for such packaged asphalt during such period to a purchaser of the same class except that if a seller's bulk prices are governed by Table II of § 1340.353 he may add $1.40 per ton to such highest price or (2) a price determined in accordance with the provisions of (a) above.

(c) Congealed asphalt. When the seller uses a form to congeal hot asphalt, then removes the form and ships the molded asphalt without packaging it, the maximum price for such asphalt in carload quantities shall be determined in the same manner as the seller would determine his maximum price for packaged asphalt and such seller shall comply with all the provisions of (a) above, except that in lieu of a charge for the container the seller may charge an amount equal to the actual cost of all materials used and operations performed which would not have been necessary if the asphalt had been shipped in a package: Provided, however, That the total amount so chargeable by the seller shall never exceed $1.50 per ton.

(d) Purchaser's containers. When the purchaser supplies the container, the seller's maximum price for packaged asphalt in carload quantities shall be the maximum bulk price as determined by this price regulation plus the packaging differential specified under (a) (3) above.

(e) L. c. l. differential. The seller's maximum price for packaged asphalt for less than carload quantities shall be his maximum price for carload quantities plus $2.00 per ton.

[§ 1340.356 amended by Amendment 2, 8 F.R. 5383, effective 4-28-43]

§ 1340.357 Sales by resellers, roofing manufacturers and sales f. o. b. a warehouse or a bulk plant—(a) Producers other than roofing manufacturers. The maximum price f. o. b. his warehouse or bulk plant for asphalt of any producer, other than a roofing manufacturer, who receives shipments at a warehouse or a bulk plant other than a terminal as defined in § 1340.360 (e) shall be determined by adding to the cost delivered at the warehouse or bulk plant $2.50 per ton. Such producer's cost delivered at the warehouse shall be the sum of his maximum price at the refinery or plant from which the shipment is made and the actual cost of transportation from such plant to the warehouse or bulk plant. A producer's maximum price for asphalt is to be determined by this section even though the asphalt was produced by another person.

(b) Roofing manufacturers—packaged asphalt—(1) F. o. b. warehouse. A roofing manufacturer's maximum price for purchased packaged asphalt f. o. b. his warehouse shall be determined by adding to the delivered cost the following amounts: $3.50 per ton on sales to jobbers or distributors; $4.50 per ton to all other buyers. If the asphalt sold from a warehouse other than his plant storage was produced by the roofing manufacturer, then his maximum price shall be the sum of his maximum price for packaged asphalt f. o. b. his plant as determined hereafter and the cost of transportation to said warehouse.

(2) F. o. b. a point of production, except seller's plant. If a roofing manufacturer makes a direct shipment to a buyer from the production plant of another person, his maximum price for packaged asphalt f. o. b. the production plant shall be the sum of the price paid for the packaged asphalt and the following amount: $2.50 per ton on sales to jobbers or distributors; $3.50 per ton on sales to all other buyers.

(3) F. o. b. the roofing manufacturer's production plant. If a roofing manufacturer produces asphalt and makes a direct shipment to a buyer from his production plant or plant storage, his maximum price for packaged asphalt f. o. b. his production plant or plant storage shall be the sum of the following amounts:

(i) The delivered cost of roofing flux at his production plant.

(ii) The difference between the price for roofing flux and that for oxidized asphalt of the grade produced listed in Tables I and II of § 1340.353 (c) for the reference point closest to the seller's production plant.

(iii) A charge for the container or package computed in accordance with § 1340.356 (a) (2).

(iv) A packaging differential charge in accordance with § 1340.356 (a) (3).

(v) $3.50 per ton on sales to jobbers and distributors and $4.50 per ton on sales to all other buyers.

(c) Resellers. The maximum price f. o. b. his warehouse or bulk plant for asphalt of any dealer or reseller, other than a producer or roofing manufacturer, who receives shipments at a warehouse or a bulk plant other than a terminal as defined in § 1340.360 (e) shall be determined by adding to the cost delivered at the warehouse or bulk plant $2.50 per ton or an amount sufficient to give the seller the same dollars and cents mark-up that he had during the major portion of the period August 1–November 1, 1941. If such a seller did not carry inventory or received shipments of asphalt at a warehouse or bulk plant during the period specified above, then his maximum price shall be determined by adding to the cost delivered at the warehouse or bulk plant $2.50 per ton or an amount sufficient to give the seller the same dollar and cents mark-up that his most closely competitive seller had during the major portion of the period August 1–November 1, 1941. For the purposes of this section "mark-up" means the dollars and cents difference between the selling price of the asphalt and the cost thereof delivered at the warehouse or bulk plant. Any reseller who elects to use a "mark-up" computed in accordance with this section and amounting to more than $2.50 must report such "mark-up" to the Petroleum Branch of the Office of Price Administration at Washington, D. C., on or before May 31, 1943.

A reseller other than a producer or roofing manufacturer who maintained and did business through a warehouse or bulk plant, other than a terminal, during the period August 1–November 1, 1941 may make shipment direct from a production point and add $2.50 per ton.

[§ 1340.357 amended by Amendment 2, 8 F.R. 5383, effective 4-28-43, Amendment 3, 8 F.R. 6109, effective 5-15-43 and Amendment 6, effective 8-14-43]

§ 1340.359 Terminals. Bulk prices at terminals are not determined by reference points. When shipments in bulk are made from terminals, the laid-down cost to a buyer at a given destination shall not exceed the maximum f. o. b. refinery price established by this regulation for the asphalt refinery nearest to that destination plus the rail freight from that nearest refinery to that destination. The maximum f. o. b. price on a given shipment from a terminal shall be the laid-down cost to the buyer as above defined less rail freight from terminal to the destination. The deduction of rail rate also applies to truck shipments.

Note that bulk storage points at Portland, Oregon, and Seattle, Washington, have specific prices in the table covering Oregon, Washington, and California.

[§ 1340.359 as amended by Amendment 6, effective 8-14-43]

§ 1340.360 Definitions. (a) "Asphalt" means any asphalt refined from petroleum.

(b) "Standard product" means any of the following grades:

(1) Roofing flux. Roofing flux means any grade of soft asphalt or liquid asphalt, having a melting point of less than 110° F. (Method, ball and ring A. S. T. M. D. 36–26) when sold to the roofing or floor covering industry for saturating or further processing to a higher melting point.

(2) Oxidized asphalt. Oxidized asphalt means any grade of asphalt which has a penetration of less than 125 (Method A. S. T. M. D. 88–38) and has been oxidized to a melting point above 110° F. when sold to the roofing or floor covering industry and has not been specially processed by the addition of another ingredient.

(3) Asphalt cement. Asphalt cement means any grade of asphalt which has a penetration of more than 40 and less than 300 at 77° F. when used for paving purposes.

(4) Liquid asphalt. "Liquid asphalt" means any grade of asphalt having a penetration in excess of 300 at 77° F. when used for road construction or similar ground surfacing.

§ 1340.362 Tank truck sales. An additional charge of 75¢ per ton may be added for filling tank trucks.

[§ 1340.362 as amended by Amendment 2, 8 F.R. 5383, effective 4–28–43]

§ 1340.363 Maximum prices on delivered basis. If a seller wishes to quote a delivered price, the delivered price shall never result in a higher laid-down cost to a particular buyer than the sum of his maximum price f. o. b. his refinery, terminal or warehouse and his actual transportation cost incurred from that point to the destination except that when the seller transports by his own vehicles, the transportation cost shall be the applicable rates of a common carrier performing like transportation service. In the event there is no applicable common carrier rate the seller should add his own actual cost of transportation.

§ 1340.364 Brokerage or commissions. Brokerage or commissions which increase the maximum price listed or determined above will not be allowed. § 1340.365 Conversion table. While actual weights on specified products may vary slightly, for sake of uniformity the following table shall be used for converting gallons to tons, or tons to gallons:

LIQUID ASPHALT	Gallons per ton at 60° F.
Grade
ASPHALT CEMENTS	Gallons per ton at 60° F.

§ 1340.366 Adjustable pricing. Where a contract or agreement provides for the sale of asphalt or asphalt products to be delivered at a future date, the parties may agree that the prices to be charged shall be the maximum price in effect at the time of each delivery.

§ 1340.367 Transfers of business or stock in trade. If the business, assets or stock in trade of any seller or any person as defined in § 1340.352 (b) are sold or otherwise transferred on or after November 1, 1941 and the transferee carries on the business, or continues to deal in the same or similar asphalt and/or asphalt products, in an establishment separate from any other establishment previously owned or operated by him, the maximum prices of the transferee shall be the same as those to which his transferor would have been subject if no such transfer had taken place, and his obligation to keep records and make reports shall be the same. The transferor shall either preserve and make available, or turn over, to the transferee all records of transactions prior to the transfer which are necessary to enable the transferee to comply with the records and reports provisions of this price regulation.

§ 1340.368 Federal and State taxes. Any tax upon or incident to the sale, delivery, processing, or use of asphalt or asphalt products, imposed by any statute of the United States or statute or ordinance of any State or subdivision thereof, shall be treated as follows in determining the seller's maximum price for such asphalt or asphalt products and in preparing the records of such seller with respect thereto:

(a) As to a tax in effect prior to November 1, 1941. (1) If the seller paid such tax, or if the tax was paid by any prior vendor, irrespective of whether the amount thereof was separately stated and collected from the seller, but the seller did not customarily state and collect separately from the purchase price during the period August 1–November 1, 1941, the amount of the tax paid by him or tax reimbursement collected from him by his vendor, the seller may not collect such amount in addition to the maximum price, and in such case shall include such amount in determining his maximum price under this price regulation.

(2) In all other cases, if, at the time the seller determines his maximum price, the statute or ordinance imposing such tax does not prohibit the seller from stating and collecting the tax separately from the purchase price, and the seller does state it separately, the seller may collect, in addition to the maximum price, the amount of the tax actually paid by him or an amount equal to the amount of the tax paid by any prior vendor and separately stated and collected, and in such case the seller shall not include such amount in determining the maximum price under this price regulation.

(b) As to a tax or increase in a tax which becomes effective on or after November 1, 1941. If the statute or ordinance imposing such tax or increase does not prohibit the seller from stating and collecting the tax or increase separately from the purchase price, and the seller does separately state it, the seller may collect, in addition to the maximum price, the amount of the tax or increase actually paid by him or an amount equal to the amount of tax paid by any prior vendor and separately stated and collected from the seller by the vendor from whom he purchased.

§ 1340.369 Applications for adjustment or petitions for amendment—(a) Government contracts. (1) The term "government contract" is here used to include any contract with the United States or any of its agencies, or with the government or any governmental agency of any country whose defense the President deems vital to the defense of the United States under the terms of the Act of March 1, 1941, entitled "An Act to promote the defense of the United States." It also includes any subcontract under this kind of contract.

(2) Any person who has made or intends to make a "government contract" and who thinks that a maximum price in this regulation is impeding or threatens to impede production of material which is essential to the war program and which is or will be the subject of the contract, may file an application for adjustment in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 6,[1] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

(3) As soon as the application is filed, government contracts deliveries, and payments may be made at the requested price, subject to refund if the requested price is disapproved or lowered. The seller must tell the buyer that the delivery is made subject to this refund.

(b) Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[2] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1340.370 Reports, records and petitions. (a) The following reports are required by this regulation:

§ 1340.373 Export and import sales. (a) Exports. The maximum price at which a person may export a commodity covered by this regulation shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the second Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation[4] or any revisions thereto, issued by the Office of Price Administration.

(b) Imports. The provisions of this regulation do not apply to the purchases, sales or deliveries of the commodities governed by this regulation if they originate outside of and are imported into the United States or its territories and possessions. SECTION 1.1 Prohibition against dealing in fats and oils at prices above the maximum. No person shall sell, offer to sell, deliver, or transfer, and no person in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive, fats or oils at prices higher than the maximum prices, except that contracts entered into prior to December 13, 1941, providing for a higher price than the maximum prices may be carried out at the contract price. The maximum prices shall include commissions and all other charges. Lower prices than the maximum prices established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53 may be charged, demanded, paid, or offered.

SEC. 1.2 Exempt sales. Sales of fats and oils products in the finished form, sales of refined fats and oils (except coconut oil) destined for use or consumption without further processing or packing by the buyer, and sales of lard destined for human consumption without further processing are exempt from the operation of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53, unless a maximum price for such fats or oils product, or refined fat or oil, or lard, is enumerated in terms of dollars and cents, or a method for computing a maximum price for such fats or oils product, or refined fat or oil, or lard, is set forth in Article III or any subsequent article of this regulation.

SEC. 1.3 Exempt Governmental purchases of foreign fats and oils. All purchases of fats and oils located in any foreign country by the United States Government or any agency thereof, or by an agent, broker or other representative purchasing for the account of the United States Government or any agency thereof, shall be exempt from the operation of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53, whether the purchase is made directly in the foreign country or through an agent, broker or other representative of the foreign seller located in the United States. Where fats and oils located in a foreign country are purchased by an agent, broker or other representative of the United States Government or any agency thereof who has a contract to resell the fats and oils so purchased to the United States or any agency thereof, such resale shall be exempt from the operation of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53. This provision shall have no application to purchases by the United States Government or any agency thereof of fats and oils located in the United States which have been imported into this country without a contract to resell the fats and oils so imported to the United States Government or any agency thereof.

SEC. 1.4 Application for determination of a maximum price. If the maximum price on a particular fat or oil covered by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53 cannot be determined under the provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53, the affected party shall file an application with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., containing:

(a) A description of the fat or oil and showing wherein it is impossible to determine a maximum price therefor;

(b) A statement of the facts of all transactions since January 1, 1941, of the applicant and all information he may have obtained concerning transactions of others from said date in the fat or oil in question in any form or state of processing including transactions in the oil bearing material, raw product, and crude oil.

(c) (1) An itemized statement of the applicant's total cost of said fat or oil (including any manufacturing or processing costs), (2) the applicant's maximum price for that commodity presently sold by the applicant that has a maximum price presently determinable and that is most nearly similar to the fat or oil for which a maximum price is sought and (3) an itemized statement of the applicant's total cost of such most nearly similar commodity (including any manufacturing or processing costs).

Upon receipt of such application the Office of Price Administration will proceed to fix a maximum price or instruct the applicant as to the method of determining the same and for reporting the price he may determine. Any price fixed or determined under this paragraph shall be subject to adjustment at any time by the Office of Price Administration.

SEC. 1.5 Imports and exports—Adjustment of maximum prices caused by variances in freight and insurance charges. The maximum prices hereinafter established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53 for fats and oils shipped into or out of the United States by ocean transportation shall include the charges prevailing on October 1, 1941, for freight, war risk insurance, and marine insurance connected with such transportation.

Increases in such charges may be added only if such charges have been actually incurred by the seller on such sale. Decreases in such charges shall be subtracted from the maximum prices hereinafter established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53.

SEC. 1.6 Brokers' commissions paid by buyers. (a) Where the buyer pays a broker or other person a commission or other contingent compensation for services in bringing about, or otherwise connected with, any purchase, sale, delivery, acquisition, or other transfer of any fats or oils for which a maximum price is established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53, (1) the maximum total price that the buyer may pay for the fats or oils and as such commission or other contingent compensation, shall be the maximum prices for such fats or oils specified in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53, and (2) the maximum price that the seller may receive for the fats or oils sold shall be that sum which, when added to such commission or other contingent compensation paid by the buyer, equals the maximum prices for such fats or oils specified in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53.

(b) Exception. The provisions of paragraph (a) of this section 1.6 shall not apply to purchases made from the United States Government, or any state, municipal or other governmental unit, or any agencies of any of them, where the buyer customarily has paid broker's commissions or fees during the two years preceding the month of March 1942; in such case the buyer, in addition to paying the broker's commissions or fees, may pay the seller, and the seller may receive, the maximum prices specified in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53.

SEC. 1.7 Adjustable pricing. Any person may agree to sell at a price which can be increased up to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery; but no person may, unless authorized by the Office of Price Administration, deliver or agree to deliver at prices to be adjusted upward in accordance with action taken by the Office of Price Administration after delivery. Such authorization may be given when a request for a change in the applicable maximum price is pending, but only if the authorization is necessary to promote distribution or production and if it will not interfere with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. The authorization may be given by the Administrator or by any official of the Office of Price Administration to whom the authority to grant such authorization has been delegated. The authorization will be given by order, except that it may be given by letter or telegram when the contemplated revision will be the granting of an individual application for adjustment.

SEC. 1.8 Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53 may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1.[1]

SEC. 1.9 Evasion—(a) General. The price limitations set forth in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53 shall not be evaded whether by direct or indirect methods in connection with a purchase, sale, delivery, or transfer of fats or oils, or by way of premium, commission, service, transportation or other charge, or by any other trade understanding or by any other means.

(b) By purchasing oil-bearing materials and paying for processing. The purchase of oil-bearing materials from a processor who is to process the oil-bearing materials for the purchaser is forbidden, if the combined cost of (1) the oil-bearing materials and (2) the processing toll exceeds the maximum price established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53 for the type and quantity of oil produced from the oil-bearing materials. If the meal or other by-products produced from the oil-bearing materials are to be retained by the processor, the value of the meal or other by-product retained must be considered in determining the cost of the processing toll.

SEC. 1.10 Enforcement. Persons violating any provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53 are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

SEC. 1.11 Records and reports. Every person making any sale of fats or oils, except sales exempted under sections 1.2 and 1.3 shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for a period of not less than one year complete and accurate records of each such sale, including the date thereof, the name of the purchaser, the price paid or received, and the grade, quality and amount sold.

Every person affected by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53 shall submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration as it may from time to time require, subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget.

SEC. 1.12 Geographic applicability of the regulation. This Maximum Price Regulation No. 53 shall apply in, and only in, the District of Columbia and the forty-eight states of the United States.

(d) "Refined fats and oils" means those fats and oils which have been cleaned, deodorized, or purified by settling, straining, filtering, distilling, treating with chemicals, or by any other means, and which at the conclusion of the refining process do not contain any added substance other than is necessary as a preservative, for example, margarine oil, salad oil, prime summer yellow, and/or bleachable cottonseed oil, oleo oil, and oils used for the technical and protective coating trades.

(e) In the phrase, "similar amount to a similar purchaser," the word "similar" means that amount and that type of purchaser with respect to which the same price did apply or would have applied under the seller's trade practices on October 1, 1941.

SEC. 2.1 Maximum prices. (a) The maximum price for any kind, grade or quality of fat or oil for which a maximum price is not specifically provided in any of the following Articles of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53, shall be the highest price at which the seller sold such kind of fat or oil of the same grade and quality in a similar amount to a similar purchaser on October 1, 1941, for delivery within sixty days.

(b) If the maximum price of such fat or oil cannot be determined under paragraph (a) of this section 2.1, the maximum price shall be the highest price at which the seller sold the same kind of fat or oil of a different grade or quality or in a different amount or to a different type of purchaser on October 1, 1941, for delivery within sixty days, making the necessary adjustments for differences in grade, quality, amount or type of purchaser in accordance with the seller's practice for determining price differentials existing on October 1, 1941.

(c) If the maximum price cannot be determined under either paragraphs (a) or (b) of this section 2.1, the maximum price shall be the price at which such kind of fat or oil of the same grade and quality in a similar amount to a similar purchaser was sold in the locality of the seller's shipping point on October 1, 1941, for delivery within sixty days.

(d) If the maximum price cannot be determined under paragraphs (a) (b) or (c) of this section 2.1, the maximum price shall be the price at which such kind of fat or oil of the same grade and quality in a similar amount to a similar purchaser was sold in the nearest market in which such sale was made on October 1, 1941, making adjustments for the customary differential between the price in such markets and the price in the locality of the seller's shipping point.

(e) If the maximum price determined under the above paragraphs of this section 2.1 is less than 111 percent of the price at which the same kind of fat or oil of the same grade and quality was sold by the seller, or was sold in the locality of the seller's shipping point, or in the nearest market, as the case may be, in a similar amount and to a similar purchaser on November 26, 1941, for delivery within sixty days, the maximum price shall be 111 percent of such November 26 price.

SEC. 2.2 Inclusion of transportation and other charges in maximum prices. The maximum prices for both domestic and imported fats and oils determined under section 2.1 hereof, shall include at least the same absorption of transportation and other charges as were or would have been absorbed by the seller on comparable shipments to the same place of destination on October 1, 1941.

SEC. 2.3 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in section 2.1 hereof, shall not be evaded by making the discounts given or other terms and conditions of sale more onerous to the purchaser than those available or in effect on October 1, 1941, or by any other direct or indirect means.

Article I—Maximum Prices for Sales of Imported Distilled Spirits and Imported Wines by Importers

SECTION 1.1 Purposes of Article I—(a) Generally. Article I establishes maximum prices for sales of imported distilled spirits and wines by importers to any purchaser. Maximum prices for sales of bulk imported distilled spirits and bulk imported wines by persons other than the importer must be established under other applicable regulations of the Office of Price Administration or under Article II (when effective) of this regulation. Except for sales which are specifically exempted by Article V of this regulation, maximum prices for sales of packaged imported distilled spirits and packaged imported wines by persons other than the importer must be established under that Article.

(b) Prior regulations, orders and interpretations superseded. Except as otherwise provided in this regulation, Article I supersedes all other maximum price regulations, orders and interpretations issued by the Office of Price Administration before August 14, 1943, with respect to sales of imported distilled spirits and wines by importers, in bulk or in packages, including the applicable provisions of the following:

(1) The General Maximum Price Regulation; [1]

(2) Section 2.12 of Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 14; [2]

(3) Section 2.3 (b) of § 1499.26 of Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 1; [3]

[2] 8 F.R. 9787, 9880.

[3] 8 F.R. 4978, 6055, 6363, 6547, 6615, 6852, 6964, 7261, 7270, 7349, 7592, 7600, 7668, 8710, 8754, 9016, 9025, 9218, 9219, 10304.

Provided, That such maximum price regulations, orders and interpretations shall remain in force with respect to a particular sale of imported distilled spirits or wine by an importer until provisions of this Article become applicable thereto pursuant to section 1.11.

SEC. 1.2 General rules for figuring importers' maximum prices. An importer must observe the following rules in establishing his maximum prices under this Article:

(a) Division of items. He must separately price all items he has imported, in his stock at the close of his business on August 9, 1943, according to the group to which the item belongs as follows:

(1) Items which he sold or offered for sale during March 1942. He must figure his initial maximum prices for such items under section 1.4. His maximum prices for the item are to be refigured under section 1.6 if certain elements of his cost change thereafter.

(2) Items which he sold or offered for sale between April 1, 1942 and April 30, 1943, but which he did not sell or offer for sale during March 1942. He must figure his initial maximum prices for such items under section 1.5. His maximum prices for the item are to be refigured under section 1.6 if certain elements of his cost change thereafter.

(3) Items for which special pricing methods are provided in section 1.7. He must figure his maximum prices for any such item under that section, irrespective of the dates on which he previously sold or offered the item for sale. Maximum prices for such items may not be refigured under section 1.6.

(4) Items for which maximum prices are not provided by sections 1.4, 1.5, or 1.7. He must apply to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., in accordance with section 1.8, for authority to establish maximum prices for such items. Maximum prices thus established may not be refigured under section 1.6.

(b) Figuring maximum prices for each item separately. Each item of imported distilled spirits or wine to be sold or offered for sale by an importer after August 13, 1943, must have a separate maximum price. An "item" is a particular brand name, container size and formula of imported distilled spirits or wine. One item must not be considered the same as another if there is any difference in

(1) Their brand names, or
(2) Their countries of origin, or
(3) The names of their processors, or
(4) Their container sizes (bulk as compared with bottles, quarts as compared with fifths, etc.), or
(5) Their formulae (as defined in section 7.12), or
(6) Requirements of United States labeling laws or regulations applicable to each, or in material information contained on their labels. Age, proof, alcohol content, type designation, vintage and ingredients, as stated on the labels, shall be deemed material information.

(c) Customer classifications. (1) A separate maximum price must be established for an importer's sales of each item to each class of his customers in accordance with the section under which the maximum price for the item is established.

(2) Where an importer establishes maximum prices under sections 1.4, 1.5, or 1.6, his customers for sales of the item are to be classified in accordance with his March 1942 customer classification. Where an importer establishes maximum prices under section 1.7, his customers for sales of the item are to be classified only as wholesalers, primary distributing agents, monopoly states, retailers and consumers. Where an importer establishes maximum prices after application to the Office of Price Administration under section 1.8, the maximum prices thus established shall apply only to his sales to the classes of customers stated in the application, or in the order or amendment issued pursuant thereto.

(d) Discounts, allowances, price differentials and terms of sale. (1) Customary discounts, allowances and other price differentials in effect during March 1942 in accordance with an importer's March 1942 customer classifications must be applied to his maximum prices established under sections 1.4, 1.5, 1.6 and 1.7: Provided, That discounts and allowances based solely on quantity purchases (in dollars or units) need not be maintained: And, provided further, That allowances and price differentials in accordance with an importer's March 1942 customer classifications need not be maintained with respect to sales of items for which maximum prices are established under section 1.7.

(2) If an importer makes his terms of sale to a customer more onerous than those in effect during March 1942 for his sales to a customer of the same class, he must make a compensating reduction in his maximum price established under this Article.

(3) If an importer directly or indirectly requires a customer to make any payment in advance of delivery (whether to the importer or to another person), the importer must reduce his maximum price established under this Article for that sale by an amount equal to interest at the rate of 5 percent per annum on the amount of the advance payment from the date the payment is made to the date on which the item is delivered or the payment is refunded to the customer.

(e) Exchange rates. The costs used by an importer in figuring his maximum prices must be actual costs which he pays. Amounts paid in foreign currency must be expressed in terms of United States dollars at the actual rate of exchange paid by the importer.

(f) F. o. b. and delivered prices. (1) Where an importer's highest price charged during March 1942 to a customer of a particular class (used under sections 1.4, 1.5, or 1.6 to determine his maximum price) is a delivered price or an f. o. b. particular freight base point price, the maximum price established under those sections shall correspondingly be a delivered price or an f. o. b. particular freight base point price, as the case may be.

(2) Maximum prices provided by section 1.7 for sales of bulk imported distilled spirits and wines are prices f. o. b. port of entry. Maximum prices provided by that section for sales of domestically packaged imported distilled spirits and wines are prices f. o. b. domestic bottling plant.

(g) Sales and offers to sell. Where the price for a sale or an offer to sell during a particular period of time is to be used in determining a maximum price under this Article, the price for a sale must be used if a sale was made. An importer may use an offering price only if he made no sale of the item during the particular period.

SEC. 1.3 Meaning of "net cost" used in figuring importers' maximum prices under sections 1.4, 1.5, and 1.6. The "net cost" to be used by an importer to figure his maximum prices under sections 1.4, 1.5 and 1.6 is the total of the following elements of cost actually paid by him with respect to a particular purchase of the item to be priced:

(a) Purchase price. The foreign vendor's selling price, less all discounts excepting any discount for prompt payment (cash discount),

(1) Including charges for transporting the item to foreign port of embarkation (where shipment to United States port of arrival is made by water), and

(2) Including foreign customs charges and export taxes; but

(3) Excluding any increase in foreign vendor's selling price or charges (1) and (2) which became effective after April 30, 1943.

(b) Insurance. Insurance charges for the period during which the item is in transit to the importer's receiving point, including war risk insurance at rates not in excess of applicable rates published by the War Shipping Board.

(c) Freight. Ocean freight from foreign port of embarkation to port of arrival in continental United States (where shipment to port of arrival is made by water), or land freight from foreign shipping point to point of arrival in continental United States (where shipment to point of arrival is made by land); inland freight from port or point of arrival to port of entry, and inland freight from port of entry to the importer's customary receiving point for the item (exclusive of charges for hauling, drayage or handling within the metropolitan area of any such port or point). All freight shall be figured at the rate paid.

(d) Taxes and United States customs duties. United States excise taxes, United States custom duties, the cost of strip stamps affixed to individual containers and any applicable state or local excise taxes. All taxes and customs duties shall be figured at rates in effect on November 2, 1942.

NOTE: License, income, franchise, receipts, sales, use, or other similar Federal, State or local taxes cannot be included in "net cost".

SEC. 1.4 Importers' initial maximum prices for items sold or offered for sale during March 1942.

NOTE: This section does not apply to any item for which special pricing methods are provided under section 1.7.

(a) Method to be used. An importer's initial maximum price for sale of an item which he sold or offered for sale during March 1942 shall be the total of the following:

(1) Net cost. His net cost (figured according to section 1.3) per unit of sale

(i) For his latest purchase of the item from his foreign supplier before May 1, 1943, or

(ii) If he made no purchase of the item between January 1, 1943 and April 30, 1943 but received a bona fide written or cable quotation between those dates from his foreign supplier, the net cost that would have been applicable to the same unit of sale if he made a purchase of the item on terms evidenced by the latest such quotation.

NOTE: If a quotation is used, net cost shall be figured according to section 1.3 on the assumption that shipment was made from the foreign supplier's customary shipping point on the date the quotation was received; that the shipment arrived April 30, 1943, and that port or point of arrival and port of entry were those used for the importer's latest actual purchase of the item.

(2) Mark-up. The difference between

(i) His net cost (figured according to section 1.3) for his last purchase of the item prior to March 31, 1942 from his foreign supplier out of which he made or offered to make sales during March 1942, and

(ii) The highest price he charged during March 1942 for the unit of sale, or at which he offered to sell that unit to a customer of the particular class, exclusive of any discount for prompt payment (cash discount).

NOTE: For sales of an item he imports, an importer who also sells at wholesale or retail must not use the percentage mark-ups provided in Article V.

(b) Sales to customers of a class not sold during March 1942. If an importer sold or offered an item for sale during March 1942 but did not sell or offer to sell it to a customer of a particular class and wishes to make sales of the item to customers of that class, he shall apply to the Office of Price Administration in accordance with section 1.8 for authority to establish an initial maximum price for such sales.

SEC. 1.5 Importers' initial maximum prices for items sold or offered for sale between April 1, 1942 and April 30, 1943 but not sold or offered for sale during March 1942:

NOTE: This section does not apply to any item for which special pricing methods are provided under section 1.7.

(a) Method to be used. An importer's initial maximum price for sales of an item sold or offered for sale between April 1, 1942 and April 30, 1943, but which he did not sell or offer for sale during March 1942, shall be the total of the following:

(1) Net cost. His net cost (figured according to section 1.3) per unit of sale

(i) For his latest purchase of the item from his foreign supplier before May 1, 1943, or

(ii) If he made no purchase of the item between January 1, 1943 and April 30, 1943 but received a bona fide written or cable quotation between those dates from his foreign supplier, the net cost that would have been applicable to the same unit of sale if he had made a purchase of the item on terms evidenced by the last such quotation.

NOTE: If a quotation is used, net cost shall be figured according to section 1.3 on the assumption that shipment was made from the foreign supplier's customary shipping point on the date the quotation was received; that the shipment arrived April 30, 1943, and that port or point of arrival and port of entry were those used for the importer's last actual purchase of the item.

(2) Mark-up. The difference between

(i) His net cost (figured according to section 1.3) for his first purchase of the item from his foreign supplier out of which he made or offered to make sales between April 1, 1942 and April 30, 1943, and

(ii) The highest price he charged during March 1942 for the unit of sale or at which he offered to sell that unit of an item of the same type designation to a customer of the particular class, exclusive of any discount for prompt payment (cash discount).

NOTE: One item shall be considered of the same type designation as another only if both items are within the same classification and subclassification of identity under applicable United States labeling laws and regulations, and only if the following matters as stated on the label thereof are identical: Proof, age, vintage, alcohol content, country of origin and container size.

For sales of an item which he imports an importer who sells at wholesale or retail must not use the percentage mark-ups provided in Article V.

(b) Items of a type not sold or offered for sale during March 1942 to customers of the particular class. If an importer did not during March 1942 sell or offer to sell an item of the same type as the item being priced to a customer of the particular class, he shall apply to the Office of Price Administration in accordance with section 1.8 for authority to establish an initial maximum price for sales of the item to customers of that class.

(c) Report of maximum prices established under section 1.5. On or before September 13, 1943, each importer shall file with the Office of Price Administration, Beverage Section, Washington, D. C., a report of all the items for which his initial maximum prices are established by section 1.5. The report shall be signed by the importer and shall contain

(1) A description sufficient to identify each item for which maximum prices are so established;

(2) A list of his maximum prices therefor to each class of customers, and

(3) An explanation of how those maximum prices were figured, including a description sufficient to identify the item of the same type used to establish such maximum prices.

SEC. 1.6 Changes in maximum prices for items to which sections 1.4 or 1.5 apply—(a) How long particular maximum prices for such items continue in effect. An importer's initial maximum prices for items to which sections 1.4 or 1.5 apply, and his refigured maximum prices for such items shall apply to all his sales and offers to sell of the item so priced made prior to the date on which subsequently refigured maximum prices for sales thereof become applicable in accordance with paragraph (d) of this section.

(b) When an importer must refigure his maximum prices for such items. An importer who after August 13, 1943 receives from a foreign supplier a purchase of an item for which his initial maximum prices are established under sections 1.4 or 1.5 shall, before making any sales from that purchase, determine his net cost therefor according to section 1.3.

If such net cost per unit of sale differs from the net cost per unit of sale for the latest purchase used in establishing the importer's maximum prices then in effect for the item, the importer may, if the most recent purchase shows the greater total and he must, if the most recent purchase shows the lesser total, establish refigured maximum prices for the item: Provided, That if the item is packaged imported distilled spirits or wine and the difference is 25 cents per case or less, the importer shall not establish refigured maximum prices.

(c) How an importer must refigure his maximum prices for such items. An importer required or permitted by this section to establish refigured maximum prices for an item shall determine such prices under sections 1.4 or 1.5 (according to the section he used to establish his initial maximum prices for the item), substituting however, the net cost (figured according to section 1.3) of his most recent purchase of the item for the net cost of his latest purchase thereof before May 1, 1943.

(d) When refigured maximum prices become applicable. His refigured maximum prices determined under this section shall apply to stock on hand (in bond or otherwise) and shall be the importer's maximum prices for sales of the item on and after, but not before, the 4th day (exclusive of Sundays and holidays) following receipt (in bond or otherwise) of the purchase to be used to establish such refigured maximum prices, until in turn superseded by other refigured maximum prices subsequently determined: Provided, That until, on and after the earliest effective date for prices posted or listed at the first opportunity after the 4th day (exclusive of Sundays and holidays) after receipt of such purchase, refigured maximum prices shall not apply to any sale which an importer is required by statute, ordinance, or regulation to make at a price posted or listed with a State or other public authority before receipt of such purchase.

SEC. 1.7 Special pricing methods for items not sold or offered for sale during March 1942 and which cannot be priced under section 1.5, and for certain other commodities.—(a) Sales of bulk or packaged imported distilled spirits or wine not sold or offered for sale during March 1942 and which cannot be priced under section 1.5.

NOTE: Persons other than importers selling bulk imported distilled spirits or wine must establish their maximum prices under other applicable regulations of the Office of Price Administration or under Article II (when effective) of this regulation.

SEC. 1.8 Application for authority to establish maximum prices.—(a) Who shall file. An importer who seeks to sell an item for which maximum prices must be established under section 1.7 (a), or who is required by sections 1.4 or 1.5 to apply for authority to establish an initial maximum price for sales of an item to customers of a particular class, shall make application under this section.

(b) Prohibition. An importer required to make application for authority to establish a maximum price for an item shall not sell, offer to sell or deliver the item to any person (if the item is one for which maximum prices must be established under section 1.7 (a)) or to the particular class of customers (if a maximum price for sales of the item to a particular class of customers is sought under section 1.4 or 1.5) until the application is filed and authority granted. However, where an importer is required to make application for authority to establish initial maximum prices under section 1.4 or 1.5 he may, if so permitted by applicable statutes, ordinances or regulations and after making the application, continue to sell, offer to sell or deliver the item to the class of customers for which an initial maximum price is sought for 30 days after the application is made, if the sale, offer to sell, or delivery is made under an agreement with the customer to adjust the price charged to an amount no higher than the maximum price later established under this section. With respect to a particular sale which the importer is required to make at a price posted or listed with a state or other Public Authority, the importer may continue so to sell, offer to sell or deliver the item until the effective date for prices thus posted or listed at the first opportunity after the 34th day (including Sundays and holidays) after the application is made.

(c) Contents of application. The application shall be in writing, signed by the importer or his authorized agent and sent to the Office of Price Administration, Beverage Section, Washington, D. C. by registered mail. It shall contain the following:

(1) The importer's name and address and the name and address of the person signing the application.

(2) A description of the item for which authority to establish a maximum price is sought, including (if the item is packaged imported distilled spirits or wine) copies of the approved front label and the back label (if any) of any one individual container size of the item. The description shall also supply the following information if not disclosed by such labels:

(i) The type of item (e. g. whiskey, gin, cordial, wine, etc.)

(ii) The brand name.

(iii) The country of origin.

(iv) The name and address of the processor.

(v) If the item is imported distilled spirits, the formula thereof (as defined in section 7.12), or if the item is imported wine, the type designation thereof (as defined in section 7.12).

(vi) The container sizes to be sold.

(3) The maximum prices the importer proposes to establish for sales of the item to his classes of customers. If the importer has established initial maximum prices under sections 1.4 or 1.5 for sales of the item to certain classes of customers, the application shall also state such maximum prices and the class of customers to which each applies.

(4) The amount of his net cost (as defined in section 1.3) for his latest purchase of the item or if no purchase has been received, an estimate of his net cost (as defined in section 1.3) for the item based upon his last bona fide written or cable quotation from the foreign supplier. Each element of his actual or estimated net cost shall be separately stated.

NOTE: Where increases in the importer's purchase price have become effective after April 30, 1943, the purchase price as of that date and the amount of any subsequent increase therein shall be separately stated.

If a quotation is used, net cost shall be figured according to section 1.3 on the assumption that shipment was made from the foreign supplier's customary shipping point on the date the quotation was received and arrived the same day at a customary port or point of arrival for shipments from the particular supplier.

(5) Any other pertinent information which the importer desires to submit.

(d) When and how authority is given or denied.—(1) Approval of or objection to application. If within 30 days (including Sundays and holidays) after receipt of the application by the Office of Price Administration, the importer shall not receive notice of objection to the maximum prices proposed in the application by letter from the Office of Price Administration, he shall be deemed authorized to establish such maximum prices for sales of the item to the particular classes of customers described therein: Provided, That if within the 30-day period the Office of Price Administration shall by letter request supplemental information with respect to any matter set forth in the application, that period shall be figured from the date on which the requested supplemental information is received in writing by the Office of Price Administration. The authority so granted may be revoked by the Price Administrator at any time. Upon written request of the importer received by the Office of Price Administration within 30 days (including Sundays and holidays) after the date of a notice of objection given under this paragraph, the Office of Price Administration will issue a formal order denying authority to establish the maximum prices requested in his application.

(2) By order or amendment. The Price Administrator may, at any time, by order or by amendment to this Article, establish maximum prices for sales of particular items to one or more classes of customers. The maximum prices established by any such amendment shall supersede all maximum prices previously established by an importer pursuant to authority granted under (1) above.

(3) Compliance with price posting or listing requirements. Authority to establish maximum prices granted by the Price Administrator pursuant to application under this section or by order or by amendment to this Article shall not authorize an importer to sell or offer an item for sale until after compliance with provisions of any applicable statute, ordinance or regulation requiring the posting or listing of his prices.

SEC. 1.9 Notice of maximum prices to consumers. (a) Each importer who sells or offers imported distilled spirits or wine for sale to consumers shall adopt before August 30, 1943, and thereafter continue to observe one of the following practices with respect to notifying consumers that prices charged are not in excess of maximum prices established under this Article:

(1) Use of marking on individual containers. Before delivering an item to a consumer, an importer may mark on the container in plainly visible letters and figures his selling price for the particular brand and container size (exclusive of retail sales taxes), and a statement that the price so marked is his maximum price under this Article or less, and his name and address. The following:

OPA price $_____
(Insert amount)
(name of importer)

so written or stamped on a label or on a state or local tax stamp affixed to the container shall be compliance with this requirement.

An importer who is the holder of a license or permit bearing a distinguishing number and issued under an applicable statute or ordinance, authorizing him to make sales of distilled spirits or wine to consumers may substitute such license or permit number for the statement of his name and address required hereunder.

(2) Use of a sales slip or receipt. At or before delivering any individual container of imported distilled spirits or wine to a consumer, the importer may hand the purchaser a sales slip or receipt setting forth in plainly visible letters and figures:

(i) The brand name, container size and number of individual containers of each item sold to the purchaser, and

(ii) The selling price of each such individual container, or the total selling price for all such containers (exclusive of retail sales taxes), and

(iii) The name and address of the importer and date of sale.

An importer complying with this requirement shall post and maintain in a place readily visible to consumers making purchases in his establishment a legible sign or placard reading substantially as follows:

Prices charged in this store are our OPA ceiling prices to consumers or less (exclusive of retail sales taxes).

(3) Use of price posting. An importer may post his maximum price for each item sold or offered for sale to consumers according to one of the following methods:

(i) By displaying a list of the names of each brand of imported distilled spirits or wine offered for sale to consumers, his maximum price therefor and a statement that such maximum price is his OPA ceiling price to consumers or less (exclusive of retail sales taxes). When more than one type, formula or container size of a particular brand is offered for sale each such type, formula or container size and the maximum price thereof shall be separately itemized. Such list may also contain the importer's selling price for each item described therein. The list shall be posted and maintained in a place readily visible to consumers making purchases in the importer's establishment, shall be in letters and figures plainly visible and legible to such consumers and shall be maintained complete and correct. An importer complying with this requirement shall not sell or offer any item for sale to a consumer until the item and his maximum price therefor is so listed.

(ii) Except when prohibited by statute or ordinance, an importer may mark his selling and/or maximum price for each item on the shelf, bin, rack or other holder thereof in letters plainly visible and legible to consumers making purchases in his establishment. An importer complying with this requirement shall so maintain complete and correct markings of his selling and/or maximum prices for all items he offers for sale to consumers and shall not sell or offer any item for sale to a consumer until his selling price therefor is thus marked.

(iii) An importer posting or marking prices in accordance with (i) or (ii) above shall post and maintain in a place readily visible to consumers making purchases in his establishment a legible sign or placard reading substantially as follows:

Prices posted in this store are our OPA ceiling prices to consumers or less (exclusive of retail sales taxes).

(b) The provisions in this section shall not apply to an importer's sales of an unopened case of individual containers or to his prices therefor.

(1) Wholesalers, as defined in section 7.12; (2) Retailers, as defined in section 7.12; (3) Monopoly states, as defined in section 7.12 and (4) Primary distributing agents, as defined in section 7.12.

(b) Sales to which this Article does not apply. Article V does not apply to the following sales by those persons:

(1) Sales of items which the seller imports or has imported for his account. Either section 1.4, 1.5 or 1.7 of Article I (as may be applicable) must be used to establish maximum prices for such sales.

(2) Sales of items which the seller processes or has processed for his account. Maximum prices for such sales must be established under other applicable regulations or orders of the Office of Price Administration, or under Articles III or IV (as applicable and when effective) of this regulation.

(3) Sales by an "on-premise licensee" or other person of distilled spirits or wine by the drink or in packages for consumption on the licensed premises. (4) Sales of bulk distilled spirits, wine, brandy, neutral spirits, alcohol, grape spirits, high wines, or concentrates (whether or not by warehouse receipt or other evidence of title). Maximum prices for sales of those commodities in bulk must be established under other applicable regulations or orders of the Office of Price Administration or under Article II (when effective) of this regulation.

(c) Prior regulations, orders and interpretations superseded. Except as otherwise provided in this regulation, Article V supersedes all other maximum price regulations, orders and interpretations issued by the Office of Price Administration before August 14, 1943, with respect to sales of packaged imported and domestic distilled spirits or wine by any wholesaler, retailer, monopoly state or primary distributing agent, including the applicable provisions of the following:

SEC. 5.2 General rules for figuring maximum prices—(a) When maximum prices are to be figured. Each wholesaler, retailer, monopoly state and primary distributing agent must figure a maximum price for any item to be sold on and after August 14, 1943 as follows:

(1) Items in stock at the close of business on August 9, 1943. Initial maximum prices for each item in stock at the close of business on August 9, 1943 must be figured between August 14, 1943 and August 30, 1943 and will apply to all sales, offers to sell and deliveries of the item made on and after August 30, 1943, unless applicability of such prices to certain sales is delayed by provisions of section 5.10 permitting compliance with state price posting or listing requirements and practices. Until the initial maximum prices for such items become applicable, a wholesaler, retailer, monopoly state and primary distributing agent may continue to sell, offer for sale or deliver those items at maximum prices established under regulations and orders of the Office of Price Administration in effect prior to the issuance of this Article.

(2) Items not in stock at the close of business on August 9, 1943. Initial maximum prices for each item not in stock at the close of business on August 9, 1943 are to be figured and made applicable before any sale, offer to sell or delivery of the item is made. No wholesaler, retailer, monopoly state or primary distributing agent shall sell, offer for sale or deliver any item not in stock at the close of business on August 9, 1943 until after establishing initial maximum prices for the item in accordance with this Article.

(3) Refiguring maximum prices. A wholesaler, retailer, monopoly state or primary distributing agent must refigure a maximum price for an item in accordance with this Article if cost for the item changes after the maximum price has been established.

(b) Figuring maximum prices for each item separately. Each item of packaged distilled spirits or wine to be sold or offered for sale by a wholesaler, retailer, monopoly state or primary distributing agent after August 29, 1943 must have a separate maximum price. An "item" is a particular brand name, container size, type designation or formula of distilled spirits or wine. One item must not be considered the same as another if there is any difference in

(1) Their brand names, or

(2) Their countries of origin, or

(3) The names of their processors, or

(4) Their container sizes (quarts as compared with fifths, pints as compared with half-pints etc.), or

(c) Customer classifications. (1) Each wholesaler, retailer and primary distributing agent must establish a separate maximum price for each item to each class of his customers he sells as follows:

(i) For wholesalers. Customers are to be classified as retailers, consumers, wholesalers or monopoly states.

(ii) For retailers. Customers are to be classified as consumers or retailers.

(iii) For primary distributing agents. Customers are to be classified as wholesalers, monopoly states, retailers or consumers.

(2) Industrial users, institutional users and the United States or any agency thereof shall, for sales by wholesalers and primary distributing agents, be classified as retailers. For sales by retailers, they shall be classified as consumers.

(3) Each monopoly state must establish a separate maximum price for its sales of each item according to the types of sale it makes. It must classify a sale to a particular customer in accordance with its March 1942 customary sales classification.

(d) Discounts, allowances, price differentials and terms of sale. (1) Customary discounts in effect during March 1942, in accordance with a wholesaler's, retailer's, or primary distributing agent's March 1942 customer classifications, must be applied to his maximum prices established under this Article: Provided, That discounts and allowances based solely on quantity purchases (in dollars or units) need not be maintained.

(2) If a wholesaler, retailer or primary distributing agent makes his terms of sale to a customer more onerous than those in effect during March 1942 for his sales to a customer of the same class, he must make a compensating reduction from his maximum price established under this Article.

(3) If a wholesaler or primary distributing agent directly or indirectly requires a customer to make any payment in advance of delivery (whether to the seller or to another person), he must reduce his maximum price established under this Article for that sale by an amount equal to interest at the rate of 5 percent per annum on the amount of the advance payment from the date the payment is made to the date on which the item is delivered or the advance payment refunded to the customer.

(e) Wholesaler or retailer acting as a primary distributing agent with respect to certain items only. A wholesaler or retailer who is a primary distributing agent for certain items shall determine his maximum prices for sales of those items in accordance with provisions of this Article applicable to primary distributing agents. He shall determine his maximum prices for sales of other items under the provisions of this Article applicable to wholesalers or retailers, as may be the case.

(f) F. o. b. and delivered prices. (1) Maximum prices established under this Article for a wholesaler, retailer or primary distributing agent are prices f. o. b. the metropolitan area of warehouse or place of business.

(2) Maximum prices established under this Article for monopoly states are prices f. o. b. March 1942 freight base zone.

(3) If a wholesaler, retailer, or primary distributing agent sells an item f. o. b. a point of delivery outside the metropolitan area of his warehouse or place of business, he may add to his maximum price for the item established under this Article, the charges for transporting the item from that metropolitan area to the point of delivery at the rate he actually pays.

SEC. 5.3 Determination of "net cost" used in figuring maximum prices for wholesalers, retailers and monopoly states—(a) What purchases may be used to determine net cost. Except as otherwise provided in this Article, a "base purchase" to be used by a wholesaler, retailer, or monopoly state to determine net cost of an item must be a purchase by him from a customary type of supplier delivered by a customary means of transportation. No accommodation purchase (whether or not from a customary type of supplier) shall be used as a base purchase in determining net cost of an item. Purchases made on memorandum invoice or purchases of small quantities of an item at exceptional prices to fill a shortage are accommodation purchases. No purchase (whether or not from a customary type of supplier) to fill an order of the United States or any agency thereof shall be used as a base purchase.

NOTE: For a definition of "customary type of supplier" see section 7.12.

(b) Elements of net cost. The net cost to be used by a wholesaler, retailer or monopoly state to determine a maximum price is the total of the following elements of cost actually paid by him with respect to a particular base purchase of the item to be priced:

(1) Purchase price. The supplier's selling price (not in excess of his maximum price under applicable regulations or orders of the Office of Price Administration).

(i) Excepting any discount for prompt payment (cash discount); but

(ii) Including any amount subtracted from the supplier's maximum price to compensate for discontinuance of a discount for prompt payment.

(2) Freight. Transportation charges from the supplier's point of shipment to the wholesaler's, retailer's, or monopoly state's customary receiving point for the item, at the rate paid. No amount shall be included for

(i) Any transportation charges from point of shipment included in the supplier's selling price; or

(ii) Expense of hauling, drayage or handling within the metropolitan area of the shipping or receiving point: Provided, That a monopoly state may include such portion of that expense as it customarily included during March 1942 in determining cost for purposes of mark-up.

(3) Taxes and United States customs duties—(i) For wholesalers and retailers. United States customs duties and United States state and local excise taxes at rates in effect on November 2, 1942, if not included in the supplier's selling price.

(ii) For monopoly states. United States customs duties and United States excise taxes at rates in effect on March 31, 1942, if not included in the supplier's selling price, and any state taxes at rates in effect on March 31, 1942, customarily included during March 1942 in determining cost for applying mark-up.

NOTE: License, income, franchise, receipts, sales, use or other similar Federal, state or local taxes cannot be included in the net cost of a wholesaler, retailer or monopoly state.

SEC. 5.4 Maximum prices for wholesalers.

NOTE: A wholesaler who is the processor or primary distributing agent of an item must not use this Section to determine maximum prices for that item unless permitted to do so by provisions of this regulation establishing maximum prices for processors or primary distributing agents.

(a) Generally. A wholesaler must establish his maximum prices to each class of customers as follows:

(1) For initial maximum prices—use paragraph (b).

(2) For a refigured maximum price if net cost for the item changed after August 29, 1943—use paragraph (c).

(b) Initial maximum prices—(1) For sales to retailers. A wholesaler's initial maximum price per case to retailers shall be his net cost per case (figured according to section 5.3) for his latest base purchase of the item, or if he made no base purchase of the item since March 1942, his net cost per case (figured according to section 5.3) for his most recent purchase of the item from any supplier, except from another wholesaler, multiplied by the percentage mark-up for the item being priced as follows:

(i) 1.15 for distilled spirits.
(iii) 1.20 for cordials, liqueurs and specialties.

(2) For sales to consumers. A wholesaler's initial maximum price per case to a consumer shall be his net cost per case (figured according to section 5.3) for his latest base purchase of the item, or if he has made no base purchase of the item since March 1942, his net cost per case (figured according to section 5.3) for his most recent purchase of the item from any supplier, multiplied by the percentage mark-up provided in section 5.5 for sales of the same item by retailers to consumers.

(3) For sales to a monopoly state. A wholesaler's initial maximum price per case to a monopoly state shall be his net cost per case (figured according to section 5.3) for his latest base purchase of the item, or if he has made no base purchase of the item since March 1942, his net cost per case (figured according to section 5.3) for his most recent purchase of the item from any supplier. No mark-up shall be added for such sales.

(4) For sales to another wholesaler. A wholesaler's initial maximum price per case to another wholesaler shall be his maximum price per case provided in (1) above for sales of the particular container size to retailers, subject to any discount, allowance or price differential agreed upon. When making such sale the seller shall, at or before delivery of the item, give the buyer a notice in writing stating the seller's maximum price per case for the item to retailers and to consumers. A statement on the invoice substantially as follows shall be deemed compliance with this requirement:

Item:	Maximum Price
----------	----------
----------	----------

----------	----------
----------	----------

A wholesaler's maximum price per case to any class of customers for an item purchased by him from another wholesaler shall not exceed the higher of

(i) His own maximum price for the item to a customer of the particular class figured according to the applicable provisions of this section, or

(ii) With respect to sales to retailers or consumers, the supplier's maximum price for a sale of the item to a customer of the particular class as stated in such notice.

NOTE: A base purchase made between August 9, 1943 and August 30, 1943 may be used to figure initial maximum prices. A wholesaler is not required to establish a refigured maximum price for an item until he makes a base purchase thereof after August 29, 1943.

(5) For individual containers. A wholesaler's initial maximum price for individual containers of an item to any class of customers shall be an amount determined by dividing his initial maximum price per case to a customer of the same class by the number of individual containers customarily packed in the case by his supplier; Provided, That, if a retailer has elected to purchase individual containers after a wholesaler has expressly given him the alternative of purchasing a case of the item at the wholesaler's maximum price per case for the particular container size, the wholesaler may add to his maximum price for individual containers to be sold to that retailer one of the following amounts according to the particular container size:

4 cents per container, if the container size is a gallon, half gallon, quart or fifth;

(4) Where the monopoly state during March 1942, used its price to the class of customers figured on the percentage applied under (1) above as a base price, and determined its price to other classes of customers by applying a discount to, reducing or increasing that base price by an established method, its maximum prices for sales to those other classes of customers shall be determined by reducing or increasing the resulting amount under (3) in accordance with the same method.

(5) A monopoly state's initial maximum price for individual containers to any class of customers shall be its maximum price per case to a customer of the same class transformed into a price for individual containers in accordance with the method customarily used by the monopoly state during March 1942, to determine its price for individual containers.

(d) Disposition of fractional parts of a cent and rounding prices to an even

Article I—Scope of Regulation and Prohibition

SECTION 1. Applicability of this regulation—(a) To what sales this regulation applies. This regulation applies to all sales by dealers and other persons of used commercial motor vehicles.

(1) Definition of used commercial motor vehicle ("used vehicle"). "Used commercial motor vehicle", (called "used vehicle" in this regulation), means any self-propelled vehicle, or a vehicle drawn by it, which was designed for use on the highways for the transportation of property or of more than ten persons and which, irrespective of mileage, has been transferred to a person who has acquired it for use and not for the purpose of resale. It includes vehicles of the following types: complete trucks, truck tractors, truck trailers (full and semi), ambulances, hearses, omnibuses, carryall suburbans, sedan deliveries, utility sedans, coupes fitted with pickup boxes, cab pickups, and chassis and bodies for all of the foregoing; but does not include passenger automobiles, taxicabs, station wagons, vehicles operated on rails, self-tracklaying vehicles, nor farm and garden tractors designed and used for agricultural purposes.

(b) Geographical applicability. This regulation applies to the 48 states of the United States and the District of Columbia, and to the territories and possessions of the United States.

SEC. 2. Prohibition against dealing in used vehicles at prices above the maximum. (a) On and after August 16, 1943, regardless of any contract or other obligation, except as provided in paragraphs (b), (c), and (d):

(1) No person shall sell or deliver any used vehicle at a price higher than the maximum price permitted by this regulation; and

(2) No person, in the course of trade or business, shall buy or receive a used vehicle at a price higher than the maximum price permitted by this regulation, but if he, the purchaser, has received from the seller a statement that the price charged does not exceed the maximum price, and he has no knowledge to the contrary, he shall be deemed to have complied with this subparagraph.

(3) No person shall agree, offer, or attempt to do any of the acts prescribed in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this section.

(b) The provisions of paragraph (a) (2) of this section shall not be applicable to any War Procurement Agency or any contracting officer thereof, and any such contracting officer or any paying finance officer shall be relieved of any and every liability, civil or criminal, imposed by this regulation or by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(c) Nothing in this regulation shall prevent the fulfilment of any contract for the purchase of a used vehicle whether in the nature of a conditional sales agreement, rental contract providing for purchase, or other arrangement, entered into before April 26, 1943, and under which the used vehicle was delivered prior to April 26, 1943.

(d) Where a promissory note covering payment to a dealer or other seller for a used vehicle is discounted by a bank, finance company, or other person and the latter takes possession of the vehicle after default by the maker of the note, the return of the repossessed used vehicle to the dealer in connection with recovery from him of the unpaid balance of the note does not constitute a sale, purchase, or transfer subject to the regulation. However, the sale of a repossessed used vehicle by such a holder of "used vehicle paper" at public or private sale, except the return of a used vehicle in connection with a contract to repurchase, is subject to the regulation.

SEC. 3. Relation to other regulations—(a) In general. The transactions, persons, and commodities subject to this regulation shall not be subject to any other regulation issued by the Office of Price Administration in so far as they are affected by this regulation, except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c).

(b) Exports. The provisions of this regulation do not apply to the purchase, sale, or delivery for export from the Continental United States or the District of Columbia of a used vehicle. Such a sale, purchase, or delivery is covered by the Second Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation.[1]

(c) Imports. The provisions of this regulation shall not apply to the sale, purchase or delivery of a used vehicle which is not manufactured in, but is imported from any foreign country other than Mexico or the Dominion of Canada into, the continental United States or the District of Columbia. Such a sale, purchase, or delivery is covered by the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation[2] and especially its Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 12.

SEC. 4. Less than maximum prices. Prices lower than maximum prices established by this regulation may be charged and paid.

Article II—Maximum Prices

SEC. 5. Maximum prices for used vehicles. Except for special cases provided for in section 9, to figure the maximum price of a used vehicle, the seller must

(a) Find the "base price" according to section 6; and

(b) Multiply such "base price" by the percentage in section 7 (a) applicable to the model year of the vehicle and the condition in which it is sold ("as is" or "warranted"). Before the percentage applicable to a "warranted" vehicle can be used the vehicle must be in the condition required by section 8 and the warranty stated in that section must be furnished to the purchaser.

SEC. 6. Computation of "base price". (a) The "base price" for any used vehicle shall be the sum of

(1) The "value when new" of the vehicle, determined in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section;

(2) A transportation allowance, determined in accordance with paragraph (c) of this section; and

(3) The "value when new" of any extras, determined in accordance with paragraph (d) of this section.

(b) Method of determining "value when new"—(1) When the vehicle is priced as a complete unit. The "value when new" for a vehicle being priced as a complete unit shall be determined by the first of the following which is applicable:

(i) Complete vehicle listed in Appendix C. If the vehicle being priced is listed in Appendix C of superseded Maximum Price Regulation No. 341, which appendix is incorporated herein by reference and called Appendix C, the "value when new" shall be the price there listed for such a vehicle.

(ii) Only chassis listed in Appendix C. If the chassis of the vehicle being priced is listed in Appendix C, and if the complete vehicle is not so listed, the "value when new" shall be the price listed in Appendix C for the chassis alone or the chassis with cab, whichever is appropriate, plus the first applicable of the following:

(a) The original retail price when new, f. o. b. factory, for the body with which the vehicle being priced is now equipped; or

(b) The retail price new, f. o. b. factory, in effect on March 31, 1942, for the same or most comparable body.

(iii) Neither complete vehicle nor chassis listed in Appendix C. If neither the complete vehicle nor the chassis being priced is listed in Appendix C, the "value when new" shall be determined as follows:

(a) If the vehicle being priced was purchased new as a complete vehicle, the "value when new" shall be the original retail price new of the vehicle, f. o. b. factory; or

(b) If the chassis and body were bought separately, the "value when new" of the vehicle shall be the sum of the price of the chassis or chassis with cab and the price of the body, each determined by one of the following methods:

(1) The chassis or the chassis with cab. The original retail price new, f. o. b. factory, or if that price is not ascertainable, the retail price new, f. o. b. factory, for the same or most comparable chassis of the same year of manufacture listed in Appendix C.

(2) The body. The original retail price new, f. o. b. factory, or if that price is not ascertainable, the retail price new, f. o. b. factory, in effect on March 31, 1942, for the same or most comparable body.

(2) When the chassis, or chassis with cab, and body are sold or priced separately. If the chassis, or chassis with cab, and body are sold separately or are priced separately in accordance with section 9 (b), the "value when new" shall be determined as follows:

(i) The chassis or chassis with cab—(a) When listed in Appendix C. When the chassis or chassis with cab is listed in Appendix C, the "value when new" is the price there listed.

(b) When not listed in Appendix C. When the chassis or chassis with cab is not listed in Appendix C, the "value when new" shall be the original retail price new, f. o. b. factory, or if that price is not ascertainable, the price for the most comparable chassis, or chassis with cab, of the same year of manufacture listed in Appendix C.

(ii) The body. The "value when new" of the body shall be the original retail price new, f. o. b. factory, or if that price is not ascertainable, the retail price new, f. o. b. factory in effect on March 31, 1942 for the same or most comparable body.

(c) Transportation allowance to be included in "base price". There may be included in the "base price" of a used vehicle, an allowance for transportation determined in accordance with the following subparagraphs:

(1) Sales within the 48 United States and the District of Columbia. Upon any sale within the United States and the District of Columbia, the allowance that may be added is the amount based on the rate per hundred weight listed in Appendix D for shipment from the principal place of manufacture of the chassis to the area in which the seller's place of business is located. If applicable rates are not listed in Appendix D, the allowance shall be an amount not to exceed the actual rail freight at carload rates as of March 31, 1942, or at current carload rates, whichever are lower, or $20.00. The carload rates shall be those for a vehicle of the same wheel base, shipping weight (actual or as listed in Appendix C) and over-all size of the vehicle being priced, shipped by the most direct route from the principal place of manufacture of the chassis to the freight station nearest the seller's place of business.

(2) Sales within a territory or possession of the United States. Upon any sale occurring in any territory or possession of the United States, the transportation allowance shall be the allowance calculated in accordance with subparagraph (1), from the principal place of manufacture of the chassis to Seattle,

Washington, for sales in the Territory of Alaska; to San Francisco, California, for sales in any other territory or possession in the Pacific Ocean; to New York, New York, for sales in any other territory or possession, plus the costs of shipment in each case from such port to the seller's place of business at rates in effect on October 1, 1941.

(d) Allowance for extras to be included in "base price"—(1) When allowance may be included. An allowance for extras, in the amount of their "value when new" as determined pursuant to subparagraph (2), may be included in the "base price".

(i) Upon a sale by a person other than a dealer, only for extras with which a vehicle is equipped at the time of sale.

(ii) Upon a sale by a dealer, only for those extras with which a vehicle was equipped when it was purchased by the dealer and with which it is still equipped at the time of sale. A dealer may make a charge for extras with which the vehicle was not equipped when it was purchased by such dealer only if such extras are added at the purchaser's request, and in that case, the additional charge shall be determined in accordance with paragraph (a) of section 9.

(2) Method of determining amount of allowance, "value when new", of extras. The "value when new" of extras shall be the sum of the original retail prices new, or, if such original retail prices new, are not ascertainable, then the current retail prices new in the area in which the vehicle is being sold (not to exceed applicable maximum prices), for the same or most comparable extras. Where an extra has replaced equipment on the used vehicle, the allowance to be included in the "base price" for such an extra shall be limited to its exchange value new.

SEC. 7. Percentage to be used in multiplying "base price" to obtain maximum price and the method for adjusting percentage to allow for depreciation—(a) Table of percentages—(1) For a used vehicle or chassis. For a used vehicle or a used vehicle chassis, the percentage to be used in multiplying the "base price" to obtain the maximum price shall not exceed the percentage stated in the following schedule which is applicable to the model year of the vehicle as determined by the manufacturer and the condition in which the vehicle is sold ("as is" or "warranted").

Model year	Percentages
	Percent	Percent
1943 and 1942 (sold in 1943)	92	103
1942	85	97
1941	73	86
1940	63	78
1939	58	73
1938	55	70
1937	51	67
1936	46	62
1935	41	58
1934	37	54

*1932 and lower model year vehicles take the percentages applicable to 1933.

Where the manufacturer did not designate a model year for the vehicle when it was new, the year including the date when it was delivered new to the first purchaser for use shall be considered as the model year if such date of delivery can be substantiated by the motor or serial number or by the original bill of sale or original invoice. If such information cannot be obtained, the year 1933 shall be considered as the model year.

(2) For a body of a used vehicle. For a body of a used vehicle, the percentage to be used in multiplying the "base price" to obtain the maximum price shall not exceed the percentage listed in the schedule in subparagraph (1) which is applicable to the model year and the condition in which the body is sold ("as is" or "warranted"). The model year is the year of the original manufacture of the body or the model year 1933.

(b) Method for adjusting percentage to allow for depreciation. On January 1, 1944 the maximum price for a used vehicle shall be reduced to allow for depreciation. This shall be done by adjusting the percentages listed in paragraph (a) (1) to make each of them applicable to the model year one year more recent than the model year it was applicable to before the date of adjustment. For example, the revised schedule on January 1, 1944 shall be:

Model year	Percentages
	Percent	Percent
1944	92	103
1943 and 1942 (sold in 1943)	85	97
1942	73	86
1941	63	78
1940	58	73
1939	55	70
1938	51	67
1937	46	62
1936	41	58
1935	37	54

*1933 and lower model year vehicles take the percentages applicable to 1934.

SEC. 8. "Warranted" used vehicle. (a) A "warranted" used vehicle, which includes a chassis or body sold separately, is one in good operating condition with which a dealer furnishes the following warranty:

Dealer's Warranty

The used vehicle described below is hereby warranted to be in good operating condition, and to remain in such condition under normal use and service for a period of 30 days after delivery, or 1000 miles, whichever may first occur.

We agree, if said vehicle is delivered during the above period to our place of business, to make with reasonable promptness any repairs or replacements which may be necessary to its good operating condition in accordance with normal use and service.

This warranty does not extend to tires, tubes, paint, glass, upholstery, or to any repairs or replacements made necessary by misuse, negligence, or accident.

(b) A dealer may extend to the purchaser warranties in addition to those provided in the warranty stated in paragraph (a), but this shall be done in a warranty separate and in addition to the warranty provided in paragraph (a), and the maximum price established by section 5 shall not be increased thereby.

(c) If any dealer shall fail to perform his obligations under the terms of the warranty provided in paragraph (a), he shall be deemed to have violated the provisions of this regulation to the extent that the price charged exceeded the price determined under section 5 for the used vehicle sold "as is".

SEC. 9. Maximum prices for special cases—(a) Maximum price where alterations are made or extras added at purchaser's request or for purpose of attaching a new body to form a complete vehicle. (1) Where a purchaser from a dealer requests that alterations, as distinct from reconditioning operations, be made in a used vehicle or chassis, or that the vehicle or chassis be equipped with extras, the maximum price applicable to the sale of such vehicle or chassis by the dealer after the requested alterations have been made or the extras have been added shall be the sum of subdivisions (i), (ii), and (iii).

(i) The maximum price for the vehicle or chassis without alterations or such extras, determined in accordance with other provisions of this regulation, and

(ii) Prices for extras (as defined in section 18) not to exceed maximum prices under applicable maximum price regulations.

(iii) Prices for parts, materials, and services supplied in making the alterations, not to exceed their maximum prices under applicable maximum price regulations when supplied by the dealer in the course of an alteration job to a regular customer of the same class of customers.

(2) Where a used chassis is altered, extras added and a new body attached to form a complete vehicle, the dealer's maximum price for such a vehicle shall be the sum of the prices determined for the used chassis in accordance with subdivisions (i), (ii), and (iii) of subparagraph (1) plus the maximum price for the new body under the applicable maximum price regulation.

(b) Maximum prices for a used vehicle consisting of a chassis and body of different model years. Where a used vehicle consists of a chassis and body of different model years, the maximum price for both the chassis and the body may be determined separately in accordance with the applicable provisions of this regulation.

(c) Maximum prices for a used vehicle to which is attached special equipment. Where there is attached to a used vehicle special equipment such as mixers, cranes, scoops, shovels, welding machines, compressors, and winches with independent power or other equipment, whose use is not dependent on its attachment to the vehicle, this special equipment shall be priced separately in accordance with the maximum price regulation that would be applicable if such equipment were not attached to the vehicle, and the used vehicle shall be priced in accordance with the applicable provisions of this regulation.

(d) Maximum prices for used vehicles which cannot be priced under other sections of this regulation. Where a used vehicle cannot be priced under any of the other sections of this regulation because it cannot be identified with any model year, or for any other reason, a maximum price may be established for such a vehicle by the nearest Office of Price Administration regional office, or any district office authorized by a regional office, if the seller furnishes adequate data in writing to that office to indicate the nature of the vehicle, the special circumstances making the other pricing provisions of this regulation inapplicable, the proposed selling price, the costs of the vehicle to the seller, and his proposed margin of profit. The regional or district office to which application is made may approve for such a vehicle a pricing method for establishing a maximum price, or a specified maximum price. If that office does not disapprove the application within thirty days from the date it is received, the proposed price shall be the maximum price. The proposed price may be charged on the mailing of the application and thereafter unless the regional or district office disapproves the application within the thirty-day period, but no payment shall be received until either that office has approved the proposed price or has not disapproved it within the thirty-day period.

Article III—Miscellaneous

SEC. 10. Federal and state taxes. There may be added to the maximum price for any used vehicle the amount of any federal, state and municipal tax upon, or incident to, the sale, delivery, processing or use of such vehicle. However, the amount of such tax must be stated separately on the certificate required by section 13. No taxes on the vehicle when new may be added to, or included in, the maximum price.

SEC. 11. Evasion. (a) It shall be a violation of this regulation to charge a price above the applicable maximum price in connection with any sale of a used vehicle, either alone or in conjunction with any other consideration even though the price increase appears only indirectly. Specifically, the seller is not permitted to require the purchaser, as a condition of the sale or transfer of the vehicle, to make payment over a period of time; to require him to finance the purchase through any particular lending agency; to require him to purchase any equipment, accessories, repairs, parts, or services so as to increase the total compensation above the maximum price; to require him to purchase any other commodity or service; or to require him to make payment in whole or in part by exchanging or transferring or trading in any other vehicle or other product or commodity, or where there is an exchange, transfer, or trade-in, to require him to accept an allowance for the vehicle, product or commodity, exchanged, transferred, or traded-in, which is below its reasonable value. Furthermore, the seller is prohibited from providing for the purchase of the used vehicle by a lessee under a rental contract at an agreed valuation which together with the amount paid for the rental is higher than the applicable maximum price at the time the rental contract is entered into, and from making the terms and conditions of sale more onerous to purchasers than they customarily have been except to the extent allowed by this regulation.

(b) The Office of Price Administration may upon written request grant written permission to any dealer subject to this regulation to change his credit terms, where such change is necessitated by orders issued by the Federal Reserve System or any other agency of the United States.

SEC. 12. Tag to be attached by dealer to vehicle. Every dealer offering a used vehicle for sale shall attach to it in a conspicuous place a label or tag not smaller than 4" x 8" in the form set forth in Appendix A, on which shall be set forth legibly all of the information called for in Appendix A.

SEC. 13. Certificate of transfer that must be completed for a sale of a used vehicle. Every person when he sells or purchases a used vehicle shall complete a certificate of transfer, Appendix B, which may be obtained from dealers or from the local war price and rationing board. When the used vehicle has been sold, the seller shall insert the details of the sale on the certificate and both the seller and purchaser shall certify on the certificate that they have complied with the revised regulation and that the selling price was not above the maximum stated on the certificate. The completed certificate shall be delivered to the purchaser who shall turn it into the local war price and rationing board. Any misrepresentation in connection with the certificate shall be subject to the penalties provided by the applicable statutes of the United States. This section shall not be applicable to sales to dealers and shall not be effective until 30 days from the effective date of this revised regulation.

SEC. 14. Records and reports. Every person who sells a used vehicle shall, so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect, keep and make available for examination by the Office of Price Administration records customarily kept in connection with the sale of a used vehicle and a copy of each warranty, if any, furnished in accordance with section 8.

SEC. 15. Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provisions of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, proceedings for suspension of licenses, and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

SEC. 16. Licensing—(a) License required. A license as a condition of selling is hereby required of every dealer now and hereafter selling any used vehicle for which a maximum price is established by this regulation and of every person now or hereafter making frequent sales of such vehicles as an incident to his regular business. No person whose license is suspended shall sell any used vehicle during this period of suspension.

(b) License granted. Every person required to be licensed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section is, by this section, granted a license as a condition of selling such used vehicle. The provisions of this regulation and any amendments thereto, shall be deemed to be incorporated in the license hereby granted, and any violation of any provision so incorporated shall be a violation of said license. Such license shall be effective on the effective date of this regulation, or whenever any person becomes subject to the maximum price provisions of the regulation, and shall, unless suspended in accordance with the provisions of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, continue in force so long as, and to the extent that, this regulation or any amendment or supplement thereto remains in effect.

SEC. 17. Petitions for amendment of general applicability. Any person seeking a modification of any provision of this regulation may file an amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[1] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

SEC. 18. Definitions. (a) "As is" refers to a sale of a used vehicle without a warranty by a dealer and to any sale of a used vehicle by a person other than a dealer.

(b) "Dealer" means a person engaged, in whole or in part, in the business of buying, selling, repairing, and reconditioning used vehicles and who maintains a place of business for the display, sale, repairing, and reconditioning of such vehicles. A person who cannot qualify as a dealer because he does not maintain a place for repairing and reconditioning may be approved in writing as a dealer under this regulation by the nearest Office of Price Administration regional office or any district office authorized by a regional office, if he provides adequate evidence to that office that he has an established working arrangement with a reputable business engaged in the repair and reconditioning of used vehicles.

(c) "Extra" means any accessory or equipment designed for attachment to the used vehicle when new which is not provided for in the price of such a vehicle new. It does not include special equipment such as mixers, cranes, scoops, shovels, welding machines, compressors, and winches with independent power, or other equipment whose use is not dependent on its attachment to the vehicle. It does include such items as oversized or special tires, special springs, special transmissions, special brakes, optional wheel base, body frames, heaters, radios, power-take-off winches, and other power-take-off equipment.

(d) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(e) "Sale" includes sales, dispositions, exchanges, and other transfers and contracts and offers to do any of the foregoing. It includes conditional sales and sales under rental contracts, lease agreements or other agreements except as excluded by section 2 (c). It also includes transfers by banks, finance companies, or other persons discounting promissory notes following the taking of possession by such persons upon default of the person making such promissory notes except as excluded by section 2 (d). The term "sale" does not refer to the adjustment of losses made in connection with settlements of claims under policies of insurance against fire, theft, collision, other loss of property or other coverage, even though the right of subrogation may be involved. The term "sale", "seller", "selling", "purchase", "purchaser", and "purchasing" shall be construed accordingly.

(f) "War procurement agency" includes the War Department, the Department of the Navy, the United States Maritime Commission, the Lend-Lease Section of the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department, and the following subsidiaries of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, Metals Reserve Corporation, Defense Plant Corporation and Defense Supplies Corporation, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

ORDER DISMISSING PROCEEDING

This proceeding was instituted upon a complaint duly filed on September 18, 1941, with the Bituminous Coal Division pursuant to sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 by the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 10 against code member, Marion County Coal Mining Corporation, Inc., a corporation, operating the Glenridge Mine (Mine Index No. 58), in District 10, located in Marion County, Illinois. The complaint alleged that code member wilfully violated the provisions of the Bituminous Coal Code and the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 10 for All Shipments Except Truck, and prayed appropriate relief.

Pursuant to appropriate orders, and after due notice to interested persons, this matter came on for hearing before Joseph D. Dermody, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof in Centralia, Illinois, on December 12, 1941. Interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses, and otherwise be heard. Appearances were entered for code member and for District Board 10. At the conclusion of the hearing, all parties waived the preparation and filing of a Report by the Examiner, and the matter was thereupon submitted to me for my consideration.

In view of the fact that the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, as amended, will expire at 12:01 a. m. August 24, 1943, any order which might be issued requiringing code member to cease and desist from further violations of the Act and Code or any order revoking code membership will become inoperative after that date. Proceedings not finally decided at that time will become moot. In these circumstances it would seem inadvisable to determine the issues on the merits. The proceeding should be dismissed.

It is so ordered.

Dated: August 5, 1943.

[SEAL] DAN H. WHEELER,
Director.

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER TO CEASE AND DESIST

On May 7, 1943, after notice and hearing Charles O. Fowler, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, submitted a Report in which he found that code member, Frank Yasbez, operating Frank's #2 Mine, Mine Index No. 504, in District 17, wilfully violated the Order in General Docket No. 19, dated October 9, 1940, by selling and delivering from December 12, 1941 to March 27, 1942, inclusive, 170 tons of 1½" x ½" slack coal at a delivered price of $2.50 per net ton, whereas no minimum price had been established therefor. He also found that the delivered price at which said coal was sold was less than the effective minimum price for like coal established for other mines in the vicinity.

The Examiner recommended that the code membership of Frank Yasbez be revoked and that he be required to pay a tax in the amount of $208.94, as a condition of reinstatement of his membership in the code pursuant to section 5 (c) of the Act.

An opportunity was afforded to all parties to file exceptions to the Examiner's Report. Although no formal exceptions have been filed, code member by letter reasserts his contention that the coal sold was 1½" x 0 and not 1½" x ½" as the Examiner found. Code member also asserts that he is unable to pay the tax imposed and would be forced as an alternative to close his mine.

The precise size of the coal does not clearly appear from the record. The evidence does establish, as the Examiner found, that code member shipped slightly more than 170 tons of coal, as alleged in the complaint. Irrespective of the exact size of the coal shipped, the record shows that no prices, either temporary or final had been established for coals produced at code member's mine. Accordingly, I agree with the Examiner's conclusions that the coal was sold in violation of the Order of the Director, dated October 9, 1940 in General Docket No. 19. I believe that the violation must be held wilful within the meaning of the Act.

The Examiner recommended the entry of an order revoking code membership. My own reading of the record leads me to believe that an order requiring code member to cease and desist from further violations is more appropriate. It appears that code member and his daughter, Villet, were confused with respect to the requirements of the Division which governed code members' operations. There is a suggestion in the record that code member believed that because some of the coal was of inferior quality, it could be sold even though no prices had been established for it. Although code member acknowledged that he "probably" received a copy of the order in General Docket No. 19, which was shown to have been mailed to him, he did not appear fully to understand its provisions. He also seems to have been under the impression that it was necessary first to have an analysis of coal taken before minimum prices could be established. In view of these facts, the nature of the violation, and the tonnage involved, I believe that the purpose of the Act will be adequately effectuated by the entry of a cease and desist order. Consistent with the above, the Report of the Examiner should be approved and adopted.

Upon the basis of the proposed findings of fact, the proposed conclusions of law and recommendation set forth in the Report, and upon the entire record in this proceeding

It is hereby ordered, That the proposed findings of fact and the proposed conclusions of law of the Examiner are approved and adopted as the findings of fact and conclusions of law of the Director, except as herein modified.

It appearing to the Commission that:

(a) Kansas-Nebraska Natural Gas Company, Inc., filed an application on June 11, 1943 (which application was in lieu of and in substitution for an application upon the same subject matter filed by the same corporation on April 13, 1943) seeking a certificate of public convenience and necessity under section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, for authority to construct and operate certain facilities for the transportation of natural gas in interstate commerce and for the sale in interstate commerce of natural gas for resale for ultimate public consumption for domestic, commercial, industrial, or other uses, which application was received by the Commission and designated Docket No. G-464;

(c) Kansas-Nebraska Natural Gas Company, Inc., has neither sought nor received authorization from this Commission for its operations described in paragraph (b) above;

(f) From the May 8, 1942, application of The Fin-Ker Oil & Gas Production

Company (of Kansas), the Company may be a natural-gas company within the meaning of the Natural Gas Act, as amended;

[Idaho Order G-4 Under Temp. MPR 28 and 29]

CERTAIN FRESH VEGETABLES IN SOUTHERN IDAHO

Order No. G-4 under Temporary Maximum Price Regulations 28 and 29, as amended—Certain Perishable Fruits and Vegetables. Unprocessed agricultural commodities. Adjustment of fresh cabbage, carrots, lettuce, peas, spinach and tomato prices for Southern Idaho.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and under the authority vested in the State Director of the State of Idaho Office of Price Administration by § 1439.253 (c) of Temporary Maximum Price Regulation 28, as amended, and § 1439.304 (c) of Temporary Maximum Price Regulation 29, as amended, and by General Order No. 32, as amended, and Delegation of Authority by the Regional Administrator of the Seventh Region, dated April 1, 1943, to the State Director of the State of Idaho, It is hereby ordered:

(a) The maximum prices of fresh cabbage, carrots, lettuce, peas, spinach and tomatoes sold and delivered at wholesale in southern Idaho, being that portion of Idaho lying south of the southern boundary of Idaho County, as bounded by the Laws of the State of Idaho, shall be from and after the effective date of this order, during the duration of Temporary Maximum Price Regulations 28 and 29 unless sooner modified or adjusted, as follows:

	Wholesale price (Per crate)
(1) Fresh cabbage, 80 pound crates; grade A	$5.68
(2) Fresh carrots, 6 dozen crates (bunches with tops); grade A	4.69
(3) Fresh lettuce, 4 or 5 dozen crates (iced); grade A	6.70
	(Per pound)
(4) Fresh peas, grade A	.20
(5) (a) Fresh spinach, local; grade A	.10
	(Per basket)
(5) (b) Fresh spinach, Out-of-State: 20-23 lb. basket; grade A	2.48
	(Per lug)
(6) Fresh tomatoes, 30 lb. lug; grade A	7.04

(7) All sellers covered by this order shall maintain the customary trade price differentials for all grades lower than Grade A.

(b) A service wholesaler who during March 1942 customarily (1) charged different delivered prices for the same food products because of the areas or zones in which the deliveries were made: and (2) determined his delivered prices for each of these areas or zones by adding to the delivered prices established for retailers situated in same base area or zone, an amount approximately equal to the difference between the average cost of delivery to the retailers in the base area or zone and the average cost of delivery to the retailers in such other areas or zones, may continue to receive such amounts in addition to his maximum prices, but such amounts (hereinafter called zone differentials) must be separately stated on the wholesaler's invoices.

(c) The maximum prices of fresh cabbage, carrots, lettuce, peas, spinach and tomatoes sold and delivered at retail in southern Idaho, being that portion of Idaho lying south of the southern boundary of Idaho County, as bounded by the Laws of the State of Idaho, shall be from and after the effective date of this order, during the duration of Temporary Maximum Price Regulations 28 and 29 unless sooner modified or adjusted, the following percentage markups over net cost according to the classification or retailer in which he falls:

Commodity	Independent retailer, annual volume (under $250,000)	Chain retailer annual volume (under $250,000)	Any retailer, annual volume (over $250,000)
Fresh cabbage	1.65	1.54	1.50
Fresh carrots	1.39	1.39	1.39
Fresh lettuce	1.39	1.39	1.39
Fresh peas	1.65	1.54	1.50
Fresh spinach	1.39	1.39	1.39
Fresh tomatoes	1.39	1.39	1.39

(2) This order applies only to those sellers at retail covered by Temporary Maximum Price Regulations 28 and 29 divided into classifications as outlined in (c) (1) above.

(3) Net cost shall in all cases be based on the unit of purchase of the retailer's largest single purchase during the preceding week of each grade and variety from his customary supplier. The retailer will find his net cost of the item he is pricing before sale. "Net cost" in this order means the amount the retailer paid for an item delivered at his customary receiving point, less all discounts allowed him except the discount for prompt payment; however, no charge or cost for local unloading or local trucking shall ever be included. "Net cost" shall be based on the retailer's most recent purchase since April 7, 1943, on a customary quantity from a customary supplier and on the customary mode of transportation. The retailer will then multiply his net cost by the percentage figures shown in (c) (1) above, which applies to a retailer of his class for the item being priced.

(4) For the purposes of this order, retailer shall determine his annual gross sales volume by reference to his filed Federal Income Tax return for the taxable year 1941, or in the event such retailer did not file a Federal Income Tax return for the year 1941 or was not in operation during the year 1941, then his annual gross sales volume shall be determined by dividing his total gross sales for the period in operation during 1942, as shown on his records, by the number of weeks in operation during 1942 and multiplying the result by the figure 52.

(5) For the purposes of this order, a retailer shall be considered an independent outlet or member of a chain, as follows:

(i) A retail outlet shall be an independent outlet if it is not a unit of four or more retail outlets under one ownership.

(ii) A retail outlet shall be a member of a chain if it is a unit of four or more retail outlets under one ownership.

(d) All provisions of Temporary Maximum Price Regulations 28 and 29 as amended, remain in full force and effect except as to the prices and specific provisions affecting those prices set out herein.

(e) Each wholesaler of fresh cabbage, carrots, lettuce, peas, spinach and tomatoes, whose maximum prices are affected by this order, shall file with the State Office of the Office of Price Administration, Boise, Idaho, periodic reports showing the prices paid by him to producers of said commodities and the net landed cost of such commodities at Boise, Idaho. Such periodic reports shall be made upon receipt of each new shipment from producers into Boise, Idaho.

(f) This order supersedes General Orders Nos. 1, 2 and 3 heretofore issued and which have been revoked simultaneously herewith.

(g) This order may be revoked, modified or amended by the Price Administrator, Regional Administrator or State Director of the Office of Price Administration, at any time.

This order shall become effective April 7, 1943.

(Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871)

(b) Wholesalers' maximum prices for imitation fruit preserves, jams and jellies sold to any buyer. For each item of fruit preserves, jams and jellies listed in paragraphs (1) and (2) as set forth above, the wholesaler's maximum price to any purchaser or to any class of purchasers shall be his "base price" plus his "permitted increase" (all per dozen or other customary wholesale selling unit).

(1) "Base price" means the wholesaler's maximum price as calculated under § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation and using every pricing method provided by § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation which may be necessary to establish a base price for any item.

(2) "Permitted increase" means the amount which the wholesaler's supplier is required to report to him under this order. Where there is more than one supplier, the wholesaler shall take as his "permitted increase" the amount reported to him by the supplier who, by the time the wholesaler is establishing his maximum price, has delivered to him the largest total amount of that item from the 1942 pack.

(c) Retailers' maximum prices for imitation fruit preserves, jams and jellies sold to any purchaser or any class of purchasers. For each item of imitation fruit preserves, jams and jellies listed in paragraphs (1) and (2) above, the retailer's maximum price to any purchaser or any class of purchasers shall be his "base price" plus his "permitted increase" per item.

(1) "Base price" means the retailer's maximum price as calculated under § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation, using for that purpose every pricing method provided by said § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation which may be necessary to establish a base price for each item.

(2) "Permitted increase" means the amount which the retailer's supplier is required to report to him by the terms and provisions of this Order No. G–35. Where there is more than one supplier, the retailer shall take as his permitted increase the amount reported to him by the supplier who, by the time the retailer is establishing his maximum price, had delivered to him the largest total amount of that item from the 1942 pack.

(d) Information which manufacturers and packers must give their customers. (1) In the case of any item of imitation fruit preserves, jams and jellies which is being sold by a manufacturer or packer thereof to a wholesaler or retailer for the first time after the effective date of this order, the manufacturer or packer shall send the wholesaler or retailer (before or at the time of delivery) a written statement which lists for each item included in the sale:

(i) The maximum price of the manufacturer or packer as established under the General Maximum Price Regulation called the "base price."

(ii) The specific maximum price established for the manufacturer or packer by this general order called the "maximum price," and

(iii) The amount of the difference between such "base price" and such "maximum price" called the "manufacturer's or packer's permitted increase." When calculating the "wholesaler's or packer's permitted increase" the packer shall adjust any fraction of a cent to the nearest fractional unit in which the wholesaler or retailer customarily quotes prices for the item.

(e) Notice from wholesalers to their retail customers. (1) In the case of any item of imitation fruit preserves, jams and jellies which is being sold by a wholesaler to a retailer for the first time after the wholesaler's maximum price for it has been established under this order, the wholesaler shall calculate the retailer's "permitted increase" for the item by reducing such "permitted increase" to the units in which the commodity is usually sold at retail. When making this calculation the wholesaler shall adjust fractions of ½ cent or more to the next lower cent. Except for the proper insertion, the notice of retailer's "permitted increase" shall read as follows:

(i) Notice of retailer's permitted increases. Your new OPA ceiling price for the different items covered by our invoice of (here insert date of invoice) is your ceiling price as established under General Maximum Price Regulation plus the amount set opposite each retail container item as follows: (Here list one of each of the different container items and state the amount of the permitted increase opposite the same.) OPA requires you to keep this information for examination.

(f) Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those established by this order may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

(g) Customary allowances and discounts. The maximum prices established by this general order for packers, wholesalers and retailers shall be reduced to reflect their respective customary allowances, discounts and other price differentials.

(h) Transfers of business or stock in trade. If the business, assets or stock in trade of any packer, wholesaler or retailer are sold or otherwise transferred on or after the effective date of this order and the transferee carries on the business, the maximum prices of the transferee shall be the same as those to which his transferor would have been subject if no transfer had taken place, and his obligation to keep records sufficient to verify those prices shall be the same. The transferor shall either preserve and make available or turn over to the transferee all records of transactions prior to the transfer which are necessary to enable the transferee to comply with the record provisions contained in this order.

(i) Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this order shall not be evaded whether by direct or indirect methods in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase or receipt of or relating to imitation fruit preserves, jams and jellies alone or in connection with any other commodity, or by way of any commission, service, transportation or other charge or discount, premium or other privilege, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding, or otherwise in any manner whatsoever.

(j) Enforcement. Any person violating a provision of this order is subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions and suits for treble damages provided by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(k) Records and reports. Every manufacturer or packer, and every wholesaler or retailer who makes sales of any imitation fruit preserves, jams and jellies covered by this order, shall safely keep and preserve for examination by any duly authorized representative of the Office of Price Administration, for a period of two years from and after the effective date of this order, all his existing records relating to the price adjustments made by this order, and shall also safely keep and preserve for the same period and for like inspection all records of the sort customarily made by him in his regular course of business from and after the effective date of this order which relate to the prices charged by him for items of imitation fruit preserves, jams or jellies sold after the effective date of this order; and each manufacturer or packer shall within 30 days after the effective date of this order file with this Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration at Denver, Colorado, a statement that he has established for himself the maximum prices specified in this order as his maximum prices for each kind, flavor, brand and container type or size of imitation fruit preserves, jams or jellies which he manufactures and sells. Wholesalers and retailers are not required to file any such statement or to do more than safely keep their pricing and sales records available for inspection as hereinabove specified.

(l) Applicability. The provisions of this Order No. G–35 shall be applicable only to that area of the United States contained within Region VII of the Office of Price Administration.

(m) Applicability of the General Maximum Price Regulation. Unless contradictory of or inconsistent with the terms and provisions of this Order No. G–35, all of the terms and provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation, and particularly the definitions set forth in § 1499.20 thereof, shall apply to and be deemed to be a part of this Order No. G–35 to the same extent and with like force and effect as if re-written herein.

(6) "Imitation fruit jellies" means any viscous or semi-solid food substance obtained by concentrating a mixture of fruit juice or juices, pectin and sugar, in which the fruit juice or juices ingredient is not less than 12½% or more than 44%, and the pectin ingredient is not more than 32½% or less than 1%, and the sugar content is 55%, all ingredients being measured by weight.

(7) "Item" means any kind, style or type of pack, flavor, grade, brand, container type and size.

(o) Established transportation allowance or differential must be maintained. Manufacturers or packers and wholesalers of imitation fruit preserves, jams, and jellies who have, prior to the effective date of this order, customarily sold in any area or marketing zone at delivered prices which were the same as their f. o. b. plant or place of business prices and thereby absorbed the cost of transportation on such delivered sales, or who made delivered sales in any such area or marketing zone upon which said sales they customarily absorbed part of the cost of transportation, shall continue to make delivered sales in such area or marketing zone and absorb all or such part of the transportation cost incident thereto as they customarily heretofore did.

thirty-ninth Article of War; who has not been acquitted or convicted of such desertion, or pardoned; who has not been discharged from the enlistment, call, or draft from which he deserted; and who has not been dishonorably discharged from a subsequent enlistment, call, or draft.

(d) Involuntary absence. Absence without leave or desertion by a person who has been entrapped, induced, or in any manner caused to absent himself or desert by act or procurement of superior military authority.

(e) Military prisoner. A garrison prisoner, whether detained, arraigned, or sentenced; or a general prisoner. See §§ 12.1, 12.2, 12.3.

(f) Military post. A military post, camp, or station at which facilities exist for the reception and custody of prisoners. It excludes troops in campaign, maneuvers or on the march, unless the commanding officer of such troops thinks proper to receive an absentee, deserter, or escaped military prisoner. It also excludes recruiting offices.

(g) United States. The continental United States exclusive of Alaska and the Canal Zone. [Par. 2]

§ 36.32 Payment for arrest and delivery of enlisted men absent without leave, deserters, and escaped military prisoners—(a) Services for which payment will be made—(1) Arrest. Fifteen dollars will be paid to the civil officer or other person arresting:

(i) An enlisted man absent without leave when the arrest and detention is authorized by a military officer,

(ii) A deserter (other than a Philippine Scout), or

(iii) An escaped military prisoner other than one who was a Philippine Scout immediately before becoming a prisoner), and turning him over to a guard sent for him. For the same services with respect to a deserter from the Philippine Scouts or an escaped military prisoner who immediately before becoming such was a Philippine Scout, $10 will be paid.

(2) Arrest and delivery. Twenty-five dollars will be paid to the civil officer or other person arresting and delivering—

(i) An enlisted man absent without leave when the arrest and detention is authorized by a military officer.

(ii) A deserter (other than a Philippine Scout), or

(iii) An escaped military prisoner (other than one who was a Philippine Scout immediately before becoming a prisoner) at a military post. For the same services with respect to a deserter from the Philippine Scouts or an escaped military prisoner who immediately before becoming such was a Philippine Scout, $15 will be paid.

(b) To whom paid. The payment mentioned in paragraph (a) (1) or (2) of this section, as the case may be, will be made to the person or persons actually making the arrest of an enlisted man absent without leave, a deserter, or an escaped military prisoner and the turnover or delivery of the person arrested. If two or more persons join in performing these services payment may be made to them jointly. Payment will be made whether the enlisted man absent without leave, deserter, or escaped military prisoner surrenders or is apprehended. Payment will not be made merely for information leading to an arrest, or for an arrest not followed by the return of the person arrested to military control.

(c) By whom paid. The payments mentioned in paragraph (a) of this section will be made by disbursing officers of the Finance Department, and will be in full satisfaction of all expenses of, arresting, keeping, and delivering the enlisted man absent without leave, deserter, or escaped military prisoner. [Par. 3]

§ 36.33 Surrender on advice of attorney. When a deserter or an escaped military prisoner surrenders himself to military authorities upon advice of his attorney, the attorney is not entitled to reward offered for apprehension of such deserter or escaped military prisoner, his claim for such reward being incompatible with his duty to his client. See 27 Comp. Dec. 482. [Par. 4]

§ 36.34 Detective agencies. (a) The act of 3 March 1893 (27 Stat. 591; 5 U.S.C. 53; M.L. 1939, sec. 643), provides:

That hereafter no employee of the Pinkerton Detective Agency, or similar agency, shall be employed in any Government service or by any officer of the District of Columbia.

(b) A detective agency could not legally be employed to apprehend and deliver a deserter or an escaped military prisoner so as to obligate the Government to pay therefor, but information having come to the agency that a certain person was a deserter or an escaped military prisoner, the reimbursement of the actual expenses not exceeding $25 incurred in delivering him from the place found into the hands of the Army officers at the nearest post is not considered an "employment" within the prohibition of the act of 3 March 1893. See MS. Comp. Gen., AD 7112, 21 October 1922. [Par. 5]

PART 903—DELEGATIONS OF AUTHORITY

[Supp. Directive 1–V]

§ 903.41 Supplementary Directive No. 1–V—Delegation of authority to the Office of Price Administration with reference to rationing in Hawaii. (a) In order to permit the efficient rationing of material in the Territory of Hawaii, the authority delegated to the Office of Price Administration by Directive No. 1 (§ 903.1) is hereby extended to include the exercise of rationing control over the sale, transfer, distribution and use of any material located in the Territory of Hawaii, the rationing of which has been requested by the Regional Director of Region 10 of the War Production Board or by any employee of the War Production Board designated by him for that purpose (hereinafter collectively referred to as "the Regional Director").

(b) The rationing of a material shall be deemed to have been requested by the Regional Director when, and only when, he has made a request in writing, addressed to the Honolulu Office of the Office of Price Administration, and has received back from the Office of Price Administration a copy of the request bearing a notation that the request is acceptable, signed by a duly authorized official of the Office of Price Administration. This paragraph does not apply to any rationing action taken in the Territory of Hawaii by the Office of Price Administration prior to August 23, at the written or oral request of the Regional Director, and any such action is hereby approved and ratified.

(c) The authority of the Office of Price Administration under this Supplementary Directive shall not include the following unless the rationing request of the Regional Director expressly so states:

(1) The power to impose restrictions which do more than control (i) the sale, transfer or other disposition of a material by persons who sell it at retail, (ii) the sale, transfer or other disposition of a material to ultimate consumers and (iii) the use of a material by ultimate consumers.

(2) The exercise of rationing control over any material delivered to or for the account of the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration, or to or for the account of governmental agencies or other persons to the extent that they acquire the material for export to and consumption or use in any foreign country.

(d) The authority of the Office of Price Administration under this Supplementary Directive shall include the following, unless the rationing request of the Regional Director states otherwise:

(1) The power to regulate or prohibit the sale, transfer, delivery or other disposition of the material to, or its acquisition or use by, any person in the Territory of Hawaii who has acted in violation of any rationing regulation or order prescribed by the Office of Price Administration.

(2) The authority to require records and reports and to make audits of the accounts and inspection of the facilities of any person in the Territory of Hawaii involved directly or indirectly in the sale, transfer, delivery or other disposition of the material.

(e) This supplementary directive does not restrict or modify the authority of the Regional Director under War Production Board Regulation No. 2 (§ 903.-01), nor the authority of the Office of Price Administration under Directive No. 1 (§ 903.1) or any directive supplementary thereto.

Subchapter B—Executive Vice Chairman

PART 944—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE OPERATION OF THE PRIORITIES SYSTEM

[Priorities Regulation 3, as Amended August 10, 1943]

UNIFORM METHOD OF APPLICATION AND EXTENSION OF PREFERENCE RATINGS

§ 944.23 Priorities Regulation 3—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this regulation:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Material" means any commodity, equipment, accessory, part, assembly or product of any kind.

(3) "Assignment" of a preference rating means the granting to any person, by order or certificate issued by or under the authority of the War Production Board, of the right to use such rating.

(4) "Application" of a preference rating means the use of the rating by the person to whom it is initially assigned by or under the authority of the War Production Board, and includes the initial issuance by any governmental agency, under authority of the War Production Board, of a preference rating certificate rating a delivery or the use of facilities directly to or for such agency.

(5) "Extension" of a preference rating means the use of the rating by any person to whom it is applied or extended by another person.

(b) General provisions. (1) Any person may apply a preference rating assigned to him by any regulation, preference rating certificate or preference rating order issued to him in his name or as one of a class and, subject to the provisions of this regulation, any person may extend any rating which has been applied or extended to deliveries to be made by him.

(2) A preference rating may be applied by a person to whom it is assigned only to the specific quantities and kinds of material authorized (or to the minimum required amounts of material when no specific quantities are authorized) or to the particular use of facilities specified.

(3) No person shall duplicate, in whole or in part, purchase orders which he has placed with one or more suppliers for delivery of material to which he has applied or extended a rating, in such manner that the amount of the material ordered exceeds the amount to which he is authorized to apply or extend the rating, even though he intends to cancel or reduce his purchase orders to the authorized amount prior to completion of delivery.

(c) Application or extension of ratings for the use of facilities only or for repairs. Ratings may be applied or extended to get the use of facilities only or repairs only, in the following cases:

(1) A rating which has been specifically assigned by the War Production Board to permit a named person to obtain the use of specified facilities only may be applied only by the person named and only to obtain the use of the specified facilities.

(2) When a person is authorized to apply or extend a rating to obtain material which he will deliver (or which will be physically incorporated in material to be produced or delivered) he may apply or extend the same rating to obtain the processing by a concern regularly engaged in such business of the material to be produced or delivered or of material which will be physically incorporated therein regardless of the fact that the material to be so processed may be the property of the customer for whom the processing is to be done.

NOTE: Paragraph (c) (3) redesignated (c) (4) and amended; last two sentences of paragraph (c) (2) revoked August 10, 1943.

(3) A blanket MRO rating may be applied by the person to whom it is assigned to get his plant, machinery or equipment repaired even if the repair job does not involve the delivery of repair parts or materials. A blanket MRO rating means a rating assigned by CMP Regulation 5 or 5A, orders in the "P" series or by any other War Production Board regulation, order, form or certificate which assigns a rating for maintenance, repair or operating supplies without specifying the kind and quantity of the material to which the rating may be applied. Where the quantity of material is specified in terms of dollar value only, the rating is a blanket MRO rating. A rating assigned on a PD-1A or PD-3A Certificate, or any other rating assigned to the delivery of specific repair parts or materials, may also be applied to the installation of the repair parts or materials or to the repair job alone if it is found that installing the parts or materials is not necessary. However, in the case of ordinary plumbing, heating, electrical, automotive or refrigeration repairs, a rating may not be applied to repair work even if the rating is expressly applicable to repair parts or materials. As used in this subparagraph, "repair" means to fix a plant, machinery or equipment after it has broken down or when it is about to break down. It does not mean upkeep or maintenance service such as periodic inspection, cleaning, painting, lubricating, etc. A rating for repairs, as distinct from the delivery of repair parts or materials, may be applied only to a person who is regularly engaged in the business of making repairs with his own tools and equipment.

(4) A person to whom a rating has been applied or extended to get the use of his facilities only or for a repair job only, where no delivery of material is involved, may not extend the rating for any purpose.

(d) Extension of ratings for material. The following provisions of this paragraph (d) shall be applicable to all extensions of preference ratings originally applied by any person to obtain deliveries of material, notwithstanding any inconsistent provisions of the preference rating certificate or preference rating order assigning the rating. No preference rating may be extended to the delivery of any material except:

(1) Material which will itself be delivered by the person extending the rating on a delivery bearing the rating which is being extended, or which will be physically incorporated into material to be so delivered, including the portion of such material normally eonsumed or converted into scrap or byproducts in the course of processing; or

(2) Material which is required to replace in inventory material so delivered or incorporated. Material shall not be deemed to be required if the delivery can be made and a practicable working minimum inventory of such material still retained; and if, in making delivery, the inventory is reduced below such minimum, the rating may be extended to replace such material only to the extent necessary to restore the inventory to such minimum: Provided, however, That the material ordered for replacement must be substantially the same as the material delivered or incorporated in the material delivered, subject only to minor variations in size, shape or design or substitutions of less scarce materials, which in any case do not substantially alter the purpose for which the same is to be used.

A person may not extend a rating to any materials in excess of the quantities specified in this paragraph (d), nor to materials for plant improvement, expansion or construction, to machine tools or other capital equipment, to business machines whether purchased or leased, or to maintenance, repair or operating supplies.

(e) CMP Regulation 3 and Priorities Regulation 11. Nothing contained in paragraphs (b) or (d) above shall be deemed to enlarge or limit or to alter in any way any of the provisions or restrictions contained in CMP Regulation 3 (§ 3175.3) or Priorities Regulation 11 (§ 944.32).

(f) Restrictions upon application and extension of ratings. The following provisions are designed to eliminate or limit the use of preference ratings with respect to certain materials and products as to which such use is inappropriate because of adequate supply, specialized needs or other particular factors:

(1) Items as to which preference ratings have no effect: List A. Any item on List A attached to this regulation may be produced or delivered without regard to preference ratings. No person shall apply or extend any rating to any of these items and no person selling any such item shall require a rating as a condition of sale. Any rating purporting to be applied or extended to any such item shall be void and no person shall give any effect to it in filling an order.

(2) Items to Which Blanket MRO Ratings Do Not Apply—List B. Blanket MRO ratings may not be applied to get any item on List B. See paragraph (c) (3) for definition of blanket MRO ratings. No person shall give any effect to any rating applied to his deliveries of any item on List B if he knows or has reason to believe that it is a blanket MRO rating. Ratings which are not blanket MRO ratings may, however, be used to get items on List B. Any blanket MRO rating applied to an order for any item on List B which was not delivered before the date the item was added to the list shall be deemed void.

(3) Illustration. A manufacturer of a product listed on Schedule II of CMP Regulation 5 is assigned a rating of AA-2 for operating supplies. He may not use the rating to buy wooden shelving for his own use since it is on List B. A contractor has received an order bearing a rating of AA-3 to install wooden shelving in an Army camp. He may extend that rating to obtain the wooden shelving from the manufacturer since in this case the shelving is production material as to him and not operating supplies. If, however, wooden shelving were on List A instead of List B, neither rating could be used.

(4) [Revoked August 10, 1943.]

(g) Method of application or extension. (1) Any person authorized to apply or extend preference ratings may do so:

(i) On a written contract or order by endorsing on or attaching to it a certification in substantially the form prescribed by CMP Regulation No. 7 (Section 3175.7), or substantially as follows, if preferred:

CERTIFICATION

The undersigned purchaser hereby represents to the seller and to the War Production Board that he is entitled to apply or extend the preference ratings indicated opposite the items shown on this order, and that such application or extension is in accordance with Priorities Regulation No. 3 as amended, with the terms of which the undersigned is familiar.

(Name of Purchaser and PRP Certificate No. if Purchaser is a PRP Unit)

By _____ (Signature and Title of Duly Authorized Officer)

The certification which is used shall be signed manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation 7 (§ 944.27) by an official duly authorized for that purpose.

(ii) On a purchase order placed by telegraph, by including in the telegram the following abbreviated certification: "Ratings certified". The requirements for manual signature or authorization under Priorities Regulation No. 7 (§ 944.27) will be satisfied in such case if the copy of the outgoing telegram retained by the person placing the order is signed or authorized in the manner provided in that regulation.

(iii) On a purchase order placed by telephone and requiring shipment within seven days, by stating to the supplier at the time of placing the order the substance of either certification authorized in subdivision (i) of this paragraph (g) (1): provided, however, in such case, that the person making the statement is an official duly authorized to make such certification, and the person making the statement furnishes to the supplier within fifteen days after placing the purchase order confirmation in writing describing the material ordered and bearing a certification of such preference rating substantially in one of the forms authorized by subdivision (i) of this paragraph (g) (1). No preference rating received by telephone shall be extended by the supplier to replace in inventory any material delivered, until receipt by the supplier of the written confirmation herein required. On or before the twentieth day of each month, any supplier who has received in the prior month a preference rating applied or extended by telephone shall notify the War Production Board, Compliance Division, of any case in which a purchaser has failed to furnish to him the written certification when due.

(iv) The person receiving the certification and rating shall be entitled to rely on such representation, unless he knows or has reason to believe it to be false. Each person applying or extending a rating must maintain at his regular place of business all documents, including purchase orders and preference rating orders and certificates, upon which he relies as entitling him to apply or extend such rating, segregated and available for inspection by representatives of the War Production Board, or filed in such manner that they can be readily segregated and made available for such inspection. In addition thereto, each person applying or extending a rating shall execute and file with the War Production Board all reports and questionnaires required by the applicable preference rating certificate or preference rating order and such other reports and questionnaires as said Board shall from time to time request.

(2) Such certification may be used in lieu of any other form of certification required by the terms of any regulation, preference rating order or preference rating certificate (including, without limitation, the instructions accompanying Forms PD-1A, PD-3A and PD-25A) as a means of applying or extending a preference rating and in lieu of furnishing any copy of any preference rating order required thereby; except that the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 9 (§ 944.30) with respect to the method of applying (but not extending) preference ratings covering certain types of exports must be complied with when ratings are applied pursuant to that regulation.

(3) Notwithstanding the requirements of any applicable preference rating order or certificate,

(i) A person may defer extending any rating for a period of not more than three months after he becomes entitled to extend the same;

(ii) Ratings of the same grade assigned by different preference rating certificates or orders may be combined and extended to a single delivery; and

(iii) Ratings of different grades, whether assigned by the same or different preference rating certificates or orders, may be extended to deliveries under a single purchase order provided the amount of each material to which a particular grade of rating is extended is shown either as a separate item, or on a percentage basis where the material involved is of such type and in such quantities that the supplier can readily determine, from percentage figures alone, the exact effect of the extension of the rating on his production and delivery schedule. To the extent necessary to avoid production or delivery of material in quantities smaller than the minimum commercially practicable, items to which ratings of different grades might be extended may be combined and the rating of the lowest grade extended to the total production or delivery.

(4) In addition to complying with the foregoing requirements of this paragraph (g), any person applying or extending a preference rating shall include on his purchase order or contract such information (except designation of the number or serial number of the preference rating certificate assigning the rating) as may be required by the terms of any applicable order of the War Production Board and which the person placing the purchase order is able to furnish.

NOTE: Paragraph (g) (4) amended August 10, 1943.

(h) Applicability of other restrictions. Except as expressly otherwise provided in paragraphs (d) and (g) of this regulation, the application or extension of any rating shall be subject to any applicable restrictions contained in any order of the War Production Board assigning the preference rating in question or regulating transactions in the material or the use of the facilities involved, including, without limitation, restrictions as to the kind and amount of material to which preference ratings may be applied or extended, requirements of countersignature or other written approval of particular transactions, and restrictions on the use of material or facilities.

(i) Effect on existing certificates and orders. All existing forms of preference rating certificates issued by or under authority of the Office of Production Management or the War Production Board are continued in full force and effect, and additional certificates on such forms may continue to be issued by the persons now or hereafter authorized to issue the same until such authority is revoked or amended, subject to the provisions of this all existing orders of the Office of Production Board. All certificates and all existing orders of the Office of Production Management or the War Production Board are to be deemed amended by this regulation only where and to the extent that the provisions of this regulation indicate that it is to control.

Issued this 10th day of August 1943.

INTERPRETATION 2

The restrictions on the use of ratings for the items on Lists A and B which were added to the regulation by the amendment of June 4, 1943, apply to orders for such items which had been placed before June 4 but were not yet filled.

Paragraph (f) provides that no person shall give effect to any rating the use of which is restricted by that paragraph, in filling an order. It follows, therefore, that (1) all outstanding ratings on unfilled orders for items on List A are cancelled; and (2) all outstanding ratings assigned for maintenance, repair or operating supplies which have been applied on unfilled orders for items on List B are cancelled. [Issued June 12, 1943, amended August 10, 1943.]

PART 970—CHLORINATED HYDROCAREON REFRIGERANTS

[Conservation Order M-28, as Amended August 7, 1943 [1]]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of chlorinated hydrocarbon refrigerants for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense.

[1] Subject to FD Reg. No. 1 of the War Food Administration. Any rating purporting to be applied or extended on or after June 30, 1943 to any such item is void. However, delivery before July 20, 1943, under any rated orders placed before June 30, 1943 is expressly permitted.

[1] This document is a restatement of Amendment 1 to M-28, as amended July 10, 1943, which appeared in the FEDERAL REGISTER of August 10, 1943, page 11025, and reflects the order in its completed form as of August 7, 1943.

§ 970.1 Conservation Order M-28—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Chlorinated hydrocarbon refrigerants" means trichloromono-fluoromethane, dichlorodifluoromethane, dichloromonofluoromethane, trichlorotrifluoroethane, and dichlorotetrafluoroethane.

(2) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency or any organized group of persons whether incorporated or not.

(3) "Producer" means any person engaged in the production of chlorinated hydrocarbon refrigerants.

(4) "Contract agent" means any person engaged in the business of accepting orders for chlorinated hydrocarbon refrigerants on behalf of and as agent for a producer.

(5) "Supplier" means any person engaged in the business of distributing chlorinated hydrocarbon refrigerants to persons using the same for installation in a refrigerating or air conditioning "system". The term shall include an equipment manufacturer to the extent that he engages in the sale of such refrigerants to distributors or dealers handling "systems". "System" means any "system" as defined in General Limitation Order L-38.

(6) "Equipment manufacturer" means any person who uses chlorinated hydrocarbon refrigerants for charging new refrigerating or air conditioning systems manufactured by him.

(7) "Insecticide manufacturer" means any person who uses chlorinated hydrocarbon refrigerants in the production of insecticides.

(8) "User" means any person who installs chlorinated hydrocarbon refrigerants in a refrigerating or air conditioning system, other than an equipment manufacturer.

(9) "Comfort cooling system" means any air conditioning system of a type described on List A, made a part of this order.

(b) Classification of uses of chlorinated hydrocarbon refrigerants. The uses of chlorinated hydrocarbon refrigerants are hereby classified as follows:

Class I: Army, for use in new or existing refrigeration and air conditioning systems.

Class II: Navy, for use in new or existing refrigeration and air conditioning systems.

Class III: (a) Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration, for charging new refrigeration or air conditioning systems at factories of equipment manufacturers.

(b) Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration, for charging new refrigeration or air conditioning systems in the field.

(c) Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration, for maintenance and repair of systems already installed.

Class IV: (a) For maintenance of industrial, wholesale, retail, and household refrigeration systems used for the processing, storage, and dispensing of food and food products; but excluding systems referred to on List A or List B.

(b) For maintenance of industrial refrigeration and air conditioning systems used for processing of products other than food.

(c) For maintenance of all other refrigeration and air conditioning systems not included under (a) or (b) above, and not on List A or List B. This class includes sealed railroad cars.

Class V: Charging new refrigeration and air conditioning systems in the field except those systems owned and operated by the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission and War Shipping Administration, and excluding comfort cooling systems.

Class VI: Charging new equipment by an equipment manufacturer, exclusive of comfort cooling systems. This class does not include charging systems for Army, Navy, Maritime Commission and War Shipping Administration.

Class VII: Maintenance and repair of comfort cooling systems and maintenance and repair of refrigeration equipment used solely for storing or dispensing carbonated or malt beverages. This class does not include systems owned and operated by Army, Navy, Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration.

Class VIII: Inventory—Surplus refrigerants in excess of one month's anticipated requirements.

(c) Certification of orders by users, and deliveries thereunder—(1) Orders must be certified. On and after July 15, 1943, no user shall place an order with a supplier or any other person, and no supplier or other person shall accept such an order, for any chlorinated hydrocarbon refrigerants unless such order (or vendor's delivery receipt) is accompanied by a certificate endorsed thereon, or attached to it, showing the uses for which the refrigerants are required, and in substantially the following form:

The undersigned purchaser hereby certifies to the seller and to the War Production Board that he has no empty or surplus cylinders, and that, to the best of his knowledge, information and belief, the quantities of chlorinated hydrocarbon refrigerants covered by this order will be required during the next thirty days for use for the following classified purposes, as described in Conservation Order M-28:

Classification	Quantity required

Such certificate shall in every case be signed by the user or his authorized official, either manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 7. It shall constitute a representation to the War Production Board, as well as to the supplier, that the facts stated therein are true. No supplier shall make any delivery under such an order if he knows, or has reason to believe, that such certificate contains any false, inaccurate or incomplete statement. He may rely thereon if he does not know or have any reason to believe that a certificate is inaccurate, incomplete or false.

On and after July 15, 1943, no supplier shall deliver any chlorinated hydrocarbon refrigerants except pursuant to an order accompanied by such a certificate as provided for above.

(2) Deliveries to be subject to restriction. If and whenever any use shall be prohibited, as provided in (g) below, no user shall install or use any chlorinated hydrocarbon refrigerants for such a use, regardless of the purpose for which it was acquired.

(d) Certification of orders by suppliers; records; deliveries by suppliers (1) Orders must be certified. On or before July 15, 1943 and on or before the 10th day of each calendar month thereafter, each supplier who wishes to secure delivery of chlorinated hydrocarbon refrigerants through any contract agent during the next calendar month, shall place his order for such refrigerants with the contract agent. No supplier shall place such an order with a contract agent, and no contract agent shall accept such an order unless it is accompanied by a certificate endorsed thereon or attached thereto showing the uses for which the refrigerants are acquired, and the supplier's deliveries during the preceding month, in substantially the following form (except that deliveries made prior to July 15, 1943, may be estimated).

The undersigned purchaser hereby certifies to the seller and to the War Production Board that to the best of his knowledge, information and belief, the quantities of chlorinated hydrocarbon refrigerants covered by this order will be required during the next calendar month for deliveries by him for the following classified purposes, as described in Conservation Order M-28; and that he made deliveries during the preceding month of ---------- as shown below:

Classification	Quantities required	Deliveries in preceding month
(Here list classifications included in purchase order)	(Here list quantity, in pounds, ordered for each classification)	(Here show quantities delivered in preceding month for each classification)

Such certificate shall in every case be signed by the supplier or his authorized official, either manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 7. It shall constitute a representation to the War Production Board as well as to the contract agent, that the facts stated therein are true. No contract agent shall approve or request any such delivery if he knows, or has reason to believe, that such certificate contains any false, inaccurate or incomplete statement. He may rely thereon if he does not know or have any reason to believe that a certificate is inaccurate, incomplete or false.

On and after August 1, 1943, no contract agent shall approve or request delivery of any chlorinated hydrocarbon refrigerants to any supplier except pursuant to an order placed, and accompanied by such a certificate, as provided for above.

(2) Records must be kept. Each supplier shall keep records showing the quantities of chlorinated hydrocarbon refrigerants delivered by him during each month for the various uses as classified in paragraph (b) above and the quantities of such refrigerants allocated to him each month for deliveries in each of such classifications.

(3) Deliveries by suppliers after August 7, 1943, for uses in (b) and (c) of Class IV. Chlorinated hydrocarbon refrigerants will not be allocated for the uses described in parts (b) and (c) of Class IV by regular monthly deliveries to suppliers. In the event a system operated for any of such uses becomes inoperative for lack of refrigerant, a separate application for refrigerants must be made by the owner of the system, directly to the War Production Board, General Industrial Equipment Division, by letter, telegram, or other communication, stating (i) whether the system is used for air conditioning or refrigeration, (ii) its size or capacity by horsepower or tons of refrigeration, (iii) the minimum operating charge necessary to restore the system to operation, (iv) why conversion to another type of refrigerant is not practicable, (v) the functional use of the system in the plant, and (vi) the end product being processed by its use. If the application is granted, the Board will issue a specific direction to the producer authorizing and directing delivery of a specified quantity to be made to the owner of the particular system for the use specified. No user, supplier, or other person shall deliver any chlorinated hydrocarbon refrigerant to the owner of such a system unless and until the Board has specifically directed such delivery to be made. This paragraph (d) (3) shall be followed, as long as it remains in effect, notwithstanding any other provisions of this order. However, suppliers will continue to place their orders for refrigerants, for uses described in Class IV in parts (a), (b) and (c) (listing (a), (b) and (c) separately), in accordance with paragraph (d).

(4) Deliveries by suppliers during August 1943 and subsequent months. (i) During the month of August, 1943, and each succeeding calendar month, no supplier shall deliver for any use a greater quantity of refrigerants than is allocated to him during such month for that use, except as provided in (ii) below. A supplier shall rely upon the notification given him, by the contract agent with whom his order was placed, as to the quantities allocated the supplier for each of such uses during each calendar month, unless he knows or has reason to believe that such notification is incorrect, incomplete or false.

(ii) If a supplier has exhausted the quantity allocated him for classifications I, II, III, or IV during any calendar month, he may use his supply in classification VIII for the classification exhausted. If classifications IV and VIII become exhausted, he may then draw upon the supply allocated for classifications V or VI.

(iii) No supplier shall deliver during any month any such refrigerants allocated to him for delivery to or for use by the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, or War Shipping Administration (Classes I, II and III) for use by any other person during that month; and no supplier shall deliver to or for use by any of such agencies any refrigerants which were allocated to him for civilian uses (Classes IV, V, and VI) during that month.

(iv) Any chlorinated hydrocarbon refrigerants allocated for classifications I through VII during any month and not delivered by the supplier during the month shall be transferred by him to classification VIII (Inventory), at the end of such month. If notice of his allocations for the following month has not been received by the first day of the month, the amount transferred to Class VIII (Inventory) from any classification may continue to be used for such classification; provided that the amount so used is restored to Class VIII, by deduction from the new allocation for that classification, as soon as notice of the new allocation for such month is received.

(e) Certification of orders by contract agents, equipment manufacturers, and insecticide manufacturers—(1) By contract agents. On or before the 20th day of each calendar month, commencing with the month of July, 1943, each contract agent who transmits orders for chlorinated hydrocarbon refrigerants from suppliers to a producer, for delivery during the next calendar month, shall place a written request for shipments, covering all of such orders, with the producer. No contract agent shall place such orders with a producer, and no producer shall accept such orders unless accompanied by the request with a certificate endorsed thereon, or attached thereto, showing the uses for which the refrigerants are ordered, and deliveries made during the preceding month by suppliers placing orders through the agent, and in substantially the following form (except that deliveries prior to July 15, 1943 may be estimated):

The undersigned contract agent hereby certifies to the producer and to the War Production Board that he has received orders for shipment of the quantities of chlorinated hydrocarbon refrigerants covered by this request for shipments, for the following classified purposes as described in Conservation Order M-28; and that deliveries during the preceding month of ---------- were made as shown below:

Classification	Quantities requested	Deliveries in preceding month

Such certificate shall in every case be signed by the contract agent or his authorized official, either manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 7. It shall constitute a representation to the War Production Board as well as to the producer, that the facts stated therein are true. No producer shall make any such shipment or delivery if he knows, or has reason to believe, that such certificate contains any false, inaccurate or incomplete statement. He may rely thereon if he does not know or have any reason to believe that a certificate is inaccurate, incomplete or false.

(2) By equipment and insecticide manufacturers. On or before the 20th day of each calendar month, commencing with the month of July, 1943, each equipment manufacturer or insecticide manufacturer who wishes to secure delivery of chlorinated hydrocarbon refrigerants from a producer during the next calendar month shall place his order for such refrigerants with the producer. No such manufacturer shall place such an order with a producer, and no producer shall accept such an order unless it is accompanied by a certificate endorsed thereon or attached thereto, showing the uses for which the refrigerants are acquired, and the quantities used during the preceding month, in substantially the following form:

The undersigned purchaser hereby certifies to the seller and to the War Production Board that, to the best of his knowledge, information and belief, the quantities of chlorinated hydrocarbon refrigerants covered by this order will be required by him during the month of ---------- for the following purposes, according to the classifications described in Conservation Order M-28 (or for the production of insecticide for the Army or for the Navy); and that he used such refrigerants during the preceding month of ---------- as shown below:

Proposed use	Quantities required	Used in preceding month

Such certificate shall in every case be signed by the equipment or insecticide manufacturer or his authorized official, either manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 7. It shall constitute a representation to the War Production Board, as well as the seller, that the facts stated therein are true. No producer shall make any delivery under such an order if he knows, or has reason to believe, that such certificate contains any false, inaccurate or incomplete statement. He may rely thereon if he does not know or have any reason to believe that a certificate is inaccurate, incomplete or false.

On and after August 1, 1943, no producer shall deliver any chlorinated hydrocarbon refrigerants to any equipment manufacturer or insecticide manufacturer except pursuant to an order placed, and accompanied by such a certificate, as provided for above.

(f) Shipments by producers—(1) Statement of requested shipments. On or before the 25th day of each calendar month, commencing with the month of July 1943, each producer shall file with the War Production Board a statement showing: the orders for chlorinated hydrocarbon refrigerants which have been transmitted to him by contract agents, or which have been placed with him by equipment and insecticide manufacturers, for delivery during the next calendar month, and the uses for which the refrigerants are ordered, as indicated by the certificates accompanying the orders; the quantity of such refrigerants which will be available for delivery by him, during such month; and his deliveries of such refrigerants to the suppliers and equipment and insecticide manufacturers, during the preceding calendar month (except that deliveries to suppliers prior to August 1, 1943, need not be shown by classifications).

(2) Deliveries by producers. On and after July 10, 1943, no producer shall deliver any chlorinated hydrocarbon refrigerants to any person, or for any use, except in accordance with specific directions from the War Production Board. Such directions will be issued primarily to insure the meeting of defense requirements, and of the more essential needs if and whenever all cannot be met. Such directions may specify the aggregate quantities of such refrigerants which shall be delivered by the producer during any calendar month (or other period) for any of the classifications of uses established by this order or for other requirements (including Lend-Lease, and the production of insecticide, separately, for Army and Navy use), or the pro ration of the available supply among all or any part of the various classifications and other requirements, or establish a reserve or emergency stock to be held by the producer. Such directions may also direct the producer to make such adjustments in his deliveries as may appear reasonable and appropriate to equalize the inventories held by suppliers, so as to more nearly assure all suppliers of a minimum working inventory whenever practicable. Directions issued under this order to a producer and directing deliveries to be made by him for specified uses or in specified quantities shall be deemed allocations of the refrigerants for the purposes specified and, subject to the provisions of this order, no producer, supplier, equipment manufacturer or insecticide manufacturer shall make or receive delivery for any other purpose.

(g) Prohibited uses (List B), emergency cases. (1) No user, supplier, contract agent, or producer shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the owner of any system, any chlorinated hydrocarbon refrigerants for use in, or for resale for use in any system of the types described on List B, made a part of this order. Such list may be changed from time to time (from month to month, or otherwise) by amendments to this order, as the War Production Board may consider necessary to assure sufficient supplies of such refrigerants in all areas and for the uses which are deemed most essential to the national defense.

(2) An authorization for an exemption from the terms of paragraph (g) (1) above may be allowed by the War Production Board when an air conditioning system must be operated (i) to avoid intolerable conditions in sealed or substantially airtight rooms or enclosures used for essential purposes, or (ii) to protect the life or health of a person under care of a licensed physician. An exemption from the requirement of paragraph (d) that a supplier's order must be placed by the 10th of the month preceding that in which delivery is required, may be allowed when the supplier demonstrates that, due to causes beyond his control, it will be impossible for a delivery in classifications I, II, III or IV to be met by him or any other supplier or user unless an exemption is allowed. Application for such an authorization may be made by or on behalf of the person affected by such restriction, by letter or telegram or other communication addressed to the General Industrial Equipment Division, War Production Board, stating facts sufficient to enable the Board to determine the necessity for such authorization. If granted, the authorization may be by letter or telegram, and shall be transmitted by the applicant to the person who will supply such refrigerants, and shall be deemed an authorization to any user or supplier to furnish or install the minimum operating charge necessary to maintain such system in adequate operation.

(h) Notification of customers. Any producer, contract agent, supplier, or person who is prohibited from or restricted in making deliveries of any chlorinated hydrocarbon refrigerants by the provisions of this order, and any producer who is prohibited from or restricted in making any such deliveries by any directions issued hereunder and received by him from the War Production Board, shall as soon as practicable notify each of his regular customers of the requirements of this order or of such directions; but the failure to give such notice shall not excuse any customer from the obligation of complying with any requirement of this order, or of any such directions applicable to such customer and of which he has notice.

(i) Effect of preference ratings. The provisions of this order shall be followed by every producer, contract agent, supplier, user, equipment manufacturer, insecticide manufacturer, and any other person buying, selling or delivering chlorinated hydrocarbon refrigerants, without any regard to any preference ratings which have been assigned or which may hereafter be assigned to particular contracts or orders.

(j) Miscellaneous provisions — (1) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board, as issued and amended from time to time.

(2) Monthly reports. Each person (including a producer, contract agent, supplier, equipment manufacturer, insecticide manufacturer, user; or owner of refrigerating or air conditioning systems) who has in his possession on the 15th day of any calendar month in excess of 500 pounds of any type of chlorinated hydrocarbon refrigerants, and any person who sold in excess of 2000 pounds of any type of such refrigerants during the preceding calendar month, shall file with the War Production Board, on or before the 20th day of each month, commencing with the month of July 1943, a report on Form WPB–3054 prepared in accordance with the instructions for such form.

(3) Violations. Any person who willfully violates any provisions of this order, or who, in connection with this order, willfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, materials under priority control, and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(4) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order, or any direction thereunder, shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

LIST A: "Comfort cooling system" means any system, of any size, operated or installed for the purpose of lowering the temperature and/or humidity of air in any building, room or other enclosure used as, or located in any of the following:

Amusement parks.
Animal hospitals.
Auditoriums.
Ballrooms, dancing studios and dance halls.
Bank and loan associations.
Bars, cocktail lounges, and beer parlors.
Bowling alleys.
Concert halls.
Funeral parlors.
Golf clubs, country clubs, and athletic clubs.
Hotels and apartment houses.
Moving picture houses.
Night clubs.
Office buildings and offices, public or private.
Railway, streetcar and bus stations and terminals.
Residential buildings and dwellings of all kinds.
Restaurants, cafeterias, and other places selling meats, food or beverages.
Schools.
Service establishments, such as laundries, cleaners and dyers, tailor shops, barber shops, "beauty" parlors, automobile sales and service shops, and repair shops of all kinds.
Skating rinks.
Stores, selling any kind of products, material or merchandise, at retail or wholesale (excluding manufacturing establishments).

The term "comfort cooling system" shall not include (i) any such system used to air condition a building, room or other enclosure used chiefly for purposes not listed above, or (ii) any system designed, necessary and used, in substantial part for the refrigeration and storage or processing of food, ice, or other materials or products requiring refrigeration, temperature control, or freedom from dust or other impurities, or (iii) such part of a system as may be necessary and used for the circulation of air, or necessary and used for raising the temperature of air during cold weather to a degree which is comfortable or tolerable for persons (comfort heating).

LIST B: Systems for which chlorinated hydrocarbon refrigerants shall not be delivered.

Systems:	Effective date
Comfort cooling systems	June 5, 1943
Skating rink systems	June 5, 1943
Refrigeration systems solely for storing or dispensing carbonated or malt beverages	July 10, 1943

a. Reports of inventories. The reporting requirement of paragraph (j) (2) of Order M–28 [§ 970.1] must be complied with regardless of whether the chlorinated hydrocarbon refrigerants are being held by the owner for his own use or for resale.

The paragraph requires every person (including the owner of a refrigerating or air conditioning system) who has in his possession, on the 15th day of any calendar month (commencing with the month of July), more than 500 pounds of any type of chlorinated hydrocarbon refrigerants, or who sold more than 2,000 pounds of such a refrigerant during the preceding calendar month, to file a report on Form WPB–3054 with the War Production Board on or before the 20th day of the month.

Each "person", as defined in the order, must report the aggregate quantities in his possession (including stocks of less than 500 pounds located at various places) if the total is more than 500 pounds.

The report must include all amounts not actually being used in refrigerating or air conditioning systems. Thus the owner or operator of a system who has more than 500 pounds in his possession must report his entire supply except for the minimum operating charge actually installed in his system. Any additional amount which he may have must be reported, whether kept in cylinders, a storage receiver or other form of container. However, if a minimum operating charge is being temporarily held in a container while the system in which it had been installed is being repaired, it should not be reported.

An equipment manufacturer who has more than 500 pounds in his possession on the 15th day of any calendar month must report his entire supply except what has been actually installed as an operating or holding charge in accordance with his regular manufacturing practice.

b. Charging of equipment manufacturers. Paragraph (g) provides that no user, supplier, contract agent, or producer shall deliver, or cause to be delivered, to the owner of any system any chlorinated hydrocarbon refrigerants for use in, or for resale for use in any system of the types described on List B.

This restriction is intended to prevent charging any system of the types included on List B with chlorinated hydrocarbon refrigerants except for a person who was operating a system and had the necessary refrigerants in his possession on the effective date specified in List B. Therefore, a manufacturer may not charge any such system with chlorinated hydrocarbon refrigerants before delivery, and he may not deliver the refrigerant separately to be used in charging the system. However, he is not restricted from delivering systems which had already been charged with such a refrigerant on the effective date specified on List B. (Issued July 29, 1943.)

C. M. MAC GREGOR

C. M. MacGregor is a contractor and builder with offices at Albany, California. On October 3, 1942, he filed form PD–105 for authorization to begin construction of six single family houses and on October 26, 1942, he filed form PD–105 for authorization to construct one six family apartment building. No authorization was ever received on any of the above construction. Despite this fact, C. M. MacGregor began and completed all the requested construction and, in addition, two four family apartment buildings. Each single family house was erected at a cost of $3,685.00. The six family apartment house was erected at an approximate cost of $17,364.00 and the two four family apartment buildings were erected at an approximate cost of $11,482.00 each. Inasmuch as respondent was regularly engaged in the construction and sale of houses and had continuous contact with the FHA, the aforesaid acts constituted wilful violations of Conservation Order L–41.

These violations of Conservation Order L–41 have diverted scarce materials and labor to uses not authorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.389 Suspension Order No. S–389. (a) Deliveries of material to C. M. MacGregor, his successors or assigns, shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order, and no preference ratings shall be assigned or applied or extended to such deliveries to C. M. MacGregor, his successors and assigns, by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders, or any other orders or regulations of the War Production Board except with the written approval of the Regional Director of the San Francisco Regional Office of the War Production Board. Authority is hereby delegated to said Regional Director to pass upon applications of the respondent for exceptions to this order.

(b) No allocation shall be made to C. M. MacGregor, his successors or assigns, of any material the supply or distribution of which is governed by any order of the War Production Board, without the written approval of the Regional Director of the San Francisco Regional Office of the War Production Board.

(c) C. M. MacGregor, his successors and assigns, are hereby prohibited from ordering, purchasing, accepting delivery of, withdrawing from inventory or in any other manner securing or using material or construction plant in order to begin construction or to continue construction as defined in Conservation Order L–41 unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(d) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve C. M. MacGregor from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(e) This order shall take effect on August 11, 1943 and shall expire on November 11, 1943, at which date it shall have no further force nor effect.

Issued this 4th day of August 1943.

Recording Secretary.

GRANDPOP BOTTLING COMPANY

Walter L. Gross, I. N. Jarson, Nell R. Gross, and Esther H. Jarson are partners engaged in the business of manufacturing and selling malt and non-alcoholic beverages under the name of Grandpop Bottling Company, at 810 West 5th Street, Cincinnati, Ohio. They manufacture and use closures to bottle their products, but manufactured none in 1941, and consequently they have no quota as defined by Conservation Order M–104. In 1942, they therefore were limited to the use of non-restricted materials in the manufacture of closures. Respondents were aware of Conservation Order M–104, and its application to their business. Nevertheless, between July 21, 1942, and August 5, 1942, respondents accepted delivery of 70,340 pounds of restricted metal from Edwards Manufacturing Co. for the purpose of manufacturing it into closures and did manufacture a part of it into closures in violation of Conservation Order M–104. After August 3, 1942, the respondents purchased approximately 50,000 pounds of restricted metal from Ben Meyers for the purpose of manufacturing it into closures, and they commenced the manufacture, or completed the manufacture of 48,000 pounds of this restricted metal in violation of Conservation Order M–104. These violations of Conservation Order M–104 must be deemed wilful; they have diverted scarce materials to uses not authorized by the War Production Board and have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States. In view of the foregoing facts, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.396 Suspension Order S–396. (a) Walter L. Gross, I. N. Jarson, Nell R. Gross, and Esther H. Jarson, as partners or individually, doing business under the name of Grandpop Bottling Company or otherwise, their and its successors or assigns, shall not process in any way the 70,340 pounds of metal, more or less, purchased by them from Edwards Manufacturing Company between July 21, 1942, and August 5, 1942, nor the 50,000 pounds of metal, more or less, purchased by them after August 3, 1942, from Ben Meyers, except as to so much of said metals as on April 23, 1943, had been cut into strips, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(b) Between August 11, 1943, and November 30, 1943, Walter L. Gross, I. N. Jarson, Nell R. Gross, and Esther H. Jarson, as partners or individually, doing business under the name of Grandpop Bottling Company or otherwise, their and its successors or assigns, shall deduct 4,636,800 closures from any quota which may be allowed them, as defined under Conservation Order M–104, or in the absence of such quota, their use and manufacture of closures for said period of time shall be 4,636,800 less than the total number used or manufactured by them during the corresponding period of 1942, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Walter L. Gross, I. N. Jarson, Nell R. Gross, and Esther H. Jarson, as partners or individually, doing business under the name of Grandpop Bottling Company or otherwise, their and its successor or assigns, of any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(d) This order shall take effect on August 11, 1943, and shall expire on November 30, 1943.

Issued this 4th day of August 1943.

Recording Secretary.

PART 1029—FARM MACHINERY AND EQUIPMENT AND ATTACHMENTS AND REPAIR PARTS THEREFOR

[Limitation Order L–257–a as Amended August 11, 1943]

EXPORTS

§ 1029.16 Limitation Order L–257–a—(a) Applicability of Order L–257. This order supplements Limitation Order L–257, and, except as herein otherwise provided, all provisions of that order, as amended from time to time, shall be applicable to producers for export under this order L–257–a.

(b) Additional definitions. The definitions set forth in Order L–257, unless the context hereof otherwise requires, shall apply for the purpose of this order, and also the following:

(1) "Base shipment" means one-half the net shipping weight of the total quantity (as reported on Form PD–388) of farm machinery and equipment and repair parts in the aggregate exported by a producer during the calendar years 1940 and 1941 combined to any country or group of countries (except Canada) listed on any Schedule attached hereto.

(2) "Lend-lease order" means any order for farm machinery and equipment (and also non-farm machinery and equipment) or repair parts placed by any agency of the United States Government in response to a requisition filed pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-lease Act).

(c) Restrictions on production for export—(1) O. E. W. and Lend-lease countries. During the period July 1, 1943, to June 30, 1944, inclusive, no producer shall manufacture for shipment, or ship:

(i) To any group of foreign countries listed on Schedules X–1, X–3, X–4, X–5, X–6, or X–7, attached hereto, a quantity by weight of farm machinery and equipment (and also non-farm machinery and equipment) and repair parts in the aggregate in excess of the designated percentage (listed respectively on each such schedule) of his base shipments to all countries within the particular group;

(ii) To any foreign country listed on Schedule X–8, attached hereto, a quantity by weight of farm machinery and equipment (and also non-farm machinery and equipment) and repair parts in the aggregate in excess of that quantity obtained by multiplying the quota percentage designated for such country by his base shipments to that country.

(2) Canada. During the period July 1, 1943, to June 30, 1944, inclusive, no producer shall manufacture for shipment to Canada:

(i) A quantity in units of any item of farm machinery and equipment (excluding attachments) listed in Schedule X–10 in excess of that quantity obtained by multiplying the applicable quota percentage for such item by one-half the quantity thereof shipped by him to Canada during the calendar years 1940 and 1941 combined;

(ii) A quantity by weight of repair parts or of any item of attachments in excess of that quantity obtained by multiplying the applicable quota percentage designated in said Schedule X–10 for repair parts, and for each item of attachments, by one-half the net shipping weight thereof respectively shipped by him to Canada during the calendar years 1940 and 1941 combined.

(3) General restrictions. During the period July 1, 1943, to June 30, 1944, inclusive, no producer shall manufacture for shipment, or ship:

(i) To any foreign country listed on Schedules X–2, or X–9 (or not listed on any schedule), any farm machinery and equipment (or non-farm machinery and equipment) or repair parts, except upon specific authorization pursuant to paragraph (c) (4);

(ii) To any foreign country, including Canada, any item of farm machinery and equipment requiring rubber tires, except upon specific authorization in writing of the War Production Board;

(iii) To any foreign country, including Canada, any item of farm machinery and equipment or repair parts except to the extent listed on production schedules which have been approved pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (e) of this order.

(4) Adjustments in quotas. The War Production Board, may, by specific written directions or authorizations issued to any producer or class of producers, increase or decrease any quotas or authorized use of materials as established pursuant to this order; and may transfer any portions of such quotas between producers, taking into consideration the amount and weight of materials to be used, the need for particular items at the time required in particular countries, the labor and transportation situation in the manufacturing areas involved, and such other factors as may be appropriate.

(d) Exceptions—(1) Uncompleted L–170 production. During the period July 1, 1943, to June 30, 1944, inclusive, any producer may manufacture for shipment and/or ship, in addition to any export quotas established by paragraph (c), any item of farm machinery and equipment or repair parts, (i) which is within his authorized export quota under Order L–170 (including all amendments, appeals and specific authorizations), and (ii) which is covered by an export license issued by the Office of Economic Warfare or by a Lend-lease order, dated prior to October 1, 1943, whether or not such item is completely manufactured by that date. However, items for Canada within L–170 quotas may be manufactured and shipped up to June 30, 1944, without reference to (ii) above.

(2) Bracketed items for Canada. Wherever, in Schedule X–10, two or more items are bracketed together, the producer may distribute his total quota (in units) for that bracket among all the items in that bracket, as set forth for domestic items in paragraph (d) (2) of Order L–257.

(3) Attachments for Canada. Instead of conforming to the respective quota percentages for attachments as indicated in Schedule X–10, any producer may manufacture up to 75% of one-half the total weight of attachments shipped by him to Canada in 1940 and 1941, under the terms set forth for domestic attachments in paragraph (d) (3) of Order L–257.

(e) Production schedules. (1) Each producer shall schedule his production and shipments for export of each item of farm machinery and equipment (and also non-farm machinery and equipment) and repair parts in accordance with such production and delivery schedules as are approved, prescribed or modified for him pursuant to paragraph (e) of Limitation Order L–257. All provisions of that paragraph shall be applicable, unless otherwise indicated, to such schedules for export.

(f) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

Issued this 11th day of August 1943.

PART 1100—ANTI-FREEZE

[Limitation Order L-51 as Amended August 11, 1943]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of alcohols as hereinafter defined for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1100.1 General Limitation Order L-51—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Anti-freeze" means any mixture that is designed and intended for use, without further processing, to depress the freezing point of coolant water in internal combustion engines.

(2) "Alcohols" means ethyl alcohol, methyl alcohol, isopropyl alcohol, diacetone alcohol, and/or ethylene glycol.

(3) "Producer" means any person engaged in the manufacture of anti-freeze from alcohols.

(4) "Distributor" means any person engaged in the resale of anti-freeze manufactured from alcohols.

(5) "Passenger automobile" means any passenger type vehicle, including station wagons and taxicabs, propelled by an internal combustion engine and having a seating capacity of less than eleven (11) persons.

(6) "Commercial vehicle" means any motor vehicle other than a passenger automobile, and in addition includes stationary engines.

(b) Restrictions on manufacture of anti-freeze. (1) No producer shall manufacture anti-freeze from alcohols in greater quantities than specifically authorized from time to time hereafter by the War Production Board.

(2) The restrictions on the manufacture of anti-freeze from alcohols set forth in paragraph (b) (1) of this section shall not apply to the manufacture of anti-freeze to be delivered to fill a specific contract or subcontract for:

(i) The Army or Navy of the United States the United States Maritime Commission, The Panama Canal, the Coast and Geodetic Survey, the Coast Guard, the Civil Aeronautics Authority, the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics, the Office of Scientific Research and Development,

(iii) The government of any country, including those in the Western Hemisphere, pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act).

Quantities of anti-freeze permitted to be manufactured under this subparagraph shall be in addition to quantities permitted under quotas authorized pursuant to paragraph (b) (1) of this section.

(3) Producers may apply to the War Production Board for an authorized anti-freeze quota on Form PD-476.

(c) (1) Except as provided in (c) (2) hereof, no producer or distributor shall deliver anti-freeze, manufactured in whole or in part from ethylene glycol, or containing ethylene glycol, to any person other than a distributor, except by physically placing such anti-freeze in the radiator of a commercial vehicle owned or operated by such person.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (c) (1) hereof, a producer or distributor may deliver anti-freeze to:

(i) Any of the agencies or governments named in paragraph (b) (2);

(ii) Any passenger automobile manufacturer for use in any new passenger automobile to be delivered to the Army or Navy of the United States; or

(iii) Any person in the territory of Alaska north of North Latitude 61.

(vi) Any other person who shall prior to such delivery have filed with such producer or distributor a certificate in substantially the following form:

The undersigned purchaser hereby certifies that the anti-freeze hereby ordered (manufactured from or containing ethylene glycol) will not be used in, or disposed of for use in, any passenger automobile as defined in War Production Board Order L-51.

Name of Purchaser

By ---
Authorized Official Title

Date

Such certificate may be endorsed on or accompany the order for anti-freeze and shall constitute a representation to (but need not be filed with) War Production Board. It shall be signed by the purchaser, if an individual, or if not, then by a duly authorized official, either manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 7. The receipt of such certificate shall not authorize the delivery of anti-freeze by a producer or distributor where he knows or has reason to believe the same to be false, but in the absence of such knowledge or reason to believe, he may rely on the certificate.

NOTE: Paragraph (vi), formerly (iii), redesignated August 11, 1943.

(d) Exemption from general inventory restrictions. The restrictions on inventories provided by Priorities Regulation No. 1 (§ 944.14) shall not be applicable to anti-freeze manufactured from alcohol; Provided, however, That no person shall knowingly make, and no person shall accept, delivery of such anti-freeze if the inventory of the person accepting delivery is or will by virtue of such acceptance become, in excess of the quantity required, whether for own use or resale, for the season April 1, 1943, to March 31, 1944.

(e) Effect on other orders. The terms and provisions of this order or of any specific authorization issued hereunder by the War Production Board, establishing an anti-freeze quota, shall control and supersede the terms and provisions of any other order heretofore issued by the War Production Board affecting the manufacture of anti-freeze from any of the alcohols.

(f) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventory, production and sales,

(g) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this order shall upon request be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(h) Reports. All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the Chemicals Division, War Production Board, such reports and questionnaires as said Division shall from time to time prescribe.

(i) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(j) Appeals. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a degree of unemployment which would be unreasonably disproportionate compared with the amount of anti-freeze conserved, or that compliance with this order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from non-defense to defense work, may appeal to the War Production Board, Reference: L-51. Attention Chemicals Division, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reason he considers he is entitled to relief. The War Production Board may thereupon take such action as it deems appropriate.

PART 3291—CONSUMERS DURABLE GOODS [1]

DOMESTIC FOOD DEHYDRATORS

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply for defense, for private account or for export of iron and steel and other critical materials used in the production of domestic food dehydrators; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3291.296 [1]. General Limitation Order L-308—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Domestic food dehydrator" means a self-contained food dehydrating unit

[1] Formerly Part 3283, § 3283.1.

[2] This document is a restatement of Amendment 1 of L-308, which appeared in the FEDERAL REGISTER of August 10, 1943, page 11022, and reflects the order in its completed form as of August 6, 1943.

designed for home use consisting of a cabinet, fan or blower, a thermostat and a source of heat provided by either a heating element, light bulbs or fuel burning device and constructed so that temperature, humidity and air-flow are controlled.

(2) "Manufacturer" means any person engaged in the manufacture, fabrication or assembly of domestic food dehydrators other than for personal use, or experimental purposes, except schools and educational institutions manufacturing domestic food dehydrators for educational purposes.

(3) "Produce" means to process, fabricate, work on or assemble.

(b) General restrictions. (1) On or after July 8, 1943, no manufacturer shall produce any domestic food dehydrators except approved domestic food dehydrators as authorized by the War Production Board.

(2) Each manufacturer desiring to produce domestic food dehydrators under this order shall file with the War Production Board a letter of application pursuant to the instructions contained in Form WPB–2853, which form may be obtained from the War Production Board, Consumers Durable Goods Division.

(3) The War Production Board will notify each manufacturer of the individual authorization granted pursuant to this paragraph, by inclusion of such manufacturer's name and the approved number of units on Schedule A attached to this order. Such authorization will constitute approval of the domestic food dehydrator described in the manufacturer's application.

(4) All of the domestic food dehydrators authorized and approved for production under this order must be completed before September 1, 1943.

(c) Statement of policy. The production of domestic food dehydrators is directly related to the war time problem of preservation and distribution of food supplies. It is an emergency program which requires the completion of a maximum of 100,000 dehydrators prior to September 1, 1943. In the assignment of production quotas the War Production Board shall take into consideration:

(1) The amount of controlled materials involved in the manufacturer's proposed domestic food dehydrators.

(2) Other critical raw materials or fabricated parts.

(3) The raw materials and fabricated parts obtained from stocks available.

(4) The recommendation of the Office of Production Research and Development as to the performance of the dehydrators.

(5) The recommendation of the Department of Agriculture.

(6) The recommendations of the Smaller War Plants Corporation as to the distress condition of the manufacturer.

(7) The labor and transportation situation in the area where the plant of each applicant is located.

(8) The proposed selling price.

(9) Such other factors the War Production Board shall deem appropriate.

(d) Inventories. (1) No manufacturer authorized to produce domestic food dehydrators shall place an order for or accept delivery of any raw materials, semi-processed materials or fabricated parts in excess of the quantities necessary to complete his approved production quota.

(2) No manufacturer shall accumulate for the use and production of domestic food dehydrators under this order, inventories of raw materials, semi-processed materials or finished parts in excess of the minimum necessary to maintain production at the rate permitted.

(e) Applicability of other orders and regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board. In so far as any other order of the War Production Board limits the use of any material in the production of domestic food dehydrators to a greater extent than the limits imposed by this order, the restrictions of such other order shall govern unless otherwise specified therein.

(f) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(g) Appeal. Any appeal from the provisions of this order, or of any schedule issued pursuant thereto, should be made on Form WPB–1477 (formerly PD–500), filed with the War Production Board.

(h) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the War Production Board, Consumers Durable Goods Division, Washington, D. C., Ref: L–308.

[Docket No. 1525–FD]

LOGAN CLAY PRODUCTS CO.

ORDER REVOKING IN PART ORDER CANCELLING HEARING AND DISMISSING APPLICATION

In the matter of the application of the Logan Clay Products Company for a determination of the status of the coal produced at the Logan Clay Products Mine No. 1, Hocking County, Ohio, in District No. 4, pursuant to section 4–A of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

An application for a determination of the status of the coal produced at The Logan Clay Products Mine No. 1, in Hocking County, Ohio, in District No. 4, having been filed with this Division by The Logan Clay Products Company of Logan, Ohio, pursuant to the second paragraph of section 4–A of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, as amended, which requested that an order be issued to the effect that the coal produced at the Logan Clay Products Mine No. 1 comes within the provisions of section 4, Part II (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 and that such order be made retroactive and effective as of October 1, 1939; and

An order having been entered July 15, 1943, effective midnight August 23, 1943, dismissing, among others, the application of the Logan Clay Products Company because it appeared that insufficient time remained to permit final action on such application before the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, as amended, ceases to be in effect 12:01 a. m. August 24, 1943, and on the same day an order having been issued cancelling a hearing heretofore scheduled and dismissing the application;

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the order in this docket, dated July 15, 1943, cancelling the hearing and dismissing the application be and the same hereby is revoked to the extent that it dismissed the application.

W. G. MOORE AND SON

REPORT OF EXAMINER

In the matter of W. G. Moore, 3rd and H. S. Moore, individually and as partners doing business under the name and style of W. G. Moore and Son, code members.

This proceeding was instituted upon a complaint duly filed March 18, 1942, with the Bituminous Coal Division, pursuant to sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, by the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 1, against code members, alleging wilful violation of their obligations under the code, and praying appropriate relief.

Pursuant to an order of the Director and after notice to interested persons, a hearing herein was held before the undersigned, a duly designated Examiner of the Division at a hearing room thereof, at Altoona, Pennsylvania, on April 29, 1942. All interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses and otherwise be heard. District Board 1 and code members appeared.

As the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, as amended, will expire at 12:01 a. m. August 24, 1943, (except as provided in section 19 thereof); no order revoking code membership or requiring code member to cease and desist from further violations will be effective after that date; as my report if submitted could be acted upon by the Director only after an opportunity had been afforded to the parties to file exceptions; as it would be necessary for the Director to have an opportunity to consider the entire record, and further, as a petition might also be filed for rehearing or reconsideration of the order of the Director, it is extremely unlikely that this case would be finally disposed of prior to the expiration date of the Act. I accordingly recommend that the proceeding be dismissed forthwith.

Respectfully submitted.

Dated: July 31, 1943.

JOSEPH A. HUSTON,
Examiner.

Recommendation approved and proceeding dismissed.

CEDAR GROVE COLLIERIES, INC. AND RICHVEIN COAL CO.

REPORT OF EXAMINER

In the matter of the application of Cedar Grove Collieries, Inc., and the Richvein Coal Company for exemption under the second paragraph of section 4–A of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

This proceeding was instituted upon an application for exemption filed with the Bituminous Coal Division by Cedar Grove Collieries, Inc., a code member operating a mine located in Kanawha County, West Virginia, in District 8. Pursuant to section 4–A of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, exemption was sought as to certain transactions in bituminous coal between the applicant and the chemical plant of E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Company and Belle Alkali Company, both at Belle, West Virginia, and Carbide and Carbon Chemicals Corporation and Westvaco Chlorine Products Company, both at South Charleston, West Virginia from the provisions of section 4 and the first paragraph of section 4–A of the Act.

This application was consolidated for hearing with other applications for similar exemptions, enumerated in footnote 2 of my Report in "Matter of the Application of the Carbon Fuel Company," Docket No. 469–FD. Pursuant to appropriate orders, a hearing was held in these matters before me May 20–30, 1940, at a hearing room of the Division in Charleston, West Virginia.

The record in this case is an extensive one and the issues involved, which are similar to those in Docket No. 469–FD, are complex. For the reasons set forth in my Report in Docket No. 469–FD, I believe that the proceeding will become moot on the expiration of the Bituminous Coal Act on August 24, 1943, and that it would serve no useful purpose to discuss the merits of this case. Accordingly, I recommend that the proceeding be dismissed, effective at 12:01 a. m. August 24, 1943.

Respectfully submitted.

Dated: August 4, 1943.

D. C. MCCURTAIN,
Examiner.

Recommendation approved and proceeding dismissed.

L. F. DUNN

REPORT OF EXAMINER

On August 4, 1942, the Bituminous Coal Division referred to the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 17 information relating to possible violations of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, by the above named code member. District Board 17 failed to take action thereon and on February 5, 1943, the Division pursuant to the provisions of sections 5 (b) and 6 (a) of the Act, instituted this proceeding.

The notice recites that the Division found it necessary to determine whether code member wilfully violated section 4 II (e) and (f) 2, 4 and 6 of the Act and the Code and Rules 2, 4 and 6 of section XIII of the Marketing Rules and Regulations in the sales of coal to J. M. Fielding and J. H. Rodman.

Pursuant to the above mentioned notice a hearing in this matter was held before the undersigned, a duly designated Examiner of the Division on April 9, 1943, at a hearing room thereof in Durango, Colorado. All interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses and otherwise be heard. District Board 17 did not appear at the hearing. Code member appeared in person.

In view of the fact that the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, as amended, will expire at 12:01 a. m. August 24, 1943 (except as provided in section 19 thereof), no order revoking code membership or requiring code member to cease and desist from further violations will have any operative effect after that date. Any report which I might make in the proceeding could be acted upon only after the parties have been afforded an opportunity to file exceptions and after the Director has had an opportunity to consider the entire record. Interested parties might also petition for rehearing or reconsideration of the Director's order. It is extremely unlikely that this matter could be disposed of by the Director prior to the expiration of the Act. Accordingly, I recommend that this proceeding be dismissed forthwith.

Respectfully submitted.

TRUAX-TRAER COAL CO.

REPORT OF EXAMINER

In the matter of the application of Truax-Traer Coal Company for exemption under the second paragraph of section 4-A of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

This proceeding was instituted upon an application for exemption filed with the Bituminous Coal Division by Truax-Traer Coal Company, a code member operating mines located in Kanawha County, West Virginia, in District 8. Pursuant to section 4-A of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, exemption was sought as to certain transactions in bituminous coal between the applicant and the chemical plant of E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Company, Carbide and Carbon Chemicals Corporation, and Barium Reduction Corporation, from the provisions of section 4 and the first paragraph of section 4-A of the Act.

This application was consolidated for hearing with other applications for similar exemptions, enumerated in footnote 2 of my Report in "Matter of the Application of the Carbon Fuel Company," Docket No. 469-FD. Pursuant to appropriate orders, a hearing was held in these matters before me May 20-30, 1940, at a hearing room of the Division in Charleston, West Virginia.

The record in this case is an extensive one and the issues involved, which are similar to those in Docket No. 469-FD, are complex. For the reasons set forth in my Report in Docket No. 469-FD, I believe that the proceeding will become moot on the expiration of the Bituminous Coal Act on August 24, 1943, and that it would serve no purpose to discuss the merits of this case. Accordingly, I recommend that the proceedings be dismissed, effective at 12:01 a. m., August 24, 1943.

R. A. NIXON

REPORT OF EXAMINER

This proceeding was instituted upon a complaint duly filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on June 4, 1942, pursuant to sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 by the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District Board No. 11, alleging that code member R. A. Nixon, Monroe Township, Pike County, Indiana, had wilfully violated the provisions of the Act, the Bituminous Coal Code, orders, rules and regulations of the Division; and praying appropriate relief.

Pursuant to an Order of the Director dated February 22, 1943, and after due notice to interested parties, a hearing in this matter was held on March 23, 1942, before the undersigned, Joseph A. Huston, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof in Evansville, Indiana. All interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses, and otherwise be heard. Appearances were entered on behalf of the General Counsel of the Division and District Board 11. R. A. Nixon appeared in person.

In view of the fact that the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, as amended, will expire at 12:01 a. m. JOE ADDIS AND SON

REPORT OF EXAMINER

In the matter of Joe Addis, Phillip Addis and Lester Meeks, individually and as copartners, doing business under the name and style of Joe Addis & Son, code members.

This proceeding was instituted upon a complaint duly filed December 8, 1942, with the Bituminous Coal Division pursuant to sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 by the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 4, against Joe Addis, Phillip Addis and Lester Meeks, individually and as copartners, doing business under the name and style of Joe Addis & Son, code member producers, operating at different times, mines designated as Mine Index Nos. 2 and 1146, both located in Lawrence County, Ohio, in Subdistrict 7 of District 4. The complaint alleged that code members had wilfully violated the minimum price provisions of the Bituminous Coal Code or rules and regulations thereunder, by selling coal at less than the applicable minimum price established therefor in Schedule No. 1 of the Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 4 for Truck Shipments, and in selling coal for which no minimum prices had been established, in violation of the Order of the Director in General Docket No. 19 dated October 9, 1940. Code members were also charged with violating Orders of the Division Nos. 307, 309, 156, 313 and 14, together with Rule 3 of section V and Rule 7 of section VI of the Marketing Rules and Regulations by failing to maintain proper records and failing to file with the Division reports of all coal sold from and including January 1941 to November 1942. The complaint prayed appropriate relief.

Pursuant to appropriate orders and after due notice to interested persons, a hearing in the matter was held on March 25, 1943, before the undersigned, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof in Catlettsburg, Kentucky. Interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses and otherwise be heard. District Board No. 4, code members and a representative of the Office of General Counsel of the Division appeared. At the hearing, code members filed an answer admitting the violations, as alleged.

In view of the fact that the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, as amended, will expire at 12:01 a. m. August 24, 1943 (except as provided in section 19 thereof), no order revoking code membership or requiring code member to cease and desist from further violations will have any operative effect after that date. Any report which I might make in the proceeding could be acted upon only after the parties have been afforded an opportunity to file exceptions and after the Director has had an opportunity to consider the entire record. Interested parties might also petition for rehearing or reconsideration of the Director's Order. R. GLENN DAVIS

This proceeding was instituted upon a Notice of and Order for Hearing duly issued by the Bituminous Coal Division on February 19, 1943, pursuant to sections 5 (b) and 6 (a) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 and other pertinent provisions of the Act for the purpose of determining whether code member, R. Glenn Davis, had wilfully violated section 4 II (e) of the Act, Part II (e) of the Code and Rule 1 of section III of the Marketing Rules and Regulations. The Notice provided that in the event code member is found to have violated the Act, the Code and the rules and regulations thereunder, an order should be entered revoking the code membership of code member, or directing him to cease and desist from such violations.

Pursuant to order of the Director and after due notice to interested parties, a hearing in this matter was held on April 1, 1943, before the undersigned, D. C. McCurtain, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof in Price, Utah. All interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses and otherwise be heard. Code member and a representative of the Office of the General Counsel appeared. Castle Valley Fuel Company was permitted to enter an appearance, subject to a subsequent ruling respecting its status as a registered distributor.

As the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, as amended, will expire at 12:01 a. m. August 24, 1943 (except as provided in section 19 thereof), no order revoking code membership or requiring code member to cease and desist from further violations will be effective after that date; as my Report if submitted could be acted upon by the Director only after an opportunity had been afforded to the parties to file exceptions; as it would be necessary for the Director to have an opportunity to consider the entire record, and further, as a petition might also be filed for rehearing or reconsideration of the Order of the Director; it is extremely unlikely that this case would be finally disposed of prior to the expiration date of the Act. I accordingly recommend that the proceeding be dismissed forthwith.

FRANK DUNNING, INC.

REPORT OF EXAMINER

This proceeding was instituted by the Bituminous Coal Division, pursuant to the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, in order to investigate and determine whether Frank Dunning, Inc., a registered distributor, Registration No. 2566, of Cleveland, Ohio, respondent, has violated any provisions of the Act, the Code, and Orders of the Division, including the Marketing Rules and Regulations and the Agreement by Registered Distributor executed by it pursuant to the Rules and Regulations for the Registration of Distributors, and whether respondent's registration as a registered distributor should be suspended or revoked or other appropriate penalty be determined.

In a Notice of and Order for Hearing issued by the Director on February 13, 1943 and served on respondent on February 16, 1943, it was stated that the Division found it necessary to determine whether respondent has violated paragraphs (e) and (f) of the Agreement, Rules 1 and 3 of section V of the Marketing Rules, and Division Orders Nos. 296, 301, 307, and 312, in the failure to file copies of spot orders or written confirmations thereof, and invoices with the Statistical Bureau for District 4; accepted distributors' discounts in transactions in which respondent resold and delivered coal in less than carload lots and in a noncontinuous flow to its vendee in violation of paragraph (d) of the Agreement; accepted distributors' discounts on the sale of coal to or through Dunning Sales Corporation, a retailer, which controlled respondent, for the purpose of unjustly enriching the respondent in violation of paragraph (g) of the Agreement; accepted such discounts where said retailer controlled the respondent, in violation of paragraphs (c) and (d) of the Agreement, Rule 12 of section XIII of the Marketing Rules and Regulations and section 4 II (i) 12 of the Act, and §§ 317.12 (b) (8) and 317.19 (c) of the Distributors' Rules; and in such transactions to or through said retailer the respondent engaged in the sale of coal at retail in violation of § 317.19 (a) of the Distributors' Rules. At the hearing the Notice was amended without objection by respondent to recite that respondent has violated the Act and the Code in sales of coal at prices lower than the applicable effective minimum prices.

Pursuant to the Notice, and an Order of postponement issued on March 6, 1943 and duly served on respondent, a hearing in this matter was held on March 29, 1943, before Joseph A. Huston, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof in Cleveland, Ohio. Interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses and otherwise be heard. Respondent appeared and participated in the hearing.

In view of the fact that the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, as amended, will expire at 12:01 a. m., August 24, 1943 (except as provided in section 19 thereof), no order revoking or suspending the registration of respondent will have any operative effect after that date. Any report which I might make in the proceeding could be acted upon only after the parties have been afforded an opportunity to file exceptions and after the Director has had an opportunity to consider the entire record. Interested parties might also petition for rehearing or reconsideration of the Director's Order. It is extremely unlikely that this matter could be disposed of by the Director prior to the expiration of the Act. Accordingly, I recommend that this proceeding be dismissed forthwith.

HUDSON COAL COMPANY

REPORT OF EXAMINER

This proceeding was instituted by the Bituminous Coal Division, pursuant to sections 5 (b) and 6 (a) and other pertinent provisions of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, to determine whether Hudson Coal Company, a corporation, code member, operating the Sweet Mine, Mine Index No. 23, located in Carbon County, Utah, in District 20, wilfully violated sections 4 II (e) and 4 II (i) (8) of the Act, Parts II (e) and II (i) (8) of the Code, Rule 1 of section X, Rule 2 of section XII and Rule 8 of section XIII of the Marketing Rules and Regulations, and Orders of the Division Nos. 312 and 313, each dated February 24, 1941, and to determine whether an order should be entered revoking its code membership or directing it to cease and desist from violating the Act, the Code, the orders and the rules and regulations thereunder.

Code member filed an answer on March 22, 1943, denying that it wilfully violated any of the rules and regulations under the Code.

Pursuant to appropriate orders, and after due notice to interested persons, a hearing was held in this matter on March 29, 1943, before the undersigned, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof in Salt Lake City, Utah. All interested parties were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses and otherwise be heard. Code member appeared.

On April 17, 1943, code member filed a brief in support of its position.

In view of the fact that the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, as amended, will expire at 12:01 a. m. August 24, 1943 (except as provided in section 19 thereof), no order revoking code membership or requiring code member to cease and desist from further violations will have any operative effect after that date. D. & W. COAL COMPANY

REPORT OF EXAMINER

This proceeding was instituted upon a complaint duly filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on May 26, 1941, pursuant to the provisions of sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, by the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 2 against the D. & W. Coal Company, code member, operating the Ray Mine (Mine Index No. 1121), located in Venango County, Pennsylvania, in District 2. The complaint alleged that the D. & W. Coal Company, code member, had wilfully violated the Bituminous Coal Code, the effective minimum prices, the Marketing Rules and Regulations, and the Director's Orders Nos. 14, 156 and 288, and prayed that appropriate relief be granted.

Pursuant to appropriate orders of the Acting Director, and after due notice to interested persons, a hearing in this matter was held before W. A. Cuff, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, at which Paul Doyle, on behalf of the D. & W. Coal Company, appeared. The submission of a Report by the Examiner was waived, and the matter was thereupon submitted to the then Acting Director, who issued an Opinion and Order April 4, 1942, revoking and cancelling the code membership of D. & W. Coal Company and each of the partners thereof, Paul Doyle and Samuel Woodall, and directing that, prior to any reinstatement of D. & W. Coal Company and the individual partners thereof, Paul Doyle and Samuel Woodall, to membership in the Code, there should be paid to the United States a tax in the amount of $2,425.64, as provided in section 5 (c) of the Act.

On April 18, 1942, code member filed a motion to reopen the hearing for the purpose of taking additional evidence and for a stay of the provisions of the order dated April 4, 1942, revoking the code membership of D. & W. Coal Company. An affidavit in support of the motion was filed on April 22, 1942.

The motion was granted by Order of the Acting Director, dated April 23, 1942, and accordingly, a hearing on the reopened matter was held on July 16, 1942, before the undersigned W. A. Cuff, a duly designated Examiner of the Division at a hearing room thereof in Washington, D. C. Interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examination witnesses and otherwise be heard. Code member and a representative of the Office of the General Counsel of the Division appeared.

As the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, as amended, will expire at 12:01 a. m. August 24, 1943 (except as provided in section 19 thereof), no order revoking code membership or requiring code member to cease and desist from further violations will be effective after that date; as my Report if submitted could be acted upon by the Director only after an opportunity had been afforded to the parties to file exceptions; as it would be necessary for the Director to have an opportunity to consider the entire record, and further, as a petition might also be filed for rehearing or reconsideration of the Order of the Director, it is extremely unlikely that this case would be finally disposed of prior to the expiration date of the Act. I accordingly recommend that the proceeding be dismissed forthwith.

CANON NATIONAL COAL CO.

ORDER OF DIRECTOR

In the matter of Frank Jermance, Raymond Jermance, Edmond Jermance, Math Grahek, Joe A. Mehle, and Frank A. Boitz, individually and as copartners, doing business under the name and style of Canon National Coal Company.

This proceeding was instituted upon a complaint duly filed with the Bituminous Coal Division pursuant to sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 by the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 17, against Frank Jermance, Raymond Jermance, Edmond Jermance, Math Grahek, Joe A. Mehle, and Frank A. Boitz, individually and as copartners, doing business under the name and style of Canon National Coal Company, code member, operating the Canon National Mine (Mine Index No. 239), located in Fremont County, Colorado, in subdistrict 3 of district 17. The complaint alleged that code member had wilfully violated the provisions of the Bituminous Coal Code, the Marketing Rules and Regulations promulgated thereunder, and the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 17 for All Shipments, and prayed that appropriate relief be granted.

An answer was field October 30, 1942; code member also filed a brief on February 1, 1943.

Pursuant to appropriate orders and after notice to interested persons, a hearing in this matter was held on November 14, 1942, before Charles O. Fowler, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof in Pueblo, Colorado. All interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses, and otherwise be heard. District Board 17 and code member appeared.

No report has been filed by said Trial Examiner.

In view of the fact that the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, as amended, will expire at 12:01 a. m. August 24, 1943 (except as provided in section 19 thereof), any order which might be issued requiring code member to cease and desist from further violations of the Act and Code or any order revoking code membership will become inoperative after that date. Proceedings not finally decided at that time will become moot.

Accordingly, it appears that it is unnecessary that a Report of the Trial Examiner be filed as it would seem inadvisable to determine the issues on the merits. The proceeding should be dismissed.

It is so ordered.

Dated: August 9, 1943.

RIVERTON COAL COMPANY

REPORT OF EXAMINER

In the matter of the application of Riverton Coal Company for exemption under the second paragraph of section 4-A of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

This proceeding was instituted upon an application for exemption filed with the Bituminous Coal Division by Riverton Coal Company, a code member operating mines located in Kanawha County, West Virginia, in District 8. Pursuant to section 4-A of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, exemption was sought as to certain transactions in bituminous coal between the applicant and the chemical plant of E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Company, located at Belle, West Virginia, from the provisions of section 4 and the first paragraph of section 4-A of the Act.

This application was consolidated for hearing with other applications for similar exemptions, enumerated in footnote 2 of my report in "Matter of the Application of the Carbon Fuel Company", Docket No. 469-FD. Pursuant to appropriate orders, a hearing was held in these matters before me May 20-30, 1940, at a hearing room of the Division in Charleston, West Virginia.

The record in this case is an extensive one and the issues involved, which are similar to those in Docket No. 469-FD, are complex. For the reasons set forth in my Report in Docket No. 469-FD, I believe that the proceeding will become moot on the expiration of the Bituminous Coal Act August 24, 1943, that it would serve no purpose to discuss the merits of this case. Accordingly, I recommend that the proceeding be dismissed, effective at 12:01 a. m. August 24, 1943.

Dated: August 4, 1943.

Respectfully submitted.

KING COAL COMPANY

REPORT OF EXAMINER

In the matter of C. H. Cole and Fred J. Girard, individually and as copartners, doing business under the name and style of King Coal Company.

This proceeding was instituted upon a Notice of and Order for Hearing dated February 6, 1943, by the Bituminous Coal Division, pursuant to sections 5 (b) and 6 (a) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, to ascertain whether C. H. Cole and Fred J. Girard, individually and as copartners doing business under the name and style of King Coal Company, code member producers operating the Coal King No. 2 Mine, Mine Index No. 310, in La Plata County, Colorado, in District 17, have wilfully violated the provisions of the Act, and to determine, if wilful violations have occurred, the appropriate penalty to be invoked.

Pursuant to appropriate orders and after due notice to interested persons, a hearing was held on April 10, 1943, before D. C. McCurtain, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof in Durango, Colorado. Interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses and otherwise be heard. C. H. Cole appeared for the code member partnership.

In view of the fact that the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, as amended, will expire at 12:01 a. m. August 24, 1943 (except as provided in section 19 thereof), no order revoking code membership or requiring code member to cease and desist from further violations will have any operative effect after that date. Any report which I might make in the proceeding could be acted upon only after the parties have been afforded an opportunity to file exceptions and after the Director has had an opportunity to consider the entire record. Interested parties might also petition for rehearing or reconsideration of the Director's Order. It is extremely unlikely that this matter could be disposed of by the Director prior to the expiration of the Act. Accordingly, I recommend that this proceeding be dismissed forthwith.

Respectfully submitted.

Dated: July 31, 1943.

D. C. MCCURTAIN,
Examiner.

Recommendation approved and proceeding dismissed.

KELLEY'S CREEK COLLIERY COMPANY

REPORT OF EXAMINER

In the matter of the application of Kelley's Creek Colliery Company for exemption under the second paragraph of section 4-A of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

This proceeding was instituted upon an application for exemption filed with the Bituminous Coal Division by Kelley's Creek Colliery Company ("Kelley"), a code member operating mines located in Kanawha County, West Virginia, in District 8. Pursuant to section 4-A of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, exemption was sought as to certain transactions in bituminous coal between the applicant and the chemical plant of E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Company, located at Belle, West Virginia, from the provisions of section 4 and the first paragraph of section 4-A of the Act.

This application was consolidated for hearing with other applications for similar exemptions, enumerated in footnote 2 of my Report in "Matter of the Application of the Carbon Fuel Company", Docket No. 469-FD. Pursuant to appropriate orders, a hearing was held in these matters before me May 20-30, 1940, at a hearing room of the Division in Charleston, West Virginia.

The record in this case is an extensive one and the issues involved, which are similar to those in Docket No. 469-FD, are complex. For the reasons set forth in my Report in Docket No. 469-FD, I believe that the proceeding will become moot on the expiration of the Bituminous Coal Act August 24, 1943, and that it would serve no useful purpose to discuss the merits of this case. Accordingly, I recommend that the proceeding be dismissed, effective at 12:01 a. m. August 24, 1943.

Respectfully submitted.

Dated: August 4, 1943.

HAL MASSEY

ORDER OF DIRECTOR

This proceeding was instituted upon a complaint duly filed by the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 8 with the Bituminous Coal Division, on July 1, 1942, pursuant to sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, alleging that Hal Massey, a code member operating a mine designated as Mine Index No. 1532, located in Bell County, Kentucky, in District 8, had wilfully violated the Act, the Bituminous Coal Code, and regulations made thereunder, and praying appropriate relief.

Pursuant to appropriate orders and after due notice to interested persons, a hearing in this matter was held on October 23, 1942, before Edward J. Hayes, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof in Knoxville, Tennessee. Interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses and otherwise be heard. Appearances were entered on behalf of District Board 8, the Office of the General Counsel of the Division, and code member.

No report has been filed by said Trial Examiner.

In view of the fact that the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, as amended, will expire at 12:01 a. m. August 24, 1943 (except as provided in section 19 thereof), any order which might be issued requiring code member to cease and desist from further violations of the Act and Code or any order revoking code membership will become inoperative after that date. Proceedings not finally decided at that time will become moot.

Accordingly, it appears that it is unnecessary that a report of the Trial Examiner be filed as it would seem inadvisable to determine the issues on the merits. The proceeding should be dismissed.

It is so ordered.

DISTRICT BOARD NO. 13

ORDER REVOKING TEMPORARY RELIEF AND DISMISSING PROCEEDING

In the matter of District Board No. 13 for the establishment of minimum prices for coal sold for domestic stoker use by certain mines in District 13.

This proceeding was instituted upon a petition filed with the Bituminous Coal Division by the District Board 13, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal of 1937, requesting the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for coals produced and shipped for domestic stoker use from Mine Index Nos. 3, 4, 6, 7, 8, 9, 11, 13, 14, 17, 18, 19, 21, 22, 23, 29, 77, 78, and 1306, all located in Subdistrict 1 of District 13.

On March 3, 1943, after notice and hearing, an order was entered amending the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 13 for All Shipments Except Truck by the addition of a price exception, which provided as follows:

When the mines in Subdistrict 1 listed herein specially prepare coals included in Size Group 18, and such coals are sold and applied for stoker use, the prices listed herein for Size Group 18 coals into the respective market areas shall be increased 35 cents per net ton: Provided, Such stoker coals shall have a top size not larger than 1½" and a bottom size with a maximum of ½" and a minimum of ⅛": Provided further, The actual size of the stoker coal is specified in all notices, lists, reports or other documents.

On April 3, 1943, upon petition of District Board 13, an order was entered temporarily modifying the order, dated March 3, 1943, and providing that the stoker coals referred to in the aforesaid price exception should have a "top size not larger than 1½" and a bottom size not larger than ½"," as requested in the petition. The Director stated in his Memorandum Opinion and Order that increased prices for specially prepared stoker coals would be temporarily established until a more exact definition could be obtained for this special stoker size in order to prevent confusion with the 1½" x ½" chestnut size (Size Groups 10 and 11) and 1½" x 0 wash screenings (Size Group 18) of the price schedule. Accordingly, said order provided that the order of March 3, 1943, would be modified on condition that District Board 13 submit a statement on or before June 30, 1943, setting forth a more exact definition of the special stoker size group, and a clarification of the definitions of Size Groups Nos. 10, 11, 18, and 23 as compared with the definition of the special stoker size group, and the term "domestic stoker" as read in connection with Price Instructions 9 and 10 of the schedule, and further that jurisdiction of this proceeding was reserved to revoke the aforesaid price exception, if such statement was not submitted as directed. On June 21, 1943, District Board 13 submitted a statement purporting to comply with the order of the Director. I have considered this statement in detail and have come to the conclusion that it fails to define more exactly the size of the specially prepared coals for domestic stoker use and that it contains only a reiteration of petitioner's contention for an increase in the prices for specially prepared stoker coals, as set forth in its petition and urged at the hearing herein. Moreover, the statement makes no attempt to clarify the definitions of similar size groups in the price schedule, namely, Size Groups 10, 11, 18 and 23, nor does it attempt to interpret or clarify the term "domestic stoker", when read in connection with Price Instructions 9 and 10 of the schedule, as was also required by the order of the Director.

From the first, temporary relief was granted herein in the light of the exigencies of the situation presented, but with considerable reluctance. It remains my conviction, as I stated in the order of April 3, 1943, that "the establishment of identical size groups differentiated only by the requirement that the coals in some of the size groups must be 'specially prepared' is not in my opinion conducive to a sound price pattern and permits of ready evasion by producers who, because of exigencies of competition or their unwillingness to cooperate in the maintenance of a sound price structure, may be unscrupulous enough to take advantage of such vague limitations in the size group definitions." To establish minimum prices for stoker coals which are essentially the same in size as coals described in other size groups within the schedule would only create confusion, since "special preparation" is the only distinguishing feature between these coals. Moreover, to enable a producer to exercise ultimate discretion in determining whether stoker coals have received sufficient "special preparation" to justify a higher price may only result in denial to other producers of fair competitive opportunities, contrary to the purpose and the policy of the Act.

In addition to the foregoing, the failure of District Board 13 to submit adequate information as to the exact definition of the special stated size group, its comparison with Size Groups 10, 11, 18 and 23 and a clarification of the term "domestic stoker" in connection with Price Instruction 9 and 10 of the schedule, affords no alternative other than to revoke the additional price exception established by the order of March 3, 1943 as modified by the order of April 3, 1943.

It is therefore ordered, That effective as of the date hereof, the order entered herein on March 3, 1943, as modified by order, dated April 3, 1943, providing for the amendment of the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 13 for All Shipment Except Truck by the addition of a price exception, be and the same hereby is revoked;

It is further ordered, That the petition herein is hereby denied and the proceeding dismissed.

Dated: August 9, 1943.

MOSCHETTI COAL COMPANY

ORDER OF DIRECTOR

In the Matter of Dom. Moschetti, also known as Dominic Moschetti, doing business as Moschetti Coal Company.

On June 1, 1942, the Bituminous Coal Division referred to the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 17, information relating to possible violations of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, by code member. District Board 17 failed to take action thereon and on September 23, 1942 the Division, pursuant to the provisions of section 5 (b) and 6 (a) of the Act, instituted this proceeding.

The Notice recited that the Division finds it necessary to determine whether code member violated sections 4 II (e) and 4 II (i) 8 of the Act, the corresponding sections of the Code; Rule 2 of section XII and Rule 8 of section XIII of the Marketing Rules and Regulations and Orders of the Division Nos. 307 and 312.

Pursuant to the above mentioned Notice, a hearing in this matter was held before Charles O. Fowler, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, on November 10, 1942, at a hearing room thereof in Pueblo, Colorado. All interested persons were afforded an opportunty to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses and otherwise be heard. District Board 17 was represented by F. O. Sandstrom, its Secretary-Treasurer. Code member appeared by counsel who filed a brief, after the hearing which I have considered.

No report has been filed by said Trial Examiner.

In view of the fact that the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, as amended, will expire at 12:01 a. m. August 24, 1943, (except as provided in section 19 thereof), any order which might be issued requiring code member to cease and desist from further violations of the Act and Code or any order revoking code membership will become inoperative after that date. Proceedings not finally decided at that time will become moot.

Accordingly, it appears that it is unnecessary that a Report of the Trial Examiner be filed as it would seem inadvisable to determine the issues on the merits. The proceeding should be dismissed.

It is so ordered.

KANAWHA AND NEW RIVER BARGE AND RAIL COAL MINES, INC.

REPORT OF EXAMINER

In the matter of the application of Kanawha & New River Barge & Rail Coal Mines, Inc. for exemption under the second paragraph of section 4-A of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

This proceeding was instituted upon an application for exemption filed with the Bituminous Coal Division by Kanawha & New River Barge & Rail Coal Mines, Inc., a code member operating mines located in Kanawha County, West Virginia, in District 8. Pursuant to section 4-A of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, exemption was sought as to certain transactions in bituminous coal between the applicant and the chemical plant of E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Company, located at Belle, West Virginia, from the provisions of section 4 and the first paragraph of section 4-A of the Act.

This application was consolidated for hearing with other applications for similar exemptions, enumerated in footnote 2 of my report in "Matter of the Application of the Carbon Fuel Company," Docket No. 469-FD. Pursuant to appropriate orders, a hearing was held in these matters before me May 20-30, 1940, at a hearing room of the Division in Charleston, West Virginia.

The record in this case is an extensive one and the issues involved, which are similar to those in Docket No. 469-FD, are complex. For the reasons set forth in my Report in Docket No. 469-FD, I believe that the proceeding will become moot on the expiration of the Bituminous Coal Act August 24, 1943, and that it would serve no useful purpose to discuss the merits of this case. BLACK DIAMOND COAL MINING COMPANY

ORDER CONDITIONALLY RESTORING CODE MEMBERSHIP AND PROVIDING FOR UNCONDITIONAL RESTORATION

In the matter of W. W. Bridges, Receiver, Black Diamond Coal Mining Company.

A complaint, dated December 11, 1942, pursuant to the provisions of sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed on December 15, 1942, by the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 9, a District Board, complainant, with the Bituminous Coal Division; and

An application for disposition of this proceeding without formal hearing, having been filed with the Division on March 12, 1943; and

An order having been issued herein on June 11, 1943, granting said application, revoking and cancelling the membership of W. W. Bridges, Receiver, Black Diamond Coal Mining Company (the Code Member) in the Bituminous Coal Code (the Code) effective twenty (20) days from the date of said order, and providing for the payment to the United States of a tax in the amount of $2,411.09 as a condition precedent to the restoration of the Code Member to membership in the Code; and

An arrangement having been made by the Code Member with the Collector of Internal Revenue at Louisville, Kentucky for the payment of said tax in installments as follows: $602.77 on June 22, 1943; $602.77 on September 22, 1943; $602.77 on December 22, 1943; and $602.77 on March 22, 1944; and

It appearing that the installment of $602.77 due June 22, 1943 has been paid; and

Application having been made by the Code Member for restoration to membership in the Code;

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That membership of W. W. Bridges, Receiver, Black Diamond Coal Mining Company in the Code be and the same hereby is conditionally restored as of the effective date of revocation thereof.

It is further ordered, That upon full payment of the remaining installments of said tax, as agreed, the restoration to membership in the Code of said W. W. Bridges, Receiver, Black Diamond Coal Mining Company shall become unconditional.

FORKS COAL MINING COMPANY

REPORT OF EXAMINER

This proceeding was instituted upon a complaint duly filed February 10, 1942, with the Bituminous Coal Division, pursuant to sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, by the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 1 against Forks Coal Mining Company, a corporation, code member producer operating the Hughes No. 11 Mine, Mine Index No. 219, located in Cambral County, Pennsylvania. The complaint alleged that code member wilfully violated the provisions of the Act, the Code and the Marketing Rules and Regulations and prayed for appropriate relief.

Code member filed an answer on April 2, 1942.

Pursuant to an Order of the Director dated March 23, 1942, a motion of the District Board to amend the complaint was granted and the Notice of and Order for Hearing previously issued dated February 18, 1942, was likewise amended extending code member's time to file an answer for thirty days. The hearing was postponed from time to time by orders of the Director until, after due notice to interested persons, it was held on April 27 and May 2, 1942, before the undersigned, Joseph A. Huston, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at the hearing room thereof at Altoona, Pennsylvania. All interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses, and otherwise be heard. District Board 1, code member and a representative of the Office of the General Counsel of the Division appeared.

As the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, as amended, will expire at 12:01 a. m. August 24, 1943, (except as provided in section 19 thereof); as no order revoking code membership or requiring code member to cease and desist from further violations will be effective after that date and my report, if submitted, could be acted upon by the Director only after an opportunity had been afforded to the parties to file exceptions; as it would be necessary for the Director to have an opportunity to consider the entire record, and further, as a petition might also be filed for rehearing or reconsideration of the Order of the Director, it is extremely unlikely that this case would be finally disposed of prior to the expiration date of the Act. I accordingly recommend that the proceeding be dismissed forthwith.

Respectfully submitted.

An order having been issued herein on July 27, 1943, revoking and cancelling the code membership of said Code Member in the Code, and providing for the payment to the United States of a tax in the amount of $2,360.87 as a condition precedent to its restoration to membership in the Code; and

TONY SANTARELLI

ORDER OF DIRECTOR

In the matter of Tony Santarelli, code member.

On July 10, 1942, the Bituminous Coal Division referred to the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 17, information relating to possible violations of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 by code member. District Board No. 17 failed to take action thereon and on September 23, 1942, the Division, pursuant to the provisions of sections 5 (b) and 6 (a) of the Act, instituted this proceeding.

The Notice of and Order for Hearing recited that the Division finds it necessary to determine whether code member violated the provisions of the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District 17 for All Shipments, sections 4 II (e) and 4 II (i) 8 of the Act, Rule 2 of section XII and Rule 8 of section XIII of the Marketing Rules and Regulations. Code member filed his answer on October 22, 1942.

Pursuant to the Notice, hearings in this matter were held before Charles O. Fowler, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, on November 28, December 2, 3 and 4, 1942, at a hearing room thereof in Pueblo, Colorado. All interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses and otherwise be heard. District Board 17 was represented by F. O. Sandstrom, its Secretary-Treasurer. Code member and a representative of the Office of the General Counsel of the Division appeared. Permission was given to file briefs but none have been received.

No report has been filed by said Trial Examiner.

In view of the fact that the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, as amended, will expire at 12:01 a. m. Proceedings not finally decided at that time will become moot.

Accordingly, it appears that it is unnecessary that a Report of the Trial Examiner be filed as it would seem inadvisable to determine the issues on the merits. The proceeding should be dismissed.

It is so ordered.

Pursuant to further Order of the Director dated March 27, 1943, and after due notice to interested persons, a hearing in this matter was held on March 24, 1943, before Charles O. Fowler, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof at Chattanooga, Tennessee. All interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses and otherwise be heard. District Board 13 was represented by its Secretary-Treasurer, N. E. HOWARD COAL AND COKE COMPANY

ORDER DISMISSING MATTER AND TERMINATING PROCEEDING

In the matter of Howard Coal and Coke Company, Inc., registered distributor, Registration No. 4541.

The above-entitled proceeding was instituted by the Bituminous Coal Division pursuant to the provisions of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 and section 304.14 (now 317.14) of the Rules and Regulations for the Registration of Distributors, by a Notice of and Order for Hearing, dated October 24, 1941, to determine whether the respondent, Howard Coal and Coke Company, Inc., had violated any provisions of the Act, the Marketing Rules and Regulations, the Rules and Regulations for the Registration of Distributors, and the Distributor's Agreement.

The aforesaid Notice of and Order for Hearing scheduled a hearing for December 13, 1941, before a duly designated officer of the Bituminous Coal Division, at Room 806, Walker Building, Washington, D. C., and, by appropriate order, said hearing was postponed to a date and place to be thereafter designated.

On January 26, 1942, respondent filed an application for disposition of this proceeding without formal hearing pursuant to § 301.132 of the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division, notice of which was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on February 12, 1942.

In view of the fact that the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, as amended, will expire on August 24, 1943, proceedings not finally decided at that time will become moot. Under these circumstances it seems inadvisable to determine the issues raised. Said hearing, therefore, should be cancelled and this proceeding dismissed.

It is so ordered.

ROUTING OF FREIGHT TRAFFIC

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 10th day of August, A. D. 1943.

It appearing, That due to stoppage of work by employees of the car ferry operating between Mackinaw City and St. Ignace, Michigan, The Pennsylvania Railroad Company, The Michigan Central Railroad Company, The New York Central Railroad Company, and The Duluth, South Shore and Atlantic Railway Company (Edward A. Whitman and Sigurd Ueland, Trustees) are unable to transport the freight traffic offered to them between Mackinaw City and St. Ignace so as properly to serve the public; in the opinion of the Commission an emergency exists requiring immediate action to best promote the service in the interest of the public and the commerce of the people; It is ordered, That:

(a) Routing of freight traffic. Effective immediately, The Pennsylvania Railroad Company, The Michigan Central Railroad Company, The New York Central Railroad Company, and The Duluth, South Shore and Atlantic Railway Company (Edward A. (b) Rates to be applied. Inasmuch as such disregard of routing is deemed to be due to carriers' disability, the rates applicable to traffic so forwarded shall be the rates which were applicable at the date of shipment over established tariff routes.

(c) Divisions. In executing the orders and directions of the Commission provided for in this order, common carriers affected shall proceed, even though no division agreements are in effect, over the routes authorized; divisions shall be, during the time this order remains in force, voluntarily agreed upon by and between said carriers; and upon failure of said carriers to so agree, the divisions shall be hereafter fixed by the Commission in accordance with pertinent authority conferred upon it by the Interstate Commerce Act. If division agreements now exist on the traffic affected, over the routes herein authorized, they shall not be changed or affected by this order. (40 Stat. 101, sec. 402, 41 Stat. 476, sec. 4, 54 Stat. 901; 49 U.S.C. 1 (10)-(17))

For the reasons set forth in the opinion issued simultaneously herewith, and under authority vested in the Regional Administrator, Region V, Office of Price Administration, by § 1351.408 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 329, It is hereby ordered:

(a) Any purchaser of milk located in Region V, of the Office of Price Administration, whose purchases of milk are regulated by Maximum Price Regulation No. 329, shall, after the effective date of this order, be permitted to determine his maximum prices in either one of the following manners:

(1) Take the maximum price for the particular purchase arrived at in accordance with the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 329.

(2) Take the specific maximum prices provided in this subsection (2) as follows:

(i) Where not less than 50 per cent of the sales of approved fluid milk, in containers of one gallon or less, are made by a purchaser in any one of Areas A, 1A, 1, 2A, 2, or 3, as these areas are defined in Amendment No. 133 to Supplementary Regulation No. 14 of the General Maximum Price Regulation; the maximum price which such purchaser may pay for milk in any transaction regulated by Maximum Price Regulation No. 329 shall be the dollars and cents price per hundred weight, for the appropriate area, found in the following table, 4 per cent butterfat test, delivered to the plant making such purchases.

(ii) Prices herein provided are delivered prices and can be charged only if delivery is accepted by the purchaser at the plant for which the milk is purchased and from which plant 50 percent or more of the total sales of approved fluid milk are made in the area used as a basis for determining the price which the purchaser can pay.

(iii) If delivery is accepted at a point other than such plant, a reduction in price equivalent to the actual cost of transportation from point of delivery to such purchaser's plant must be made.

	Areas A	Areas 1A	Areas 1	Areas 2A	Areas 2	Areas 3
Per cwt.	$3.95	$3.75	$3.55	$3.35	$3.15	$2.95

(iv) Any purchaser of milk electing to use the maximum prices provided by this subsection (2) of section (a) of this order shall adjust such maximum prices for differences in butterfat contents as follows:

(a) Where the butterfat test of the milk actually purchased is less than 4 per cent, the maximum prices provided above shall be reduced by 5¢ for each 1/10 of 1 per cent that such butterfat test is less than 4 per cent.

(b) Where the butterfat test of the milk actually purchased is more than 4 per cent, the maximum prices provided above shall be increased by 5¢, or the highest differential which the particular purchaser paid the particular producer at any time during the month of January, 1943, whichever is higher, for each 1/10 of 1 per cent that such butterfat test is more than 4 per cent.

(v) No purchaser electing to price under this subsection (2) of section (a) of this order shall participate in any change of customary allowances, discounts, price differentials, or other trade practices applicable to purchases made by him unless such change results in a lower price.

(vi) "Purchaser" when applied to persons selling approved fluid milk from more than one plant shall mean the particular plant for which such milk is purchased.

(b) This order does not apply to any purchases wherein a minimum producer's price is established under the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and the maximum prices for such purchases shall be determined in accordance with Maximum Price Regulation No. 329.

(c) Except as specifically provided in this order, and for the types of purchases for which specific provision is made, the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 329 are in no way affected and shall continue to remain in full force and effect.

(d) This order may be revoked, amended, or corrected at any time.

(e) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in § 1351.404 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 329 shall apply to the terms used herein, except that where terms are used in reference to Amendment No. 133 to Supplementary Regulation No. 14 of the General Maximum Price Regulation, the definitions contained in § 1499.73 (a) (1) (vi) (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation shall apply to the terms used herein.

(f) This order shall become effective on the 13th day of March, 1943, and unless sooner revoked, shall terminate upon the termination of Maximum Price Regulation No. 329.

(g) General Order No. I under Maximum Price Regulation No. 329 is hereby revoked and replaced and superseded by the provisions of this Order No. G–2 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 329.

PART 944—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE OPERATION OF THE PRIORITIES SYSTEM

FARM SUPPLIES

§ 944.40 Priorities Regulation No. 19—(a) What this regulation does. This regulation tells how a farmer gets a priority to buy farm supplies from a dealer and how a dealer gets a priority to maintain his stock of farm supplies. The kinds of farm supplies which are covered by this regulation are only those listed in paragraph (j) of this regulation.

(b) How a farmer gets farm supplies from his dealer. Whenever a farmer orders farm supplies on the list from a dealer who has them in stock, the dealer must fill the order if the farmer gives him a signed certificate as follows:

I certify to the War Production Board that I am a farmer and that the supplies covered by this order are needed now and will be used for the operation of a farm.

The dealer may sell the supplies to the farmer without a certificate, but the dealer must get a certificate at the time he sells if he wants to use it to get a priority for replacing the supplies in his inventory, as explained in paragraph (d) below. A farmer may also use this certificate at a repair shop to get a priority on the use of its equipment in repairing his farm equipment. A farmer's order supported by a certificate is the same as an order rated AA-5.

(c) Farmers' certificates must be approved by rationing committees in the case of large purchases. If a farmer wants to use a certificate to buy more than $25 worth at one time of any item on the list, he must first get his certificate approved in writing by the County Farm Rationing Committee.

(d) How the dealer gets his stock of farm supplies. (1) A dealer can use the farmers' certificates which he has received to get priority on his own orders for listed farm supplies. For each dollar's worth of supplies sold against certificates at retail prices, the dealer can get a priority on 75 cents' worth of replacement supplies ordered by him at wholesale prices. He does not have to use the certificates to get the same kind of supplies as those he has sold, but can use them to get any kind of farm supplies on the list, except the special items mentioned in paragraph (e) below.

(2) To get the priority, the dealer signs the following statement on the purchase order which he places with his supplier:

I certify, subject to criminal penalties for misrepresentation, that the dollar amount of this order is not more than 75% of the sales price of farm supplies which I have sold under Priorities Regulation No. 19 against farmers' certificates now in my possession, and that I have not used the same certificates as the basis for getting a priority on any other order.

(3) In the special case of a dealer, such as a farmers' cooperative, all of whose sales of listed farm supplies are made at cost or at a mark-up not exceeding 3% of cost, the provisions of paragraph (d) (1) apply except that such a dealer can get priority on replacement supplies on a dollar-for-dollar basis using the following certificate in place of that provided in paragraph (d) (2):

I certify, subject to criminal penalties for misrepresentation, that the dollar amount of this order is not more than the sales price of farm supplies which I have sold at cost or within 3% of cost under Priorities Regulation No. 19 against farmers' certificates now in my possession and that I have not used the same certificates as the basis for getting a priority on any other order.

(4) Each dealer must keep for at least two years all farmers' certificates which he receives, and whenever he uses a certificate as a basis for a priority he must mark the certificate to show which of his own orders he has used it for.

(5) [Paragraph (5) expired July 17, 1943.]

(6) Orders placed by dealers bearing one of the above certifications are rated AA-5, and the suppliers with whom they are placed must fill them accordingly.

(e) Dealers use different methods in getting certain items. (1) A dealer may not use the method explained in paragraph (d) above to get the steel or wire mill items which are marked with an asterisk on the list in paragraph (j). He will get his supply of these items on the basis of farmers' certificates under other War Production Board regulations or orders, which his supplier should explain to him.

NOTE: In paragraph (e) (1) the third and fourth sentences revoked August 9, 1943.

(2) The War Production Board may issue orders or regulations making priorities inapplicable to certain items. If any items on the list become subject to these special rules, the dealer's supplier cannot recognize the dealer's certificate as giving him a priority on them. Farmers' certificates can still be used to buy such items from the dealer and the dealer can use the certificates as a basis for a priority for buying other items on the list under paragraph (d) above. For example, Priorities Regulation No. 3 restricts the use of ratings for items on List A of that regulation, but the restrictions of List B (regarding maintenance, repair and operating supplies) do not apply to orders for farm supplies under this regulation.

(f) Penalty for violations. Any person who makes a false statement in a certificate to get a priority on farm supplies is guilty of a crime and may be punished by a fine or imprisonment.

(g) What is meant by "farmer". As used in this regulation, "farmer" means a person who engages in farming as a business, by raising crops, livestock, bees or poultry. It also includes a custom operator who uses farm supplies in performing services for farmers. It does not include a person who just has a "victory garden" or raises food or other agricultural products entirely for his own use.

(h) What is meant by "dealer". "Dealer" means any person engaged in the business of selling farm supplies directly to farmers, including a mail order house.

(i) Effective date. This regulation becomes effective June 7, 1943. It does not apply to purchases and sales made before that date.

(j) What farm supplies are covered. This regulation covers only the following farm supplies and does not include second hand items:

[MPR 356[1], Amdt. 1]

ROYALTIES ON COPPER, LEAD AND ZINC

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation No. 356 is amended in the following respects:

1. The following is added at the end of section 1:

This regulation shall not apply to any payment made for work, labor or services even though such payment is stated as a part or percentage of the proceeds from a mining operation. Nor shall it apply to any payment made under any lease, contract or agreement between the principal operator of a mining property and another person, who is mining a part of the same property, if, and for such time as, no separate quotas have been established under the Premium Price Plan for the mining operation carried on pursuant to such lease, contract or agreement.

2. A new section 2a is added as follows:

SEC. 2a. Provision in special cases for a royalty higher than is provided in section 2—(a) Overriding royalties. When a sublease is given on all or any part of a property or working which was under lease on December 31, 1942, or a lease on such property or working is assigned or released, an overriding royalty may be paid to and received by the party giving such sublease, assignment, or release. Subject to approval, this royalty may be paid in addition to the maximum royalty determined according to the terms of the lease which was in effect on December 31, 1942, and may be similarly paid on the basis of premium or bonus money not in excess of 5¢ per pound of copper and 2¾¢ per pound each of lead and zinc if the leases in effect on December 31, 1942, provided for the payment of royalty on such premium money.

A new overriding royalty need not be submitted for approval if the total royalty to be paid by the sublessee does not exceed the maximum royalty as determined by the lease in effect on the property or working on December 31, 1942. In any case, however, in which the payment of an overriding royalty shall cause the total royalty to exceed that determined by the lease in effect on December 31, 1942, the provision for the payment of such overriding royalty must be approved by the Administrator. Request for approval shall be made within 30 days after the sublease or agreement providing for payment of the overriding royalty has been signed or executed and shall be made by letter addressed to the Non-Ferrous Metals Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. The overriding royalty submitted for approval may be approved or disapproved by a letter signed by the Price Executive of the Non-Ferrous Metals Branch. In approving or disapproving an overriding royalty, the Office of Price Administration will take into consideration the level of overriding royalties in effect under similar circumstances in the mining district in which the property is situated as well as the information submitted with the request for approval. Pending such approval or disapproval, overriding royalty calculated according to the terms submitted for approval may be paid and received. Where an overriding royalty is disapproved by letter, the Administrator will issue a formal order to the same effect if within 30 days any party requests him to do so.

A person making a request for approval of overriding royalty terms should give (1) the name and address of the parties to pay and to receive the overriding royalty (called the sublessee and sublessor), (2) a description of the property as to name and location, (3) the maximum royalty as determined by the lease in effect on December 31, 1942, (4) the base royalty to be paid, (5) the overriding royalty terms submitted for approval, (6) a statement of development work done or improvements made upon the property by the sublessor, (7) a list of the major items of equipment, if any, owned by the sublessor to be used by the sublessee, (8) a statement as to the sublessee's plans for putting the property into production, and (9) any other facts which the person requesting approval considers to be relevant to his request.

(b) Amendment of leases to provide for minimum royalty. Where, because of decline in grade or other cause, the royalty payable according to the terms of a lease in effect on December 31, 1942, is extinguished or is reduced in an amount disproportionate to the decline in grade or other change in circumstances, the lessee or lessor may ask the Administrator for permission to pay or to receive a royalty which shall be at the least, or minimum, a certain amount for each ton of ore mined or each pound of metal contained in ores or concentrates. This request shall be in the form of a request for approval of a supplementary provision of an existing lease or agreement, or a modified provision of a new lease or agreement, which provision calls for such a minimum royalty payment; and, when such a provision has been approved, royalty may be paid and received pursuant to it even though such royalty is higher than that which would otherwise be the maximum royalty under section 2.

Requests for approval of a minimum royalty provision shall be made by letter addressed to the Non-Ferrous Metals Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., and permission may be given by a letter signed by the Price Executive of the Non-Ferrous Metals Branch. In approving or disapproving a minimum royalty provision, the Office of Price Administration will consider the reasonableness and fairness to all parties, under the circumstances, of the provision of such a minimum royalty. Where such a provision is disapproved by letter, the Administrator will issue a formal order to the same effect if within 30 days any party requests him to do so.

A person making a request for approval of a provision for a minimum royalty should give (1) the name and address of the lessee and lessor, (2) a description of the property as to name and location, (3) the royalty terms of the lease in effect on December 31, 1942, (4) the royalty payable according to these terms during the last three months of operation, if available, (5) an estimate of the royalty which would be payable in the future if determined according to the terms of the lease in effect on December 31, 1942, (6) the minimum royalty provision submitted for approval, (7) an estimate as to ore reserves and grade, and (8) any other facts which the person requesting approval considers to be relevant to his request.

No report is required of the royalty provided by the terms of a lease made prior to January 1, 1941, under which no work was done during 1941 and 1942, until work is done under such lease which will give rise to an obligation to pay royalty. However, from the time such work is begun under the lease, or from the date when any extension or amendment of such lease is made, it shall be considered as a new lease and the royalty to be paid under it shall be reported for approval.

If any person proposes, either as lessee or lessor, to enter into a number of leases covering similar properties or workings (not under lease on December 31, 1942) and containing identical royalty terms, he may request approval of such royalty terms in advance. Request for approval of such proposed royalty terms shall be made by letter addressed to the Non-Ferrous Metals Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. This letter shall set out the proposed royalty terms and shall identify and give a general description of the properties or workings to which they would apply. In approving or disapproving the proposed royalty terms for such a group of similar properties or workings, the Office of Price Administration will take account of the royalty provisions generally in effect for similar properties in the mining district in which the properties are situated. Requests for advance approval may be granted or denied by a letter signed by the Price Executive of the Non-Ferrous Metals Branch. The denial of advance approval shall not prevent any party from thereafter entering into new leases and requesting approval of the royalties provided therein as is otherwise provided in this section 3.

This amendment shall become effective August 17, 1943.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

No person making a sale of cotton linters or hull fibers for which maximum prices are set forth in this regulation shall sell or deliver such cotton linters or hull fibers at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in this regulation.

SEC. 2. Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those established by this regulation may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

SEC. 3. Adjustable pricing. Any person may agree to sell at a price which can be increased up to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery; but no person may, unless authorized by the Office of Price Administration, deliver or agree to deliver at prices to be adjusted upward in accordance with action taken by the Office of Price Administration after delivery. Such authorization may be given when a request for a change in the applicable maximum price is pending, but only if the authorization is necessary to promote distribution or production and if it will not interfere with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. The authorization may be given by the Administrator or by any official of the Office of Price Administration to whom the authority to grant such authorization has been delegated. The authorization will be given by order.

SEC. 4. Relationship of this to other maximum price regulations.—(a) General Maximum Price Regulation[1] and Maximum Price Regulations No. 190[2] and No. 191.[3] The provisions of this regulation supersede the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation and Maximum Price Regulations No. 190 and No. 191 with respect to sales and deliveries for which maximum prices are established by this regulation.

SEC. 5. Geographical applicability. The provisions of this regulation shall be applicable to the forty-eight States of the United States and the District of Columbia.

SEC. 6. Records and reports. (a) Every person making sales or purchases of cotton linters or hull fibers after August 16, 1943 for which maximum prices are established by this regulation, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect, accurate records of each such sale or purchase, showing the date thereof, the name and address of the seller and buyer, the price paid or received, and the quantity and quality of cotton linters or hull fibers sold or purchased.

(b) Such persons shall submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration and keep such other records in addition to or in place of the records required by paragraph (a) of this section as the Office of Price Administration may from time to time require.

SEC. 7. Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this regulation shall not be evaded whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase or receipt of, or relating to, cotton linters or hull fibers, alone or in connection with any other commodity, or by way of commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium, or other privilege, or by tying-agreement, or other trade understanding, or by transactions with or through the agency of subsidiaries or affiliates, or otherwise.

SEC. 8. Enforcement and licensing.—(a) Enforcement. Persons violating any provisions of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, license suspension proceedings, and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(b) Licensing. The provisions of Supplementary Order No. 11 (§ 1305.15), licensing distributors of chemicals and drugs, shall be applicable to any dealer selling cotton linters or hull fibers for which maximum prices are established by this regulation. The term "distributor" shall have the meaning given to it by Supplementary Order No. 11 which term includes a "dealer" as defined in this regulation. This order, in brief, provides that a license is necessary for dealers to make sales under this regulation. A license is automatically granted to such sellers. It is not necessary to apply specially for the license, but a registration may later be required. The Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Supplementary Order No. 11 describe the circumstances under which licenses may be suspended.

The applicant's objections to such order are as follows (applicant should state briefly and separately number his objections):

[2] This pricing method shall not be used by a ginner who charged for cotton ginning services during the base period exclusively on a toll basis.

[3] Under this pricing method a ginner who, during the base period, had different charges for bollies or snapped cotton as contrasted to picked cotton should compute a separate maximum price for each kind of cotton.

[4] This means that a ginner shall not select the highest price he charged for ginning in one transaction and the highest price he charged for bagging and ties in another transaction.

PART 1315—RUBBER AND PRODUCTS AND MATERIALS OF WHICH RUBBER IS A COMPONENT

MANUFACTURERS' MAXIMUM PRICES FOR RUBBER DRUG SUNDRIES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.[2]

Maximum Price Regulation 300 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1315.1753 (b) is amended by amending the head-note and the text preceding subparagraph (1) thereof to read as follows:

(b) Maximum prices for all rubber drug sundries except those made in whole or in part of synthetic or substitute rubber. This paragraph is applicable to all rubber drug sundries covered by this section except those made in whole or in part of synthetic or substitute rubber. The maximum price for a sale by a manufacturer of any rubber drug sundry covered by this paragraph shall be the first applicable of the following prices, less the deduction required by paragraph (d) of this section, wherever applicable, and less all discounts, allowances and other deductions which the manufacturer had in effect to a purchaser of the same class on December 1, 1941:

2. Section 1315.1753 (c) is amended to read as follows:

(c) Maximum prices for rubber drug sundries made in whole or in part of synthetic or substitute rubber. This paragraph is applicable to rubber drug sundries covered by this section which are made in whole or in part of synthetic or substitute rubber. The maximum price for the sale by a manufacturer of any rubber drug sundry covered by this paragraph shall be determined as follows:

(1) The manufacturer shall first determine the December 1, 1941, price of the rubber drug sundry to that class of wholesalers to which he sold the largest volume of rubber drug sundries during the calendar year 1942. This price shall be determined in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section. If the manufacturer did not sell that rubber drug sundry to wholesalers during the calendar year 1942, the manufacturer shall first determine the December 1, 1941, price of the rubber drug sundry being priced to that class of retailers to which he sold the largest volume of rubber drug sundries during the calendar year 1942. This price shall be determined in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section.

(2) The manufacturer shall then deduct a differential from the price determined in accordance with subparagraph (1). This differential shall be determined by multiplying the number of pounds of each type of synthetic or substitute rubber required to produce the rubber drug sundry by the difference between the price for the synthetic or substitute rubber in effect on December 1, 1941, and the price for the synthetic or substitute rubber in effect on August 1, 1943. If the manufacturer on December 1, 1941, sold several sizes or styles of rubber drug sundries at the same price to the same class of purchasers, he shall use the same differential for all the sizes or styles that he sold on December 1, 1941, at the same price to the same class of purchasers. This differential shall be calculated by the method set forth in this subparagraph except that in applying that method the manufacturer shall use the procedure he customarily used on December 1, 1941, to arrive at a uniform price for the different sizes or styles. If the manufacturer used no such customary procedure on December 1, 1941, he shall use as the basis for calculating the differential the size or style of which he sold the largest quantity during the period January 1, 1943, to June 30, 1943, inclusive.

(3) The price calculated in the manner just set forth is the manufacturer's maximum price to that class of purchasers for which he must calculate a price under subparagraph (1). The manufacturer shall determine his maximum price for sales of the rubber drug sundry to other classes of purchasers by adjusting this price to reflect the differentials that the manufacturer had in effect to other classes of purchasers on December 1, 1941.

3. Section 1315.1754 (a) is amended to read as follows:

(a) Applicability of this section—(1) Persons. This section is applicable to all manufacturers of rubber drug sundries, except distributors of rubber drug sundries.

(2) Commodities. This section is applicable to all rubber drug sundries, other than victory line, that are not covered by §§ 1315.1753 or 1315.1755c.

4. Section 1315.1754 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) How the manufacturer calculates the maximum price. The maximum price for the sale of any rubber drug sundry covered by this section shall be determined as follows:

(1) The manufacturer shall first select the rubber drug sundry he must use in determining the maximum price of the rubber drug sundry being priced. The method for selecting this rubber drug sundry is explained in paragraph (c) of this section.

(2) The manufacturer shall then determine his maximum price for the sale of that rubber drug sundry to the class of wholesalers to which he sold the largest volume of rubber drug sundries during the calendar year 1942. This maximum price shall be determined in accordance with § 1315.1753. If the manufacturer did not sell that rubber drug sundry to wholesalers during the calendar year 1942, he shall determine the maximum price for the sale of the rubber drug sundry to that class of retailers to which he sold the largest volume of rubber drug sundries during the calendar year 1942. This price shall be determined in accordance with § 1315.1753.

(3) The manufacturer shall then add to or subtract from the price determined in accordance with subparagraph (2), the amount by which the "factory costs" of the rubber drug sundry being priced are greater or less than the "factory costs" of the rubber drug sundry used as a basis for pricing. "Factory costs" of both rubber drug sundries shall be determined in accordance with paragraph (d) of this section.

(4) The resultant price is the manufacturer's maximum price for the sale of the rubber drug sundry being priced to that class of purchasers for which he must determine a maximum price under subparagraph (2). The manufacturer shall then determine his maximum price for sales of the rubber drug sundry being priced to other classes of purchasers by adjusting this price to reflect the differentials that the manufacturer had in effect to other classes of purchasers on December 1, 1941.

(5) Once the manufacturer has determined his maximum price for a rubber drug sundry under this section, that price is his maximum thereafter so long as the article is not modified sufficiently to result in a change of more than 5 percent in its factory costs. If the article is modified to this extent, its maximum price must be recomputed in accordance with the provisions of this section. Factory costs must be determined in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (d) of this section.

5. Section 1315.1754 (e) (2) is amended by amending the first two sentences thereof to read as follows: "The price of synthetic or substitute rubber used in any rubber drug sundry shall be the price in effect on August 1, 1943. The price of any other materials used in a rubber drug sundry shall be the highest price charged on December 1, 1941, by the manufacturer's supplier, not to exceed the applicable maximum price."

6. Section 1315.1755c (a) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) Maximum prices. The maximum price of neoprene bulbs and bulb goods covered by this paragraph shall be determined as follows:

(i) The manufacturer shall first determine the maximum price for the sale of natural rubber bulbs or bulb goods of the same type and size to that class of wholesalers to which he sold the largest volume of rubber drug sundries during the calendar year 1942. If the manufacturer did not sell that rubber drug sundry to wholesalers during 1942, he shall determine the maximum price for the sale of natural rubber bulbs or bulb goods of the same type and size to that class of retailers to which he sold the largest volume of rubber drug sundries during the calendar year 1942. The maximum price for the natural rubber bulbs or bulb goods shall be determined in accordance with the applicable provisions of §§ 1315.1753 to 1315.1755b, inclusive.

(ii) The manufacturer shall then add a differential to the price determined in accordance with subdivision (i). That differential shall be $0.05 for ear and ulcer syringes, double-end bulbs and breast pump bulbs, and for bulb goods containing one of the types of bulbs just enumerated. For other neoprene bulbs and bulb goods containing neoprene bulbs, the differential shall be determined by reference to the following table:

Size of bulbs (in ounces):	Price differential
Less than 3	$0.05
6	.09
7	.10
10	.15

(iii) The price determined in the manner just set forth is the manufacturer's maximum price to that class of purchasers for which he must calculate a maximum price for the natural rubber bulb or bulb goods under subdivision (i). The manufacturer shall determine his maximum price for sales of the neoprene bulb or bulb goods to other classes of purchasers by adjusting this price to reflect the differentials that the manufacturer had in effect to other classes of purchasers on December 1, 1941.

7. Section 1315.1765 (a) is amended to read as follows:

(a) Victory line rubber drug sundries sold to any person, except a mail order house. Victory line rubber drug sundries sold to any person, except a mail order house, shall be marked with the maximum retail price thereof set forth in Maximum Price Regulation No. 301. The maximum retail price shall be marked as follows: "Retail Ceiling $---"

8. Section 1315.1772 is amended by inserting the price $.61 opposite the item hospital grade (molded) hot water bottle and under the heading "To mass retail distributors".

9. Section 1315.1772 is amended by inserting the following items under the heading "Combination syringes (molded) equipped with 4'8" regular flow tubing, stopper, shut-off and screw socket":

Item	Maximum prices for sales by manufacturers
	To wholesalers	To mass retail distributors	To other retailers and ultimate consumers
Hospital grade:
Group I—2 slip pipes, adult rectal and vaginal	$0.70	$0.77	$0.93
Group II—2 screw pipes, adult rectal and vaginal plus screw pipe connections	.75	.83	1.00
Group III—3 screw pipes, infant rectal, adult rectal, and balloon vaginal plus screw pipe connection, and rapid flow accessories	.93	1.03	1.25

This amendment shall become effective August 19, 1943.

Bituminous Coal Division.

[Docket No. 469-FD]

CARBON FUEL COMPANY

REPORT OF EXAMINER

In the Matter of the Application of the Carbon Fuel Company for exemption under the second paragraph of Section 4-A of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

This proceeding was instituted upon an application for exemption filed on March 10, 1938, with the National Bituminous Coal Commission, and an amended application filed on January 23, 1940, with the Bituminous Coal Division, successor to the Commission, by the Carbon Fuel Company (hereafter sometimes referred to as Carbon), a code member operating mines located in Kanawha County, West Virginia, in District 8. The application, pursuant to the provisions of the second paragraph of section 4-A of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, seeks exemption of certain transactions in coal from the provisions of section 4 and the first paragraph of section 4-A of the Act.[1]

Pursuant to appropriate orders and after due notice to interested persons, a hearing in this matter was held on May 20-30, 1940, before D. C. McCurtain, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at a hearing room of the Division in Charleston, West Virginia. The matter was jointly heard with eight other applications in accordance with a ruling of the Examiner pursuant to a stipulation entered into by counsel for the Division, for Carbon, and for eight other applicants for exemption on similar grounds.[2]

Interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present and to participate fully in the hearing. Appearances were entered by all applicants and the Consumers' Counsel Division (herein called Consumers' Counsel), the predecessor of the Bituminous Coal Consumers' Counsel.

In accordance with stipulations entered into between counsel for the Division and for several of the applicants separately, excerpts from the transcript in Docket No. 64-FD were introduced in evidence by the Division as a part of the record in this proceeding, to be of the same effect as depositions taken herein.

On July 3, 1940, Carbon and Winifrede filed a joint brief. On the same date a brief was also filed by Consumers' Counsel.

Having considered the record in this proceeding, I hereby make the following:

NOTE: Here follows proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law.[3]

Recommendation

After the above report was prepared it became apparent that the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 will terminate August 24, 1943. After this date the minimum price provisions of the Act and the price schedule will become inoperative. An administrative determination that certain coals are or are not entitled to exemption from the general price provisions by reason of such expiry of the Act will, in such circumstances, be fruitless and ineffectual. Although I should normally recommend an order denying the exemptions requested in the application of the Carbon Fuel Company, in view of these considerations I recommend, rather, that the entire proceeding be terminated, effective at 12:01 a. m. August 24, 1943.

Respectfully submitted.

Dated: July 31, 1943.

Examiner.

RANDALL FUEL COMPANY, INC.

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER OF DIRECTOR

In the matter of the application of Randall Fuel Company, Inc., to receive sales agent's commission and distributor's discounts on coal sold to Randall Brothers, Inc.

On July 17, 1943, after notice and hearing, W. A. Cuff, a duly designated examiner of the Division, submitted a report in which he found that the acceptance or retention of sales agent commissions or distributor discounts by the Randall Fuel Company, Inc., a registered distributor (Registration No. 7554), petitioner, on coal sold or purchased for sale to Randall Brothers, Inc., is not prohibited by Rule 10 of section II of the marketing rules and regulations, by § 317.19 (c) (formerly § 304.19 (c)) of the rules and regulations for the registration of distributors, by applicable provisions of the Act, or by other rules and regulations thereunder. The examiner recommended that an order be entered granting the relief prayed for in the petition herein. Interested persons were afforded an opportunity to file exceptions to the report of the examiner. As of the date hereof, no such exceptions have been filed.

I have considered the entire record in this proceeding and the examiner's report, and I find that the report adequately and accurately reflects the facts disclosed in the record. I believe that the proposed findings of fact and proposed conclusions of law should be approved and adopted as the findings of fact and conclusions of law of the Director.

It is hereby ordered, That the proposed findings of fact and the proposed conclusions of law of the Examiner are approved and adopted as the findings of fact and conclusions of law of the Director.

It is further ordered, That the relief prayed in the petition is granted.

Dated: August 10, 1943.

RYAN & BENSON FUEL CORP.

ORDER OF THE DIRECTOR

In the matter of Ryan & Benson Fuel Corporation, registered distributor, Registration No. 7951, respondent.

This proceeding was instituted by the Bituminous Coal Division pursuant to section 4 II (h) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 and § 304.14 of the rules and regulations for the registration of distributors, in order to investigate and determine whether respondent Ryan & Benson Fuel Corporation, a registered distributor (Registration No. 7951), 2701 Falls Road, Baltimore, Maryland, has violated certain provisions of the Act, the marketing rules and regulations incidental to the sale and distribution of coal, the rules and regulations for the registration of distributors and the agreement by registered distributor.

Pursuant to appropriate orders of the Director and after due notice to interested persons, a hearing in this matter was held on November 17–19, 21, and 24–27, 1941, before Edward J. Hayes, a duly designated examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof in Washington, D. C. All interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses, and otherwise be heard. Appearances were entered by respondent and by the Office of the General Counsel of the Division. No report has been filed by the trial examiner.

In view of the fact that the Bituminous Coal Act, as amended, will expire at 12:01 a. m. August 24, 1943 (except as provided in section 19 thereof), any order which might be issued suspending or revoking the registration of respondent as a distributor will become inoperative after that date. Proceedings not finally decided at that time will become moot. Accordingly, as it seems inadvisable to determine the issues on the merits, the proceeding should be dismissed forthwith.

It is so ordered.

Dated: August 10, 1943.

BUCKEYE COAL AND COKE COMPANY

EXAMINER'S REPORT

This proceeding was instituted upon a notice of and order for hearing filed pursuant to § 304.14 (now 317.14) of the rules and regulations for the registration of distributors, to determine whether respondent, Buckeye Coal and Coke Company, a registered distributor (Registration No. 1203), of Columbus, Ohio, has violated the provisions of the Act, the Code and orders of the Division, including the marketing rules and regulations, the distributors' rules, and the distributor's agreement dated April 12, 1939 and filed with the Division.

Pursuant to an Order of the Director dated December 11, 1942, and after due notice to interested parties, a hearing in this matter was held on January 18, 1943, before the undersigned W. A. Cuff, a duly designated examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof in Columbus, Ohio. Interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses, and otherwise be heard. Appearances were entered on behalf of the General Counsel of the Division and respondent.

On February 26, 1943, respondent filed a "Petition to Reopen Proceedings" praying for a reopening of this proceeding in order to be afforded the opportunity of introducing newly discovered evidence.

In view of the fact that the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, as amended, will expire at 12:01 a. m., August 24, 1943 (except as provided in section 19 thereof), no order suspending or revoking the registration of respondent as a distributor will have any operative effect after that date. Any report which I might make in the proceeding could be acted upon only after the parties have been afforded an opportunity to file exceptions and after the Director has had an opportunity to consider the entire record. Interested parties might also petition for rehearing or reconsideration of the Director's order. It is extremely unlikely that this matter could be disposed of by the Director prior to the expiration of the Act. Accordingly, I recommend that this proceeding be dismissed forthwith.

Respectfully submitted.

JAMES R. FOLEY

ORDER OF DIRECTOR

This proceeding was instituted upon a complaint and amended complaint, duly filed with the Bituminous Coal Division pursuant to sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 by the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 8, against James R. Foley, code member producer, operating the Foley Mine (Mine Index No. 3487), in District 8, Knox County, Kentucky. The complaint as amended alleged that code member had wilfully violated the Code and rules and regulations thereunder, particularly the order of the Director in General Docket No. 19, dated October 9, 1940, and prayed appropriate relief.

Pursuant to appropriate orders, and after due notice to interested persons, a hearing was held in this matter on September 18, 1942, before Edward J. Hayes, a duly designated examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof in Middlesboro, Kentucky. Interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses and otherwise be heard. District Board 8 and code member appeared. No report has been filed by the trial examiner.

In view of the fact that the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, as amended, will expire at 12:01 a. m. August 24, 1943 (except as provided in section 19 thereof), any order which might be issued revoking code membership or requiring code member to cease and desist from further violations will become inoperative after that date. Proceedings not finally decided at that time will become moot. Accordingly, as it seems inadvisable to determine the issues on the merits, the proceeding should be dismissed forthwith.

[Docket No. B-329]

ARTHUR L. PETTY & LEMAR DENISON

ORDER OF DIRECTOR

This proceeding was instituted by the Bituminous Coal Division pursuant to sections 5 (b), 6 (a) and other pertinent provisions of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 to investigate and determine whether Arthur L. Petty and LeMar Denison, individually and as copartners, code member producer, operating the Browning Mine, Mine Index No. 125, in Emery County, Utah, in District 20, had wilfully violated the provisions of the Act, the Bituminous Coal Code, and the rules and regulations thereunder, including Order of the Director No. 312, dated February 24, 1941. Appropriate relief was prayed.

Pursuant to appropriate orders, and after due notice to interested persons, a public hearing in this matter was held on November 6, 1942, before Charles O. Fowler, a duly designated examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof in Price, Carbon County, Utah. All interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses and otherwise be heard. Both members of code member partnership appeared personally, and an appearance was entered by a representative of the Office of the General Counsel.

No report has been filed by said trial examiner.

In view of the fact that the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, as amended, will expire at 12:01 a. m. August 24, 1943 (except as provided in section 19 thereof), any order which might be issued required code member to cease and desist from further violations of the Act and Code or any order revoking code membership will become inoperative after that date. Proceedings not finally decided at that time will become moot.

Accordingly, it appears that it is unnecessary that a report of the trial examiner be filed as it would seem inadvisable to determine the issues on the merits. The proceeding should be dismissed.

It is so ordered.

Dated: August 10, 1943.

BLAKE MINING COMPANY

REPORT OF EXAMINER

In the matter of Jasper Blake, Wendell Blake, and George Blake, individually and as copartners, doing business under the name and style of Blake Mining Company.

This proceeding was instituted upon a complaint duly filed October 15, 1942, with the Bituminous Coal Division, pursuant to sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, by the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 4, against code members, alleging that they violated certain provisions of the Act, the Code, and orders of the Division, and praying for appropriate relief.

Pursuant to appropriate orders of the Director and after due notice to interested persons, a hearing was held before the undersigned W. A. Cuff, a duly designated examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof in Coshocton, Ohio, on January 22, 1943. All interested parties were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses and otherwise be heard. District Board 4 and code members appeared.

In view of the fact that the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, as amended, will expire at 12:01 a. m. August 24, 1943 (except as provided in section 19 thereof), no order revoking code membership or requiring code member to cease and desist from further violations will have any operative effect after that date. Any report which I might make in the proceeding could be acted upon only after the parties have been afforded an opportunity to file exceptions and after the Director has had an opportunity to consider the entire record. Interested parties might also petition for rehearing or reconsideration of the Director's Order. EAST KENTUCKY COAL SALES, INC.

ORDER OF THE DIRECTOR

This proceeding was instituted by the Bituminous Coal Division pursuant to the provisions of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 in order to investigate and determine whether or not the East Kentucky Coal Sales, Inc. (hereinafter called East Kentucky), a registered distributor (Registration No. 2612), whose address is 2408 Union Central Building, Cincinnati, Ohio, has violated certain provisions of the rules and regulations for the registration of distributors promulgated pursuant to section 4 II (h) of the Act, and whether or not its registration as a distributor should be revoked or suspended or other appropriate penalties imposed.

Personal service of the order was made on East Kentucky on March 16, 1942. An answer was filed on March 21, 1942. On April 10, 1942, District Board 8 filed a notice of desire to be heard.

Pursuant to a notice of and order for hearing dated March 11, 1942, and an amended Notice dated March 28, 1942, a hearing in this matter was held before Edward J. Hayes, a duly designated examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof, in Cincinnati, Ohio, on April 15–18, 1942. All interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses, and otherwise be heard. East Kentucky appeared and actively participated in the hearing. No report has been filed by the Trial Examiner.

In view of the fact that the Bituminous Coal Act, as amended, will expire at 12:01 a. m. It is so ordered.

This proceeding was instituted by a notice of and order for hearing filed pursuant to § 304.14 (now 317.14) of the rules and regulations for the registration of distributors, to determine whether respondent, Burkhardt Consolidated Company, a registered distributor (Registration No. 1265) of Akron, Ohio, has violated any provisions of the Act, the Code and orders of the Division, including the marketing rules and regulations, the rules and regulations for the registration of distributors, and its distributor agreement, dated July 18, 1940, and filed with the Division.

Pursuant to an Order of the Director dated November 23, 1942, and after due notice to interested parties, a hearing in this matter was held on January 12, 1943, before the undersigned W. A. Interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses, and otherwise be heard. In the matter of Tony Vento, an individual doing business under the name and style of Vento Coal Company, code member, District No. 17.

On March 5, 1943, after Notice and Hearing, Charles O. Fowler, a duly designated Examiner of the Division submitted a report in which he found that code member wilfully violated sections 4 II (e), (g) and (i) 8 of the Act, the corresponding sections of the Code and the rules and regulations thereunder and recommended that his code membership be revoked and that the tax to be paid by him as a condition precedent to restoration of code membership is $1,624.43.

JOHN FODERARO

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER DISMISSING PROCEEDING

In the matter of John Foderaro, Code Member, District 17.

On April 29, 1943, after notice and hearing, Charles O. Fowler, a duly designated Examiner of the Division submitted a report in which he found that code member wilfully violated the Act, the Code and Orders of the Division by selling coal below the effective minimum prices and by failing and refusing to file reports of sales of coal with the Statistical Bureau for District 17. The Examiner recommended that code membership of code member be revoked and that the tax to be paid by him as a condition precedent to restoration of code membership is $909.77.

Opportunity was afforded to all parties to file exceptions to the Examiner's report. No exceptions have been filed.

HOMER MICHAEL

ORDER OF DIRECTOR

In the matter of Homer Michael, code member, District No. 1.

This proceeding was instituted upon a complaint duly filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on December 22, 1942, pursuant to sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 by the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 1 against Homer Michael, code member, operating the Michael Mine (Mine Index No. 1763) located in Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, in Subdistrict 18 of District 1. The complaint alleged that code member had wilfully violated sections 4 II (e) and (g) of the Act and the corresponding sections of the Code, Orders of the Division Nos. 296, dated September 23, 1940 and 308 dated January 14, 1941, and prayed that appropriate relief be granted.

Pursuant to appropriate orders of the Director dated February 6, 1943 and March 5, 1943, and after notice to interested persons, a hearing in this matter was held on March 18, 1943 before Edward J. Hayes, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof in Altoona, Pennsylvania. Interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses, and otherwise be heard. District Board 1, a representative of the General Counsel of the Division, and code member appeared. No report has been filed by the Trial Examiner.

In view of the fact that the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, as amended, will expire at 12:01 a. m. August 24, 1943 (except as provided in section 19 thereof), any order which might be issued revoking code membership or requiring code member to cease and desist from further violations will become inoperative after that date. Proceedings not finally decided at that time will become moot. Accordingly, as it seems inadvisable to determine the issues on the merits, the proceeding should be dismissed forthwith.

It is so ordered.

[Docket Nos. 2-FD, et al.]

ALABAMA COALS, INC., ET AL.

ORDER OF DIRECTOR

In the matter of applications for provisional approval as marketing agencies. Dockets Nos. 2-FD, 3-FD, 4-FD, 5-FD, 7-FD, 52-FD, 361-FD, 362-FD, 497-FD, 498-FD, 504-FD, 603-FD, 619-FD, 662-FD, 821-FD, 896-FD, 1508-FD, 85-ID, and 86-ID.

Upon applications made in proceedings which are continuing in nature, appropriate orders have been issued by the National Bituminous Coal Commission or its successor, the Bituminous Coal Division, pursuant to the provisions of section 12 of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, as amended, granting the following applicants provisional approval as marketing agencies: [1]

[1] The orders issued in the 10 dockets first mentioned were issued by the Commission and those in the remaining four dockets by the Division.

Docket No. and Name:	Date of orders
2-FD, Alabama Coals, Inc.	September 22, 1937
3-FD, Appalachian Coals, Inc.	September 22, 1937
4-FD, Smokeless Coal Corporation	September 22, 1937
361-FD, Middle States Fuels, Inc.	October 17, 1938
362-FD, Southern Illinois Coals, Inc.	November 29, 1938
497-FD, Fairmont Coals, Inc.	January 5, 1939
498-FD, Western Pennsylvania Coal Corporation	December 21, 1938
504-FD, Kentucky Coal Agency, Inc.	November 29, 1938
603-FD, Arkansas-Oklahoma Smokeless Coals, Inc.	May 1, 1939
619-FD, Southwest Coal Company	June 28, 1939
662-FD, Upper Buchanan Smokeless Coals, Inc.	September 20, 1939
821-FD, Belleville Fuels, Inc.	January 9, 1940
896-FD, Brazil Block Fuels, Inc.	June 10, 1940
1508-FD, Indiana Coals Corporation	May 27, 1941

Subsequent orders have modified some of these original orders in certain respects. In addition, there is now pending, on orders to show cause issued by the Division, in all of the dockets hereinbefore mentioned except Docket No. 1508-FD, the matter of the further modification and amendment of the orders granting the applicants involved provisional approval as marketing agencies by incorporating therein various proposed provisions. In Dockets Nos. 504-FD and 603-FD, respectively, there are also pending petitions of Kentucky Coal Agency, Inc., and Arkansas-Oklahoma Coals, Inc., respectively, for provisional approval of modifications of their marketing agency contracts. In Dockets Nos. 662-FD and 821-FD, respectively, there is pending the question of renewal of the orders granting provisional approval as marketing agencies to Upper Buchanan Smokeless Coals, Inc., and Belleville Fuels, Inc., respectively. After separate notices and hearings in these several matters, the various Examiners issued their Reports in all dockets except Docket No. 603-FD, in which the right to have a Report of the Examiner prepared and submitted was waived by interested parties. The Reports of the Examiners, except in Docket No. 497-FD, recommended that the orders granting the applicants provisional approval as marketing agencies be modified to incorporate various provisions concerning, inter alia, commissions, discounts, prices, contracts, membership, and filing of reports. Exceptions were filed by the Bituminous Coal Consumers' Counsel to each of these Reports except that in Docket No. 497-FD, and, by the respective applicants, to the Reports of the Examiners in the respective dockets except that in Docket No. 504-FD. At the requests of the respective applicants, oral arguments before the Director were held in Dockets Nos. 3-FD, 4-FD, 361-FD, 362-FD, 497-FD, 619-FD, 821-FD and 896 FD. In Docket No. 497-FD, the Examiner recommended that, in view of the fact that the applicant had never functioned as a marketing agency and that there was little likelihood that it would do so in the near future, the order granting Fairmont Coals, Inc., provisional approval as a marketing agency should be modified to provide that the applicant should not commence operations until it should first notify the Division of its intentions to do so and obtain permission from the Division.

In Docket No. 1508-FD an order has been issued by the Director suspending the operation of certain conditions of the order of provisional approval, as amended, until further order of the Director. Therefore, the matters in all of the dockets aforementioned, except Docket No. 1508-FD, are now pending before the Director.

The Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, as amended, will terminate at 12:01 a. m. on August 24, 1943 (except as provided in section 19 thereof). Determination of all of the pending proceedings involving marketing agencies could not be made before the Act expires. It would be inappropriate to issue final orders affecting some agencies while leaving the status of other agencies unaffected. Moreover, the provisions of section 12 of the Act will become inoperative with the Act's expiration, so that it would be futile to continue provisional approval of any marketing agency after that date. To avoid any confusion as to the status of such agencies upon the expiration of the Act, I believe it is advisable to revoke all orders which heretofore granted provisional approval to the agencies, and to dismiss all of the above enumerated proceedings effective 12:01 a. m. on August 24, 1943.

In addition to the proceedings considered hereinbefore, applications for provisional approval have likewise been filed in the following proceedings:

Docket No. and Name:
- 5-FD, J. H. Weaver & Company.
- 7-FD, Iowa Coals, Inc.
- 52-FD, Empire Coal Company.
- 85-ID, Operators Coal Mining Company.
- 86-ID, Bluefield Coal and Coke Company.

In the three dockets first named, after notices, separate hearings were held before three Examiners, one of whom, Charles O. Fowler, was authorized to submit a report in each of the dockets. No report has been filed by this Examiner. The undersigned has given consideration to the records made at the hearings in these dockets. In view of the expiration of the Act on August 24, 1943, any order which might be issued in these proceedings would become inoperative after that date. Proceedings not finally disposed of at that time will become moot. Accordingly, it appears to the undersigned, after a consideration of the record, that it is unnecessary for reports to be filed by the Examiner or for orders to be issued by the Director in these proceedings since it seems inadvisable to determine the issues on the merits. For these reasons, these three proceedings should be dismissed.

After applications were filed with the Commission in Dockets Nos. 85-ID and 86-ID, the applicants were advised that these applications failed to conform to the Rules of Practice and Procedure and Order No. 6. Operators Coal Mining Company also was advised that if, as investigation indicated, the applicant was sales distributor for only one producer, there was not a "combination" within the terms of section 12 of the Act. The applicants were requested promptly to communicate their decisions as to whether they would pursue thé matters further. Although considerable time has elapsed since then, no replies have been received. These applications should be dismissed.

It is therefore ordered, That, effective midnight August 23, 1943, the orders granting provisional approval to applicants as marketing agencies in Dockets Nos. 2–FD, 3–FD, 4–FD, 361–FD, 362–FD, 497–FD, 498–FD, 504–FD, 603–FD, 619–FD, 662–FD, 821–FD, 896–FD and 1508–FD are revoked, and the proceedings in these dockets are dismissed.

It is further ordered, That, effective midnight August 23, 1943, the applications for provisional approval as marketing agencies in Dockets Nos. 5–FD, 7–FD, 52–FD, 85–ID and 86–ID are dismissed.

Dated: August 11, 1943.

CONTINENTAL COAL COMPANY

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER OF DIRECTOR

In the matter of the application of Continental Coal Company for permission to receive and retain sales agents' commissions and distributors' discounts on coal sold to certain retail yards in which it is financially or otherwise interested.

On June 29, 1943, after notice and hearing, Joseph A. Huston, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, submitted a Report in which he found that the acceptance or retention of sales agents' commissions or distributors' discounts by Continental Coal Company, a registered distributor (Registration No. 1812) and sales agent, petitioner herein, on coal sold or purchased for resale to Kellogg Lumber Company or Colonial Fuel Company, is not prohibited by Rule 10 of section II of the Marketing Rules and Regulations, section 317.19 (c) (formerly 304.19 (c)) of the Rules and Regulations for the Registration of Distributors, or by the provisions of the Act or other rules and regulations thereunder. The Examiner recommended that an order be entered granting the relief requested in the petition herein.

An opportunity to file exceptions to the Report of the Examiner was afforded all interested parties, and as of the date hereof, no such exceptions have been filed.

I have considered the entire record in this proceeding and the Examiner's Report and upon the basis thereof I find that the Report adequately and accurately reflects the facts as disclosed by the record. Accordingly, I have concluded that the findings and conclusions therein contained should be approved and adopted as the findings of fact and conclusions of law of the Director.

Upon the basis of the entire record in this proceeding, and pursuant to Rule 10 of section II of the Marketing Rules and Regulations, section 317.19 (c) of the Rules and Regulations for the Registration of Distributors and applicable provisions of the Act,

It is hereby ordered, That the proposed findings of fact and the proposed conclusions of law of the Examiner are approved and adopted as the findings of fact and conclusions of law of the Director; and

It is further ordered, That the relief prayed for in the petition herein be, and the same hereby is, granted in all respects.

Dated: August 10, 1943.

[Docket No. 600–FD]

UNION RAILROAD COMPANY

ORDER OF DIRECTOR

In the matter of the application of Union Railroad Company, for determination of status under section 4 II (1) of the Act.

This proceeding was instituted upon an application of Union Railroad Company (Union), for exemption of certain coal in Patton Township, Allegheny County, Pennsylvania, from the provisions of section 4 of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, pursuant to section 4 II (1) thereof, as being consumed by the producer.

Union, lessee of the coal lands, engaged Tri-Boro Supply Company (Tri-Boro), an independent contractor, to mine the coal for the exclusive use of Union for locomotive fuel. After notice and hearing before Examiner Travis Williams, the Examiner issued his report in which he recommended that the application be dismissed. This recommendation was based on his finding that Tri-Boro—not Union—was the producer of the coal and that Tri-Boro disposed of the coal to Union.

Union filed exceptions to the Report of the Examiner and requested oral argument thereon before me. However, the Bituminous Coal Act (except as provided in section 19 thereof) will cease to be in effect at 12:01 a. m., August 24, 1943. Therefore, in view of the approaching elapse of the statute, it is hardly feasible to schedule oral argument. Before this could be done, the filing of appropriate briefs permitted, and the issues raised finally determined, the Act would no longer be in effect. For these reasons, I find it advisable to dismiss the application, effective 12:01 a. m., August 24, 1943.

It is so ordered.

Dated: August 10, 1943.

[Docket No. 1504–FD]

CENTRAL COOPERATED WHOLESALE

ORDER DISMISSING PROCEEDING

In the matter of the application of the Central Cooperative Wholesale to be designated as a registered distributor.

This proceeding was instituted upon an application and a supplemental application filed with the Bituminous Coal Division by Central Cooperative Wholesale, pursuant to the order of the Division in General Docket No. 12 and the provisions of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, requesting registration as a distributor. Notices of appearance were thereafter filed by District Board 1, Consumers' Counsel Division (now the Bituminous Coal Consumers' Counsel), and the American Coal Distributors Association.

Pursuant to appropriate orders, and after due notice to interested persons, a hearing in this matter was held before W. A. Shipman, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, on January 8 and 28, and March 3 and 22, 1941. On January 8, 1941, the applicant, Consumers' Counsel Division, the American Coal Distributors Association and representatives of the Office of the General Counsel appeared. All interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses and otherwise be heard.

On March 3, 1941 counsel for the applicant requested that the hearing herein be continued pending disposition by the Division of the application of Midland Cooperative Wholesale, Docket No. 1501–FD.

The record discloses that no hearing has been held in this matter and that no further action has been taken in connection therewith.

In view of the determination of the Director in Docket No. 1501–FD [1] and in view also of the expiration of the Bituminous Coal Act on August 24, 1943 at 12:01 a. m., it is deemed appropriate that the proceeding herein be dismissed.

It is therefore ordered, That effective August 24, 1943 at 12:01 a. m., the proceeding herein for the registration of the Central Cooperative Wholesale as a distributor, be and the same hereby is dismissed.

Dated: August 10, 1943.

UNITED GAS PIPE LINE COMPANY

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

AUGUST 9, 1943.

On July 19, 1943, United Gas Pipe Line Company filed with the Federal Power Commission an application seeking authority under section 7 (b) of the Natural Gas Act to remove approximately 8 miles of 12-inch pipe line extending in a southwesterly direction from what is known as the Waskom Area, located in Harrison County, Texas, and Caddo Parish, Louisiana, to United's Latex compressor station. The application states that there are now five lines which traverse the same general route as that of the facilities to be removed; that the line to be removed is no longer useful in transporting gas from the Waskom Area because of the decline in gas available from that source; and that the proposed removal of facilities will not affect service now rendered or which will be required to be rendered in the future. It is further stated that United has need in other parts of its system for the facilities sought to be removed.

Any person desiring to be heard with respect to this matter or to protest thereto should communicate with the Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue, Washington, D. C., on or before August 25, 1943.

UNITED GAS PIPE LINE COMPANY

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

AUGUST 9, 1943.

On July 19, 1943, United Gas Pipe Line Company, a Delaware Corporation having its principal place of business at Shreveport, Louisiana, filed with the Federal Power Commission an application seeking authority under section 7 (b) of the Natural Gas Act, to remove approximately 30.6 miles of 18-inch pipe line, extending in a southerly direction from an interconnection with the pipe line of Southern Natural Gas Company at a point near the town of Benton, Mississippi, to a point near Tougoloo College, Madison County, Mississippi. The line proposed to be removed forms the northern part of United Gas Pipe Line Company's transmission line, extending from Benton, Mississippi, to Mobile, Alabama. The applicant states that it has need in other parts of its system for the facilities to be removed.

The applicant states that there are contracts in effect between it and Southern Natural Gas Company for the sale of gas by the respective parties to one another through the facilities proposed to be removed. Applicant believes that it is extremely doubtful if Southern Natural Gas company will ever, in the future, require deliveries of gas through the facilities proposed to be removed as the latter is said to have an ample supply of gas available from other sources. It is further stated that applicant will not require deliveries of gas in the future through the interconnection with Southern Natural Gas Company's lines, except for sale to Mississippi Power and Light Company for resale in the town of Benton, as it has ample supplies of natural gas available for its Jackson district through its Monroe-Jackson-Mobile line. and its Lirette-Mobile line.

If the removal of the facilities is permitted, applicant proposes to furnish service to Benton by the construction of approximately 2,295 feet of 2-inch line from the point of the present interconnection with Southern Natural Gas Company's line to the existing 2-inch tap line serving Benton, and by the purchase of the gas requirements of Benton from Southern Natural Gas Company.

In the event that the Commission denies authorization for the removal of the facilities, applicant requests that the Commission determine a reasonable price to be paid applicant for gas sold to Southern Natural Gas Company, and, in addition, to provide for annual payments to be made by the latter to applicant to provide a reasonable return on the investment on the properties proposed to be removed.

Anyone desiring to be heard with respect to this application or to protest thereto shall communicate with the Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue, Washington (25), D. C., on or before August 25, 1943.

[Docket No. FDC-7-D-1]

PROPOSED ORDER

It is proposed that, by virtue of the authority vested in the Federal Security Administrator by provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (secs. 401, 701; 52 Stat. 1046, 1055; 21 U. S. C. 341, 371, 1940 ed.); the Reorganization Act of 1939 (53 Stat. 561 ff.; 5 U.S.C. 133-133v (Supp. V, 1939)); and Reorganization Plans No. I (53 Stat. 1423) and No. IV (54 Stat. 1234); and upon the basis of evidence of record herein, the following order be made:

FINDINGS OF FACT [1]

1. When sugar in condensed milk products is replaced in whole or in any substantial part with the solids of medium or high conversion corn sirup (see finding 9) the products when first prepared have physical properties similar to those of sweetened condensed milk prepared with sugar alone. However, unless the products are stored at relatively low temperatures (less than 50° F.) they soon become noticeably thicker; this is followed by gradual darkening and further thickening, so that in a few months they are unmarketable. When held below 50° F. these products remain usable after several months storage. Although some thickening and discoloration occurs when sweetened condensed milk prepared with sugar alone is held under ordinary temperatures over long periods of time, such deterioration is much less rapid than when corn sirup is used to replace sugar in whole or in any substantial part. In general, when corn sirup is so used to replace sugar, the rate and extent of deterioration are directly proportional to the degree of replacement of sugar by corn sirup. (R. pp. 30-31, 34-35, 61, 74-78, 99, 109-111, 182, 232, 233-240. 252-260, 289, 481-494, 505-522; O. P. Ex. 7; Govt. Ex. 3)

2. There is no evidence that corn sirup was used in preparing any kind of condensed milk product or condensed skim milk product prior to about February 1939. About March 1939, experiments were begun under a university fellowship established by a manufacturer of corn sirup, to determine whether corn sirup could be used to replace sugar, wholly or in part, in sweetened condensed skim milk. In these experiments high conversion corn sirup (see finding 9) was used, and batches were run with replacement of sugar by 25, 50, 75, and 100 percent corn sirup solids. Most of the work was done with skim milk, but one experimental batch was made with milk. In 1941 and 1942, under another university fellowship established by a different corn sirup manufacturer, small scale experiments, mostly with skim milk, were made, in which about one-third and one-half of the sugar was replaced with medium conversion corn sirup. In 1942 and 1943, somewhat similar experiments were made in the laboratories of the Bureau of Dairy Industry of the United States Department of Agriculture, with milk and various combinations of medium and high conversion corn sirups or dried corn sirups with sugar. All these experiments gave substantially the same results as those described in finding 1. (R. pp. 30-31, 34-35, 61, 74-78, 99, 100-111, 182, 232, 233-240, 252-260, 289, 481-494, 505-522; O. P. Ex. 7; Govt Ex. 3)

3. The results of replacing sugar wholly or partly with corn sirup when milk is used are substantially the same as when skim milk is used. (R. pp. 37-38, 245, 481-494, 505-522)

4. Following publicity given to the results of the first experiments referred to in finding 2, a few manufacturers of milk products began to prepare and sell small amounts of sweetened condensed skim milk in which corn sirups in varying proportions are used along with sugar. These products are purchased by candy makers, bakers, and ice cream manufacturers, who are usually informed of the composition, generally by a statement of the percent by weight of sugar and corn sirup solids in the finished products. When proper allowances are made by the purchaser for the different quantities and characteristics of the sweetening ingredients, these products are acceptable. Occasionally small amounts of condensed products are made from corn sirup, sugar, and milk or a partially skimmed milk, the fat content of which approaches that of low-fat milk. These products, in general, show the same characteristic differences from those sweetened with sugar alone as are shown by the corresponding skim milk products. (R. pp. 37-38, 94-95, 192-196, 303-304. 328, 330, 365-366, 376-378; Govt. Ex. 6)

5. Although experience with the use of corn sirup in condensed milk products has been quite limited, the evidence shows that products suitable for use as ingredients in the manufacture of certain other foods can be made by condensing milk with corn sirup or a mixture of sugar and corn sirup. However, such products, because of their relatively rapid deterioration when unrefrigerated, cannot be satisfactorily marketed for household use, since the usual method of retail distribution of sweetened condensed milk does not involve refrigeration. Sweetened condensed milk for household use has always been prepared with sugar alone. (R. pp. 31, 39-41, 64-65, 195-196, 236, 250, 304, 328, 357, 522-524, 543-545; Govt. Ex. 3)

6. The cost of corn sirup, on the basis of its solids content, and of dried corn sirup, is less than that of sugar, and condensed milk prepared with corn sirup or dried corn sirup can be produced at a cost less than that of sweetened condensed milk, the difference depending on the extent of replacement of sugar. Differing percentages of corn sirup solids and of sugar in condensed milks also result in differing properties and characteristics in such condensed milks and necessitate allowances or adjustments in the formulas of the foods in which such condensed milks are used as ingredients. (R. pp. 69, 229, 338-339, 360-361, 388, 524-526; O. P. Ex. 7, 8; Govt. Ex. 3, 7, 10, 11, 12)

7. The only users of condensed milks containing corn sirup solids so far known are manufacturers of candy, ice cream, and bakery products. Most such articles are prepared in accordance with formulas specifying the quantities of corn sirup solids and sugar to be used. Changes in these quantities cause differences in the properties and characteristics of the finished foods. In order to use in such foods condensed milks containing corn sirup solids and sugar without risk of changing such finished products it is necessary for the users to know the quantities of corn sirup solids and sugar in the condensed milk. Label declaration of the percentages by weight of corn sirup solids and of sugar in such condensed milks furnishes this necessary information. (R. pp. 35, 66, 169, 199-200, 283, 310, 328, 336, 345, 367, 374, 381-385, 387-388, 460-462, 550-554; O. P. Ex. 8; Govt. Ex. 7, 9, 12, 13, 14, 15)

8. Condensed milks in which all or part of the sugar has been replaced with corn sirup solids have not acquired common or usual names. Designations for such products which are accurate and informative and which will differentiate them from sweetened condensed milk and from each other are "corn sirup condensed milk", when corn sirup or dried corn sirup is used alone; and when mixtures of corn sirup or dried corn sirup and sugar are used, such names as "10% corn sirup solids 30% sugar condensed milk", "21% corn sirup solids 21% sugar condensed milk", the percentages stated being the whole numbers nearest the actual percentages. (R. pp. 378, 462-463, 467-468, 478, 551-552, 554-555; O. P. Ex. 1, 8; Govt. Ex. 6, 7, 8, 12, 13)

9. All corn sirups are clarified and concentrated aqueous solutions of the products obtained by the incomplete hydrolysis of cornstarch. Corn sirups are sometimes dried and used in the dried state. At first only the high conversion corn sirup was used in condensed skim milk products but more recent experiments with medium conversion corn sirup show that it is also suitable for such use. No experiments have been made with low conversion corn sirup, and trade opinion indicates that it is unsuitable for such use. The differences between the low, medium, and high conversion sirups are due to differences in the quantity of certain saccharine substances in comparison with the quantity of dextrins. In common commercial practice the degree of conversion is expressed as the percent by weight (in the dry matter) of reducing sugars, calculated as anhydrous dextrose. Corn sirups and dried corn sirup showing on this basis not less than 40 percent reducing sugars, which is about the lower limit for medium conversion corn sirup, are suitable for use in condensed milks. (R. pp. 30, 120, 242, 393-406, 420-440; O. P. Ex. 7; Govt. Ex. 3)

[1] The page references to certain relevant portions of the record are for the convenience of the reader; however, the findings of fact are not based solely on that portion of the record to which reference is made but on consideration of all the evidence of record.

On the basis of the foregoing findings of fact it is concluded that:

(1) It would not promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers to provide for the use of corn sirup as an ingredient of sweetened condensed milk.

(2) The following regulation fixing and establishing definitions and standards of identity for condensed milks with corn sirup will promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers:

§ 18.535 Condensed milks with corn sirup; identity. (a) Condensed milks with corn sirup are the foods each of which conforms to the definition and standard of identity prescribed for sweetened condensed milk by § 18.530 except that corn sirup or a mixture of corn sirup and sugar is used instead of sugar or a mixture of sugar and dextrose. For the purposes of this section the term "corn sirup" means a clarified and concentrated aqueous solution of the products obtained by the incomplete hydrolysis of cornstarch, and includes dried corn sirup; the solids of such corn sirup contain not less than 40 percent by weight of reducing sugars, calculated as anhydrous dextrose.

(b) The name of each such food is:

(1) "Corn sirup condensed milk," if corn sirup alone is used; or

(2) "_____% Corn sirup solids _____% sugar condensed milk," if a mixture of corn sirup and sugar is used, the blanks being filled in with the whole numbers nearest the actual percentages of corn sirup solids and sugar in such food.

OFFICE OF PRICE ADMINISTRATION

GRANTING EXCEPTION TO PETITIONERS

Order No. 13 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 127—Finished Piece Goods.

Separate petitions listed in paragraph (f) of this Order No. 13 were filed pursuant to § 1400.82 (i) (3) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 127. Inasmuch as the petitions listed therein were filed pursuant to the same provision and request the same type of relief, the Price Administrator deems it appropriate to consolidate the said petitions for the purpose of their determination.

Consideration has been given to the petitions and an opinion in support of this Order No. 13 has been issued and filed with the Division of the Federal Register. For the reasons set forth in the opinion, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Orders Nos. 9250 and 9328, and in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, issued by the Office of Price Administration, It is hereby ordered:

(a) Each of the Petitioners named in paragraph (f), below, is granted an exception from the provisions of § 1400.82 (i) (2) (v) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 127 and may insofar as it purchases finished piece goods and acts as a jobber thereof, charge a markup on such jobbing sales not in excess of that provided for wholesalers and jobbers under § 1400.82 (i) (1) of the said regulation.

(b) The permission granted to the Petitioners is subject to the following conditions:

(1) During the periods between July 1, 1942 and November 30, 1943, December 1, 1943 and June 30, 1944, and each 12 month period thereafter beginning July 1, 1944, the proportion of goods sold at a markup above cost by each of such Petitioners as a jobber, to its total sales of finished piece goods subject to Maximum Price Regulation No. 127 shall not exceed the percentage directly opposite the name of the Petitioner as listed in paragraph (f) below: Provided, That if any Petitioner acts as a convertor-jobber for less than any of the periods stated above, the proportion of such jobbing sales to its total sales of finished piece goods, from the beginning of any one period to the time when it ceases to act as a converter-jobber shall not exceed the applicable percentage appearing in paragraph (f).

(2) In the event that at the expiration of any period designated in subparagraph (1) a petitioner has exceeded the percentage of jobbing permitted in paragraph (f), the excess sales upon which a jobber's markup was charged by such petitioner shall be determined in the following manner: (i) Multiply the total dollar volume of sales of finished piece goods during the period by the percentage appearing opposite the petitioner's name in paragraph (f); (ii) Subtract the amount determined pursuant to (i) from the total dollar volume of finished piece goods sold by the petitioner as a jobber; (iii) Those sales of finished piece goods sold by the petitioner as a jobber or any portion of such sales which were last made during that period and which are equal to the difference obtained pursuant to (ii) shall be excess sales in violation of this Order No. 13.

(3) For the purpose of this Order No. 13, sales of jobbed goods by a petitioner at a price not in excess of the established maximum price which a converter of such goods is permitted to charge shall not be considered a sale by such petitioner as a jobber nor shall such sales be included in determining the volume of finished piece goods sold by a converter-jobber.

(4) The restrictions imposed by § 1400.82 (i) (2) (ii) and (i) (2) (iv) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 127 are specifically made applicable to the jobbing sales made by each Petitioner under the permission granted by this Order No. 13.

(5) Said Petitioners may not charge such jobber's markup with respect to finished piece goods purchased from a person controlling, controlled by or under common control with such Petitioner.

(c) All prayers of the petitions not granted herein are denied.

(d) This Order No. 13 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(e) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in § 1400.81 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 127 shall apply to the terms used herein.

(f) The following Petitioners are granted an exception from § 1400.82 (i) (2) (v) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 127 subject to the provisions contained herein:

[Region VI Order G–2 Under MPR 376]

CERTAIN FRESH VEGETABLES IN REGION VI

Order No. G–2 under Maximum Price Regulation 376—Certain Fresh Fruits and Vegetables.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and under the authority vested in the Regional Administrator for Region VI of the Office of Price Administration by section 4 (c) of Maximum Price Regulation 376, it is hereby ordered that the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation 376 are hereby modified as follows:

(a) Maximum price for direct carlot receivers. The maximum prices for persons who receive commodities of the various grades and in the quantities listed in Appendix A (hereinafter referred to as "listed commodities") direct from country shippers shall be as follows:

(1) For carlot receivers and commission sellers receiving listed commodities in carload or truckload lots and selling such commodities without warehousing, the prices set forth in Appendix A.

(2) For carlot receivers and commission sellers receiving listed commodities in carload or truckload lots at points outside of the Chicago Metropolitan area from country shippers, warehousing such commodities, and selling in less than carload lots to wholesalers and chain store warehouses, the prices for the listed commodities set forth in Appendix A multiplied by 1.08.

(3) For carlot receivers and commission sellers receiving listed commodities in carload or truckload lots at points outside of the Chicago Metropolitan area from country shippers and selling to retailers other than chain store warehouses, the prices for the listed commodities set forth in Appendix A multiplied by 1.175.

(4) For carlot receivers and commission sellers receiving listed commodities in carload or truckload lots at points within the Chicago Metropolitan area from country shippers, warehousing such commodities, and selling them in less than carload lots from warehouses to wholesalers, retailers, chain store warehouses or any other purchaser, the prices for the listed commodities set forth in Appendix A multiplied by 1.08.

(b) Maximum prices for sales at wholesale. The maximum price for a sale of a listed commodity by a wholesaler shall be a price determined before making any sales on Wednesday of each week in whichever of the following ways is applicable:

(1) For retailer owned co-operative wholesaler or cash and carry wholesaler buying from an auction, carlot receiver or commission seller, multiply the "net cost" (as defined in section (d) (5)) by 1.08.

(2) For retailer owned co-operative wholesaler or cash and carry wholesaler buying from another wholesaler (other than an auction, carlot receiver, or commission seller), multiply the "net cost" to the other wholesaler of that lot by 1.17: Provided, That in no event shall the price so determined be more than 1.17 times the "net cost" of that lot to the first purchaser thereof from an auction, carlot receiver or commission seller.

(3) For a service wholesaler buying from an auction, carlot receiver or commission seller and selling to a retailer or to commercial, industrial, institutional or governmental users, multiply the "net cost" by 1.175. As used in this order the term "users" shall not include wholesalers.

(4) For a service wholesaler buying from another wholesaler (other than an auction, carlot receiver, or commission seller) and selling to a retailer or to commercial, industrial, institutional or governmental users, multiply the "net cost" to the other seller of that lot by 1.27: Provided, That in no event shall the price so determined be more than 1.27 times the "net cost" of that lot to the first purchaser thereof from an auction, broker, carlot receiver, or commission seller.

To the price as above computed a wholesaler may add the amount of freight, if any, paid by him, and if buying from another wholesaler, the freight, if any, paid by such other wholesaler.

(c) Invoice information. Any seller shall state on his invoice the net weight, quantity, and grade of any listed commodity sold. Any wholesaler selling to another wholesaler shall state on his invoice his own net cost and the amount of freight paid by him. No wholesaler shall buy from another wholesaler any listed commodity until he has secured information as to his supplier's net cost and freight.

(d) Definitions. As used herein: (1) "A retailer owned co-operative" wholesaler shall mean a non-profit organization or co-operative of which 51% or more of the stock is owned by its retailer customers and which distributes listed commodities at wholesale.

(2) "A cash and carry wholesaler" shall mean a person other than a carlot receiver or commission seller who distributes listed commodities for resale, or to commercial, industrial, institutional, or governmental users and who did not prior to March 15, 1943, customarily deliver to purchasers.

(3) "A service wholesaler" shall mean a person, other than a carlot receiver, commission seller, or retailer owned co-operative, who distributes listed commodities for resale or to commercial, industrial, institutional, or governmental users and who prior to March 15, 1943 customarily delivered to such purchasers.

(4) "Freight" shall mean actual charges made by a common carrier or contract carrier (including icing or refrigeration) and transportation tax. In the event that a listed commodity is transported by other means, freight shall be computed at the lowest available common or contract carrier rate. Freight shall not include any express charges or charges for unloading or local trucking. Where purchases are made by the United States Government or any subdivision thereof at a delivered price, such delivered price may include an amount not to exceed 14¢ a cwt. to compensate shippers for risks during transit.

(5) "Net Cost" of each size and grade of each listed commodity shall be the price excluding freight paid by each wholesaler of the largest single lot of the particular size and grade of the commodity received during the seven-day period prior to each Wednesday: Provided, That in no case shall a wholesaler use a net cost higher than the maximum price, whether on a dollars and cents or formula basis, specified in Appendix A multiplied by 1.08. In the event that there shall be no "largest single lot" the wholesaler shall use the average price for the two or more largest lots received during such seven-day period. In the event that a seller shall have received no deliveries during the week prior to any Wednesday, his net cost shall be the net cost established during the previous seven-day period. In the event that no net cost can be arrived at by the foregoing methods, a seller's net cost shall be the price for the lot of the listed commodity being priced, but in no event higher than the maximum price specified in Appendix A multiplied by 1.08. Net cost shall be applied to the actual net weight or quantity purchased and not to the usable quantity contained in any lots, the intention being that losses through shrinkage and spoilage shall be absorbed out of the mark-ups provided and shall not affect the "net cost."

(6) "Formula price" means a price arrived at by multiplying the actual country shipping point price paid any country shipper by 1.035 and adding freight from country shipping point to point of sale; but in no event shall the shipping point price exceed the lawful maximum country shipping point price established by any regional order of the Office of Price Administration. The maximum dollars and cents country shipping point prices for various listed commodities established by certain regional offices are set forth in Appendix B—Maximum Country Shipping Point Prices. Where a country shipping point is located in a state for which no dollars and cents maximum country shipping point price has been established by a regional order, no country shipping point price may be used in computing a "formula price" higher than the lowest dollars and cents maximum country shipping point price for the listed commodity then in effect under any regional order. With respect to lettuce no country shipping point price higher than the lowest maximum country shipping point price listed in Appendix B may be used, irrespective of the location of the actual country shipping point from which shipment is made.

(7) "Warehouse" and "warehousing" refers to the storage of listed commodities in public or private warehouses, including wholesalers' stores. Storage in railroad cars is not "warehousing", and delivery direct from railroad cars in less than carload lots shall not entitle sellers to more than car-lot prices.

(8) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in Maximum Price Regulation 376 shall apply to any terms used herein not specifically defined.

(e) Repacked tomatoes: Any wholesaler who repacks tomatoes other than hot-house tomatoes, may add to his maximum price established hereunder 2½¢ per pound; and this amount, if not already included in net cost, may be added by any subsequent wholesaler buying repacked tomatoes from the repacker.

(f) Tying agreements: No seller shall as a condition of sale of any listed commodity impose upon any buyer the requirement that he purchase any other commodity.

(g) Geographical applicability: This order applies to all sales pursuant to which the buyer receives physical delivery within Illinois, Wisconsin, South Dakota, North Dakota, Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska and within the County of Lake, Indiana, including sales made f. o. b. shipping points outside of said states for delivery within said states. Where sales are made on such f. o. b. basis from shipping points outside the above named states the f. o. b. maximum price shall be the lower of the following amounts:

(1) The maximum price established for sales at such shipping point under any applicable regional order.

(2) Any maximum dollars and cents price established for a listed commodity in Appendix A of this order less freight from shipping point to point of destination.

(h) Relationship to other orders: Revised Regional Order 52 as amended, and Order No. G–1 under Maximum Price Regulation 376 are hereby revoked and replaced by this order. Except as herein specifically modified, the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation 376 shall remain in full force and effect.

(i) Effective date: This order shall become effective May 24, 1943 and shall remain in effect so long as Maximum Price Regulation 376 shall remain in effect or until revoked, amended, modified or superseded.

Issued this 21st day of May, 1943.

RAYMOND S. MCKEOUGH,
Regional Administrator.

NATIONAL POWER AND LIGHT CO. ET AL.

NOTICE OF FILING AND ORDER RECONVENING HEARING, CONSOLIDATING PROCEEDINGS AND BROADENING SCOPE OF ISSUES

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 11th day of August, A. D. 1943.

In the matter of National Power & Light Company, File No. 54-51; Carolina

Power & Light Company, National Power & Light Company, and Electric Bond and Share Company, File No. 59–67.

Notice of filing and order reconvening hearing and order consolidating proceedings and broadening scope of issues. (Application No. 4.)

The Commission, by order dated April 10, 1943, having instituted a proceeding under sections 11 (b) (2), 12 (c), 12 (f), 15 (f) and 20 (a) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, against Carolina Power & Light Company ("Carolina"), its corporate parent, National Power & Light Company ("National"), a registered holding company, and Electric Bond and Share Company, the corporate parent of National and also a registered holding company (File No. 59–67), and having consolidated said proceeding with a proceeding on an application (designated as "Application No. 3") and amendments thereto filed by National for authority to consummate certain transactions as further steps in compliance with an order of the Commission dated August 23, 1941, issued pursuant to the provisions of section 11 (b) (2) of the Act, directing the dissolution of National (File No. 54–51); and

Hearings having been held and concluded with respect to certain of the issues in said consolidated proceeding, and the Commission having made and issued its findings, opinion and orders with respect thereto, and the hearing as to the remaining issues in said consolidated proceeding having been continued subject to call of the Trial Examiner or the Commission;

Notice is hereby given that an application (designated as "Application No. 4") has been filed with the Commission by National pursuant to the provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 amending and expanding the proposals contained in said Application No. 3 and seeking authority to consummate certain transactions as further steps in compliance with said order of the Commission dated August 23, 1941, directing the dissolution of National, and that an answer has been filed by Carolina purporting to meet such of the issues raised in said consolidated proceeding as relate to Carolina. All interested persons are referred to said application and answer, which are filed in the office of the Commission, for a statement of the transactions proposed in said application and of the allegations contained in said answer, which are summarized as follows:

National states that it has developed a program to provide cash funds for the retirement of its outstanding $6 preferred stock consisting of 12,000 shares, without the use of proceeds from the sale of its holdings of $7 preferred stock of Carolina as was proposed in its Application No. 3 and, subject to and conditioned upon the approval by the Commission of such program, National proposes the following transactions as further steps to effectuate its dissolution and to meet the issues raised in said consolidated proceeding.

(a) National proposes to surrender to Carolina for cancellation, as a contribution to the capital of Carolina, its holdings of $7 preferred stock of Carolina consisting of 16,806 shares without par value; and, subject to all necessary approvals by stockholders and regulatory authorities, Carolina proposes to reduce its preferred stock capital in the amount of $1,680,600 and to create a capital reserve for adjustments of plant account in the same amount.

(b) Subject to the prior solution of relevant tax problems and all necessary approvals by stockholders and regulatory authorities, Carolina proposed to amend its charter to provide, in substance, that, if at the time of any annual meeting of stockholders for the election of directors dividends payable on the $7 preferred stock or $6 preferred stock shall be in default in an amount equivalent to four full quarter-yearly dividends on all such shares then outstanding, then at such annual meeting of stockholders, and at each annual meeting of stockholders held thereafter, the holders of all shares of the $7 preferred stock and $6 preferred stock, voting as a single class separately from the common stock, shall be entitled to elect the smallest number of directors necessary to constitute a majority of the then authorized number of directors, the remaining directors to be elected by the stockholders without distinction as to class. If and when all dividends then in default on the then outstanding shares of said $7 preferred stock and $6 preferred stock shall be paid or declared and set apart for payment, or there shall be accumulated earnings legally available for the payment in full of such dividends, then the preferred stock shall thereupon be divested of such special right with respect to the election of directors subject, however, to the same provisions for vesting such special voting rights in the $7 preferred stock and $6 preferred stock in case of further like default or defaults in dividends thereon.

(c) National proposes to surrender to Carolina for cancellation, as a contribution to the capital of Carolina, a specified number of shares (the number thereof to be supplied by amendment) of the common stock of Carolina owned by National in order to facilitate the distribution of the common stock of Carolina to the common stockholders of National.

(d) National proposes to transfer to Carolina without consideration its interests in Roanoke River Power Company (a wholly-owned subsidiary of National), consisting of 5 shares of capital stock with a par value of $100 per share and an Income Note dated November 30, 1936 due November 30, 1940, payable to the order of National in the principal amount of $1,575,500 and bearing interest before and after maturity if, as and when earned at the rate of 6% per annum. Carolina proposes to record such acquisition of securities in its investment account at the sum of $1,575,500 and to create a special reserve therefor in the same amount.

(e) Subject to the approval of the Commission, and upon consummation of the transactions hereinabove summarized, National, as a further step in its liquidation, proposes to distribute its holdings of common stock of Carolina pro rata to its own common stockholders.

It appearing appropriate to the Commission that the hearing should be reconvened in said consolidated proceeding with respect to certain of the issues remaining undetermined therein; and it further appearing to the Commission that the proceeding in respect of said Application No. 4 involves questions of law and fact common to the issues remaining undetermined in said consolidated proceeding, and that said proceeding should be joined and heard with the aforesaid consolidated proceeding; and it appearing appropriate to the Commission that the scope of the issues set forth in its Order dated April 10, 1943 should be broadened;

It is ordered, That the proceeding with respect to Application No. 4 filed by National for authority to consummate the transactions hereinabove summarized, be and the same hereby is, consolidated with the aforesaid consolidated proceeding.

It is further ordered, That the hearing in said consolidated proceeding shall be reconvened on August 18, 1943 at 10:30 a. m., e. w. t., at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in such room as may be designated on such date by the hearing room clerk.

It is further ordered, That William W. Swift or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the reconvened hearing. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of the Act and to a Trial Examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice.

It is further ordered, That any person desiring to be heard at said reconvened hearing or proposing to intervene herein shall file with the Secretary of the Commission on or before August 16, 1943 his request or application therefor as provided by Rule XVII of the Rules of Practice of the Commission.

It is further ordered, That the scope of the issues in said consolidated proceeding be broadened and that, in addition to the matters set forth in paragraphs 3 to 6, both inclusive, of ordering clause 5 of said Order dated April 10, 1943, as the matters to be considered at the reconvened hearing, there be added the following matters and questions:

(a) Whether the proposed surrender by National of said 16,806 shares of $7 preferred stock of Carolina, and the proposed acquisition and cancellation of said shares by Carolina are in conformity with the provisions of sections 12 (e) and 12 (f) of the Act and the Rules and Regulations promulgated thereunder.

(b) Whether the accounting entries in connection with the proposed transactions are in conformity with the standards of the Act and all Rules and Regulations promulgated thereunder.

(c) Whether the proposed transactions constitute steps in compliance with the Order of the Commission dated August 23, 1941, issued pursuant to section 11 (b) (2) of the Act directing the dissolution of National, and whether such transactions are fair and equitable to all classes of security holders affected thereby.

(d) Whether, upon consummation of the proposed transactions, it is appropriate in the public interest to rescind or modify any or all orders of the Commission prohibiting or restricting the declaration or payment by Carolina and the receipt by National of dividends on the common stock of Carolina.

(e) Whether, upon consummation of the proposed transactions, it is appropriate to terminate the proceeding instituted by said Order of the Commission dated April 10, 1943 against Carolina, National and Electric Bond and Share Company (File No. 59–67).

It is further ordered, That the Secretary of the Commission shall serve notice of the entry of this order by mailing a copy thereof by registered mail to Carolina Power & Light Company, National Power & Light Company and Electric Bond and Share Company and that notice shall be given to all other persons by publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Commission.

AMERICAN METAL MINING COMPANY

ORDER FOR HEARING AND DESIGNATING OFFICER TO TAKE TESTIMONY

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its offices in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 11th day of August, A. D. 1943.

In the matter of proceeding under section 19 (a) (2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, to determine whether the registration of American Metal Mining Company assessable common stock, par value 10¢, should be suspended or withdrawn.

I

It appearing to the Commission:

That American Metal Mining Company, a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Utah, is the issuer of Assessable Common Stock, 10¢ Par Value; and

That said American Metal Mining Company registered such security on the Salt Lake Stock Exchange, a national securities exchange, by filing with the Exchange and with the Commission on or about May 9, 1935 an application on Form 10, pursuant to section 12 (b) and (c) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Rule X-12B-1, as amended, promulgated by the Commission thereunder, registration pursuant to such application having become effective on July 16, 1935, and remaining in effect to and including the date hereof; and

That pursuant to section 13 (a) and (b) of said Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Rules X-13A-1, X-13A-2, and X-13A-6, promulgated by the Commission thereunder, said American Metal Mining Company filed on or about September 12, 1942 a current report on Form 8-K for the calendar month ended August 31, 1942 and on or about May 4, 1943 said Company filed an annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 1942, both being signed for said Company by Charles S. Woodward as president; and

The Commission having ressonable cause to believe:

That said American Metal Mining Company has failed to comply with the provisions of said section 13 (a) and (b), as amended, and Rules X-13A-1, X-13A-2, and X-13A-6, promulgated thereunder in that

(1) The current report filed by said Company on Form 8-K for the calendar month of August 1942 contains in Item 4 thereof false and misleading statements with respect to the sale of its stock between July 1, 1942 and September 5, 1942 to Index Mining Company and to F. O. Taylor, to wit: that "All sales were isolated transactions made to individuals and stockholders of record" and that "It is understood that such stock was bought as an investment, but whether any purchaser acquired the securities with a view to a subsequent distribution is not known"; that these statements were, at the time and in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, false and misleading with respect to material facts, in that:

(a) American Metal Mining Company knew that the sale of said stock to Index Mining Company was part of a plan to distribute the stock of American Metal Mining Company to the stockholders of Index Mining Company through the sale to American Metal Mining Company of the assets of Index Mining Company and the liquidation of the latter company, and that, in fact, such distribution has been made; and

(b) American Metal Mining Company knew that the sale of the stock to F. O. Taylor was made with a view to the distribution of said stock by him and that, in fact, C. S. Woodward, president of American Metal Mining Company, participated with F. O. Taylor in the distribution of said stock; and

(2) the annual report filed by said Company on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 1942 contains in Item 12 thereof false and misleading statements with respect to the sale of the securities referred to above, to wit: that "F. O. Taylor of Townsend, Delaware, a stockholder of record, who obtained an option on, and sold 300,000 shares of the treasury stock of the company, may be an underwriter within the meaning of the act, although the company does not consider him as such for the reason that the stock was bought outright, and paid for upon delivery. There were no underwriter's commissions paid, or involved"; and that the securities sold to F. O. Taylor were not registered under the Securities Act of 1933 for the reason that "the stock sold for cash was an isolated transaction"; and that the securities sold to the Index Mining Company were not registered under the Securities Act of 1933 for the reason that "the stock sold for a consideration of other than cash, consisted of 145,000 shares, given in exchange for Mining property"; that these statements were, at the time and in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, false and misleading with respect to material facts, in that:

(a) American Metal Mining Company knew that the sale of said stock to Index Mining Company was part of a plan to distribute the stock of American Metal Mining Company to the stockholders of Index Mining Company through the sale to American Metal Mining Company of the assets of Index Mining Company and the liquidation of the latter company, and that, in fact, such distribution has been made; and

(b) American Metal Mining Company knew that the sale of the stock to F. O. Taylor was made with a view to the distribution of said stock by him and that, in fact, C. S. Woodward, president of American Metal Mining Company, participated with F. O. Taylor in the distribution of said stock; and

That said American Metal Mining Company has failed to comply with the provisions of said section 13 (a) and (b), as amended, and Rules X-13A-1 and X-13A-2, promulgated thereunder in that said Company has failed to submit with the annual report filed by it on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 1942 financial statements certified by "an independent public or independent certified public accountant or accountants" as required by Item 8 thereof and by the instructions for the use of Form 10-K and the rules and regulations of the Commission supplementary thereto in that J. W. Orton, who certified, as independent public accountant, the financial statements contained in the annual report filed by it on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 1942, was not and is not independent within the meaning of the requirements of said Form 10-K and the instructions and rules and regulations of the Commission supplementary thereto because of the relationship between J. W. Orton and Louise M. Orton, the secretary and treasurer of American Metal Mining Company, i. e., that of husband and wife.

It being the opinion of the Commission that the hearing herein ordered to be held is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended:

It is ordered, Pursuant to section 19 (a) (2) of said Act, that a public hearing be held to determine whether American Metal Mining Company has failed to comply with section 13 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the Rules, Regulations and Forms promulgated by the Commission thereunder, in the respects set forth above; and if so, whether it is necessary or appropriate for the protection of investors to suspend for a period not exceeding twelve months or to withdraw the registration of the Assessable Common Stock, Par Value 10¢, of said American Metal Mining Company on said Salt Lake Stock Exchange;

It is further ordered, Pursuant to the provisions of section 21 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, that for the purpose of such hearing Willis E. Monty, an officer of the Commission, is hereby designated to administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take testimony and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law;

It is further ordered, That the taking of testimony in this hearing begin on the 23rd day of August, 1943, at 10:00 a. m. Eastern War Time, at the Office of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locusts Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and continue thereafter at such time and place as the officer hereinbefore designated may determine.

By the Commission.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY, NEW JERSEY

ORDER EXTENDING EFFECTIVE DATE OF ORDER DENYING EXEMPTION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 10th day of August, A. D. 1943.

In the matter of Standard Oil Company (Incorporated in New Jersey), File No. 31-130.

The Commission on February 5, 1942 having issued its Findings, Opinion and Order denying the application of Standard Oil Company (incorporated in New Jersey) pursuant to section 3 (a) (3) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, for an exemption from any provision or provisions of said Act, but having "in view of the peculiar problems present by reason of applicant's interests in its other business . . . and in view of applicant's expressed willingness to cooperate in the solution of the problems arising from its public utility business" suspended the operation of said order for a period of six months until August 4, 1942, which has by subsequent orders been extended from time to time to August 12, 1943; and

Standard Oil Company having caused Consolidated Natural Gas (1) to be organized and to file on July 31, 1942, pursuant to section 5 (a) of the Act, a notification of registration as a person purposing to become a holding company; and (2) to file applications and declarations regarding the proposed acquisition from Standard Oil Company of all the voting securities of certain natural gas utility companies, concerning which hearings have been held and the record substantially completed; and

Standard Oil Company having informed the Commission that it contemplates distributing, pro rata, among its stockholders all of the shares of Consolidated Natural Gas Company (excluding fractions) which it will receive in exchange for shares of its present subsidiaries to be acquired by Consolidated Natural Gas Company in the event such acquisition is approved; and

In that connection, Standard Oil having indicated its desire to register pursuant to section 5 of the Act and to file a plan pursuant to section 11 (e) of said Act, which plan "it is hoped may be combined with the said plan heretofore filed by Consolidated so that the two may be approved in a single order . . . and consummated as a combined plan . . . prior to January 1, 1944"; and

Standard Oil Company having requested that the effective date of the Commission's Order dated February 5, 1942 be further extended until February 1, 1944 as applied to its application pursuant to section 3 (a) (3) of the Act for exemption from all the provisions of the Act, other than sections 4, 5, and 11, and in that connection, having withdrawn any objections which it may have to the Commission's Findings and Opinion, as amended, and any order or orders entered thereon, insofar as is applicable to sections 4, 5, and 11 and having consented to said order being made immediately applicable to said sections 4, 5, and 11 but having reserved any right it may have to request a rehearing or seek judicial review of said Findings and Opinion, as amended, and any orders entered thereon, as applicable to all provisions of the Act other than sections 4, 5, and 11;

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the effective date of the Commission's Order of February 5, 1942 (as extended to August 12, 1943) denying the application of Standard Oil Company, pursuant to section 3 (a) (3) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, be, and hereby is, extended to February 1, 1944 as applied to all provisions of the Act, other than sections 4, 5, and 11 thereof: Provided, however, That this order is without prejudice to any and all rights which Standard Oil Company may have now to request a rehearing or seek judicial review of this Commission's Findings and Opinion, as amended, and of any order or orders entered thereon other than in respect of sections 4, 5, and 11 of the Act, and that neither this Order, nor the filing by Standard Oil Company of a notification of registration pursuant thereto shall be deemed to terminate as applied to sections of the Act other than sections 4, 5, and 11, the temporary exemption available to Standard upon the filing of said application for exemption as provided in section 3 (c) of the Act.

TITLE 30—MINERAL RESOURCES

[Docket No. A-1895]

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER

Memorandum opinion and order of the director in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 2, for increases in the minimum prices heretofore established for the coals produced by Grippo Coal Company at its Grippo Mine, Mine Index No. 851.

This proceeding was instituted upon a petition filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on March 4, 1943, by District Board 2, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, requesting increases in the minimum prices of the coals produced by the Grippo Mine (Mine Index No. 851) of the Grippo Coal Company, located in Center Township, Butler County, Pennsylvania, in District 2. On March 30, 1943, Bituminous Coal Consumers' Counsel filed a petition of intervention.

Pursuant to appropriate orders,[1] and after due notice to interested persons, a hearing in this matter was held on April 6, 1943, before Edward J. Hayes, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof in Washington, D. C. Interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses, and otherwise be heard. Petitioner, Consumers' Counsel, and the Office of the General Counsel of the Division appeared by representatives. All parties waived the filing of a report by the Examiner and the matter was thereupon submitted to me.

The Grippo Mine (Mine Index No. 851) is a deep mine, operating in the Kittanning Seam in Butler County, approximately 3 miles distant from the City of Butler and 2/10ths of a mile distant from Pennsylvania Route 38, an improved state highway. At present it has a daily production of approximately 125 tons in 3/8" slack, 3/8" x 1 1/4" stoker, 1 1/4" x 2" nut, 2" x 4" egg and 4" lump sizes and practically all of its coal moves by truck to the City of Butler, primarily for domestic use, and also for commercial uses in the resultant sizes. The petition requests that the minimum prices established for the coals of the Grippo Mine should be increased in Size Groups 2 to 11, inclusive, for truck shipment, as follows:

	Size group
	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11
Price	330	320	310	300	290	270	260	230	220	[1]210

[1] No request is made for revision in the price of Size Group 1; in Size Groups 2 to 11, inclusive, the foregoing prices include the increases granted by Order of the Director in General Docket No. 21, effective October 1, 1942.

T. J. Ward, a member of the Price and Classification Committee of District Board 2 and the only witness at the hearing, testified that the purpose of the District Board's petition was to restore the minimum prices for the Grippo Mine, established in General Docket No. 15, which were 10 cents higher in all size groups except Size Group 1 and Size Groups 7 and 8, the prices of which were 5 cents higher than the minimum prices for truck shipment, subsequently established in Docket No. A-552.[2] He explained that the minimum prices established for the coals of the Grippo Mine in General Docket No. 15 were the same as the prices for comparable coals of such competitive mines in Butler County as the Wigton Mine (Mine Index No. 952) of the Bisco Coal Co., the Zenith #1 Mine (Mine Index No. 249) of the Zenith Coal Co., the McCormick Mine (Mine Index No. 887) of the McCormick Coal Co., the Cosco #1 and #2 Mines (Mine Index Nos. 41 and 42) of the Cosco Gas Coal Co., and the Oneida #3 Mine (Mine Index No. 2195) of the Ivywood Coal Co., all of which operate in the same Kittanning Seam, are located approximately the same distance from the main market area, and produce mine run coal which is prepared and loaded by hand in the same manner as the coal of the Grippo Mine. He further testified that the minimum prices for coals of the Grippo Mine were reduced in Docket No. A-552 upon the code member's request and after inspection of the mine and investigation of the marketing conditions in the Butler area by the District Board, for the reason that its coal had to be trucked to the state highway over a dirt road which often was impassable during the months in which this coal was hauled from the mine, and also because in the development of the mine, the code member had extended entries to the right and the left of the main headings into the outcrop and the coal, which was mined at the time of the advancement of the headings, being near the outcrop, was slightly more friable and not of the quality of the coal produced after further development of the mine. On the basis of these facts, the District Board proposed a reduction in the minimum prices for all sizes of coal produced by the Grippo Mine for truck shipment, so as to create a fair competitive price relationship with other coals produced by competitive mines in the Butler area.[3] The record further discloses that, upon complaint of producers in the Butler area, it was ascertained by the District Board that the conditions which required the adjustment made in Docket A-552 no longer existed. The witness Ward proceeded to explain that as a result of a fire which occurred in the summer of 1941, the equipment used as a tipple at the Grippo Mine to dump its mine run coal, was destroyed and a new tipple with a capacity of approximately 200 tons was constructed and a modern shaker screen and picking table were installed. He asserted that the coal presently produced has improved in quality, since it is now mined under the hill of the mine and is of the same character as that produced from the main headings, that this coal is now hard, of firm structure and presents a good appearance, and that, in addition, the road leading from the main highway to the mine has been rebuilt and maintained in a very good condition. He added that since the time of the foregoing improvements, the coal of the Grippo Mine has sold, size for size, at prices identical with those of competing mines. In his opinion, the methods of preparation and the conditions surrounding the production and marketing of the coal of the Grippo Mine are now similar to those of competing mines; Grippo Mine Coal is comparable to, and enjoys the same consumer acceptance as the coals of competing Butler County mines; and now attracts truckers as readily as the coals of these competing mines, because of the present location of the mine and the present condition of the highway leading to it. Particularly because of the improvement in the quality of the coal and in the condition of the road leading to the mine, and, to some extent, because of the installation of the new tipple and preparation facilities, the District Board proposed to revise the minimum prices of the Grippo Mine in order to maintain fair and equitable competitive opportunities for the producers who serve the market in the Butler area. Finally, it should also be noted, as the witness further testified, that the code member conceded that the conditions obtaining at the time of its request for a reduction in minimum prices had improved and that its coal should be priced the same as the coals of the competitive Butler County mines.

In the circumstances here presented, I am persuaded that the coal of the Grippo Mine has improved in quality and that the conditions surrounding the production and marketing of this coal are presently similar to those affecting the coals of competitive Butler County Mines. In order to reflect the relative value of this coal as nearly as possible and to preserve existing fair competitive opportunities among the producers in the Butler area, I find that the minimum prices of the coal of the Grippo Mine should be increased as requested in the petition. I find further that such revision in minimum prices complies with the standards set forth in sections 4 II (a) and (b) of the Act and is necessary to effectuate the purposes thereof.

For the foregoing reasons, upon the basis of the entire record in this proceeding, and pursuant to section 4 II (d) and other provisions of the Act,

It is hereby ordered, That § 322.23 (General prices) is amended by revising the effective minimum prices of the coal produced by the Grippo Mine (Mine Index No. 851) of the Grippo Coal Company, in Center Township, Butler County, Pennsylvania, in District 2, for truck shipment, as follows:

	Size group
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11
Price	345	330	320	310	300	290	270	260	230	220	210

Dated: August 10, 1943.

[SEAL] DAN H. WHEELER,
Director.

[F. R. Doc. 43-13113; Filed, August 12, 1943; 10:58 a. m.]

[1] The order of the Director, dated March 13, 1943, denied temporary relief and scheduled the hearing herein for April 13, 1943. On March 23, 1943, the Director entered an order granting petitioner's request to advance the date of hearing to April 6, 1943.

[2] These prices were:

	Size Group
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11
General Docket No. 15	325	310	300	290	280	270	250	240	210	200	190
Docket No. A-552	325	300	290	280	270	260	245	235	200	190	180
Present Prices (including the increases granted in General Docket No. 21)	345	320	310	300	290	280	265	255	220	210	200

[3] The price classifications of the Grippo Mine for rail shipment, however, were not revised and these are identical with the price classifications of the Butler County mines, referred to above.

TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter IX—War Production Board

Subchapter B—Executive Vice Chairman

[Interpretation 4 of Priorities Regulation 3]

The following Interpretation 4 is issued with respect to Priorities Regulation 3.

A great many orders of the War Production Board permit the delivery of materials pursuant to preference ratings assigned by a P-19-h Order, or by an order in the P-19 series. Forms CMPL-224 and CMPL-127 are generally used in place of orders in the P-19 series. It is expressly stated on Form CMPL-224:

"This authorization is issued in lieu of preference rating order of the P-19 series. Any reference in any order of the War Production Board to said preference rating orders shall constitute a reference to this authorization."

It is set forth in CMPL-127:

"This authorization is issued in lieu of Preference Rating Order P-19-h or P-55. Any reference in any order of the War Production Board to said Preference Rating Order P-19-h or P-55 shall constitute a reference to this authorization."

Consequently, it is proper for any person to deliver material or equipment pursuant to a rating assigned by Forms CMPL-224 or CMPL-127, if he is permitted under existing orders of the War Production Board to deliver said material pursuant to a rating assigned by a P-19-h order or an order in the P-19 series.

Issued this 13th day of August 1943.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

PART 962—IRON AND STEEL

[Direction 1 to General Preference Order M-21-b-2]

ADDITIONAL ALLOWANCE OF CERTAIN MERCHANT TRADE PRODUCTS FOR WAREHOUSES LOCATED IN CERTAIN WESTERN STATES

The following Direction 1 is issued pursuant to General Preference Order M-21-b-2.

Before and during the base period established by General Preference Order M-21-b-2, a severe drought affecting a large area in certain western states curtailed the normal purchases of steel products by warehouses located in the area. As a result, the base tonnages available under General Preference Order M-21-b-2 limit warehouse purchases of certain merchant trade products to a level which is inadequate to meet the usual requirements of the area. A more normal crop growing season now exists, and in order to enable warehouses in the area to purchase steel products in proportion to their present needs the following direction is issued pursuant to General Preference Order M-21-b-2 (§ 962.11).

(a) Warehouses and product groups covered by this direction. This direction applies only to warehouses located in Kansas, Montana, Nebraska, North Dakota, South Dakota, and

Wyoming, and only to the following merchant trade product groups:

23. Nails (cut and wire), and fence and netting staples.
25. Wire, drawn.
26. Wire bale ties.
27. Wire (barbed and twisted), wire fence (woven or welded) and netting.
28. Fence posts.

(b) Additional allowance. Prior to October 1, 1943, orders for delivery to stock during the period August 1–December 31, 1943, may be placed by a warehouse with a producer up to 100% of the warehouse's base tonnage with that producer, regardless of the amount of material received before August 1, 1943. However, orders for product groups 23 and 25 placed pursuant to a warehouse load directive for delivery in the last half of 1943 shall be considered part of this additional allowance, and not in addition thereto.

(c) Identification of purchase orders. Each purchase order placed pursuant to paragraph (b) shall be endorsed as follows and, when so endorsed, shall be an authorized controlled material order;

"This order is placed pursuant to the authority contained in Direction 1 to General Preference Order M–21–b–2.

(d) Stock replacement. Warehouse orders representing stock replacement of material sold on authorized controlled material orders, and accompanied by Form WPB–2444 (CMP–11), may be placed in addition to the amount authorized in paragraph (b). These replacement orders must be placed in the manner described in paragraphs (d) (2) and (e) (2) of General Preference Order M–21–b–2.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S–60, Revocation]

MANNING, BOWMAN & CO.

Manning, Bowman & Company has appealed from the provisions of Suspension Order No. S–60, issued June 29, 1942. After a review of the case it has been determined by the Chief Compliance Commissioner that Suspension Order No. S–60 should be revoked.

In view of the foregoing, It is hereby ordered, That § 1010.60 Suspension Order No. S–60, issued June 29, 1942, be revoked.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Amdt. 1 to S–358]

B. A. CHAPLOW LUMBER CO.

B. A. Chaplow Lumber Company of Detroit, Michigan, has appealed from the provisions of Suspension Order S–358 issued July 8, 1943. After a review of the case, it has been determined that the respondent wilfully violated Conservation Order M–208 and Priorities Regulation No. 1 and No. 3. However, the respondent has shown that its business will be jeopardized and that undue hardship will result unless this Suspension Order is relaxed. It has therefore been determined that the respondent should be permitted to purchase and sell lumber to fill orders bearing preference ratings of AA–3 or higher.

In view of the foregoing facts; It is hereby ordered, That paragraph (f) of § 1010.358, Suspension Order S–358, issued July 8, 1943, be amended to read as follows:

(f) The provisions of this order shall not be applicable to lumber which is actually in transit to the respondent on the effective date of this order, nor which is received, used or required for use in filling orders bearing preference ratings of AA–3 or higher.

Issued this 13th day of August 1943.

SOUTHWEST MANUFACTURING CO.

Frank J. Turner, 1214 West Madison Street, Phoenix, Arizona, operates a general sheet metal shop and manufactures and sells evaporative coolers, under the name of Southwest Manufacturing Company. General Limitation Order L–38 restricting the production or sale of "refrigerating and air-conditioning equipment" became effective May 15, 1942. Between July 24 and September 4, 1942, respondent produced and sold sixty-seven evaporative coolers being "refrigerating and air-conditioning equipment" as defined in General Limitation Order L–38 and in violation of that Order, and having a value of $13,501.34. Respondent admits that he received actual notice of this Order on June 10, 1942. After June 10, 1942, the respondent produced approximately two hundred evaporative coolers, being said "refrigerating and air-conditioning equipment", having a value of about $5,000, in violation of General Limitation Order L–38. These coolers were produced for private accounts and not for military purposes. Because of actual knowledge of the Order on June 10, 1942, and because of respondent's familiarity with the mechanical refrigerator business, these violations of the order must be deemed wilful.

These wilful violations of General Limitation Order L–38 have diverted scarce materials to uses not authorized by the War Production Board and have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States. In view of the foregoing facts: It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.378 Suspension Order S–378. (a) Frank J. Turner, doing business as Southwest Manufacturing Company, or otherwise, his and its successors and assigns, shall not produce, manufacture, process, sell, transfer, or otherwise dispose of any evaporative coolers, evaporative cooler parts, or any "system" or "parts" as defined in General Limitation Order L–38 as amended, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the Regional Director of the San Francisco Regional Office of the War Production Board. Authority is hereby delegated to said Regional Director to pass upon applications by the respondent to engage in such activities.

(b) Deliveries of material to Frank J. Turner, doing business as Southwest Manufacturing Company, or under any other name, his or its successors or assigns shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order and no preference rating shall be assigned, applied, or extended to such deliveries by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, or any other orders or regulations of the War Production Board unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(c) No allocation or allotment of materials for production, the supply or distribution of which is governed by any order or regulation of the War Production Board shall be made to Frank J. Turner, doing business as Southwest Manufacturing Company or under any other name, his or its successors or assigns, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(d) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Frank J. Turner, doing business as Southwest Manufacturing Company, or otherwise, his or its successors or assigns from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(e) This order shall take effect on August 13, 1943, and shall expire on December 13, 1943.

WESTERN WRECKING AND SALVAGE CO.

Morris Shapiro, doing business as Western Wrecking and Salvage Company, operates a scrap metal business at 112 Natividad Street, Salinas, California. Between October 6, 1942, and March 30, 1943, he violated Supplementary Order M–9–b by accepting deliveries of about 18,000 pounds of copper and copper base alloy scrap, without having sold or otherwise disposed of similar scrap, during the sixty days preceding each delivery to him, in an amount at least equal in weight to his scrap inventory on the dates of such deliveries, exclusive of such deliveries. During this time, Mr. Shapiro was acquainted with the provisions of Supplementary Order M–9–b, and these violations were therefore wilful. The effect of these acts has been to retard the flow of scrap copper and copper base alloy to uses in the war effort of the United States. In view of the foregoing facts, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.397 Suspension Order No. S–397. (a) Morris Shapiro, doing business as Western Wrecking and Salvage Company, or otherwise, his successors or assigns, shall not order, purchase or accept delivery of any copper, copper base alloy or scrap, as those terms are defined in Supplementary Order M–9–b, until his total inventory of all such materials has been reduced to not more than 3000 pounds and so found by the War Production Board, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Morris Shapiro, his successors, or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect on August 13, 1943.

NATIONAL RADIO SHOP

Leo Galenson doing business as National Radio Shop at 8626 South Broadway, Los Angeles, California is engaged in the business of selling new metal plumbing equipment. Between September 23, 1942, and January 6, 1943, he sold to ultimate consumers thirteen items of new metal plumbing equipment having an approximate total value of $1800 dollars. In connection with these sales, it is doubtful whether the respondent obtained the required certifications from his customers as he should have done, but there is no doubt that he failed to keep them on file, and this failure itself was a violation of Limitation Order L–79. On December 30, 1942, respondent sold new metal plumbing equipment having a value of approximately $160, and used an improper form of certification in violation of Limitation Order L–79. In addition, respondent was grossly negligent in handling his certificates and records. Respondent knew of Limitation Order L–79 and his actions must be deemed wilful violations of that order; he has diverted scarce materials to uses not authorized by the War Production Board and has hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States. In view of the foregoing facts; It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.398 Suspension Order S–398. (a) Delivery of materials to Leo Galenson, doing business as National Radio Shop, or otherwise, his or its successors or assigns, shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order, and no preference rating shall be assigned, applied or extended to such deliveries by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders or any other orders or regulations of the War Production Board, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Leo Galenson, doing business as National Radio Shop, or otherwise, his or its successors or assigns, from any restrictions, prohibitions, or provision contained in any other Order or regulation of the War Production Board, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect on August 13, 1943, and shall expire on November 13, 1943.

PLYMOUTH MACHINE AND BURNER CORP.

Plymouth Machine & Burner Corporation is engaged in the business of machining and manufacturing parts at 10 Water Street, Plymouth, Massachusetts. On February 3, 1943, the respondent extended an AA–1 rating accompanied by a certificate in the form provided by Priorities Regulation No. 3 for the purpose of obtaining three lathes. Actual delivery on this order was not completed, but delivery was completed on a subsequent telephone order which improperly purported to extend an authorization of the War Production Board which was never in fact given. The original application of the preference rating AA–1 was improper and was made in violation of Priorities Regulation No. 3. The officers of the respondent in charge of its business knew Priorities Regulation No. 3 or from their business experience should have known the Regulation, and the actions of respondent must be deemed wilful violations of Priorities Regulation No. 3; they have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States. In view of the foregoing facts: It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.399 Suspension Order S–399. (a) Plymouth Machine & Burner Corporation, its successors and assigns, shall not order, purchase, or receive any machine tools, unless hereafter authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Plymouth Machine & Burner Corporation, its successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect on August 13, 1943, and shall expire on December 13, 1943.

PEFFER'S FURNITURE STORE

E. F. Peffer, Stockton, California, does business in that city under the trade name of Peffer's Furniture Store. Between May 23, 1942, and January 19, 1943, he violated Limitation Order L–79 by selling and delivering 144 oil and gas heaters, defined as new metal heating equipment in said Order, to ultimate consumers who did not furnish him with preference rated orders or written certifications. At the time of such sales E. F. Peffer was familiar with the provisions of Limitation Order L–79, and these violations were wilful.

These violations of Limitation Order L–79 have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States by distributing scarce materials in a manner unauthorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.400 Suspension Order No. S–400. (a) During the term of this order, E. F. Peffer, individually, or doing business as Peffer's Furniture Store, or otherwise, his successors and assigns, shall not purchase, accept delivery of, order, sell, deliver, or otherwise deal in, new metal heating equipment as defined in Limitation Order L–79.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve E. F. Peffer, individually or doing business as Peffer's Furniture Store, or otherwise, from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

FINGERHUT CO.

Joseph Fingerhut, trading as Fingerhut Company at 5 East Lake Street, Minneapolis, Minnesota, operates a retail electric equipment store. Between August 13, 1942, and October 15, 1942, he violated Supplementary General Limitation Order L-5-d by transferring three domestic mechanical refrigerators, on the authority of Certificates of Transfer issued to specifically named persons, to persons other than those so named. At the time of these transactions Joseph Fingerhut was familiar with the provisions of Supplementary General Limitation Order L-5-d, and with the language of the aforesaid Certificates of Transfer, and these violations were wilful.

These violations of Supplementary General Limitation Order L-5-d have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States by distributing scarce material and products contrary to specific directions of the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing: It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.401 Suspension Order S-401. (a) Deliveries of material or equipment to Joseph Fingerhut, individually, or trading as Fingerhut Company, or otherwise, his successors or assigns, shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order, and no preference rating shall be applied, assigned or extended to such deliveries by any preference rating orders, preference rating certificates, general preference orders, or any other orders or regulations of the War Production Board, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Joseph Fingerhut, individually, or trading as Fingerhut Company, or otherwise, his successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions of this order.

PART 3020—HEAT EXCHANGERS

[General Limitation Order L-172, as Amended August 13, 1943]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the production of heat exchangers for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3020.1 General Limitation Order L-172—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not, and includes the Army and Navy of the United States, the Maritime Commission, the War Shipping Administration, the Office of Lend-Lease Administration and the Office of Economic Warfare.

(2) "Manufacturer" means any person who constructs, manufactures or assembles critical heat exchangers to the extent that he is engaged in such construction, manufacture or assembly; and shall include sales and distribution outlets and agencies controlled by such person. The term shall also include any person who purchases or otherwise acquires materials for manufacture or assembly into critical heat exchangers by his subcontractor, and resale by such person.

(3) "Critical heat exchanger" means any new equipment or apparatus consisting of an assembly, bundle or nest of one or more bare or finned tubes (metallic or non-metallic) or metal plates, and including any shell or pressure vessel to contain the same, designed for the transfer or exchange of heat between two or more fluids (liquids, gases or vapors), except the following:

(i) Any equipment or apparatus which is direct-fired or installed within a flue gas passage;

(ii) Any equipment or apparatus which permits direct contact involving physical mixing of the fluids (other than direct contact boiler feed water heaters);

(iii) Any steam surface condenser designed to condense exhaust steam from a prime mover to maintain a minimum exhaust pressure;

(iv) Any heat exchanger for use on aircraft;

(v) Any radiator-type cooler;

(vi) Unit heaters, convectors, unit ventilators, unit coolers and blast coils, if such items are for space heating or cooling or industrial space heating or drying;

(vii) Any indirect water heater commonly referred to as a storage water heater, submerged water heater, side arm water heater, "below-the-water-line" heater, or any water heater designed to supply hot water for a hot water space heating system for buildings or ships;

NOTE: Following paragraphs (viii) and (ix), formerly (viii) (e) and (viii) (g) respectively, and paragraphs (x) and (xi), formerly (viii) and (ix) respectively, redesignated August 13, 1943.

(viii) Heat exchangers having parts which come in direct contact with food or food products;

(ix) Any heat exchanger of non-metallic construction for use in a chemical experimental laboratory;

(x) Any of the following types of new heat exchanger equipment when manufactured and delivered by the manufacturer thereof as a necessary integral part of, and together with, other equipment (not heat exchanger) also manufactured by him, or for replacement in equipment so manufactured and delivered:

(a) Compressor intercoolers and aftercoolers; or

(b) Lubricating oil coolers for turbines or electric generators or motors; or

(c) An air or hydrogen cooler for an electric generator or motor; or

(d) Auxiliary air removal equipment for steam surface condensers for use with a prime mover, as described under subparagraph (3) (iii) above; or

(e) Rectifier or transformer oil coolers;

(xi) Heat exchangers designed for use as part of a refrigerating or air conditioning "system" as defined in General Limitation Order L-38 when fabricated by a manufacturer who currently produces such "systems".

(4) "Group I critical heat exchanger" means any of the following critical heat exchangers:

(i) An assembly, bundle or nest of one or more bare or finned tubes (metallic or non-metallic) installed in, or designed for installation in a shell or pressure vessel, except those for use on shipboard, and also excluding those which are designed for use in a refrigerating or air conditioning "system" as defined in Order L-38; or

(ii) An assembly, bundle or nest of metal plates of any size contained in a shell or pressure vessel for any use other than on shipboard; or

(iii) One or more tube bundles designed for replacement in any new or used equipment or apparatus described in (i) above; or

(iv) Any shell or pressure vessel designed for replacement in any new or used equipment or apparatus described in (i) above.

(5) "Group II critical heat exchanger" means any critical heat exchanger which is not a Group I critical heat exchanger. Thus, the term "Group II critical heat exchanger" includes equipment of the type described in paragraph (a) (4) when designed for shipboard use. It also includes so-called "open sections" of either the atmospheric or submerged type; direct contact boiler feed water heaters; heat exchangers designed for use as part of a refrigerating or air conditioning "system" as defined in Order L-38, when fabricated by a manufacturer who does not currently produce such systems; air or hydrogen coolers for electric generators or motors when not manufactured and delivered by the manufacturer thereof as a necessary integral part of, and together with, other equipment (not heat exchanger) also manufactured by him, or for replacement in equipment not so manufactured and delivered. It also includes any tube bundle, or any shell or pressure vessel, designed for replacement in any critical heat exchanger which is not a Group I critical heat exchanger.

(6) "Delays beyond control" includes only those unavoidable delays, such as result from plant breakdowns, or changes in production or deliveries required by directions, directives or orders referred to in paragraph (e) below, against which the manufacturer's production or delivery schedules are not protected by the provisions of this order.

(b) Operations reports. On or before the 10th day of July, 1943, and the 10th day of each succeeding calendar month, each manufacturer shall file a report on Form WPB-3000 (or PD-900), prepared in accordance with instructions WPB-3000.08 for the form.

(c) Delivery schedules—(1) Monthly reports. On or before the 10th day of July, 1943, and the 10th day of each succeeding calendar month, each manufacturer shall file a report on Form WPB-1474 (or PD-615B), prepared in accordance with the instructions accompanying such form.

(If and whenever General Scheduling Order M-293 requires or permits the filing of any other form in place of Form WPB-1474, such other form may be used and filed to the extent permitted or required by Order M-293, in place of Form WPB-1474, and in that case any reference in this order to Form WPB-1474 shall also apply to such other form, or to any comparable part of such other form.)

(2) Required delivery schedule. Such Form WPB-1474 as filed each month shall show in column 17 the required delivery dates (months of shipment) as specified by the War Production Board (or if such Board has not specified a delivery date for any order, then the delivery date required by the purchaser) for all unfilled orders for Group I or Group II critical heat exchangers previously accepted and reported by the manufacturer, and for each new order for Group I or Group II critical heat exchangers which the manufacturer has accepted subsequent to the filing of his corresponding report for the preceding month. The schedule of deliveries as thus filed shall be deemed a "frozen schedule", within the meaning of Priorities Regulation No. 18, and the dates thus shown in the required delivery schedule on each monthly report shall continue to be shown unchanged on subsequent monthly reports, unless the War Production Board shall subsequently specify a different required delivery date, in which event any new date thus specified shall thereafter constitute the required delivery date and be reported as such. The manufacturer shall deliver critical heat exchangers only in accordance with his required delivery schedule, except for the accelerated deliveries resulting from the permissible increased production permitted in paragraph (c) (5) below, and except that a purchaser may change the point of destination to which any exchanger ordered by him is to be shipped. (An order for any heat exchanger not now within the definition of a "critical heat exchanger", but which was authorized on Form PD-615 or PD-615A, before July 9, 1943, shall be considered as an order for a critical heat exchanger, and be reported as a part of such schedule, until otherwise directed by the War Production Board).

(3) Anticipated shipments. Such Form WPB-1474 as filed each month shall also show in column 18 the proposed shipping dates (months of delivery) which the manufacturer believes he can meet, for all orders shown on his required delivery schedule reported in column 17 on said form. Such proposed dates shall coincide with the required dates as shown in column 17, or reflect any cancellations, or any permissible increased production and deliveries as provided for under paragraph (c) (5) below. The dates thus reported shall continue to be shown unchanged on subsequent monthly reports until the respective deliveries have been completed. If at any time, due to delays beyond control, the manufacturer no longer believes he can meet any proposed shipping date previously reported by him, he shall immediately notify the War Production Board, by letter or telegram, explaining the reasons for the anticipated delay (or further delay) and the extent of interruption of his proposed delivery schedule which he expects to result (or which has resulted) therefrom; and in filing his next monthly report on Form WPB-1474 he shall show in column 18 the changed date which he believes he can meet, postponed only to the extent required by delays beyond control. He shall also show any proposed accelerated deliveries which will result from any permissible increased production which he proposes to undertake in accordance with paragraph (c) (5) below.

(4) Production for meeting required delivery schedules. Each manufacturer shall carry on his production in such manner as may be necessary to assure deliveries in accordance with his required delivery schedule. Unless specifically directed to do so in accordance with paragraph (e) below, he shall not at any time accept any additional orders for critical heat exchangers or for any other products, regardless of any accompanying preference rating or allotment number or symbol, unless he knows or has reasonable cause to believe that, subject to delays beyond control, he can fill such additional orders in accordance with their terms (as authorized), without causing delay in his delivery of any order included in his required delivery schedule.

(5) Permissible increased production rate. Any manufacturer may carry on his production of critical heat exchangers at a rate sufficient to enable him to make shipment of any order during the calendar month preceding that in which shipment is required, and may accelerate his deliveries accordingly, but only if he can do so without causing delay in his delivery of any previously or subsequently accepted orders for critical heat exchangers, or orders for other products rated AA-5 or higher or included in a "frozen schedule" as defined in Priorities Regulation No. 18.

(d) Placing and acceptance of orders for critical heat exchangers—(1) Group I exchangers. (i) No person shall place an order with a manufacturer, and no manufacturer shall commence production or accept an order, for any Group I critical heat exchanger unless accompanied by a specific authorization by the War Production Board on Form WPB-1475 (or PD-615) or on Form PD-615A. Applications for such authorization may be made to the War Production Board by the person seeking to place an order, on Form WPB-1475 in quadruplicate. Such person shall designate his proposed supplier, and the calendar month in which delivery is required, which in no case shall be earlier than is essential for his purposes. No order will be authorized if it fails to specify the month in which delivery is required.

(ii) Any order so authorized shall be accepted by the manufacturer specified in the authorization; except that the manufacturer need not accept such order if it does not meet his regularly established prices and terms of sale or payment: Provided, however, That the manufacturer shall not accept such order if he knows or has reasonable cause to believe that he will be unable to make delivery during the calendar month required and without causing delay in his delivery of any previously accepted orders for critical heat exchangers, or orders for other products rated AA-1 or higher or included in a "frozen schedule" as defined in Priorities Regulation No. 18. Any manufacturer who rejects any order, as herein required, shall return the same with the accompanying authorization to the purchaser with a brief explanation in writing of the reasons why it is rejected, and shall furnish the War Production Board with a duplicate copy of such explanation. If the acceptance and filling of such an order would terminate or interrupt a production or delivery schedule so as to cause substantial loss in the manufacturer's production of any other product not referred to above, he shall accept such order, but shall immediately notify the War Production Board of the circumstances and need not terminate or interrupt said schedule until 30 days after acceptance of such order.

(If and whenever General Scheduling Order M-293 requires or permits the filing of any other form in place of Form WPB-1475, then such other form may be used and filed to the extent permitted or required by Order M-293, in place of Form WPB-1475; and in such event, any reference in this order to Form WPB-1475 shall apply also to such other form.)

(2) Group II exchangers. (i) No person shall place an order with a manufacturer, and no manufacturer shall accept an order, for any Group II critical heat exchanger unless such order bears a preference rating of AA-5 or higher. Each prospective purchaser shall request delivery during a designated calendar month, which in no case shall be earlier than is essential for his purposes. No manufacturer shall accept any order which fails to specify the month in which delivery is required.

(ii) Any order for a Group II critical heat exchanger bearing a preference rating of AA-5 or higher shall be accepted by the manufacturer with whom it is placed, as required by Priorities Regulation No. 1: Provided, however, That the manufacturer shall not accept such an order (unless it is rated AAA) if he knows or has reasonable cause to believe that he will be unable to make delivery during the calendar month required and without causing delay in his delivery of any previously accepted orders for critical heat exchangers. (If rated AAA, the lower rated Group II orders which the manufacturer has not already reported on his required delivery schedule, will be displaced in accordance with Priorities Regulation No. 1). Any person whose order for a Group II critical heat exchanger is rejected and who is unable to find another manufacturer who is in a position to accept his order, may apply to the War Production Board on Form WPB-1475 (or PD-615), explaining therein why such application is made, and an authorization therefor may be issued pursuant to paragraph (d) (1), which shall have the same force and effect as an authorization for a Group I critical heat exchanger.

(3) Shifting of orders from one manufacturer to another. If any person (including a manufacturer) desires to have any Group I or Group II critical heat exchanger produced by any person other than the manufacturer who has accepted an order therefor, the order shall not be placed with another person, either by direct contract or through a sub-contract, unless the person desiring to make such change has notified the War Production Board of the reasons therefor and such Board has specifically authorized in writing the production and delivery of such exchanger by the person not previously authorized to deliver the same.

(e) Other allocation and scheduling action. With respect to any Group I or Group II critical heat exchangers, the War Production Board may, notwithstanding any order, preference rating, directive, rule or regulation of the War Production Board (except Priorities Regulation No. 18):

(1) Direct the return or cancellation of any order on the books of a manufacturer; or

(2) Direct changes in the delivery or production schedule of a manufacturer; or

(3) Cancel orders placed with one manufacturer and authorize them to be placed with another manufacturer; or

PART 3175—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE CONTROLLED MATERIALS PLAN

[Interpretation 12 of CMP Regulation 1]

REDUCTION OF QUANTITY ORDERED DOES NOT CONSTITUTE PLACING OF NEW ORDER

The following Interpretation 12 is issued with respect to CMP Regulation 1.

(a) The reduction in the quantity of a controlled material covered by an authorized controlled material order does not constitute the placing of a new order. In other words, the order for the reduced quantity will retain its position in the mill schedule and will be treated just as though it were for the reduced quantity when the order was originally placed.

(b) If the quantity ordered is reduced below a minimum mill quantity, the producer may at that time reject the order and remove it from his schedule, as provided in paragraph (t) (2) (i) of CMP Regulation No. 1 (§ 3175.1), but he must not discriminate between customers in such cases.

Issued this 13th day of August 1943.

PART 3175—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE CONTROLLED MATERIALS PLAN

[Direction 11 to CMP Regulation 5]

SAFETY EQUIPMENT PURCHASED BY EMPLOYEES

The following direction is issued pursuant to CMP Regulation 5.

(a) CMP Regulation No. 5 (§ 3175.5) permits an employer to buy safety equipment for his employees only where the equipment will belong to the employer and will be checked out to the employee. The employer may not resell the safety equipment to the employee, and since the employee is not in business, he is not permitted to use a preference rating under the regulation. This direction is issued to provide a way for employees themselves to get safety equipment on their employer's ratings using the same procedure by which they may get hand tools under Direction No. 9 to CMP Regulation No. 5.

(b) The employee of any person producing any product or conducting any business listed on Schedule I or Schedule II of CMP Regulation No. 5 may use the preference rating assigned by the regulation to his employer to purchase safety equipment which he requires for use exclusively in his employer's business and which his employer requires him to furnish. The procedure which he should follow is the same as that used under Direction No. 9 to CMP Regulation No. 5 in purchasing hand tools.

(c) The rating will be valid only if the employee gives the seller of the safety equipment the certificate provided for in Direction No. 9 to CMP Regulation No. 5, changing the words "hand tool" and "tool" to "item of safety equipment", or the following certificate, which may also be used to buy hand tools, instead of the certificate in Direction No. 9, filled out and signed by his employer and then signed by himself:

"Preference rating ------ MRO. The following item ---------- (only one tool or item of safety equipment may be placed on each certificate; specify type and size of tool, or give item of safety equipment) is required by the undersigned employee for use only in the undersigned employer's business, and the undersigned employer requires the employee to furnish the item. The undersigned employee further certifies that he does not own or possess any similar item which will serve the same purpose.

Name and Address of employer

Authorized signature

Signature of employee

Position"

(d) The supplier who sells the safety equipment must keep the certificate for two years. He may extend the rating in the manner provided in Priorities Regulation No. 3.

(e) The cost of safety equipment bought by an employee by use of the preference rating must be included by the employer in computing the quantity restrictions of paragraph (f) of the regulation, but the employer may not include the cost of safety equipment bought by employees during the base period for the purpose of computing his quota under paragraph (f) of the regulation.

(f) The term "safety equipment" as used in this direction means the following items when they are specifically designed and used to furnish protection against specific occupational hazards (other than weather):

(1) Asbestos clothing,

(2) Gauntlet type welders' leather gloves and mittens, and electricians' leather protector or cover gloves,

(3) Metal mesh gloves, aprons and sleeves,

(4) Other safety leather gloves or mittens, but only if steel stitched or steel reinforced,

(5) Plastic and fibre safety helmets,

(6) Safety clothing impregnated or coated for the purpose of making the same resistant against fire, acids, other chemicals or abrasives,

(7) Safety industrial leather clothing other than shoes, gloves or mittens,

(8) Safety industrial rubber gloves and hoods and linemens' rubber gloves and sleeves,

(9) Gas mas. s and canisters,

(10) Respirators,

(11) Face and eye shields,

(12) Welding helmets and shields,

(13) Goggles,

(14) Foot and shin guards (not including safety shoes),

(15) Safety belts and harnesses, and

(16) Protective creams.

(g) The following example is given to show how an employee may use his employer's rating to purchase safety equipment. Suppose that a shipyard requires certain employees to have a welding shield. The employee himself is not entitled to use a preference rating assigned by the regulation because he is not in business. The employee finds that he cannot buy the welding shield without a preference rating. Shipyards are in Schedule I of CMP Regulation No. 5 and consequently may use preference rating AA-1. Under this direction the employer may fill out the certification, putting down the preference rating "AA-1" and listing the item "welding shield." The proper official of the employer signs the certificate and gives it to the employee. The employee then signs the certificate and gives it to the seller of the welding shield.

PART 1448—EATING AND DRINKING ESTABLISHMENTS

FOOD AND DRINK SOLD FOR IMMEDIATE CONSUMPTION

For the reasons set forth in the statement of considerations issued simultaneously herewith, and under the authority vested in the Regional Price Administrator of Region IV by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, Executive Order 9250, Executive Order 9328, and General Order No. 50, section (e), It is hereby ordered, That section 16 (e) of Restaurant Maximum Price Regulation No. 4-1 be amended to read as set forth below, and that two new sections to be known respectively as section 20 and section 21, to read as set forth below, be added:

SEC. 16. Definitions and explanations. * * *

(e) "Eating or drinking place" shall include any place, establishment or location, whether temporary or permanent, from which any food item or meal is sold except those places which are specifically exempted in section 17 and in section 21 hereof.

* * * * * * *

SEC. 20. Adjustments. The Office of Price Administration may adjust the maximum prices for any eating establishment when it is demonstrated that:

(a) The establishment will be forced to discontinue operations unless it is granted an adjustment of the maximum prices established by this regulation.

(b) Such discontinuance will result in serious inconvenience to consumers in that they will either be deprived of all restaurant service or will have to turn to other establishments that present substantial difficulties as to distance, hours of service, selection of meals or food items offered, capacity, or transportation.

(c) By reason of such discontinuance, the same meals or food items will either be unavailable or will cost the customers of the eating establishment as much or more than the proposed adjusted prices.

If you are the proprietor of an eating establishment which satisfies the requirements specified above, you may apply for an adjustment of your maximum prices by submitting to your OPA District Office a statement setting forth:

(a) Your name and address.

(b) A description of your eating establishment including: type of service rendered (such as cafeteria, table service, etc.), classes of meals offered (such as breakfast, lunch and dinner), number of persons served per day during the most recent thirty-day period, and such other information that may be useful in classifying your establishment. (In counting the number of persons served, any one who was served more than once is to be counted separately for each occasion he was served.)

(c) The reasons why your customers will be seriously inconvenienced if you discontinue operations.

(d) The names and addresses of the three nearest eating places of the same type as yours.

(e) A list showing your present and requested, adjusted maximum prices.

(f) A profit and loss statement for your restaurant business for the most recent three-month accounting period, and a copy of your last income tax return if one was filed separately for your restaurant business.

Applications for adjustment under this section may be acted upon by the Regional Office or by any district office that has been authorized to do so by order of the Regional Office.

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

SEC. 21. Seasonal eating and drinking places—(a) Exempt places. If you are the proprietor of a seasonal eating or drinking place that:

(1) Was not open during the base period from April 4 to 10, 1943,

(2) Receives 90 percent or more of its total annual revenue during four calendar months of the year;

(3) Is located in an area for which no maximum rent regulation has been issued, the prices for food items and meals offered by you in that place are exempt from control.

You must not regard this exemption as relieving you from the obligations imposed upon you by General Order 50, and you are still subject to the provisions of section 18 of this Regulation. Pursuant to this latter section the administrator will by special order establish maximum prices for any seasonal eating or drinking place which takes undue advantage of the exemption.

(b) Non-exempt places. If you are the proprietor of a seasonal eating or drinking place which is not exempt under the terms of paragraph (a), you must figure your ceiling prices as follows:

(1) If the place was in operation during the base period from April 4 to April 10, 1943, use the rules set forth in sections 2 and 3.

(2) If the place was not in operation during the base period from April 4 to April 10, 1943, but another place of the same type and within a reasonable distance was in operation during that period, fix your ceiling prices as a new proprietor under the terms of section 8.

(3) If you cannot price under subparagraphs (1) or (2) above, you must apply for a price to the OPA District Office for the area in which your place is located. Your application must be filed ten days prior to the date you plan to commence operations and present the following information:

(i) Your name and address.

(ii) A brief description of your business and the manner of operation.

(iii) A list showing the prices you charged during the previous season as well as the prices you propose to charge during the coming season.

(iv) The date when you plan to commence operations.

(v) The names and addresses of two establishments similar to yours.

You may charge the prices listed if they are not disapproved by the Office of Price Administration prior to the date specified for the commencement of operations. That Office may at any time, after proper investigation and hearing, establish such maximum prices for your business as it deems proper.

This amendment to Restaurant Maximum Price Regulation No. 4–1 shall become effective August 2, 1943.

(Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871)

NOTE.—The reporting and record keeping provisions of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this July 22, 1943.

PART 1364—FRESH, CURED AND CANNED MEAT AND FISH

[Rev. MPR 239,[1] Amdt. 9]

LAMB AND MUTTON CARCASSES AND CUTS AT WHOLESALE AND RETAIL

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 1364.167 is amended to read as follows:

§ 1364.167 Duty to maintain grades and to determine maximum prices and to invoice accordingly. No person shall sell, offer to sell, ship, deliver or break and no person in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive any lamb or mutton carcass or cut unless it has been graded in accordance with the provisions of this section; and no person shall sell, offer for sale, or deliver and no person in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive any lamb or mutton carcass or cut at a price higher than that established for the grade in which such carcass or cut has been classified.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, it shall be the duty of each person to have all lambs, including yearlings, and all sheep slaughtered by or for him, or sold by him, classified by an official grader of the United States Department of Agriculture in accordance with the "Rules and Regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture Governing the Grading and Certification of Meats, etc.", as modified to the extent set forth in Appendix B of § 1364.527 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169, and as required by § 4002.3 of OES Regulation 1.[2] Each carcass and each wholesale cut derived therefrom shall be classified into one of the grades set out below.

Commercial or B
Cull or C
Yearling:
Choice or better or A
Good or B
Commercial or C
Utility or C
Cull or C
Mutton:

Utility or R
Cull or R

The "Specifications for Official U. S. Standards for Grades of Lamb Carcasses, Yearling Mutton Carcasses" set forth in Appendix J hereof, and incorporated herein as Section 1364.185, determine the proper classifications of each carcass, except that no mutton buck may be graded higher than commercial.

(b) In any instance where any person is unable to procure the services of an official grader within 24 hours after he has made an application for grading, pursuant to section 3 of Regulation No. 4 (Grading Service) incorporated by reference, as modified, in paragraph (a) hereof, such person shall not be required to have the lamb or sheep slaughtered by, or for him, or sold by him, graded by an official grader of the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture for so long a period as the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture certifies in writing that it is unable to provide him with the services of an official grader. During such period, such lamb or mutton carcasses shall be graded by such person in accordance with the requirements of paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) If the slaughterer is a farm slaughterer or if he is primarily the resident operator of a farm engaging only casually, and not as a business, in slaughtering sheep or lamb as a service for others, he shall not be required to have the lamb or sheep slaughtered by him graded by an official grader of the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture. Such lamb or mutton as is sold by such slaughterer, or is slaughtered by him as a service for sale by others, shall be graded by him in accordance with the requirements of paragraph (a) of this section.

(d) Whenever any person having a financial interest in any lamb or mutton carcass which has been graded by an official grader pursuant to paragraph (a) hereof or otherwise, is dissatisfied with the determination of such official grader, such person may appeal the grading by making an application for appeal in the manner provided in Reg. C., of such appeal.

(e) Each invoice, sales slip or other memorandum of sale covering sales of lamb or mutton carcasses, wholesale cuts or hotel supply cuts, shall show the grade and age classification of each lamb or mutton carcass or cut sold.

This amendment shall become effective as of July 16, 1943.

PART 1464—FRESH, CURED AND CANNED MEAT AND FISH

[Rev. MPR 169,[1] Amdt. 25]

BEEF AND VEAL CARCASSES AND WHOLESALE CUTS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this Amendment No. 25 to Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169 has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.[*]

1. Section 1364.401 (d) is amended to read as follows:

(d) Maximum prices for slaughtering services. Any person who slaughters cattle or calves as a service for the purchaser of such cattle or calves shall remit to such purchaser an amount sufficient to make the cost of the dressed beef or veal carcass or of the wholesale cuts derived therefrom to such purchaser, equal to or less than the costs which would be incurred by the purchaser, if he purchased the carcass or cuts from the slaughterer at the slaughterer's maximum price therefor: Provided, That this requirement shall not apply in cases where the purchaser does not acquire the carcasses or cuts for resale in any form: Provided further, That this requirement shall not apply with respect to the slaughter of cattle or calves for a purchaser who resells the meat derived therefrom other than at retail in those cases where the following circumstances exist and the slaughterer and purchaser have filed with the appropriate district, State, or regional office of the Office of Price Administration, evidence based upon regular business records showing that:

(1) The slaughterer during the period January, 1941, to March, 1942, inclusive, (i) did not sell any beef or veal carcasses or wholesale cuts and (ii) regularly slaughtered cattle or calves for such purchaser on a continuing contractual basis; and (2) during such period the purchaser (i) did not himself slaughter cattle or calves and (ii) procured at least 75 percent of the beef or veal sold by him from cattle or calves slaughtered for him by such slaughterer: Provided, further, That, on or after March 25, 1943, this requirement shall not apply in cases where the cattle or calves slaughtered are certified to be club cattle or calves within the meaning of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169, as amended, and the supervisor, club agent, agricultural county agent, or vocational agricultural project teacher as the case may be, has filed a sworn certificate to the effect with the appropriate district, State, or regional office of the Office of Price Administration or any duly authorized representative thereof. Carcasses derived therefrom must be graded in accordance with the grade specifications contained in this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169.

To enable the slaughterer to determine the amount to be remitted to the purchaser, it shall be the duty of such purchaser to advise the slaughterer of the amount paid for the cattle or calves slaughtered.

2. The headnote and introductory paragraph of Section 1364.411 is amended to read as follows:

§ 1364.411 Duty to maintain grades. No person shall sell, offer to sell, deliver or break any beef carcass or veal carcass, unless each such carcass has been graded in accordance with the provisions of this section. No custom slaughterer shall ship or deliver any beef carcass or wholesale cut, or veal carcass or wholesale cut unless each such carcass or wholesale cut has been graded in accordance with the provisions of this section. Each person shall maintain uniform grades, as specified in paragraph (a) of this section and shall determine his maximum prices upon the basis of such uniform grades rather than upon the basis of his own grades, as provided in paragraph (b) of this section.

3. Section 1364.411 (c) is amended to read as follows:

(c) Duty to identify product by sex marks. The sex identification shall be stamped on all bull and stag carcasses and wholesale cuts. The grade and prescribed sex identification of each beef carcass and wholesale cut, and veal carcass and wholesale cut must appear on the seller's invoice.

(1) The appropriate grade for each uniform grade shall be as follows:

Beef grade

Choice or AA.
Good or A.
Commercial or B.
Utility or C.
Canner, Cutter } or D.

Veal grade

Choice or AA.
Good or A.
Commercial or B.
Utility or C.
Cull or D.

(2) (i) No person shall sell, offer to sell, deliver or break any beef or veal carcass irrespective of grade unless such carcass has been examined and graded by an official grader of the United States Department of Agriculture in accordance with the "Rules and Regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture Governing the Grading and Certification of Meats, etc.", as modified to the extent set forth in Appendix B hereof, and as required by Section 4002.2 of OES Regulation 1.[2] However, in any instance where any person is unable to procure the services of an official grader within 24 hours after such person has made an application for grading, pursuant to section 3 of Regulation No. 4 (Grading Service) contained in § 1364.527 hereof, then the provisions of this subparagraph shall not apply, for so long a period as the Food Distribution Administration of the United States Department of Agriculture certifies in writing that it is unable to provide such person with the services of an official grader. During such period such beef and veal carcasses shall be graded by the seller in the manner provided in paragraphs (a), (b), (c) (1) and (c) (2) of this § 1364.411.

(ii) If the slaughterer is a farm slaughterer or if he is primarily the resident operator of a farm engaging only casually, and not as a business, in slaughtering cattle or calves as a service for others, he shall not be required to have the cattle or calves slaughtered by him graded by an official grader of the United States Department of Agriculture. Such beef or veal as is sold by such slaughterer, or is slaughtered by him as a service for sale by others, shall be graded by him in accordance with the requirements of paragraphs (a), (b), (c) (1), and (c) (2) of this § 1364.411. "Farm slaughterer" as used in this paragraph (c) (2) (ii) means a person chiefly engaged in producing agricultural products as the resident operator of a farm who did not deliver meat in 1941 of a live weight of more than 10,000 pounds and whose current slaughter is not in excess of that permitted such slaughterers under Food Distribution Order No. 27[3] or any superseding order.

(3) Whenever any person having a financial interest in any beef or veal carcass which has been graded by an official grader pursuant to paragraph (c) (3) hereof or otherwise, is dissatisfied with the determination of such official grader, such person may appeal the grading by making an application for appeal grading in the manner provided in Regulation No. 5 (appeal grading) contained in § 1364.527 hereof, and shall thereafter give immediate notice in writing to the Office of Price Administration at Washington, D. C. of such appeal.

4. The last paragraph of § 1364.452 (d) (2) is amended to read as follows:

The applicable zone price of each beef carcass or beef wholesale cut which has not been graded or identified by sex mark (required by paragraph (c) of § 1364.411) when offered for sale, sold or delivered shall be the price of the lowest-priced carcass or corresponding wholesale cut.

5. The last paragraph of § 1364.452 (d) (3) is amended to read as follows:

The applicable zone price of each kosher beef wholesale cut which has not been graded or stamped by sex marks (required by paragraph (c) of § 1364.411) when offered for sale, sold or delivered shall be the price of the lowest priced corresponding kosher wholesale cut.

6. The last 2 paragraphs of § 1364.467 (d) (2) are amended to read as follows:

The applicable zone price of each veal carcass or veal wholesale cut which has not been graded or identified by sex mark (required by paragraph (c) of § 1364.411) when offered for sale, sold or delivered shall be the price of the lowest-priced carcass or corresponding wholesale cut.

The applicable zone price of each kosher veal foresaddle or forequarter which has not been graded or identified by sex mark (required by paragraph (c) of § 1364.411) when offered for sale, sold or delivered shall be the price of the lowest-priced kosher wholesale cut.

This amendment shall become effective as of July 16, 1943.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

Bituminous Coal Division.

FORD MOTOR COMPANY, ET AL.

ORDER OF DIRECTOR

In the matter of application for determination of status of certain coals and their exemption from the provisions of section 4 of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937. Dockets Nos.: C-4, C-7, C-8, C-10, C-13, C-16, C-17, C-18, C-22, 58-FD, 59-FD, 477-FD, 490-FD, 597-FD, 599-FD, 1227-FD, 1560-FD, 1613-FD and 1877-FD.

These several proceedings were instituted by applications of various consumers and/or producers of bituminous coal seeking determination of the statuses of the coals produced at certain mines. The applications alleged exemption of the coals from the provisions of section 4 of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, under section 4 II (1) of the Act on the ground that they are both produced and consumed by the applicants, and/or under section 4-A of the Act on the ground that the transactions in these coals are in intrastate commerce and do not directly affect interstate commerce in coal, and/or under other provisions of the Act.[1]

Determinations have been made by the Director, in a number of these dockets, that the applicants are entitled to interim exemption of the coals involved pending final determination of the issues on the merits, or until the occurrence of some other contingency specified.

In Dockets Nos. C-16 and C-18, no hearings have been held on the applications of the Public Service Company of Indiana, Inc.

In the following proceedings, after appropriate notices, separate hearings have been held before duly-designated Examiners, interested parties being afforded an opportunity to participate fully therein; but no Examiners' Reports nor Director's orders have been issued:

given, and Reports of the Examiners have been issued finding that the applicants were not both the producers and the consumers and/or that the transactions involved were in interstate commerce or directly affected interstate commerce, and that, therefore, the applications should be denied:

In a number of these proceedings, exceptions were filed to the Reports of the Examiners and oral arguments thereon before the Director were requested.

In the following proceedings, after notices and hearings, the Examiners issued Reports in which they found that the applicants were both producers and consumers of the coal involved and, accordingly, entitled to exemption under section 4 II(1) of the Act; but none were found entitled to exemption under section 4–A of the Act as not being engaged in interstate commerce or commerce directly affecting interstate commerce:

Docket No. and Name

C–8, New York Central Railroad Company.
C–13, Colorado Fuel and Iron Corporation.
C–17, Public Service Company of Indiana, Inc.

Applications in Docket No. 599–FD were by Clearfield Bituminous Coal Corporation and New York Central Railroad Company. After notice, hearing, and filing of a Report by the Examiner, the Director issued an order denying the application of the Clearfield Bituminous Coal Corporation and dismissing the application filed by New York Central Railroad Company, on the ground that neither applicant was both a producer and consumer of the coal involved and that the transactions in the coal in question were in interstate commerce or directly affected interstate commerce. Before this order became effective, however, it was amended by an order suspending its effective date until further order, to enable the Director to determine whether the subsequent application filed by the New York Central Railroad Company in Docket No. C–8, referred to herein supra, was filed in good faith.

The Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, as amended, will terminate, except as provided in section 19 thereof, at 12:01 a. m. on August 24, 1943. At that time the scheme of price regulation established under the provisions of section 4 of the Act will become ineffective. Any relief which might be granted pursuant to section 4 II (1) or section 4–A, or other provisions of the Act, would be ineffective after that date. The above-enumerated proceedings all involve substantial questions of fact and would demand a careful weighing of the evidence if the issues were decided on the merits. In view of the approaching elapse of the statute, questions raised might become moot before reports could be submitted by the examiners where none have been issued, opportunities for filing exceptions accorded the parties, and the cases submitted to the Director for his consideration. The issues might likewise become moot before oral arguments could be held in the several cases where they were requested in exceptions to Reports issued by the Examiners. In those cases where Reports of the Examiners have been issued and no exceptions nor requests for oral argument have been filed, any orders of the Director on the merits which might be issued before the expiration of the Act would be subject to petitions for rehearing or reconsideration, and those proceedings might be prolonged until after the Act ceases to be in effect. Moreover, any order which might be issued before the expiration of the Act would become inoperative after the Act expires. For these reasons, I deem it unnecessary and inadvisable for any Examiner to file reports and for me to make findings of fact on the evidence and to consider the various issues on the merits.

Accordingly, I find that any interim exemptions now in effect should be terminated and the applications should be dismissed in Docket Nos. C–4, C–7, C–8, C–10, C–13, C–16, C–17, C–18, C–22, 58FD, 59FD, 477–FD, 490–FD, 597–FD, 599–FD, 1227–FD, 1560–FD, 1613–FD, and 1877–FD, effective 12:01 a. m. on August 24, 1943.

It is so ordered.

Dated: August 12, 1943.

BETHLEHEM STEEL CO. AND INDUSTRIAL COLLIERIES CORP.

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER OF DIRECTOR

In the matter of the acceptances of the Bituminous Coal Code submitted by Bethlehem Steel Company and Industrial Collieries Corporation with respect to certain mines in districts 1, 2, and 3.

On July 30, 1942, the Bethlehem Steel Company submitted to the Division, an acceptance of the Bituminous Coal Code in which it represented itself as the producer of coals from various mines located in Districts 1, 2, and 3 in the States of Pennsylvania and West Virginia. On the same day Industrial Collieries Corporation submitted to the Division an acceptance of the Bituminous Coal Code in which it represented that Bethlehem Steel Company is the operator of the same enumerated mines but stated that Industrial Collieries Corporation also had the right to mine coal from these mines for its own account.

By appropriate notice the Division scheduled a hearing to determine whether either or both of the above-named companies are producers within the meaning of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937. After notification to interested persons, a hearing was held October 20, 1942, before Travis Williams, a duly designated Examiner of the Division at a hearing room thereof in Washington, D. C. No report has as yet been submitted by the Examiner.

The Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 expires at 12:01 a. m., August 24, 1943. For this reason it appears appropriate to dismiss this proceeding forthwith.

It is so ordered.

Dated: August 12, 1943.

Director.

ORDER DISMISSING PROCEEDINGS

In the matter of the petition of District Board No. 11 for revision of the schedule of minimum prices applicable to coals shipped from District No. 9 and District No. 11 to Charlestown and Speed, Indiana, market area No. 31, for a recoordination of the delivered price relationships of such coals at said destinations, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

On July 20, 1942, after notice and hearing Charles O. Fowler, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, issued his report in which he recommended that the relief requested in the petition be granted by increasing the minimum f. o. b. mine prices of District 9 coals for delivery at Speed, Charlestown, and Watson, Indiana, in District 11, so as to effect the same delivered price differentials at these destinations between coals produced in Districts 9 and 11 as exist between the same coals in Market Area 29.[1] Thereafter exceptions were filed thereto by District Board 9 and by Bituminous Coal Consumers' Counsel, and on October 12, 1942, an order was entered reopening the hearing herein. On December 9, 1942, after due notice to interested persons, the reopened hearing was held before Examiner Charles O. Fowler. A supplemental report covering the evidence adduced at the reopened hearing has not been filed by the Examiner.

In view of the expiration of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 on August 24, 1943, at 12:01 a. m., the minimum price schedules established by the Division pursuant thereto would cease to be operative, and an order in connection therewith would be ineffective on the date and time aforesaid. In view thereof, it would also appear that it is unnecessary and inadvisable that a report of the Examiner be filed and an order of the Director determining the issues on the merits be issued.

It should be noted that District Board 11 in this proceeding is seeking increases in the minimum prices of coals produced in District 9 for shipment to certain destinations in a market area located in District 11, so as to effect fair and equitable delivered minimum price differentials between the coals produced in the two districts. It does not request increases in the minimum prices of coals produced in District 11. Although a favorable determination of the relief requested might result in a corresponding increase in the maximum prices of some coals produced in District 9 for movement to the destinations involved, the question of increases in maximum prices for the coals produced in either District 9 or District 11 was not under consideration or otherwise adverted to in this proceeding. Moreover, it is not within the authority of the Bituminous Coal Division under section 4 II (d) of the Act to assume jurisdiction of proceedings instituted for the primary purpose of effecting revision or adjustment of the maximum prices established by the Office of Price Administration. In view thereof, and in view of the expiration of the Act as aforesaid, it follows that no reason is presented for a determination of the issues herein on the merits, and it is deemed appropriate that the proceedings herein be dismissed.

It is, therefore, ordered, That effective August 24, 1943 at 12:01 a. m., this proceeding is dismissed.

Dated: August 12, 1943.

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER OF THE DIRECTOR

In the matter of the application of the M. A. Hanna Company for permission to accept and retain distributors' discounts on coal purchased and resold by it to M. A. Hanna Coal and Dock Company and M. H. Hussey Corporation.

On June 29, 1943, after notice and hearing, Joseph A. Huston, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, submitted a Report in which he found that the acceptance or retention of distributors' discounts by The M. A. Hanna Company, a registered distributor, (Registration No. 3962), petitioner, on coal purchased for resale to, and resold by, M. A. Hanna Coal and Dock Company and M. H. Hussey Corporation, in not less than cargo or railroad carload lots, or the equivalent thereof, without physically handling the same and not otherwise inconsistent with the Rules and Regulations for the Registration of Distributors, is not prohibited by section 317.19 (c) (formerly 304.19 (c)) of said Distributors' Rules, by the provisions of the Act or by other rules and regulations thereunder, but that the acceptance or retention of distributors' discounts by The M. A. Hanna Company or coal purchased for resale to, and resold by, M. A. Hanna Coal and Dock Company and M. H. The Examiner recommended that an order be entered granting relief in part and otherwise denying relief, in accordance with the proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law contained in said Report. An opportunity to file exceptions to the Report of the Examiner was afforded all interested parties, and as of the date hereof, no such exceptions have been filed.

I have considered the entire record in this proceeding, the brief filed by petitioner and the Examiner's Report, and upon the basis thereof I find that the Report adequately and accurately reflects the facts as disclosed by the record. Accordingly, I have concluded that the findings and conclusions therein contained should be approved and adopted as the findings of fact and conclusions of law of the Director.

Upon the basis of the entire record in this proceeding, and pursuant to section 317.19 (c) of the Rules and Regulations for the Registration of Distributors, and applicable provisions of the Act,

On August 3, 1943, United Gas Pipe Line Company, a Delaware corporation having its principal place of business at 1525 Fairfield Avenue, Shreveport, Louisiana, filed with the Federal Power Commission an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the construction and operation of a 4½" O. UNITED GAS PIPE LINE COMPANY

AUGUST 12, 1943.

On August 3, 1943, United Gas Pipe Line Company, a Delaware corporation, having its principal place of business at 1525 Fairfield Avenue, Shreveport, Louisiana, filed with the Federal Power Commission an application for permission and approval to remove and relocate certain natural-gas pipe-line facilities in Baton Rouge-New Orleans area, Louisiana, under section 7 (b) of the Natural Gas Act. The Applicant states that in order to meet the increased demand for natural gas in the New Orleans area mentioned, it is necessary to increase its pipe-line delivery capacity.

Applicant proposes to remove three segments aggregating approximately 108,000 feet of its 16" loops of the Baton Rouge-New Orleans line and to construct loops in its Lake Long-St. Rose line from a point located at Mile Post 18.86 from Long Field on the Godchaux Canal, La Fourche Parish, Louisiana, thence parallel with and in the present right-of-way of the said Lake Long-St. Rose line to the west header of the Mississippi River crossing, and from the east header of said crossing to point of connection of Lake Long-St. Rose line with Baton Rouge-New Orleans line near St. Rose, St. Charles Parish, Louisiana, a distance of approximately 18 miles, and to construct an additional 12" line crossing the Mississippi River between the abovementioned headers, a distance of 0.6 of a mile.

The Applicant further states that after giving effect to the proposed removal, it will have remaining a capacity for transportation of gas to be received by it from Interstate Natural Gas Company, Inc., of 84,000 Mcf per day, which it estimates will be ample for future requirements, although it is 13,000 Mcf per day less than the present maximum capacity of its Baton Rouge-New Orleans line to transport gas south from Baton Rouge.

Anyone desiring to be heard with respect to this application or to protest thereto should, on or before September 1, 1943, communicate with the Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington 25, D. C.

POWER LAUNDRIES IN WAYNE COUNTY, MICH.

Order No. G–5 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 165, as amended—Services. Power laundries in Wayne County, Michigan.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and under the authority vested in the Regional Administrator of Region III of the Office of Price Administration by section 114 (d) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 165, as amended, It is hereby ordered:

(a) The maximum prices established by Maximum Price Regulation No. 165, as amended, for family laundry services at retail supplied by power laundries situated in Wayne County, Michigan, are modified so that the maximum prices shall be the prices set forth in Appendix A.

(b) The maximum price of a family laundry service which does not conform exactly to the description of one of the family services listed in Appendix A shall be that of the listed service, all of whose specifications are met by the unlisted service. Thus, where an unlisted service offers more elements of laundry service than a particular listed service, but does not meet the specifications of a higher-priced listed service, its maximum price shall be that of the lower-priced listed service.

(c) The maximum prices for family laundry services other than those for which maximum prices are established by this order rendered by power laundries situated in Wayne County, Michigan, shall be governed by Maximum Price Regulation No. 165, as amended, or any other applicable price regulation.

(d) Power laundries situated in Wayne County, Michigan, shall continue to accept as wearing apparel and flatwork those articles which have customarily been accepted as such, but may charge for all others at list price. In the services numbered 4 and 5, starch must be supplied where necessary for proper finishing of wearing apparel (including shirts) unless the customer requests no starch. Handkerchiefs are to be priced and treated as wearing apparel.

(e) All power laundries shall continue to offer such discounts to cash-and-carry customers as were allowed in March 1942.

(f) Within thirty days after the issuance of this order, each laundry in Wayne County, Michigan, offering family laundry services at retail shall post in its own establishment in a place and manner so that it is plainly visible to the purchasing public a placard or poster containing the description of family laundry services and the specific ceiling prices approved for that laundry, and also a similar description, with prices as authorized, of any other family laundry service offered. Also, within thirty days after the issuance of this order, each such laundry shall furnish to each customer a statement containing in full such information as is required to be posted. Thereafter each new customer shall receive a copy of the same statement or an equivalent statement.

(g) A power laundry may not refuse to supply any lower-priced laundry service which it supplied in March 1942, if it supplies or offers to supply any higher-priced service which includes the same or substantially the same processes (with or without additional processes) as the low-priced service; except that a laundry may substitute for any service supplied in March 1942 the service listed in Appendix A of this order which most closely resembles it in specifications and price.

(h) No additional charges of any kind may be added to the maximum prices established by this order.

(i) Lower prices for each of the services covered by this order may be charged, offered, demanded, or paid.

(j) As used in this order, the terms:

(1) "Family laundry services" means all laundry services except those supplied on a commercial or institutional basis.

Order No. G-74 under §§ 1499.18 (c) and 1499.75 (a) (3) of the General Maximum Price Regulation and under § 1499.114 (d) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 165—Services. Adjusted Maximum prices for vegetable hauling and rental of power units in Wisconsin.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and under the authority vested in the Regional Administrator for Region VI of the Office of Price Administration by §§ 1499.18 (c) and 1499.75 (a) (3) of the General Maximum Price Regulation, and under § 1499.114 (d) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 165—Services, It is hereby ordered:

(a) What this order does. This order allows a permitted increase in the established maximum prices for the hauling of "listed vegetables" from growing fields to vineries, canneries and other processing plants, and from vineries to canneries and other processing plants. The order also allows increases in the established maximum price for rental of "power units" used by vineries. The "established" maximum price for sellers who did not furnish the same or similar hauling or rental services in the past is determined by reference to the price of the most closely competitive seller, in accordance with the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation and Maximum Price Regulation No. 165—Services.

(b) Permitted increases for hauling services. The following additions may be made to the established maximum prices for hauling or rental services covered by this order:

(1) Any hauler who has a maximum price established on a truck-man-hour basis may add 30¢ per truck-man-hour to his maximum price.

(2) Any hauler whose maximum price is established on some basis other than a truck-man-hour basis may add to his established maximum price a sum equal to 25% thereof. The hauler shall calculate his charges on the unit (such as per cwt., per ton, per mile, per load, per hour, or any other basis) actually used by him in establishing his maximum price. All calculations of the unit charge shall be carried to the nearest one-tenth of a cent.

(3) The maximum price for the rental of any power unit to any canner or processor of listed vegetables shall be the established maximum price plus a sum equal to 15% thereof.

(c) Definitions. As used in this order:

(1) "Listed vegetables" include the following vegetables and no others: Peas, carrots, corn, lima beans, tomatoes, beets, cabbage, snap beans, asparagus.

(2) "Truck-man-hour basis" refers to the practice of making a charge by the hour for the use of a vehicle in combination with the services of one man under an agreement or understanding whereby the lessor assumes the expense of operation and maintenance.

(3) "Hauling or rental services" include any transportation services and any leasing of transportation equipment, whether in combination with the services of a driver or otherwise. Services furnished by any person as an employee are not included.

(4) "Power unit" means any engine or motor used at vineries to furnish power in connection with the operations of a vinery.

(d) Geographical applicability. This order applies to hauling or rental services used in any transportation of listed vegetables from fields and vineries in Wisconsin and any transportation to vineries and processing plants located in Wisconsin. This order applies to all rental of "power units" to a vinery located in Wisconsin.

(e) Revocability. This order may be amended, corrected or revoked at any time.

(f) Effective date. This order shall become effective June 21, 1943.

[File Nos. 54-68 and 59-55]

COMMUNITY GAS AND POWER COMPANY AND AMERICAN GAS AND POWER COMPANY

NOTICE OF FILING AND NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING, AND ORDER CONSOLIDATING SUCH PROCEEDING WITH PENDING PROCEEDING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 12th day of August, A. D. 1943.

In the matter of Community Gas and Power Company and American Gas and Power Company, File No. 54-68; Community Gas and Power Company, American Gas and Power Company, and the subsidiary companies thereof, respondents, File No. 59-55.

I

Notice is hereby given that Community Gas and Power Company, a registered holding company, and American Gas and Power Company, a registered holding company and a subsidiary company of Community Gas and Power Company, have filed an amended plan pursuant to section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 for the purpose of effecting compliance with section 11 (b) of the Act.

All interested persons are referred to said amended plan, on file in the office of this Commission, for a full statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized as follows:

(1) The charter of American Gas and Power Company ("American") will be amended so as to change its authorized capital stock to 23,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $100 per share, and 600,000 shares of common stock, par value $7 per share. The preferred and common stocks of American shall have the preferences and rights presently possessed by the first preferred stock and common stock of Minneapolis Gas Light Company ("Minneapolis"), a Delaware corporation all of whose common stock is presently held by American, except that

(a) Whenever and as often as dividends payable on any series of preferred stock shall be accrued and unpaid in an amount equivalent to or exceeding four quarterly dividends, the preferred stock voting as a class shall be entitled to elect the smallest number of directors necessary to constitute a majority of the board of directors, and

(b) The common stock shall have preemptive rights to subscribe to any issues of common stock or securities convertible into common stock as such common stock or securities are sold or offered for cash.

(2) American will issue shares of its common stock which will be exchanged on the following bases:

(a) 47 shares of common stock for each $1,000 principal amount of secured debentures, 6% series, of American outstanding, together with all accrued and unpaid interest thereon ($500 debentures to receive 23½ shares);

(b) 46 shares of common stock for each $1,000 principal amount of secured debentures, 5% series, of American outstanding, together with all accrued and unpaid interest thereon ($500 debentures to receive 23 shares);

(c) One-fourth of a share of common stock for each share of American's common stock now outstanding.

American will issue its preferred stock in exchange for preferred stock of Minneapolis as hereinafter described.

No interest shall accrue or be payable upon the secured debentures of American subsequent to the fixed and conditional interest payable August 1, 1943.

Non-interest bearing, non-dividend bearing and non-voting scrip (exchangeable in round amounts for full shares and to become void unless so exchanged on or before December 31, 1945) shall be initially issued in lieu of fractional shares of common stock.

Scrip certificates representing fractional shares and warrants to purchase shares of common stock of American presently outstanding shall be void and of no further effect. Holders of secured debentures and of preferred and common stock of American not presented or surrendered pursuant to the 1935 Plan of Reorganization of American shall be entitled to receive shares of common stock of American (but no fractional interest therein) on the same basis as though such securities had been presented or surrendered under said 1935 Plan and the holders thereof had received the amended or new securities to which they were entitled under that Plan.

The following tabulation shows the principal amount of secured debentures and number of shares of common stock of American outstanding at April 30, 1943, together with the number of shares of common stock to be distributed in exchange therefor pursuant to the plan:

	Principal amount or number of shares outstanding at April 30, 1943	Number of shares of common stock to be issued in exchange
Secured debentures (6% series)	$4,213,500	198,034.5 sh.
Secured debentures (5% series)	$6,114,500	281,267 sh.
		526,710.875 sh.

(3) The trustee under the debenture agreement of American and supplements thereto shall release and deliver to American all the securities and cash held in pledge thereunder, and shall execute and deliver to American an instrument of satisfaction and discharge of said agreement and all supplements thereto. Secured debentures held by American in its treasury shall be surrendered to the Trustee and cancelled.

(4) No vote or consent by security holders of American will be requested or obtained in connection with the transactions outlined above, except that the amendment to the charter of American, as proposed in the plan, will require a majority vote of American's common stockholders pursuant to section 26 of the Delaware Corporation Law.

(5) The 8,562½ shares of common stock of American to be received by Community Gas and Power Company ("Community") under the amended plan will be sold by Community for cash in the over-the-counter market and the proceeds, together with Community's other funds (after payment of its liabilities and expenses), will be distributed pro rata to Community's Class A and Class B common stockholders of record as of a date to be fixed by Community's Board of Directors, provided that the right to receive distribution in kind of said shares of common stock of American shall be given to Community's stockholders, but only to the extent that distribution can be made of full shares. No vote or consent by Community's stockholders shall be requested or obtained.

(6) American will make every reasonable effort to sell to non-affiliated interests all its holdings in Birmingham Gas Company ("Birmingham"), Savannah Gas Company ("Savannah"), St. Augustine Gas Company ("St. Augustine"), Bangor Gas Company ("Bangor"), and Lowell Gas Light Company ("Lowell"), and perhaps, along with Lowell, in American Utilities Associates ("Associates"), a subsidiary of American, holding common stock of Lowell, when, as and if reasonable offers are obtained, and subject to authorization by the Commission. The proceeds of sale of said holdings shall be paid by American to Minneapolis and to Jacksonville Gas Corporation, ratably in accordance with the amounts due (including accrued interest) on the certificates of indebtedness of American held by said corporations at the time of each such payment, and, after said certificates of indebtedness shall have been paid in full, the remaining proceeds of sale shall be contributed by American to Minneapolis. At April 30, 1942, the certificates of indebtedness of American (including accrued interest) held by Minneapolis amounted to $1,615,123 and those held by Jacksonville Gas Corporation amounted to $71,887.

Minneapolis shall apply the moneys received by it from American, together with other funds available for the purpose, to the retirement of its outstanding participation units and first mortgage bonds by purchase or redemption, to the end that said participation units (aggregating $1,205,133 at April 30, 1943) may be eliminated and said bonds (principal amount outstanding at April 30, 1943, $11,772,000) may be reduced to $9,000,000 principal amount, provided that said participation units shall be retired on or before December 31, 1944, whether or not Minneapolis shall have received any moneys from American. In the event that any of said holdings shall be sold by American prior to consummation of the provisions summarized in paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 above, the proceeds thereof shall be deposited with the Trustee under the Debenture Agreement of American and paid over to American pursuant to paragraph 3 hereof. Associates will be continued in existence until Lowell shall be sold, after which Associates will be dissolved and liquidated and its assets (subject to payment of its liabilities and expenses) transferred to American in satisfaction of the notes and indebtedness of Associates held by American.

(7) Upon completion of the sales and payments provided in paragraph 6 above:

(a) Minneapolis will, subject to the consent of the City of Minneapolis, transfer, assign and convey all its property, franchises and assets to American. American will assume all the indebtedness and liabilities of Minneapolis, including its first mortgage bonds, will qualify to do business in Minnesota, and will change its name to Minneapolis Gas Light Company. Such change of name will require a majority vote by the holders of the then outstanding common stock of American pursuant to section 26 of the Delaware Corporation Law. No vote or consent by Minneapolis' security holders shall be requested or obtained in connection with these transactions.

(b) Subject to the consent of the City of Minneapolis to an appropriate amendment of Minneapolis' franchise, American will issue shares of its authorized preferred stock as follows:

(i) 1 share of preferred stock, $6 Series, for each outstanding share of first preferred stock, $6 Series of Minneapolis (5,841 shares outstanding at April 30, 1943);

(ii) 1 share of preferred stock, $5.50 Series, for each outstanding share of first preferred stock, $5.50 Series, of Minneapolis (8,254 shares outstanding at April 30, 1943);

(iii) 1 share of preferred stock, $5.10 Series, for each outstanding share of first preferred stock, $5.10 Series, of Minneapolis (4,024 shares outstanding at April 30, 1943).

(iv) 1 share of preferred stock, $5.00 Series, for each outstanding share of first preferred stock, $5.00 Series, of Minneapolis (4,448 shares outstanding at April 30, 1943).

(c) First mortgage bonds and first preferred stock held by Minneapolis in its treasury shall be cancelled and retired.

(d) American shall enter into a supplemental indenture with the Trustee under the first mortgage indenture of Minneapolis, whereby American shall assume and agree to pay the principal of and interest on the first mortgage bonds issued thereunder, shall agree to fulfill the covenants and conditions of said indenture, and further shall covenant and agree:

(i) To create a sinking fund for the bonds in an amount equal to $100,000 per year, payable either in cash to be applied to the purchase or redemption of bonds or by certification of property additions upon the basis mentioned in clause (iii) below;

(ii) To change the date from and after which property additions may be used as the basis for authentication of bonds or withdrawal of cash to the date of said supplemental indenture to be entered into;

(iii) To change the basis upon which bonds may be authenticated or cash withdrawn against certification of property additions from 70% to 60%.

(e) Minneapolis will be dissolved pursuant to section 39 of the Delaware Corporation Law and its common stock (together with the option to purchase additional shares thereof held by American) will be cancelled.

(f) Public Utilities Management Corporation shall be dissolved pursuant to section 105 of the New York Stock Corporation Law and all its assets (subject to payment of its liabilities and expenses) shall be transferred to American.

8. Community and American request that this Commission approve the Plan in accordance with section 11 (e) of the Act and apply to a court in accordance with the provisions of section 18 (f) of the Act to enforce and carry out the terms and provisions of the Plan. Community and American request that, in order that they may have the benefit of applicable provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, this Commission approve the Plan as necessary or appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the Act and specify and itemize the issues, transfers and exchanges of securities and the conveyances called for by the Plan.

Community and American reserve all their constitutional and legal rights and the right to amend, modify and alter the Plan from time to time as may be desirable or appropriate.

II

By Notice of Filing and Order for Hearing dated September 24, 1942, this Commission instituted proceedings against Community, American and their subsidiary companies under sections 11 (b) (1), 11 (b) (2), 12 (c), 12 (f), 13, 15 and 20 (a) of the Act.

During the pendency of said proceedings, Community and American submitted a plan under section 11 (e) of the Act (which plan has now been amended as set forth above), and Alfred MacArthur, Donald H. Carter, H. R. Baxter, H. W. Volk and Robert L. MacPhail, acting as a Committee for the secured debentures of American, which Committee had been granted leave to be heard in said proceedings, filed with the Commission a petition for leave to file modifications to the plan theretofore filed by Community and American.

Certain of the issues in said proceedings instituted by our order of September 24, 1942, were determined, and jurisdiction was reserved as to the remaining issues, by Order of this Commission dated July 2, 1943, on the basis of Findings and Opinion entered the same day.

In said Order dated July 2, 1943, this Commission ordered, among other things, that American dispose, or cause the disposition of its direct and indirect ownership, control and holding of securities issued and properties owned, controlled or operated by Birmingham, Savannah, Jacksonville Gas Company, St. Augustine, Bangor, Lowell, and Associates; that the corporate existence of Community and Associates be terminated and that Community and Associates be liquidated and dissolved; and that American change its present capital structure, consisting of secured debentures, indebtedness owed to subsidiary companies and common stock, into a capital structure consisting of one class of stock, namely common stock.

In and by said Order dated July 2, 1943, jurisdiction was reserved to this Commission to consider all other issues raised in the Notice of Filing and Order for Hearing of September 24, 1942, not then decided, including among others, questions relating to the disposition of the proceeds of any sales consummated pursuant to section 11 (b) (1) of said Act, the corporate structure of Minneapolis under sections 11 (b) (2), 12 (c) and 12 (f) of said Act, accounts under sections 15 (a), 15 (f) and 20 (a) of said Act, and the continued existence of American under section 11 (b) (2) of said Act.

III

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to said amended plan, and that said amended plan should not be approved except pursuant to further order of this Commission;

It further appearing to the Commission that some of the evidence in the pending proceedings under sections 11 (b) (1), 11 (b) (2), 12 (c), 12 (f), 13, 15 and 20 (a) (File No. 59-55) is also relevant to the issues presented by said amended plan, and that proceedings in respect of said amended plan and said proceedings instituted by this Commission involve common questions of law and fact and should be consolidated; it is Ordered, That such proceedings be and the same are hereby consolidated.

Further ordered, That a hearing on such matters under the applicable provisions of the Act and Rules of this Commission thereunder be held on September 20, 1943 at 10:00 a. m., e. w. t., at the offices of this Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. On such day the hearing room clerk in Room 318 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held.

Further ordered, That William W. Swift, or any officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose, shall preside at the hearing in such matters. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice.

Further ordered, That without limiting the scope of the issues presented in the consolidated proceedings, particular attention will be directed at the hearings to the following matters and questions:

(1) Whether the amended plan, as submitted or as hereafter modified, is necessary to effectuate the provision of section 11 (b) of the Act and is fair and equitable to the persons to be affected thereby.

(2) Whether consummation of the amended plan, as submitted or as hereafter modified, would constitute compliance with the Order of this Commission dated July 2, 1943. (File No. 59-55).

(3) Whether the proposed allocation of the common stock to be issued by American, among holders of the 6% debentures, 5% debentures, and presently outstanding common stock of American, is fair and equitable to each class of security holders.

(4) Whether the proposed application of the proceeds of sales by American of its holdings in Birmingham, Savannah, St. Augustine, Bangor and Lowell is fair and equitable to the creditors and security holders of American.

(5) Whether the proposed securities to be issued by American will be reasonably adapted to its security structure and earning power, and whether State laws applicable thereto will have been complied with.

(6) Whether, in the event that the Commission shall approve such plan as filed or as modified, the Commission shall approve such plan for purposes of section 11 (d) of the Act (as well as section 11 (e)) so as to permit the Commission of its own motion and irrespective of request therefor on the part of Community or American, to apply to a court for the enforcement of such plan pursuant to section 11 (d);

(7) Whether, in the event that the Commission shall not approve such plan as filed or as modified, the Commission shall itself propose and approve a plan for purposes of section 11 (d) or shall approve for purposes of section 11 (d) any plan that may be proposed by any person having a bona fide interest in the reorganization of Community or American;

(8) What fees and expenses are proposed to be paid in connection with the consummation of the amended plan, and whether such proposed fees and expenses are reasonable in amount.

(9) Generally, whether the proposed transactions are in all respects in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers and consistent with all applicable requirements of the Act and the Rules thereunder, and, if not, what modifications should be required to be made therein and what terms and conditions should be imposed to satisfy the statutory standards.

Further ordered, That notice of said hearing is hereby given to Community Gas and Power Company, American Gas and Power Company and their subsidiary companies and to all interested persons; said notice to be given to Community Gas and Power Company and American Gas and Power Company by registered mail, and to all other persons by publication of this Notice and Order in the FEDERAL REGISTER and by a general release of the Commission distributed to the press and mailed to the mailing list for releases issued under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard in these proceedings shall file with the Secretary of this Commission on or before September 13, 1943 an appropriate request or application to be heard, as provided by Rule XVII of the Commission's Rules of Practice.

Further ordered, That jurisdiction be and hereby is reserved to separate, either for hearing, in whole or in part, or for disposition, in whole or in part, any of the issues, questions or matters herein set forth or which may arise in these proceedings or to consolidate with these proceedings other filings or matters pertaining to said amended plan and to take such other action as may appear conducive to an orderly, prompt, and economical disposition of the matters involved.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

PART 1410—LIVESTOCK AND MEATS

REGULATIONS AFFECTING SLAUGHTERERS

Pursuant to the provisions of Food Distribution Order No. 75 (8 F.R. 11119), and to effectuate the purposes thereof, It is hereby ordered, As follows:

§ 1410.17 Regulations affecting slaughterers—(a) Definitions. When used in this order:

(1) The term "meat" means the carcasses of livestock, including beef, veal, lamb, mutton, or pork derived therefrom, and any processed or unprocessed edible part, cut, or trimming, regardless of how prepared or packaged; excluding, however, scrapple, souse, and other similar products, offal, oils, lards, rendering fats, raw leaf, casings, by-products not ordinarily used for human consumption, and skins of swine when prepared for use in leather, glue, and gelatin.

(2) The term "governmental agency" means (i) the Army, Navy, Marine Corps or Coast Guard of the United States (excluding for the purposes of this order, United States Army post exchanges, United States Navy ships' service departments, United States Marine Corps post exchanges, sales commissaries, and similar organizations); (ii) the Food Distribution Administration, War Food Administration (including but not restricted to the Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation); (iii) the War Shipping Administration; (iv) the Veterans' Administration; (v) contract schools and ship operators, as defined in Food Distribution Regulations 2 (8 F.R. 7523), when purchasing meat in accordance with the provisions of Food Distribution Regulation 2; (vi) any hospital, asylum, orphanage, prison, or similar institution, which is operated by any Federal, State, or local government or agency thereof, which took delivery of meat in the year 1941 under contracts awarded on the basis of competitive bids; and (vii) any other person designated by the Director.

(3) The term "Class 2A slaughterer" means a Class 2 slaughterer whose quota bases total, on a conversion weight basis, 2,000,000 pounds or more for a calendar year.

(4) The term "Class 2B slaughterer" means a Class 2 slaughterer whose quota bases total, on a conversion weight basis, less than 2,000,000 pounds for a calendar year.

(5) The term "authorized purchaser" means:

(i) Any person who is under contract to sell or deliver, to a governmental agency, meat or products prepared in whole or in part therefrom; or

(ii) Any person who has delivered, to a governmental agency, meat or products prepared in whole or in part therefrom, and has not replaced the meat so delivered, or contained in the products so delivered, by a purchase without charge against quota under the provisions of (i) hereof; or

(iii) Any person who is authorized by the Director to purchase meat.

(6) The term "slaughter" means the killing of livestock, or causing livestock to be killed for the production of meat for human consumption.

(7) The term "deliver" means to transfer physical possession of meat. The transfer of meat by a slaughterer to a unit or department of his establishment for use in the preparation or manufacture of any product other than meat, the use of meat for such purpose without any such transfer, or the transfer or shipment of meat to any branch house of a slaughterer, shall constitute a delivery. The placing of meat in a public warehouse solely for the purpose of storage shall not be deemed a delivery, but the withdrawal of such meat from such warehouse by any person other than such slaughterer shall be deemed a delivery.

(8) The term "conversion weight" means the dressed weight equivalent of the meat derived from the slaughter of livestock, determined as prescribed in (p) hereof.

(9) The term "dressed carcass" means a carcass dressed in accordance with normal trade custom and in the following state:

(i) In the case of beef, with the kidney knob in;

(ii) In the case of veal, with the hide on or off;

(iii) In the case of pork, with the leaf fat and kidney out, the jowls on, and the head off;

(iv) In the case of lamb and mutton, with pluck out.

(10) The term "veal" means meat derived from calves, the dressed carcasses of which have the veal or calf characteristics defined by the United States Department of Agriculture (A. M. A. Reg. 114, Official United States Standards for Grades of Veal and Calf Carcasses 1940), and weigh with the hide off not more than 275 pounds.

(11) The term "cutter and canner grades of beef" means meat conforming to the specifications for cutter and canner grades of steer, heifer, and cow carcass beef set forth in Service Regulatory Announcement No. 99, Official United States Standards for Grades of Carcass Beef, United States Department of Agriculture, Agricultural Marketing Administration, Reprinted with Amendments March 1942.

(12) The term "minimum sanitary facilities" means a structure that is reasonably fly and rodent proof with ample light and ventilation, which has concrete or comparably sanitary floors with adequate drainage system, is provided with clean water and which, together with all equipment, is in a clean and orderly condition. Such structure must be a reasonable distance from stables, barnyard, hog lot, refuse heap, privy, or other source of fly breeding or contamination.

(13) The term "adequate facilities" means:

(i) Equipment in good order for the proper skinning and dressing of animals, and the rendering of fat or tallow; and

(ii) Storage or other equipment for retaining or preserving edible or inedible by-products to insure against spoilage.

(14) Any term not specifically defined herein shall have the meaning ascribed thereto in Food Distribution Order No. 75.

(b) Limitations on slaughter and delivery. (1) Except as otherwise provided herein:

(i) No Class 1 or Class 2A slaughterer shall, during any quota period, deliver or offer to deliver more meat of any type than his quota for such period.

(ii) No Class 2B slaughterer shall, during any quota period, slaughter more livestock of each type than his quota for such period, except that such slaughterer may, without a quota, slaughter for home consumption livestock which he has raised on his premises.

(iii) No Class 3 slaughterer shall, during any quota period, slaughter more livestock of each type than his quota for such period, except that such slaughterer may, without a quota, slaughter livestock for home consumption or for consumption on his premises, by his resident or seasonal employees.

(2) The delivery of meat by any Class 1 or Class 2A slaughterer, or the slaughter of livestock by any Class 2B or Class 3 slaughterer, in excess of such slaughterer's quota for any quota period, shall be charged against such slaughterer's quota for the subsequent quota period, and in addition thereto shall subject such slaughterer to such other actions, penalties, or proceedings as may be prescribed by law or imposed pursuant to this order.

(3) Any Class 1 or Class 2A slaughterer who, during any quota period, does not deliver his entire quota for such period, may carry over an amount of such unused quota, not to exceed 5 percent of his entire quota for such period, to the next succeeding quota period, and his authorized deliveries for such succeeding period shall be increased in that amount.

(c) Quota periods. There are hereby established the following quota periods:

(1) For Class 1 and Class 2A slaughterers:

(i) Quota Period 4: July 1, 1943, to September 30, 1943, inclusive: Provided, however, That any Class 1 slaughterer who, on August 14, 1943, had a quota period computed on a monthly basis, shall remain on such basis until October 1, 1943.

(ii) Each subsequent calendar quarter shall constitute a quota period and shall be consecutively numbered.

(2) For Class 2B slaughterers: Each calendar or accounting month shall constitute a quota period.

(3) For Class 3 slaughterers: Each calendar quarter shall constitute a quota period.

(d) Corresponding base period. The term "corresponding base period" means that month or calendar quarter of 1941 which corresponds with a given month or calendar quarter of a quota period.

(e) Substituted quota and base periods. If the accounting periods used by a Class 1 or Class 2A slaughterer during 1941 do not coincide with the quota periods and corresponding base periods established by this order, he may substitute his accounting periods for such quota and corresponding base periods, Provided, That:

(1) The accounting periods so substituted for quota periods contain the same number of calendar days as the accounting periods so substituted for corresponding base periods, and

(2) The accounting periods so substituted shall end on Saturday or Sunday, and shall begin and end within seven (7) days of the beginning and end of the corresponding base periods established by this order.

(f) Quota bases. There are hereby established quota bases for each type of meat or livestock as follows:

(1) For Class 1 and Class 2A slaughterers. The quota base in effect on August 14, 1943, as established for such slaughterer under any Food Distribution Order. Any quota base so established on a live weight basis shall be recalculated on a conversion weight basis. Any quota base established for a Class 1 slaughterer upon a monthly basis shall remain upon such basis until October 1, 1943.

(2) For Class 2B slaughterers. The quota base in effect on August 14, 1943, as established for such slaughterer under any Food Distribution Order: Provided, however, That such quota bases shall be calculated separately for each type of livestock.

(3) For Class 3 slaughterers. (i) The number of head of each type of livestock or, at the option of such slaughterer, the total live weight of livestock owned by him at the time of slaughter in the corresponding base period; or

(ii) Any other quota base in effect on August 14, 1943, as established in connection with a permit issued to such slaughterer under any food distribution order.

(4) For any person who receives a license or permit under the provisions of (i) of Food Distribution Order No. 75: Such base as shall be established for him by the Director.

The Director, upon application, may fix for any slaughterer a quota base for a quota period for any type of meat not delivered or any type of livestock not slaughtered during the corresponding base period.

The quota base of any person who is reclassified pursuant to the provisions of Food Distribution Order No. 75, shall be recalculated from a monthly to a quarterly basis, or vice versa, as the case may require.

(g) Computation of quotas. (1) The quota of any Class 1 or Class 2A slaughterer for each type of meat for any quota period shall be the conversion weight obtained by multiplying the quota base for such type of meat by the applicable percentage as specified in (h) hereof, and by adjusting the result by deductions or additions as required or authorized by (b) (2) and (3) hereof, and by any adjustments, exemptions, or authorizations granted by the Director.

(2) The quota of any Class 2B or Class 3 slaughterer for each type of livestock for any quota period shall be calculated by multiplying the quota base for such type of livestock by the applicable percentage as specified in (h) hereof, and by adjusting the result by deductions as required in (b) (2) hereof, and by any adjustments, exemptions, or authorizations granted by the Director.

(h) Quota percentages established.

(i) Slaughter or delivery without charge against quotas. (1) Any Class 1 or Class 2 slaughterer may deliver meat without charge against his quota to any governmental agency, Provided, That if such delivery is not covered by a written contract, he obtains a certificate in accordance with the provisions of (k) hereof.

(2) Any Class 1 or Class 2A slaughterer may deliver meat without charge against his quota to any authorized purchaser, any other Class 1 or Class 2A slaughterer, or any owner of livestock which has been custom slaughtered, Provided, That he obtains a certificate in accordance with the provisions of (k) hereof.

(3) Any Class 2B or Class 3 slaughterer may custom slaughter livestock without charge against his quota: Provided, That he obtains a certificate in accordance with the provisions of (k) hereof.

(j) Custom slaughter; Certificate required. No person shall custom slaughter any livestock or deliver any meat derived therefrom unless he obtains a certificate from the owner of such livestock pursuant to the provisions of (k) hereof.

(k) Certificates. Certificates executed under (i) or (j) hereof shall be submitted to the deliverer within 10 days after delivery, shall be signed by the person or agency receiving delivery, or by an authorized representative, shall acknowledge receipt of the meat, and shall contain the following:

(1) The name and address of the person or agency to whom delivery is made, the date or dates of delivery, and the total weight of each type of meat. If the deliverer is a Class 1 or Class 2A slaughterer, he shall include a description of the meat enabling conversion in accordance with the provisions of (p) hereof;

(2) If delivery is to an authorized purchaser as defined in (a) (5) (i) hereof, a statement by him that the meat so delivered, or an equivalent amount of meat of the same type and grade, will be or has been used in the fulfillment of a contract with a governmental agency and that such contract was entered into prior to the date of delivery to the authorized purchaser and unfulfilled at such date;

(3) If delivery is to an authorized purchaser as defined in (a) (5) (ii) hereof, a statement by him that he has delivered meat, or products containing meat, to a governmental agency and has not replaced such meat by a purchase without charge against quota under the provisions of (i) hereof;

(4) If delivery is to an authorized purchaser as defined in (a) (5) (iii) hereof, a reference by date or number, or both, to the Director's designation of such person as an authorized purchaser, together with a statement by him that the meat so delivered, or an equivalent amount of meat of the same type and grade, will be used for the purpose authorized by such designation;

(5) If delivery is to any other Class 1 or Class 2A slaughterer, a statement by such slaughterer that such meat will be charged against his quota;

(6) If delivery is to an owner of livestock which has been custom slaughtered, the license or permit number of the owner, together with a statement by him acknowledging ownership, at the time of slaughter, of such livestock, and a statement that the meat derived therefrom will be charged against his quota unless it is redelivered without charge against such owner's quota. If such owner is a person entitled to have livestock slaughtered without a license or permit, he shall state the basis upon which he is so entitled, and include a statement that the meat is for home consumption in lieu of the license or permit number requirement and in lieu of a statement that the meat will be charged against his quota. The person who custom slaughters shall endorse upon such certificate the number of head and the dressed or live weight of each type of livestock slaughtered and the date or dates of slaughter.

All certificates shall be retained by the slaughterer or person who custom slaughters for delivery to the Director upon request. All statements contained in or accompanying such certificates shall be deemed representations to an agency of the United States. No person shall be entitled to rely upon any such certificate if he knows or has reasonable cause to believe it to be false. Any slaughterer or person who fails to obtain such certificate or to produce the same upon request by the Director shall, in addition to all other penalties provided for violations of this order, have charged against his quota the amount of meat so delivered.

(l) Delivery through intermediate persons. Any person, other than a Class 1 or Class 2 slaughterer, who delivers meat to a governmental agency pursuant to a contract between himself and such agency for the delivery of such meat, may execute and sign a certificate which shall contain the contract number of the contract with such governmental agency, together with the information specified under (k) (1) hereof. Any such person who, in the absence of a written contract, makes deliveries of meat to a governmental agency, may obtain the applicable certification in accordance with the provisions of (k) hereof. Certificates so executed or obtained may be passed through one or more persons to a Class 1 or Class 2A slaughterer who may, in exchange for such certificate, and without charge against quota, deliver to the holder thereof an amount of meat of the same type and grade equivalent on a conversion weight basis to the meat described in such certificate.

(m) Sanitary and conservation facilities. (1) No slaughterer shall deliver for human consumption, or offer for delivery for human consumption, any meat or meat product which is diseased, unsound, unhealthful, unwholesome, or otherwise unfit for human food.

(2) No Class 2 slaughterer and no person who custom slaughters livestock, except in those cases where custom slaughtering is done on a farm for a farmer, shall slaughter livestock in the absence of minimum sanitary facilities and adequate facilities for the conservation and preservation of all edible and principal inedible by-products. Compliance with sanitary requirements for State, county, or city inspection may be considered as compliance with this requirement.

(n) Slaughterers owning retail establishments. In the case of a slaughterer who owns five or more establishments selling meat principally at retail, his operations in connection with such retail establishments shall not be considered as part of his operations for the purposes of this order.

(o) Markings required on meat. (1) Every Class 2 and Class 3 slaughterer shall, prior to delivery, mark a number upon each accessible wholesale cut of meat, whether in the entire carcass or detached therefrom. Such mark shall be made in a plain and conspicuous manner one or more times as hereinafter directed. (This requirement shall not apply to meat transferred by a Class 2 slaughterer to a unit or department of such slaughterer for use in the preparation, manufacture, or production of any product or commodity other than meat.) In the case of veal carcasses delivered with the skin on, marks shall be placed on the hind shanks and brisket. Marks may be made with a pencil approved for Kosher marking or with a stamp or stencil and marking fluid conforming to the approved formula for violet branding fluid, which is as follows:

	Ounces
Water	3.5
Grain alcohol—95%	2.5
Cane sugar	1.0
Methyl violet	.1

(The methyl violet is dissolved in the alcohol and a portion of the water; the sugar is dissolved in the remaining portion of the water and added to the methyl violet solution. Thorough stirring facilitates solution of the methyl violet.)

(2) Where such slaughterer's establishment has been assigned an establishment number by a State, county, or city inspecting authority, or by the Food Distribution Administration, he may use the number so assigned.

(3) Where such slaughterer's establishment has no establishment number assigned by an inspecting authority or by the Food Distribution Administration, a number will be assigned to his establishment upon application by him to the Director. Marks made with numbers so assigned shall be in letters at least ¼ inch in height and width.

(4) Any Class 3 slaughterer who delivers meat directly to an individual or household by whom the meat is to be consumed may comply with the requirements of this paragraph (o) by attaching to such meat a tag bearing his permit number.

(p) Conversion weight factors. (1) The conversion weight of swine slaughtered during a period shall be determined exclusively by computing the average live purchase weight of all swine slaughtered (less condemnations) and multiplying the total live purchase weight of such swine by the conversion factor set forth below for the weight range within which the average live purchase weight falls: Provided, That, if the average live purchase weight of swine slaughtered during any quota period is within 30 pounds of the average live purchase weight of swine slaughtered during the corresponding base period, the conversion weight factor used shall be the factor applicable to the weight range which includes the average live purchase weight of swine slaughtered during the corresponding base period:

The term "boned" describes cuts from which 50 percent or more of the bone, by weight, has been removed by the process of boning, and the term "not boned" describes cuts from which none or less than 50 percent of the bone, by weight, has been removed, and primal cuts which contain no bone.

(3) The conversion weight of meat of any type used in the preparation of sausage, or in the preparation of canned meat or any other meat product not specified above, shall be computed by determining, on the basis of the manufacturing formula, the net weight of meat of such type used in the processing thereof, and multiplying such net weight by the applicable conversion factor set forth above for such type of meat. The net weight of meat which is cooked and used in the preparation of canned meat not specified above shall be the weight thereof before cooking.

(q) Licenses, permits, quotas, quota bases; suspension, revocation, revision, and adjustment by the Director. The Director may, in accordance with the procedure applicable in such cases and if he deems it necessary to assure efficient distribution of meat for essential war and civilian needs:

(r) Records and reports. (1) Every Class 1 and Class 2A slaughterer shall submit a report showing deliveries made during each monthly accounting period, and every Class 2B slaughterer, except those whose quota bases are established upon a head basis and total, for a calendar year, less than 50 head of cattle and less than 300 head of livestock, shall submit a report covering each month's operations. Such report shall be sent within 10 days after the end of each monthly accounting period and shall contain the information required by and be in accordance with forms prescribed by the Director.

(2) Every Class 2B and Class 3 slaughterer shall keep an accurate record of the number of each type of livestock slaughtered and the total weight of all meat delivered during each quota period.

(3) The license number or permit number of every slaughterer shall appear on all reports required to be submitted to the Director under this order.

(4) Every slaughterer shall, for a period of two years, or for such other period of time as the Director may require, retain a record of all information which he is required to keep or report under this order, together with all data necessary to support such information.

In addition, any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order is guilty of a crime and may be prosecuted under any and all applicable laws. Civil action may also be instituted to enforce any liability or duty created by, or to enjoin any violation of, any provision of this order.

(v) Petition for relief from hardship. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, may apply in writing to the Director for relief, setting forth in such petition all pertinent facts and the nature of the relief sought. The Director may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate, which action shall be final.

(w) Territorial scope. The provisions of this order shall apply to operations conducted within the 48 States and the District of Columbia.

PART 1450—TOBACCO

RESTRICTIONS ON 1943 CROP FLUE-CURED TOBACCO

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by Food Distribution Order 4, issued by the Secretary of Agriculture on January 7, 1943, as amended (8 F.R. 335 and supra), It is hereby ordered, As follows:

§ 1450.3 Restrictions on 1943 crop flue-cured tobacco—(a) Definitions. When used in this order, unless otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent hereof:

(1) The term "flue-cured tobacco" means tobacco of Type 11, 12, 13, or 14, as defined in the Official Standard Grades for Flue-cured Tobacco, promulgated by the Secretary of Agriculture (7 CFR 29.151 et seq.), pursuant to the Tobacco Inspection Act (7 U.S.C. 1940 ed. 511 et seq.).

(2) The term "manufacturer" means any person who processes tobacco into a product for consumer use which is subject to taxation under the Internal Revenue Code (26 U.S.C. 1940 ed. 2000-2040).

(3) The term "dealer" means any person, other than a manufacturer, who buys tobacco for resale in redried condition and packed in containers.

(4) The term "speculator" means any person who purchases tobacco at auction or otherwise for resale at auction in unpackaged and in undried condition.

(5) The term "warehouseman" means any person who operates a warehouse for the sale of tobacco at auction.

(6) The term "warehouse" means any building or structure in which tobacco is sold at auction.

(7) The term "farm scrap" means any loose, tangled, untied, and unstemmed tobacco salvaged as a by-product in harvesting, stripping, classing, and tying on the farm and consisting chiefly of barn and strip-house floor sweepings and very inferior quality leaves not sold at auction by growers.

(8) The term "auction scrap" means any loose, untied, and unstemmed tobacco consisting entirely of floor sweepings, loose and tangled leaves, or portions of leaves which accumulated from unavoidable droppings or breakage in careful handling of tobacco on auction warehouse floors and which consists exclusively of such tobacco salvaged as a by-product of auction marketing.

(b) Restrictions. (1) No manufacturer shall, directly or indirectly, purchase or accept delivery of a total quantity of 1943 crop flue-cured tobacco which is in excess of the quantity allocated to such manufacturer by the Director. Each manufacturer's allocation shall be expressed as a percentage of the 1943 crop, sold or to be sold, and may be granted to any such manufacturer upon the basis of information heretofore or hereafter submitted by him to the Director. The allocation percentage of each manufacturer shall include farm scrap and auction scrap and shall be determined by dividing the total quantity of flue-cured tobacco used by such person as a manufacturer during the period from July 1, 1942, to June 30, 1943, inclusive, by the total usings of such tobacco by all manufacturers during such period and multiplying the quotient by the factor .58.

(2) No manufacturer shall purchase on auction markets a total quantity of 1943 crop flue-cured tobacco which is in excess of that quantity allocated to him by the Director for purchase at auction, which quantity shall be determined by the percentage which his purchases at auction bore to his total purchases from the crops of flue-cured tobacco of the years 1939, 1940, 1941, and 1942.

(3) No dealer shall, directly or indirectly, purchase for his own account, or cause to be purchased for his account, on auction markets or from producers, a total quantity of 1943 crop flue-cured tobacco which is in excess of that quantity allocated to him by the Director. Each dealer's allocation which shall be exclusive of farm scrap and auction scrap, shall be expressed as a percentage of the 1943 crop, sold or to be sold, and may be granted upon the basis of information heretofore or hereafter submitted by such dealer to the Director. The allocation percentage of each dealer shall be determined by dividing the average purchases of such dealer from the 1939, 1940, 1941, and 1942 crops of flue-cured tobacco by the average of all purchases of all dealers during the same period, and multiplying the quotient by the factor .175: Provided, That purchases by a dealer of flue-cured tobacco of the 1939, 1940, 1941, and 1942 crops resold at auction by such dealer, or for his account, shall not be included in the computation of the allocation of such dealer.

(4) No warehouseman shall purchase for his own account, or sell, or cause to be sold, to speculators, or to any other person, for resale at auction, 1943 crop flue-cured tobacco in a quantity which shall exceed 10 percent of the net amount of tobacco sold by him for producers during the 1943 season.

(5) No person owning or operating a tobacco redrying plant shall redry or pack 1943 crop flue-cured tobacco owned by any person other than a dealer or manufacturer to whom an allocation has been granted.

(6) For the purposes of this order, buying orders shall be charged to the quota of the manufacturer or dealer for whom such buying order was executed.

(7) For the purposes of this order, tobacco bought at auction on contract for future delivery shall be considered as acquired for the dealer's own account.

(8) The poundage figures used in computing allocations pursuant hereto shall be reduced to an undried (green weight) basis. Tobacco in the steam-dried condition and in unstemmed form shall be converted to the undried basis by multiplying the number of pounds by the factor 1.12. Tobacco in the steam-dried condition and in stemmed form shall be converted to the undried basis by multiplying the number of pounds by the factor 1.44.

(9) The restrictions of this order shall be observed without regard to the rights of creditors, prior contracts, existing contracts, payments made, or deliveries of 1943 crop flue-cured tobacco made prior to the effective time hereof, and purchases or sales of 1943 crop flue-cured tobacco, made prior to the effective time hereof, shall be charged to the respective quotas in accordance with the provisions hereof, as if such sales were made after the effective time of this order.

(c) Modification and amendment. Any allocation made pursuant hereto may be modified, amended, or supplemented from time to time by notice or letter, issued by the Director, to any person to whom such allocation has been made.

(d) Effective date. This order shall become effective at 12:01 a. m., e. w. t., Aug. 14, 1943.

(E.O. 9280, 7 F.R. 10179; E.O. 9322, 8 F.R. 3807; E.O. 9334, 8 F.R. 5423; FDO 4, 8 F.R. 335 and supra)

RAINBOW MEAT MARKET

Charles Cornaglia and Andrew Cornaglia, individually and as co-partners doing business under the trade name of Rainbow Meat Market, 1077 South Ninth Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania (hereinafter referred to as "respondents"), were duly served with a Statement of Charges and Procedure, informing them that they were charged with a violation of Food Distribution Order 27 (8 F.R. 2785), issued by the Secretary of Agriculture on March 5, 1943, as amended. The respondents did not file an answer, but did request a hearing. Pursuant to this request, a hearing was held at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on May 24, 1943, before a duly authorized presiding officer. The respondents appeared at the hearing by Charles Cornaglia, one of the co-partners of the Rainbow Meat Market, and by counsel. A representative of the War Food Administration also appeared at the hearing. It was stipulated at the hearing that Charles Cornaglia and Andrew Cornaglia, brothers, individually and as co-partners, operated the Rainbow Meat Market, and that the proceedings herein should be directed against them in such capacities. Data and information pertaining to the violation alleged in the Statement of Charges were presented on behalf of the interested parties. The War Food Administrator, acting under authority conferred upon him by Executive Order No. 9322 (8 F.R. 3807), as amended by Executive Order No. 9334 (8 F.R. 5423), and having considered all the data and information pertaining to the alleged violation by respondents of the provisions of the said food distribution order, hereby determines, That:

(a) The respondents, individuals and as co-partners doing business under the trade name of Rainbow Meat Market at 1077 South Ninth Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, are subject to the said food distribution order.

(b) Pursuant to the provisions of the said food distribution order, there was issued to respondents a permit authorizing the slaughter of livestock for the delivery of meat, in accordance with the provisions of the said order. The quota of calves, hogs, and sheep or lambs, respectively, that respondents were entitled to slaughter for delivery of meat during April 1943, was 122 calves, 30 hogs, and 50 sheep or lambs.

(c) Respondents, as alleged in the Statement of Charges, have violated the said food distribution order in that during the period from April 1 to April 30, 1943, respondents slaughtered calves, hogs, and sheep or lambs for delivery of meat in excess of their quota for the said month.

Because of the great scarcity of meat, including meat products, in the channels of distribution for the fulfillment of the requirements of the United States for defense, for private account, and for export, and because of the importance of having meat, including meat products, distributed in a manner to assure an adequate supply and efficient distribution thereof for war and essential civilian needs, the aforesaid violation by respondents has impeded the war effort and has, therefore, been contrary to public interest. It also appears that further violations by respondents are likely unless appropriate action is taken.

It is therefore ordered, That:

(b) Respondents, their agents, successors, or assigns shall not, in any manner, directly or indirectly, (1) slaughter livestock, or cause livestock to be slaughtered, for delivery of meat; or (2) receive or accept delivery of meat for the purpose of resale or redelivery thereof to others.

(c) No person shall, in any manner, directly or indirectly, (1) transfer to respondents, their agents, successors, or assigns any livestock for the purpose of having said livestock slaughtered by the respondents, their agents, successors, or assigns for the delivery of meat; or (2) transfer or deliver to respondents, their agents, successors, or assigns any meat for the purpose of sale or disposition by or through respondents, their agents, successors, or assigns.

(d) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve respondents, their agents, successors, or assigns from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any order or regulation of the War Food Administrator, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(e) Any terms used in this order that are defined in Food Distribution Order 27 (8 F.R. 2785), issued by the Secretary of Agriculture on March 5, 1943, as amended, shall have the same meaning therein given to them unless otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent thereof.

(f) This order shall become effective 12:01 a. m., e. w. t., Aug. 23, 1943, and, unless sooner terminated, shall expire 12:01 a. m., e. w. t., Oct. 23, 1943.

(E.O. 9280, 7 F.R. 10179; E.O. 9322, 8 F.R. 3807; E.O. 9334, 8 F.R. 5423)

Issued this 13th day of August 1943.

War Food Administrator.

(e) "Agency", shall refer to the Five Civilized Tribes Agency, Muskogee, Oklahoma,

(f) "Department" shall mean Department of the Interior.

Commissioner. The function of determining heirs and probating estates in conformity with the provisions of these regulations shall be performed by the Commissioner, with the right of appeal to the Secretary within 60 days from the date of notice of the Commissioner's decision.

§ 82.1 Inventory. As soon as possible after the death of a restricted Indian, the Superintendent shall cause to be prepared an inventory showing in detail the description and value of the restricted estate of such deceased Indian.

When the inventory discloses that such restricted estate consists only of funds or securities under the control of the Department not to exceed an aggregate value of $2,500, the Superintendent shall furnish a certified copy of said inventory to the Examiner, together with information as to the date of death and place of residence of said decedent.

§ 82.2 Notice of hearing. As soon as possible after the receipt of the inventory provided for in § 82.1 of this part, the Examiner shall post for twenty days in five or more conspicuous places in the vicinity of the place of hearing, notice of the time and place of the hearing when testimony will be taken to determine the heirs of the deceased Indian (naming him), and call on all persons interested to attend the hearing.

§ 82.3 Examination of records. Prior to the hearing the Examiner shall carefully inspect the allotment records, census cards, annuity rolls and any other records on file at the agency and obtain all other information which may enable him to make a list of the apparent heirs of the deceased Indian, but only in contested cases or in cases involving material conflict between the records and the evidence shall it be necessary for the Examiner to prepare and forward with his report exact copies of such records.

§ 82.4 Personal service on interested parties. A written notice of the proposed hearing giving full information as to the estate, names of alleged claimants, time and place of hearing shall be served either personally or by mail on each claimant or presumptive heir. Such notices must be sent at least ten (10) days prior to the date of the hearing.

§ 82.05 Proof of service. A copy of each notice to a claimant or presumptive heir endorsed by the person serving the same on the party to whom addressed that a copy of the within notice was delivered to him personally at the place named and on the day stated or an affidavit or copy of the notice endorsed by the claimant or presumptive heir that service was accepted on the day and at the place stated; or a certificate by the person mailing the notice that a copy of said notice was mailed to the interested party at his last known post office address, postage prepaid, or a registry receipt card, must be filed with the record of every case.

§ 82.6 Full notice must be given. Unless a full twenty-day (20) notice has been given, no hearing shall be held except by special permission of the Commissioner: Provided, however, That in cases involving no contest the parties in interest may appear before the Examiner and waive their right to said twenty-day (20) notice, and the Examiner, in that event, is authorized to proceed with the taking of testimony; the same to be withheld until the time of hearing, when it shall be read aloud to permit any interested persons present to offer any objections thereto. In case no objections are offered at the hearing the Examiner will proceed to hear the case in the usual manner.

§ 82.8 Attorneys. Parties interested in any probate case before an Examiner may appear by attorney. Such attorney must meet the requirements of the Department for admission to practice.

In presenting their cases, attorneys appearing in probate matters will be required to adhere to the rules of evidence of the state in which the evidence is taken.

§ 82.10 Objections must be noted. Whenever objections shall be made by an attorney to a question or answer, the objections shall be noted on the record by the Examiner.

§ 82.11 Attorneys, arguments and briefs. Attorneys may appear before the Commissioner or the Secretary and submit written arguments or briefs on behalf of their clients. Written arguments or briefs must be filed within thirty (30) days following the conclusion of the hearing and copies must be served on opposing counsel or litigants. The latter will then be allowed not to exceed thirty (30) days in which to file a reply brief. Upon proper showing an extension may be allowed.

§ 82.12 Attendance of witnesses. Present at the hearing must be at least two disinterested witnesses, who are acquainted with, and have direct knowledge of the family history of decedent. By personal investigation prior to the hearings the Examiner should thoroughly acquaint himself with records and as far as practicable with the kind and value of the testimony which should be taken so that only material witnesses shall be summoned.

§ 82.13 Disinterested witnesses in minor's estate. In case the decedent is a minor, unmarried and without issue and the heirs are members of the immediate family of the decedent, the Examiner may, in his discretion, dispense with the presence of disinterested witnesses, provided the testimony of the interested witnesses is corroborated by the records of the Department and in such instance the Examiner shall include in the record his certificate to such effect, together with specific reference to the records or cases furnishing such corroboration.

§ 82.14 Hearing and testimony. The Examiner shall have full responsibility for the conduct of the hearing. The witnesses shall be examined on oath; their testimony shall be reduced to writing and signed at the end thereof. Any claimant may cross-examine a witness. If, in addition to oral testimony, affidavits or depositions are introduced, they must be read, and any opposing claimant may require the presence of the affiant, if practicable, either at that or a subsequent hearing, and opportunity shall be given for cross-examination or for having counter interrogatories answered. All statements, testimony and affidavits at the hearing must be made a part of the record.

§ 82.15 Limit number of witnesses. When the evidence is clear, in uncontested cases, the Examiner may, in his discretion, limit the number of witnesses who are formally examined. When the case is established beyond doubt and to the satisfaction of the Examiner, he may limit further testimony by securing a statement from additional witnesses present, that the testimony as given is fully understood by them and that the same is true.

§ 82.16 Witnesses' fees. Witnesses are expected to testify without compensation, but when necessary expenses must be paid by the party calling them. If the Examiner is satisfied that material evidence from disinterested persons should be procured, any expense thereof will be paid by the Superintendent from the funds of the party calling such witness. When interested parties are unable to obtain disinterested witnesses for lack of funds the Examiner may, in his discretion, allow the sum of $2.00 each to pay not to exceed two disinterested witnesses, and the Superintendent is authorized to pay said sums from the instant estate, immediately, if funds are available. On determination of the heirs or final action on the will, said sums will be charged against the person or persons in whose behalf said witnesses were called, unless such persons do not participate in the estate, in which event the charge will be made against the instant estate.

§ 82.17 Contents of record. The record must contain: (a) copy of public notices of hearing and notice to creditor claimants; (b) copy of notice to heir or heirs; (c) proof of service of notice; (d) testimony taken at hearing; (e) affidavits and depositions produced at hearing; (f) certified copies of marriage records and decrees of divorce, if filed; (g) all papers and memoranda of the hearing; (h) names of all persons in interest at the hearing; (i) statements of reasons for absence of interested parties, if obtainable; (j) certified copy of inventory; (k) the record must also be accompanied by a proper order for the signature of the Commissioner; (l) a duplicate record of the case shall be made and kept in the agency files to which there shall be attached a copy of the approved order or finding of the Commissioner; (m) in all cases in which the heirs of a decedent are to be determined, the Examiner shall include in his report, in the Summary of Report on Heirs, the citations to the sections of the laws under which the determination is made; (n) in reports on testacy cases, the original will executed by decedent, together with supporting affidavits and statements.

§ 82.18 Supplemental hearings. Supplemental hearings should be held on heirship cases returned by the Commissioner for further evidence on material questions of fact, upon such notice as will give parties in interest opportunity to appear; in no case shall such notice be less than five (5) days. This shall also apply to supplemental hearings held by the Examiner prior to the submission of the case to the Commissioner. This section does not apply to cases returned for clerical corrections or for additional data, which can be supplied from the records of the agency.

§ 82.19 Rehearings. Any aggrieved person claiming an interest in the trust or restricted property of an Indian, who has received notice of the hearing or who was present at the hearing, may file a petition for rehearing within sixty (60) days from the date of notice on him of the determination of heirs or action on a will. A petition so filed shall act as a supersedeas until otherwise directed by the Commissioner. Distribution of the estate may be made by the Superintendent after sixty (60) days have elapsed from the date of notice of the determination of heirs or action on the will unless a petition for rehearing is received within such period by the Superintendent or unless otherwise directed by the Commissioner.

Any such petition for rehearing must be under oath and must state concisely and specifically the grounds upon which it is based and must be accompanied by the sworn statements of at least two disinterested persons having knowledge of the facts. It should be addressed to the Commissioner and submitted through the Superintendent..

If proper grounds are not shown the rehearing will be denied by the Commissioner. If the petition for rehearing is found to have merit the petitioner may be required to serve a copy of his petition, together with all argument on the adverse party within fifteen (15) days. The adverse party will be allowed thirty (30) days thereafter in which to file his answer.

Thereafter the case will be again considered and appropriate action taken, which may consist either in adhering to the former decision or modifying or vacating same, or the making of any further or other order deemed warranted. Interested parties may, within sixty (60) days after the date of notice of the Commissioner's decision under this section file an appeal from that decision with the Secretary.

§ 82.20 Limitations on rehearing petitions. No decision of the Commissioner will be reconsidered on the petition of any person who had notice of the hearing or who was present at such hearing and received notice of the Commissioner's decision, unless such petition is filed within the sixty (60) day period mentioned in § 82.19 of this part.

§ 82.21 Reopenings. Petitions for reopening a determination of heirs or action on a will, will not be considered when three (3) years or longer have elapsed since the decision of the Commissioner. Within that period, but not thereafter, any person claiming an interest in the estate who had no notice of the original proceeding may petition for reopening of the case. Any such petition must be in writing addressed to the Commissioner and submitted through the Superintendent. All grounds for reopening must be set forth fully. If based on alleged errors of fact all such allegations must be under oath and must be accompanied by affidavits, or other supporting evidence. If proper grounds are not shown the petition may be denied by the Commissioner. If the petition appears to have merit the Commissioner shall cause service to be had on the adverse parties of all papers filed by the petitioner and an opportunity shall be afforded the adverse parties to answer the petition filed within thirty (30) days after notice from the Commissioner. Thereafter, all papers filed shall be submitted to the Commissioner for action either denying or granting a reopening with the right of an appeal to the Secretary within sixty (60) days after the date of notice of the Commissioner's decision.

§ 82.22 Procedure. After a reopening has been granted the matter will be referred by the Commissioner to the Superintendent for further proceedings as in an original case.

§ 82.23 Notice to creditors of estate. The notice mentioned in § 82.4 of this part shall also be directed "To all persons having claims or accounts against decedent" and when any such claims have been filed with the Superintendent prior to the date of hearing by the Examiner, and the claimant may be known, service of such notice of hearing shall be made upon such claimant by mail or otherwise in the discretion of the Examiner.

§ 82.24 Filing of claims. Persons having claims against the estates of deceased Indians may file same with the Superintendent at any time after the death of the decedent and up to the time of hearing by the Examiner. Except for very cogent reasons no claim will be given consideration if filed after the date of such hearing.

§ 82.25 Statute of limitations. Claims against estates of deceased Indians that are barred by the state statute of limitations will not be allowed in any case.

§ 82.26 Affidavit to claims. All claims against the estates of deceased Indians must be filed in triplicate and must be itemized and all dates given. Such claims must be supported by affidavit of the claimant or someone in his behalf, that the amount is justly due from the decedent; that all payments credited thereon were in fact made; and that there are no offsets to the same to the knowledge of the affiant.

§ 82.27 Appearance at hearings. Any person who has filed a claim against the estate of a deceased Indian must present himself for examination thereon if so directed by the Examiner either at the hearing or at a supplemental hearing for this purpose.

§ 82.28 Claims, when allowed. The following types of claims against the estates of deceased restricted Indians may be allowed: (1) those based on a debt contracted by the decedent and authorized during his lifetime by the Superintendent; (2) those for last illness or funeral expenses in reasonable amounts, but in no event will funeral expenses be allowed in excess of $100.00 unless previously authorized by the Superintendent; (3) those of exceptional merit which are not otherwise barred and which have been approved by the Superintendent or other officer in charge.

§ 82.29 Attorney fees. Any attorney claiming a fee against an Indian or an Indian estate for services rendered as such in any probate proceedings shall be entitled to such compensation as his services are reasonably worth, the amount thereof to be fixed by the Commissioner.

§ 82.30 Wills. In the event of the death of a restricted Indian leaving a will disposing of his restricted estate consisting only of funds or securities under the control of the Department not exceeding an aggregate value of $2,500, a hearing shall be held after notice in accordance with applicable provisions of this part covering similar property of an Indian who died intestate. The Examiner shall inquire fully into the mental competency of the Indian; the circumstances attending the execution of the will; the influences which induced its execution; and the names of those entitled to share in the estate under the applicable law of descent. When the distribution proposed by the will is contrary to the applicable laws of descent, and the estate is disposed of in whole or in part to a person or persons who would not otherwise inherit, the best available evidence should be obtained as to the reasons for such action. Should the will be approved by the Commissioner, an order will be issued to that effect to the Superintendent and distribution of the estate shall be effected after the period prescribed in § 82.19 has elapsed, in accordance with the terms of the will and the Commissioner's order. Should the will be disapproved, the order of the Commissioner will so state and the heirs shall be determined and the estate distributed as in the case of other intestate property dealt with in this part. An appeal may be taken to the Secretary within sixty (60) days from the date of notice of approval or disapproval of the will.

§ 82.31 Rights of executors and administrators. Executors or administrators shall not be recognized in any proceedings conducted under the regulations of this part.

§ 82.32 Probate fees. Prior to distribution of the estate to the individuals found entitled thereto, the Superintendent will collect out of the funds or other property involved and pay into the Treasury of the United States a fee of $20.00 in those cases where the value of the estate is $250.00 or more but does not exceed $1,000.00; a fee of $25.00 where the value of the estate is more than $1,000.00 but less than $2,000.00; and a fee of $30.00 where the value of the estate is $2,000.00 or more.

§ 907.1 General policy—(a) Objectives. The purpose of an employment stabilization program is to assist the War Manpower Commission in bringing about, by measures equitable to labor and management, and necessary for the effective prosecution of the war:

(1) The elimination of wasteful labor turnover in essential activities.

(2) The reduction of unnecessary labor migration.

(3) The direction of the flow of scarce labor where most needed in the war program.

(4) The maximum utilization of manpower resources.

(b) Authority and responsibilities of management-labor committees. The several Regional and Area Management-Labor War Manpower Committees are hereby authorized to consider questions of policy, standards, and safeguards, in connection with the establishment and the administration of employment stabilization programs, and to make recommendations to their respective Manpower Directors.

(c) Encouragement of local initiative and use of existing hiring channels. To the maximum degree consistent with this regulation and with the objectives of employment stabilization programs, local initiative and cooperative efforts shall be encouraged and utilized and maximum use made of existing hiring channels such as private employers, labor organizations, professional organizations, schools, colleges, technical institutions and government agencies.

(d) Special authorization to designated government agencies. The Chairman of the War Manpower Commission may authorize designated government agencies to perform some or all of the functions of the United States Employment Service under this regulation in accordance with such conditions and procedures as he may prescribe.

§ 907.2 Control of hiring and solicitation of workers—(a) After establishment of employment stabilization program. All hiring and solicitation of workers in, or for work in, any locality for which a War Manpower Commission employment stabilization program has been established shall be conducted in accordance with such program.

(b) Pending establishment of employment stabilization program. All hiring and solicitation of workers in, or for work in, a locality for which no War Manpower Commission employment stabilization program has been established shall, pending the establishment of such a program, be conducted in accordance with paragraphs (a) to (l), inclusive, of § 907.4 of this regulation which paragraphs shall be considered an employment stabilization program for this purpose.

§ 907.3 Establishment and approval of programs — (a) General. Employment stabilization programs shall be formulated by Area or Regional Manpower Directors after consultation with their Management-Labor War Manpower Committees, but shall not become or continue operative except as provided in this section.

(b) Area programs. Area employment stabilization programs may be established for any War Manpower Commission administrative area designated by a Regional Manpower Director for employment stabilization purposes.

(c) Other programs. Employment stabilization programs shall be established not later than October 15, 1943, for all portions of states or regions for which no area employment stabilization program has been established.

(e) Existing programs. All employment stabilization programs in effect on the effective date of this regulation shall be promptly amended by the appropriate Manpower Director, after consultation with his Management-Labor War Manpower Committee, so as to include therein the provisions set forth in § 907.4 of this regulation, and otherwise to conform to this regulation. The program thus amended shall be submitted to the Regional Manpower Director for his approval. Any existing programs not so amended and approved by October 15, 1943, shall cease to have operative effect on and after such date.

(f) Termination of industry programs. No War Manpower Commission industry employment stabilization program shall be established after the effective date of this regulation. § 907.4 Minimum standards in general. Except as provided in § 907.5 (a) (5), every employment stabilization program approved after the effective date of this regulation shall contain the following provisions:

(a) General. A new employee, who during the preceding 60-day period was engaged in an essential or locally needed activity, may be hired only if such hiring would aid in the effective prosecution of the war. Such hiring shall be deemed to aid in the effective prosecution of the war only if:

(1) Such individual is hired for work in an essential or locally needed activity or for work to which he has been referred by the United States Employment Service, and

(2) Such individual presents a statement of availability from his last employment in an essential or locally needed activity, or is referred by the United States Employment Service of the War Manpower Commission, or is hired with its consent, as provided herein.

(b) Issuance of statements of availability by employers. An individual whose last employment is or was in an essential or locally needed activity shall receive a statement of availability from his employer if:

(1) He has been discharged, or his employment has been otherwise terminated by his employer, or

(2) He has been laid off for an indefinite period, or for a period of seven or more days, or

(3) Continuance of his employment would involve undue personal hardship, or

(4) Such employment is or was at a wage or salary or under working conditions below standards established by state or federal law or regulation, or

(5) Such employment is or was at a wage or salary below a level established or approved by the National War Labor Board (or other agency authorized to adjust wages or approve adjustments thereof) as warranting adjustment, and the employer has failed to adjust the wage in accordance with such level or to apply to the appropriate agency for such adjustment or approval thereof.

(c) Issuance of statements of availability by United States Employment Service. (1) A statement of availability shall be issued promptly to an individual when any of the circumstances set forth in paragraph (b) is found to exist in his case. If the employer fails or refuses to issue a statement, the United States Employment Service of the War Manpower Commission, upon finding that the individual is entitled thereto, shall issue a statement of availability to the individual.

(2) A statement of availability shall be issued by the United States Employment Service to any individual in the employ of an employer who the War Manpower Commission finds, after notice, hearing and final decision, has not complied with any War Manpower Commission employment stabilization program, regulation or policy, and for so long as such employer continues his non-compliance after such finding.

(d) Referral in case of under-utilization. If an individual is employed at less than full time or at a job which does not utilize his highest recognized skill for which there is a need in the war effort, the United States Employment Service may, upon his request, refer him to other available employment in which it finds that the individual will be more fully utilized in the war effort.

(e) Workers who may be hired only upon referral by the United States Employment Service. A new employee may not be hired solely upon presentation of a statement of availability, but may be hired only upon referral by, or in accordance with arrangements with, the United States Employment Service when:

(1) The new employee is to be hired for work in a critical occupation, or his statement of availability indicates that his last employment was in a critical occupation.

(2) The new employee has not lived or worked in the locality of the new employment throughout the preceding 30-day period.

(3) The new employee's last regular employment was in agriculture and he is to be hired for non-agricultural work provided that no such individual shall be referred to non-agricultural work except after consultation with a designated representative of the War Food Administration, and provided that such an individual may be hired for non-agricultural work for a period not to exceed six weeks without referral or presentation of a statement of availability.

(f) Exclusions. No provision of the employment stabilization program shall be applicable to:

(1) The hiring of a new employee for agricultural employment;

(2) The hiring of a new employee for work of less than seven days' duration, or for work which is supplementary to the employee's principal work; but such work shall not constitute the individual's "last employment" for the purposes of the program, unless the employee is customarily engaged in work of less than seven days' duration;

(3) The hiring of an employee in any Territory or possession of the United States, except Alaska and Hawaii;

(4) The hiring by a foreign, state, county, or municipal government, or their political subdivisions, or their agencies and instrumentalities, or to the hiring of any of their employees, unless such foreign, state, county, or municipal government, or political subdivision or agency or instrumentality has indicated its willingness to conform, to the maximum extent practicable under the Constitution and laws applicable to it, with the program;

(5) The hiring of a new employee for domestic service, or to the hiring of a new employee whose last regular employment was in domestic service;

(6) The hiring of a school teacher for vacation employment or the rehiring of a school teacher for teaching at the termination of the vacation period.

(g) Appeals. Any worker or employer may appeal from any act or failure to act by the War Manpower Commission under the employment stabilization program, in accordance with regulations and procedures of the War Manpower Commission.

(h) Content of statements of availability. A statement of availability issued to an individual pursuant to the program shall contain only the individual's name, address, social security account number, if any, the name and address of the issuing employer, or War Manpower Commission officer and office, the date of issuance, a statement as to whether or not the individual's last employment was in a critical occupation, and such other information not prejudicial to the employee in seeking new employment as may be authorized or required by the War Manpower Commission.

(i) Solicitation of workers. No employer shall advertise or otherwise solicit for the purpose of hiring any individual if the hiring of such an individual would be subject to restrictions under the employment stabilization program, except in a manner consistent with such restrictions.

(j) Hiring. The decision to hire or refer a worker shall be based on qualifications essential for performance of or suitability for the job, and shall be made without discrimination as to race, color, creed, sex, national origin, or except as required by law, citizenship.

(k) Representation. Nothing contained in the program shall be construed to restrict any individual from seeking the advice and aid of, or from being represented by, the labor organization of which he is a member or any other representative freely chosen by him, at any step in the operation of the program.

(l) General referral policies. No provision in the program shall limit the authority of the United States Employment Service to make referrals in accordance with approved policies and instructions of the War Manpower Commission.

§ 907.5 Optional provisions. Regional and Area Manpower Directors, after consultation with their Management-Labor War Manpower Committees, may include in employment stabilization programs provisions such as the following designed to meet special manpower needs in the localities affected, but, except as authorized in § 907.5 (a) (5), no such provision shall conflict with § 907.4 of this regulation or with any state or federal law:

(a) Subject to standards and instructions approved by the Chairman of the War Manpower Commission, provision for adding to § 907.4 (e) of this regulation the following categories of individuals who must be hired only upon referral by, or in accordance with arrangements with, the United States Employment Service:

(2) Individuals for work in specified shortage occupations (in addition to critical occupations), or

(3) Individuals whose statements of availability indicate that they were most recently employed in such occupations, or

(4) Individuals who can be readily identified as able to meet specifications required for work in such occupations or activities; a program containing such a provision may apply only to a labor market area which, on the date of the approval of the program, was classified by the War Manpower Commission as a "Group I," or "Group II," area, or

(5) All individuals. A program containing such a provision may apply only to a labor market area which, on the date of the approval of the program, was classified by the War Manpower Commission as a "Group I," or "Group II," area. Such a program, may, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this regulation, include necessary modifications of § 907.4.

(b) Provisions designed to protect individuals from loss of seniority or other reemployment rights.

(c) Provisions designed to require or promote more effective utilization of their manpower by employers.

(d) Provisions designed further to control advertising or other solicitation of individuals.

(e) Provisions designed to afford individuals a greater measure of protection against arbitrary discharge.

(f) Provisions designed to facilitate the employment of individuals during vacation, probationary, off-season, or other short periods in work other than that in which they have customarily engaged, and to facilitate the return of such persons to their customary employment.

(g) Provisions governing the release of individuals by employers by whom they were hired or solicited in violation of an employment stabilization program and other provisions pertaining to the enforcement of a program.

(h) Provisions designed to minimize loss of working time of applicants for statement of availability or referral.

(i) Provisions designed to permit the hiring of an individual by, or of an individual whose last regular employment was with, a small establishment without regard to the requirements of the program, except that no establishment regularly employing more than eight employees shall be treated as a small establishment for the purpose of this paragraph.

§ 907.6 Definitions. As used in this regulation:

(a) "Agriculture" means those farm activities carried on by farm owners or tenants on farms in connection with the cultivation of the soil, the harvesting of crops, or the raising, feeding, or management of livestock, bees, and poultry, and shall not include any packing, canning, processing, transportation or marketing of articles produced on farms unless performed or carried on as an incident to ordinary farming operations as distinguished from manufacturing or commercial operations.

TITLE 30—MINERAL RESOURCES

Chapter III—Bituminous Coal Division

[Docket No. A-425]

PART 322—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 2

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER

Memorandum opinion and order of the Director in the matter of the petition of Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 2, for the revision of effective classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines of District No. 2, in Size Groups 14, 15 and 16, for shipment in all market areas, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

This proceeding was instituted upon a petition filed November 28, 1940, with the Bituminous Coal Division by District Board 2, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, requesting a revision in the price classifications and minimum prices for rail shipment, of the coals in Size Groups 14, 15, and 16, inclusive, produced by certain mines in District 2 for byproduct use.

Pursuant to appropriate order, and after due notice to interested persons, a hearing in this matter was held on January 24, 1941, before Floyd McGown, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof in Washington, D. C.[1] Interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses, and otherwise be heard. District Board 2 and the Office of the General Counsel of the Division appeared by representatives. All parties waived the preparation and filing of a report by the Examiner, and the matter was thereupon submitted to me.

District Board 2, by its petition, requests that the price classifications for by-product use of the coals produced by certain mines in Subdistrict 9 (Youghiogheny-Westmoreland) of District 2, viz., Mine Index Nos. 80, 35, 170, 66, 49, 63, 62, 166, 212, 5, 50, 95, 1, 14, 64, 65, 132 and 135, in Size Group 14 and Mine Index No. 275 in Size Groups 14 15 and 16, should be revised to equal the price classifications of comparable and competitive coals in the lump, double-screened and mine run sizes produced in District 2. It is alleged that the coals of the above-named mines in the lump and double-screened sizes are superior in quality to the coals in the mine run size and that these coals in the lump and double-screened sizes have more value for by-product use than the coals in the mine run size.

Francis Y. Casey, Vice-Chairman of District Board 2 and a member of its Marketing and Classification Committee, testified that when District Board 2 first proposed classifications for coals produced in the Youghiogheny-Westmoreland district, the District Board classified by-product coals on the basis of the sizes that were normally and ordinarily shipped for this use. Some code members were shipping lump and double-screened coal and others, mine run for by-product use, and on the basis of the size shipped, the District Board proposed price classifications, which were thereafter established by the Division. Since that time the District Board has ascertained that the mines involved herein, which were assigned classifications on the basis of the mine run size, were shipping lump and double-screened coals for by-product use. According to the witness, the coals in the Youghiogheny-Westmoreland district generally decrease in quality as their size is reduced and in turn, improve as their size increases, and these coals in the lump and double-screened size show marked improvement in analysis and quality over the mine run coals. In view of this situation, the District Board was impelled in fairness to code members shipping coal for by-product use to propose reclassification of Size Group 14 coals produced by the mines here involved in order to give appropriate effect to the better grade of coal which would be shipped by these mines in this size group for by-product use.

There is one exception to the District Board proposal. The Wallace Mine (Mine Index No. 275), of The Youghiogheny & Ohio Coal Company, it was ascertained by the District Board subsequent to the commencement of the operation of this mine, produces in the mine run and minus resultant sizes a grade of coal inferior in quality to that of base mines in the district. This mine was classified, prior to the commencement of its operations, upon the basis of the classifications of standard coals produced in the Youghiogheny-Westmoreland subdistrict. The witness Casey stated that this mine is a rail mine and that its coal runs higher in moisture. For this reason the District Board's petition requested price classifications in Size Groups 15 and 16 lower than those originally proposed and subsequently established by the Division for this mine.

In the opinion of the witness Casey, the proposed reclassification will reflect more adequately the relative market value of the various by-product coals produced in the Youghiogheny-Westmoreland subdistrict of District 2 and will maintain for the producers of this coal their fair competitive opportunities. Moreover, it appears from the record that since the granting of the temporary relief on December 31, 1941, no complaint has been made by District 2 producers.

I find, therefore, that the price classifications and minimum prices of the coals[2] in Size Group 14 of Mine Index Nos. 80, 35, 170, 66, 49, 63, 62, 166, 212, 5, 50, 95, 1, 14, 64, 65, 132, and 135, and in Size Groups 14, 15 and 16 of Mine Index No. 275, all of which mines are in Subdistrict 9 (Youghiogheny-Westmoreland) of District 2, should be revised as requested in the petition, in order that their market value may be reflected and their fair competitive opportunities preserved as nearly as possible with relation to comparable and competitive coals produced in District 2 for by-product use. I find further that such reclassification complies with the standards set forth in sections 4 II (a) and (b) of the Act, and is necessary to effectuate the purposes thereof.

For the foregoing reasons, upon the basis of the entire record in this proceeding, and pursuant to section 4 II (d) and other provisions of the Act.

It is hereby ordered, That effective as of the date hereof, § 322.7 (Alphabetical list of code members) is amended by revising the price classifications of the mines, herein below set forth, as follows:

[1] Pursuant to due notice to District Board 2, the Consumers' Counsel Division (now Bituminous Coal Consumers' Counsel) and the Statistical Bureaus for Districts 1, 2, 3, 7, 8 and 9, an informal conference was held on December 13, 1940, in Washington, D. C., at which District Boards 1 and 2 and a representative of the Office of the General Counsel of the Division appeared. On December 31, 1940, the Director granted temporary relief as requested in the petition upon the showing of necessity therefor made at this conference.

[Docket No. A-721 Part II]

PART 323—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 3

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER

Memorandum opinion and order of the director in the matter of the petition of District Board 3 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of Mine Index No. 1193 of District No. 3, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

This proceeding was instituted upon a petition filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on March 3, 1941, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, by District Board 3, petitioner. The original petition, designated Docket A-721, requested the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District 3, not theretofore classified and priced, including the Duffey Mine (Mine Index No. 1193) of A. B. Holcomb, in Nicholas County, West Virginia, in District 3.

On March 25, 1941, an order was entered in Docket No. A-721 (6 F.R. 1887) granting temporary and conditionally final relief as requested in the petition for the mines involved, including the Duffey Mine, and providing further that applications to stay, terminate, or modify the temporary relief, or pleadings in opposition to the final relief requested in the original petition may be filed within forty-five (45) days from the date thereof and that such relief shall become permanent sixty (60) days from the date thereof, unless otherwise ordered.

On May 8, 1941 Eugene L. Campbell, and other code members operating truck mines in District 3, herein referred to as interveners,[1] filed a joint petition of intervention[2] in Docket No. A-721 objecting to the temporary prices assigned the Duffey Mine in Size Groups 2, 5 and 7 and requesting that these prices be increased 10 cents, 20 cents, and 20 cents[3] per net ton f. o. b. the mine, respectively.

Thereafter, on September 6, 1941 an order was entered (6 F.R. 4641) severing that portion of Docket No. A-721 relating to the Duffey Mine, designating the same Docket No. A-721, Part II, reopening the proceeding herein, directing that a hearing be held with respect to the revision of the minimum prices granted the Duffey Mine by the order, dated March 25, 1941, and continuing these prices in effect, pending further proceedings herein.
